CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

THE CONVERSION OF S. PAUL is Saturday of this week and an important day for several reasons. First, it is the feast of the great Apostle to the Gentiles who is the author of most of the epistles in the New Testament,—a saint worthy of our high veneration. Second, it is the concluding day of the Octave of Unity when the intention is for the Missionary Conquest of the World for Christ,—the intention for which S. Paul prayed and labored. Third, Saturday is our parish-day in the ACU Cycle of Prayer. The CYCLE OF PRAYER is a continuous work of prayer and intercession for the conversion of America and the world to Christ and for the spread of the Catholic Faith. It is the much needed intercessory support of the entire ACU program. The three emphases of the day dove-tail and overlap; it should be an occasion of fervent prayer by all parishioners for the whole Catholic Church and that all people everywhere will lovingly embrace the Body of Christ and accept her spiritual authority and her sacramental ministrations. There will be three Low Masses,—at 7, 8 and 9:30,—with the expectation that many parishioners will assist at them. The specific intentions of the Masses will be: at 7,—for the Octave of Unity (the conquest of the world for Christ); at 8, for the Cycle of Prayer (the conversion of America and the world to the Catholic Faith); at 9:30 for S. Clement's Parish,—that it will lead more and more souls to the acceptance and practice of the Catholic Faith.

THE CYCLE OF PRAYER devotions will be used on Friday evening at the 8 o'clock service, and the suggested intercessions will be in the pews for Mass attendants on Saturday. Those who cannot be at Mass on Saturday are asked to visit the Church for intercession during the day, or at least to pray the intentions at home. Alms received on Friday night and at Saturday Masses will be given to the ACU for the work of the Cycle of Prayer Committee.

THE FATHER RECTOR will preach Wednesday night at the consecration of S. Mary's Church, Pittsburgh. The nave and sanctuary of this Catholic establishment have been completely renovated. The Rt. Rev. Austin Pardue, Bishop of Pittsburgh, will consecrate the building. A good friend of this parish, the Rev. Robert L. Zell, is the Vicar.

IT IS WITH DEEP GRATITUDE to God that good news is passed on to you regarding some financial matters. The Christmas Offering has exceeded $2,000, a figure which was wished but not expected. The Bazaar, thus far, has given to the Missionary Quota $900, an increase of $100 over last year's profit. There is a good balance to launch next year's Bazaar and as the sale of calendars and note-paper continues the increase over the 1956 Bazaar probably will be better than $200. A third item, new to this parish, is the establishment by a good friend of S. Clement's of S. Anthony's Bread, a fund for giving meal tickets to the many poor people who come to the door asking for food. The generous friend sends a monthly check for this purpose, but others who wish to support it are welcome to do so by making checks payable to S. Clement's Rector's Fund. These all are matters for which our members should be thankful. The parish ended 1957 in reasonable solvency and when pledges for last year are paid up the treasury will be in healthy condition. Details of the parish receipts and disbursements will be given at the annual meeting in March.

A WEEK FROM TODAY is Theological Education Sunday. Literature regarding Nashotah House and offering envelopes will be mailed to parishioners. It is hoped S. Clement's will continue to be generous in supporting this seminary.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

A WEEK FROM TO-DAY Septuagesima and Candlemas occur together. Preceding the Solemn Mass the Blessing of Candles and the Procession will take place at 11. The Feast of the Purification of Our Lady is transferred to Monday when there will be three Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9:30. S. Blaise will be commemorated on Monday and after each Mass will be the Blessing of Throats and at 12:15 a priest will be in the Church to bless throats of those unable to attend Mass that day at S. Clement's. The set of handsome violet vestments, given to the Parish a year ago, will be used on the three Sundays of "Little Lent."

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet at S. Clement's on Tuesday evening. Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be at 8 o'clock, followed by the meeting in the Parish Hall. The program will be the first of a series of five addresses by the Rev. Father John Schultz on "The Laymen's Mission in the Church." Father Schultz, Rector of Trinity Church, Ambler, some years ago was a Curate at S. Clement's and has many friends in the Parish. Ladies are invited to attend this meeting and it is hoped that many of our men and women will be present Tuesday evening. Men of the Parish who are not members of the Laymen's Union are invited to attend Tuesday evening.

THE VESTRY, at its meeting of January 14th, heard a favorable summary of the condition of the Parish based on the treasurer's report for 1957. Parishioners will be thankful that the full Missionary Quota of $5500 was paid, and that the Parish has pledged itself to pay this same amount in 1958. Support of the missionary program of the Church is a solemn obligation of every congregation, and Catholics should be especially zealous in working and giving for the spread of the Faith. Father Williams' excellent address and beautiful slides of the work of the Church in Japan gave strength to the conviction that our missionary dollars accomplish a good work for Our Lord and His Church. The Vestry as well as your Rector is gratified at the substantial increase in pledged support of the Parish in 1957 over that of 1956. The record for 1957 is good, but it is far from what it can be this year. The pledgers who have unpaid balances for 1957 are asked to remit them if possible, and also, if they feel they cannot continue the same pledge for 1958 to give notice of a reduction. Further, the many members of the congregation who are not presently pledging any support of the Parish are asked to make pledges. They may be small ones; the total of several small pledges is great help and every Churchman should assume responsibility for maintaining the Parish in which they have the rights of the Sacraments and the ministrations of the priests.

Parish Notes

TO-DAY IS THE CONCURRENCE of Candlemas with Septuagesima. At the Solemn Mass the congregation will go to the altar rail to receive their blessed candles, and during the procession they will hold their candles lighted. Inasmuch as the Mass is not that of Purification, the candles will not be held during the Gospel and the Canon as is usual when Candlemas is on that feast. Candlemas so seldom falls on Sunday that we are thankful to have the ceremony to-day and at a Mass when a large part of the parish is present.

THE PURIFICATION OF THE B.V.M. is transferred this year and will be celebrated to-morrow. There will be three Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9:30.

FATHER DUCKER today will give the first in a series of three sermons. The three "gesima" Sundays are a time of preparation for Lent and the parishioners are asked now to pray and plan for their Lenten rule.

FATHER JOINER has sent word of his deep gratitude to many members of S. Clement's for their greeting cards at Christmas. Apparently he looks again and again at the cards and derives great joy in recalling the senders. He has asked that his appreciation be expressed, and we are more than happy to relay his message.

ON TUESDAY OF THIS WEEK your Father Rector will fly to Nassau where he will be the guest of the Rt. Rev. Spence Burton, D.D., S.S.J.E., Lord Bishop of Nassau. After ten days of vacation he will return to Philadelphia on the 13th, better prepared to undertake the duties of Lent.

HERE IS ADVANCE NOTICE of two interesting but very different events. On Thursday evening, February 13th, the parish will sponsor a concert by Charles Brennand, violoncellist with the Philadelphia Orchestra, Doris Coleman, pianist and Norman Sill. Mr. Brennand, Mrs. Coleman and Mr. Sill, our choirmaster and organist, were class-mates at Oberlin College. The concert will be in the Parish Hall and will be given for the benefit of a fund to provide a tape-recorder for the choir. Tickets will be sold. Save the date, and invite your music-loving friends. The other event will be a Pan-cake Supper on the night of Shrove Tuesday, February 18th. Parishioners and their friends will be welcome and a free-will offering will be received to cover the cost of food. This will be the Parish's observance of Mardi-Gras and it is hoped many will attend and help make it an enjoyable, social evening.

Parish Notes

THE OBERLIN CONCERT will be given on Thursday evening at 8:30 in the Parish Hall. The program will be played by Charles Brennand, violoncellist with the Philadelphia Orchestra; Doris Coleman, pianist, and Norman Sill. These three artists were classmates at Oberlin College and all are giving their talents in this concert for the benefit of S. Clement's Church. The profits will be used for the purchase of a tape-recorder for the choir. Tickets will be sold for a donation of $1.00. A coffee hour will follow the musical program. It is expected that many visitors interested in music and in Oberlin College will attend, and it is hoped parishioners will give their support to the project.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY will have a business meeting at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon in S. John's Sacristy. Plans will be made for the Shrove-Tuesday supper.

THE PAN-CAKE SUPPER for the parish and friends will be held on Shrove-Tuesday, February 18th, starting at six o'clock. Following the supper, Mr. Tom Clark will show colored slides of Williamsburg. A free-will offering will be taken. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Cooper, the chairman, or with the Sisters.

A PRE-LENTEN QUIET DAY will be given at S. Mark's Church on Saturday of this week. It is for the men and women of that parish and an invitation graciously has been extended to all interested persons. The conductor will be the Very Rev. C. Patrick Hankey, Dean of Ely Cathedral, England. Dean Hankey is in this country to give a course in Ascetic Theology at the General Seminary; his Quiet Day is a rare opportunity for Churchmen of this area. The time is 9:30 to 3. Those wishing luncheon make reservations with S. Mark's Parish Office, PE 5-1416.

ABOUT TEN DAYS AGO the Father Rector was very pleased to receive a letter from the Father Rector-Emeritus, written by himself. He expressed keen interest in S. Christopher's Doorway and gratitude for colorful ornamentation of the west wall. In writing of the doorway and the present Rector, Father Joiner's most encouraging words are these: "I look forward eagerly to the day when I can walk through it with you." His address until further notice is: Hotel des Trois-Couronnes, Vevey, Switzerland.

ONLY TEN DAYS TO THE BEGINNING OF LENT! Have you given consideration to the keeping of this holy season. When once they start, the six weeks pass very quickly and holy wisdom says to pray and plan in advance in order to be prepared with a balanced rule of "givings-up" and "takings-on."

SCYO will have its Mardi-Gras in the Parish Hall a week from this evening. It will be a costume-dance for the young people and their friends. This evening the JUNIOR SCYO will meet in the Parish Hall at 5:30 for a business and social program.

LAST SUNDAY the Father Rector was presented with an envelope of currency from "Your Friends" to be used to replace his damaged purple cincture and also to provide a treat on his vacation. In preparing to take to the air, he hastened to send those unnumbered friends deep gratitude for the thoughtfulness and generosity.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

BY THIS DATE all parishioners should have received the program for Lent, the self-denial offering envelope and the letter. Except for a few changes in Holy Week, which are explained in the letter, the schedule will be the same as last year. Please take note of the 12:10 Mass on each Wednesday and help to publicize it. It is intended for people working in this neighborhood and the help of Clementines is needed in order to make it known to those who are not parishioners. Blessed ashes will be imposed at each Mass and after the evening service on Ash-Wednesday.

A GENEROUS AMOUNT of time has been designated for hearing confessions on the next four days. Lent is primarily a call to fast and repent for the spiritual strengthening of souls, and the season should be begun and ended with sacramental confession. This is a sacrament of God's great mercy and love; He fully understands the weakness of human nature and rejoices over every repentant sinner and willingly grants His gift of absolution to those who kneel before Him in the tribunal of reconciliation. It is hoped all parishioners will make a good beginning of Lent and persevere in a prayerful life of self-discipline during the holy season.

SHROVE-TUESDAY is a day not only to go to shrift: it also is Mardi-Gras, a day for festivity before the long fast. S. Clement's festivity will be a Pan-Cake Supper, starting at 6 o'clock, and a program of colored slides by Mr. Tom Clark. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Cooper or the Sisters. There is not a set price; an as-you-wish collection will be taken, the profits given to the Womans' Auxiliary.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of S. Clement's Parish will be held on Monday evening, March 3rd, at 8 o'clock in the Parish Hall. The Accounting Warden will make a financial report for 1957 and speak of the budget for 1958 as adopted by the Vestry. Other organizations will report, four Vestrymen will be elected for a three-year term, and the floor will be open for discussion on any matters of parochial interest. This is the first official notice.

SCYO will have a party this evening in honor of Mardi-Gras. It will be a costume-dance and the young people of the parish have invited friends to join them in this pre-Lent festival.

S. VINCENT'S GUILD will be entertained at supper in the Clergy House a week from this evening. The Rev. Father Harry S. Ruth, Rector of S. Barnabas Church, Burlington, will be a guest and address our acolytes.

Parish Notes

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet on Tuesday night at S. Mark's Church on Locust Street, starting at 8 o'clock in the Church. The Rev. John A. Schultz, Rector of Trinity Church, Ambler, will continue his series of addresses on "The Laymen's Mission in the Church." Father Schultz very ably gave his first address in the series last month at S. Clement's and those who heard it will wish to hear the others. At the January meeting the President made an appeal to the members to attend all meetings,—not only those held in their own parishes. It is hoped the men of S. Clement's will respond to this call and give their support to this and subsequent meetings. It is valuable for Catholic laymen to associate with each other and realize the strong bond by which they are held together.

THE LENTEN EMBER DAYS are Wednesday, Friday and Saturday when we not only fast and abstain from meat, but also offer prayers for the young men who are studying for Holy Orders and those about to be ordained. It is fitting for Clementines to offer intercessions for the students who are being assisted in their schooling by the Yarnall Education Fund. This is a good work on behalf of aspirants for the ministry, provided by a generous benefactor of the parish.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of S. Clement's Parish will be held at 8 o'clock on Monday evening, March 3rd, in the Parish Hall. All may attend; those who regularly worship at S. Clement's and contribute to its support may cast votes. Nominations for four vestrymen are in order; nominations must be made in writing to the Secretary, Dr. Lukens, before the meeting opens. The Vestrymen whose terms expire at this meeting are: Lt. Gen. Baker, Mr. Cury, Mr. Kremer and Mr. Sellers. This is the second official notice.

S. VINCENT'S GUILD will be entertained at a buffet supper this evening at 6 o'clock at the Clergy House. The Rev. Father Ruth of Burlington will be a guest and speak to the acolytes.

THESE NOTES are being written three weeks in advance (B.N.—before Nassau) and anticipated news is sparse.

Parish Notes

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING will be held tomorrow evening in the Parish Hall at 8. Reports will be given by the Accounting Warden, and the heads of the various organizations and there will be election of four Vestrymen. These will be followed by discussion of any matters pertinent to S. Clement's Church which the parishioners wish to introduce. It is our only meeting of this type and important for all interested parishioners to attend.

THE VERY REV. C. PATRICK HANKEY, Dean of Ely Cathedral, England, will address the Department of Prayer and Worship of the Woman's Auxiliary at the Church House, Rittenhouse Square, on Wednesday morning at 10:30. His subject will be "The Art of the Interior Life." The women of the diocese are invited to attend. Dean Hankey is a priest of unusual talents as a spiritual director and the women of S. Clement's are encouraged to take advantage of this rare opportunity. The Department of Prayer and Worship is a diocesan activity that bids greater participation by the women of our parish not only for what they will gain but also for the contribution they can make in the discussions and in their visiting with those from other parishes. Your Father Rector urges the women of S. Clement's to attend all of the meetings of this group.

THE REVEREND FATHER DUCKER will preach at a Lenten service at the Church of the Resurrection in Baltimore on Tuesday night. Father Ducker's engagements during this season include a weekly School of Religion at S. Mary's Church, Wayne, and the offering of the 12:10 Mass on each Thursday at S. Mark's Church. He and the Reverend Father Davis on successive Tuesday evenings will preach at S. George's Church.

A QUIET EVENING FOR MEN will be held on Saturday from five to nine. The Reverend Father Rector will be the conductor. Reservations for dinner should be made with the Sisters.

A NOTE REGARDING PRAYER-BOOKS AND HYMNALS: a complete supply of these books was given to S. Clement's within the last two years. They are property of the parish which should be treated with respect. Please do not place the open books in the racks. Placing open books in the racks often musses or tears pages and even breaks the binding. The books will last for many years if everyone will handle them with care.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

THE VESTRY, with its newly elected members, will meet at 4:30 on Tuesday at the Clergy House.

THE REVEREND FATHER JOHN A. SCHULTZ, Rector of Trinity Church, Ambler, will give an address in the Parish Hall on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. His subject is "The Unity We Seek" and will cover the Church of South India and the Episcopal Church's relationship with that group which the General Convention will consider and clarify by vote at its meeting in October. This is an issue on which all Churchmen should be informed; it is of vital interest and Clementines should know the implications of the proposed action. Father Schultz has made a long and detailed study of the subject and is eminently able to explain it and lead a discussion. The resolutions to be presented to General Convention have been published; thus we now know what risks to our continued Catholic life are involved. All members of the parish are urged to attend and bring with them friends from other parishes. This is a missionary opportunity for the welfare of the whole Church. The Woman's Auxiliary, sponsoring the meeting, invites all who wish to hear Father Schultz.

THE FATHER RECTOR will preach this evening at S. Paul's Church, Staten Island. That parish is celebrating its 125th anniversary this year and the function this evening is in honor of the refurbishing of the nave and sanctuary. Tomorrow he will attend a meeting of the Planning and Policy Committee of the A.C.U. in New York when the resolutions regarding the Church of South India will be thoroughly discussed.

ON MID-LENT SUNDAY, one week from today, the Annual Retreat for women will be given. It starts with Low Mass at 8 and concludes with Benediction at 4. Addresses will be given at 9:50, 2 and 3:30. Those who are unable to attend the first Mass may begin their retreat with the 9:50 session, but they are asked to be prompt so that doors to the chapel may be closed and interruptions thus avoided. Parishioners who are not retreatants are asked to be quiet in the corridors so that the spirit of the day will not be marred. Reservations for breakfast and dinner should be made with the Sisters.

FOLLOWING THE NEARY COMPLETE squelching of observance of Shrove Tuesday and Ash Wednesday by the blizzard the recovery of a normal Lent has been gratifying. Many postponed confessions have been made, but the total is still lacking the usual number. As Mid-Lent is approached it is hoped that others of those who were deterred by snow-banks and ice will make their good new-start. Last year the parish made an impressive record by attendance at weekday Masses and Friday night Stations. People very naturally have been discouraged by the enforced bad beginning this year, but now there is opportunity to carry on in the usual fashion and your priests are hopeful that the remainder of Lent will have such support as to compensate for the weak start.

DO WE HAVE MEMBERS OF THE A.C.U. who have not renewed their membership? According with the present schedule, all membership are due in October of each year. A third notice is now being mailed by the New York office to those who have not sent in their renewal. On March 15th, those who have failed to respond will be dropped from membership. This year the A.C.U. has an unusually heavy responsibility because of the issues that will be brought before General Convention. This entails expenditures for printing and mailing literature to hundreds of bishops and deputies, and maintaining adequate headquarters at Miami Beach during the convention. If any parishioners have postponed renewing membership, please dispatch the form and check forthwith! And parishioners who are not members will do well to ask Mr. Cooper for an application blank, use it and thus give support to this Catholic Mission.

SCYO will meet this evening. The junior group will assemble at 5:30; the seniors at 7:00 when Benediction will be given.

Parish Notes

THE RECTOR EMERITUS IS HOME! We are more than happy over the news of Fr. Joiner's return to Philadelphia last Sunday. We hope we shall see him frequently at S. Clement's Church where he always will be received as a member of the Parish-Family and where he may have the use of an altar at any time, and we shall be pleased if he will often visit the Clergy House. At this writing, the 4th, it is not known where he will live but we hope it will be a comfortable and happy home where his many friends may call on him. To you, Reverend Father, we say, "Welcome home and we are ever so glad to have you with us."

THE WOMEN'S ANNUAL RETREAT is being held to-day. To the ladies from other parishes, we extend cordial greetings and wish them to know we are thankful to have them here to share in this spiritual exercise. Parishioners, not retreatants, are asked to observe quiet in the corridors especially between the 9:15 and 11 o'clock Masses.

THE ROSES on the altar to-day have been given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Anne Briddes, on whose soul you are bid to pray God to have mercy.

BAKE-SALE NEXT SUNDAY. The SCYO has been hard at work renovating the gymnasium and adjacent rooms. Although the Vestry offered to provide the necessary paint for them to apply, the young people, with admirable self-reliance, are trying to raise the funds to pay for supplies and thus reduce Vestry expenditures. For this purpose, SCYO will hold a sale of baked goods in the cope-room a week from to-day mainly before and after the 9:15 Mass. They ask the patronage of parishioners, and of those who do not wish to buy food, contributions direct to their project-fund.

A QUIET EVENING for laymen will be held Saturday evening at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont. This is an annual event conducted by a member of the Order of the Holy Cross. Our men are invited, but are asked to make reservations for dinner. The parish-office telephone is LA 5-2241.

THE FATHER RECTOR will address the Church Woman's Club at their monthly supper-meeting on Tuesday evening at the club house on Walnut Street.

Parish Notes

"THE ORDER FOR HOLY WEEK," published by the Church Literature Association in London, is in the Tract Case. The same version was on sale last year and many bought copies. However, a large supply is on hand now because those who wish to follow the rite as it has been restored will need copies. The text in this book will be used with the exception that on Palm Sunday some of the chants during the Procession will be different and the hymn "All Glory Laud and Honor" will be sung as it is in the hymnal. In order to take part in all of the Easter Vigil the book will be necessary, for example, the Renewal of Baptismal vows, and the Litany which now is divided into two sections. The book is being sold at twenty-five cents, a little below cost, with the hope that every attendant will purchase one.

NOTES ON THE REVISED RITE will be distributed to the parish by mail along with the Easter Kalendar. In changing the hour of the Easter Vigil from Saturday morning to the night, we run the risk that some parishioners will attend the First Mass of Easter at midnight and not return to a later Mass. It should be understood that assistance at the Midnight Mass fulfills the Easter precept. However, while you are strongly urged to assist at the Midnight Mass and receive Holy Communion, you are equally urged to return to the Solemn Mass at 11 on Easter morning. This seems to be an ideal program. It enables the faithful to follow the ancient tradition of commemorating Our Lord's Resurrection at the very beginning of the holy day and also to share in the glorious celebration of Easter at the festive offering of the Mass at mid-day. With this program in mind, it is only reasonable to expect a decrease in attendance at the Low Masses Easter morning,—but this decrease ought more than be made up by the large attendance at the Midnight Mass. This note on the schedule is being published well in advance of Easter so that you have ample opportunity to consider it and adjust your plans. It is hoped that Holy Week will be a worthy offering to Almighty God and it is expected, with our restoration of ancient ways, that again it will be a helpful spiritual experience for the faithful.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR EASTER flowers and Easter charities may be made to the Priests or the Sisters. In order to plan the floral arrangement and the gifts for the sick, etc., those in charge will be grateful to receive the contributions by Palm Sunday.

LADY DAY is Tuesday of this week. This feast of Our Lord's Incarnation is one of the most appealing of the Church-year and deserves the support of the faithful through their attendance at Mass. It is a day of obligation for the members of the Society of Mary. S. Clement's will have three Low Masses and at 11 a Solemn Mass and Benediction. Two Corporate Communions will be held, both at 8: the Associates of S.H.N. at S. Clement's, followed by breakfast,—and the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary at Holy Trinity. Bishop Hart will be the celebrant at the latter and also the speaker at the breakfast.

TO-MORROW NIGHT at 8 a most interesting meeting will be held at Canterbury House, 215 S. 42nd Street, the residence of the Reverend Father Lawrence, chaplain to our students at the U. of P. The meeting, sponsored by the Guild of S. Helena, will consist mainly of an address by Sister Mary Florence, O.S.H., on "Religious Life in the Church." It is open to all interested men and women, and members of S. Clement's are encouraged to attend.

SOLEMN BLESSING OF THE PALMS AND PROCESSION

HYMN DURING PROCESSION—All glory, laud, and honour .. No. 62

INTROIT—Domine ne longe. O Lord, remove not thy succour afar from me: have respect to my defence, and hear me: deliver me from the mouth of the lion; yea, from the horns of the unicorns hast thou regarded my cry. V. My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me: and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

O Lord, remove not . . .

KYRIE ELEISON—Missa Secunda Hans Leo Hasler

GRADUAL—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. V. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone: my treadings had well nigh slipt. And—why, I was grieved at the wicked: I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT—My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me?

V. And art so far from my health: and from the words of my complaint?

V. O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. V. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. V. They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. V. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man: a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. V. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying: V. He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. V. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. V. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. V. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him:

magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. V. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. V. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

SOLEMN SINGING OF THE PASSION

CREED—Credo I Mode IV

SERMON THE REVEREND FATHER RECTOR

OFFERTORY—Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man: neither found I any to comfort me; they gave me gall to eat, and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

THE EASTER FLOWER and EASTER CHARITIES FUND still is open for contributions. The Priests or the Sisters will be glad to receive gifts toward this fund which does so much to provide outward signs of Easter joy within the Church and among the members who are ill or shut-in.

THE SELF-DENIAL ENVELOPES may be turned in this week. Their contents are the parishioners' lenten offering toward the missionary work of the Church, and will be applied against the Parish Quota. THE EASTER OFFERING, a thank-offering for Our Lord's Resurrection will be used for the maintenance of the parish.

BREAKFAST will not be served after the Low Masses on Easter. It is eliminated because it is expected most of the communicants will receive at midnight.

Parish Notes

S. CLEMENT'S CHOIR, with Mr. Sill at the organ, will sing for Evening-song at four this afternoon at the Cathedral Church of Christ, 8630 Ridge Avenue. The preacher will be the Very Reverend Frederic M. Adams, D.D., Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Trenton. Last year the choir made a similar visit for the singing of the evening office at Holy Trinity Church, where they were cordially received and their music highly appreciated. We are grateful for such opportunities for people other than those who attend our parish-church to hear the excellence of our choir. It is hoped, as was the case last year when the choir went to Rittenhouse Square, that many of our parishioners will attend for the purpose of worship in our Cathedral and to give support to the choir.

HOLY WEEK is rather the golden season of the Church-year. It is the time of solemn devotion and wide opportunity for taking part in the services which commemorate the most momentous events in history. Daily attendance at one service or another is a commendable rule for the week. The end of the week offers the great three days, and a minimum for Catholics is participation in the liturgy of those most solemn days. The Mass of Our Lord's Last Supper this year is again at seven in the morning when many of the faithful come to honor the institution of Holy Mass and to receive the Holy Sacrament. The Watch before the Altar of Repose will be kept until midnight, and be resumed from eight until noon Good-Friday; a chart of the hours is posted and parishioners are asked to sign names and be responsible for definite periods.

THE GOOD-FRIDAY LITURGY, at noon, will be as it has been the past two years with the single change of restoration of Holy Communion for the laity. Notes on this devotion will be distributed by mail.

THE SOLEMN LITURGY OF THE VIGIL OF EASTER, being at its ancient hour of late Saturday night, should have the support of many more than were able to come to the church in the early morning. At midnight will be the First Mass of Easter, when the faithful may make their Easter Holy Communion. It is expected, of course, that all who attend the Midnight Mass will be present for the Liturgy of the Vigil at 10:30. Your Father Rector points out with as much emphasis as he can, that devotional wisdom and liturgical appropriateness should lead the midnight worshippers to return to the Solemn Mass at 11 for the more festive celebration of this high day.

THE QUINQUAGESIMA BLIZZARD deprived many penitents from reaching a confessional at the beginning of Lent. With that unfortunate beginning, some procrastinated and never have completed the journey to the box. For all Catholics, the precept of Easter Confession and Holy Communion is the most solemn obligation of all. It is the outward bond of belonging. The announced hours for confessions should meet the demands of everybody's convenience; if they do not, appointments can be made. Surely every Clementine looks upon Penance as a precious gift of Our Lord's mercy; the sacrament is first a matter of obligation, but it is valued and revered because it is a sign of God's unbounded love.

Parish Notes

MAY THE JOY of the Easter Festival be with each of you,—and may the love of the Risen Christ abide with you to-day and always!

FOR THE PRELUDE AND POSTLUDE at the Solemn Mass the organ will be supplemented with violin and violoncello. The assisting artists are parishioners of S. Clement's,—Miss Barbara Booth and Miss Deborah Reeder. They and Mr. Sill will play Concerts Royaux II by Francois Couperin. In European Churches, especially in France, it is not unusual for a large part of the congregation at La Grand Messe to remain in their seats for the postlude and it is gratifying that a number of Clementines follow this custom. Those who rush out often miss the finest instrumental music of the day.

THE VESTRY will meet at the Clergy House at 4:30 Tuesday.

THE MEETING OF THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY has been moved from afternoon to evening. It will be at 8 P.M. Tuesday. There will be election of officers.

FATHER JOINER, now in residence at All Saints' Hospital in Chestnut Hill, offers deep gratitude to the many friends who have sent him greetings and shown him kindness since his return to Philadelphia. Father extends to all the members of S. Clement's his affectionate wishes for a holy and happy Eastertide and assures us of his prayers on behalf of all of us.

THE EASTER PARTY for adults and older youths will be Friday night following Solemn Benediction at 8. Mr. Thomas H. Clark will give his program of slides which was planned for Shrove Tuesday but was displaced by Big Blizzard no. 1. An unexpected pleasure for the Friday attendants will be the presence of the Right Reverend, the Lord Bishop of Nassau. Bishop Burton will be a guest at the Clergy House that night and will join the parishioners for the social evening.

DURING EASTERTIDE, the Regina Coeli is said daily in place of the Angelus. For your convenience, it is printed in these notes.

REGINA COELI

Joy to thee, O Queen of Heaven, alleluiah;
He whom thou wast meet to hear, alleluiah;
As He promised hath arisen, alleluiah;
Pour for us to God thy prayer, alleluiah.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluiah;
R. For the Lord is risen indeed, alleluiah.

Let us pray

O God, Who by the Resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, didst vouchsafe to give joy to the whole world: grant, we beseech Thee, that through His Mother, the Virgin Mary, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Parish Notes

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER at S. Clement's can best be described as a deeply moving spiritual experience. The genuine and intelligent participation of parishioners and visitors is evidence not only of good teaching and training by Clergy in the past, but also of wholesome interest and consecrated effort by the laity. Even though all of this counts for more than numbers, the record shows that attendance was good at all the special services from Palm Sunday through Easter. The Blessed Sacrament of Our Lord's Body and Blood was received after proper preparation by a very large number on the major days. From the viewpoint of your Parish Priests, the people's acceptance of the several changes in the Holy Week Rite has been more than gratifying; in fact, they seemed to welcome the restorations and find in them devotional refreshment as well as liturgical sense. Your Father Rector wishes to thank the parishioners for their open-mindedness toward changes, and prays that the holy season has conveyed rich blessings upon them.

SCYO will meet next Sunday evening as the guests of the young people of S. Barnabas Church, Haddington. The members are invited to be there at 7:30. Mr. Robert Curry of this parish will address the group on "Rehabilitation of the Criminal." The regular meeting for to-night has been cancelled.

THE FATHER RECTOR will be out of town for two meetings this week. On Tuesday he will be in Providence where the Eastern Convocation of the Alumni of Nashotah House will have its spring meeting at S. Stephen's Church. From Wednesday through Friday he will attend a conference of the clergy of the Diocese of Pennsylvania at Buck Hill Falls in the Poconos.

THE PRIESTS OF THE PARISH express their gratitude to the many parishioners who have sent them Easter greetings. For them it has been a happy as well as a holy season,—brightened by the good wishes of the congregation.

Parish Notes

THE REV. WILLIAM H. DUNPHY, Ph.D., Chaplain of the English Church in Ghent, Belgium, will preach the sermon next Sunday. Father Dunphy has a wide, broad and deep understanding of the theological affirmations, denials and perplexities that are stated and implied in the proposed resolutions for recognition of the Church of the South India. He will speak on this subject to which every Churchman should be giving prayerful consideration these days. Here is a missionary opportunity. If you know people who are undecided, or who have been converted to the propriety of the Episcopal Church's accepting this religious society, invite them to S. Clement's next Sunday.

SCYO will be meeting at S. Barnabas Church, Haddington, at 7:30 this evening, as guests of the young people of that parish.

MEMBERS OF THE PARISH are invited to attend the meeting of the 1958 Institute of the Department of Christian Social Relations on "The Gospel in the Community" at Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square, to-morrow evening. The speakers will be the Rev. Father Edward P. Rementer, S. Andrew's Church, and the Rev. Father James R. McColl, III, S. Thomas', Whitemarsh. Discussion will follow. It now is too late to make dinner reservations but our parishioners may go to the meeting at about 7:30,—Walnut Street entrance.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet Tuesday evening at 8 at S. Andrew's Chapel of the Divinity School. The Rev. Father John Schultz will continue his series of addresses on "The Laymen's Mission in the Church."

THE FATHER RECTOR and Mr. Cooper will attend a meeting of the Executive Board of the ACU on Tuesday afternoon in New York.

THE GUILD OF ALL SOULS will attend Solemn Mass at All Saints' Church, Orange, at 11 a.m. Saturday. Luncheon at $1.50 will be served in the Parish House, for which reservations are to be made with the Rev. Wm. R. Wetherell, 438 Valley Street, Orange. The Annual Meeting of the Guild will follow luncheon.

THE KALENDAR provides an invitation for neighborly intercession this week. Wednesday is the feast of S. George, principal Patron of England. The Mass at 7 will be offered for S. George's Church and its Rector the Rev. Father Edwards; and that at 9:30 for our ecclesiastical mother, the Church of England. Friday is S. Mark's Day when the 7 o'clock Mass will be offered for S. Mark's Church and its priests the Rev. Fathers Paige and Becker; the 9:30 will be offered for our own parish. According to a very ancient custom the Litany of the Saints is sung in procession before the Mass on April 25th. It is another instance of the Church taking over a non-Christian holiday and baptizing it for good use. On April 25th in ancient days the heathen Romans held a procession of the Robigalia. This major Rogation, along with the lesser Rogation Days preceding Ascension Day, were adopted in England at the same time by the Council of Cloveshoo in 747. At S. Clement's the Litany of the Saints will be offered at the Friday devotions at 8 p.m.

Parish Notes

THE GUEST-PREACHER this morning is the Rev. Father William H. Dunphy, Ph.D., who has come to this country from his English Chapel in Ghent, Belgium, to lecture on the proposed approbation of the Church of South India. As a scholar in theology and polity he is well qualified to make judgments which demand respect. His tour of the U.S. is sponsored by the A.C.U. and we are happy to have him at St. Clement's today.

THE DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD will meet at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at Old Christ Church on 2nd Street. The Rev. Ernest A. Harding, Rector and speaker of the evening, has kindly offered to have on display a number of pieces of colonial silver. After the meeting, there will be a social hour in Neighborhood House. Those who wish to attend please notify one of the Sisters to-day.

SOLEMN MASS in the Presence of the Right Reverend the Bishop of Pennsylvania will be celebrated at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square. Sponsored by the Catholic Clerical Union, the function is planned in preparation for the Annual Diocesan Convention which will be held on the following Monday and Tuesday. The intention of the Mass is for the Convention and for the spiritual needs of the diocese. Music will be furnished by the seminarians of the Philadelphia Divinity School. This is an innovation in the Diocesan Kalendar and should appeal to all Catholics. We have wished for greater emphasis on the spiritual life of the diocese and this service is an outward sign for which we ought to be thankful. The Mass is opportunity to demonstrate through public worship our zeal for increased habits of sacraments and prayer within the Church-family of this area. All Clementines,—men, women and youth,—are encouraged to attend on Saturday.

ON WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY a guest at the Clergy House will be the Rev. Father John D. Swanson, Vicar of the Church of Our Lady of the Snows, Eagle River, Wis. While a seminarian at Nashotah House Father Swanson made fortnightly visits to your Father Rector's former parish where he directed the youth group and gave a course of instruction. On brief holiday, he is making his initial visit to S. Clement's.

THE EASTER OFFERING, parishioners will be thankful to know, now amounts to a little more than $1900,—a most welcome addition to the treasury . . . Letters have been sent to every parish family by the Vestry Music Committee and the Volunteer Committee of ladies interested in furthering the music of the parish. The letter invites parishioners to be patrons of the music of S. Clement's Church by making a contribution for support of the annual choir-concert and the annual camp for choir-boys. Your Father Rector gives unqualified endorsement to the appeal and hopes it will lead many to become patrons of the music of the parish.

OFFERINGS FOR THE spring ingathering of the United Thank Offering may be given to Miss Elsie Williams, 2041 Appletree Street or to the Sisters on or before May 18th. Reservations for the luncheon $2.25 each at Valley Forge Military Academy on May 19th are to be made before May 12th with Miss Williams (Lo 7-0477).

Parish Notes

A MASS MEETING will be held to-morrow night at 8 o'clock at Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square, in connection with the Diocesan Convention. Bishop Hart will give the address,—being his annual charge to the Diocese. The clergy and deputies will be present and all parishioners are invited to attend. The Convention will open at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon and will continue its business session on Tuesday.

THE CROSS AND ANCHOR SOCIETY will meet in the Parish Hall Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The main business will be the making of plans for the June Fete which already is in rehearsal under the direction of Miss Josephine Barron.

THE THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY offering amounted to $635 and has been sent to Nashotah House. The following message has been received from the Dean: "Dear Father Elwell, We rejoice! It is not alone the size of your offering, but our knowledge of the spirit that produced it, which makes us happy. I need not tell you that this generous offering, coming right now, is a great help. Furthermore, your offering is well placed, because we are conscientious about making every dollar produce . . . Gratefully yours, Edward S. White, Dean." Your Father Rector, as an alumnus and trustee of Nashotah, also is grateful for the ready and generous response of parishioners to this annual appeal for support of the seminary.

THE MONTH OF MAY is dedicated to the honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Devotion to Our Lady is expressed throughout the year in the daily routine at S. Clement's but receives special emphasis during this month. It is hoped the Daily Novena at 6 at the Lady Shrine will have extra support during "Mary Month." THE SOCIETY OF MARY is a parish organization of spiritual vigor. Its purpose is largely that of prayer rather than of meetings and therefore some of our parishioners may not be aware of its existence or of their eligibility to its membership. The objects of the Society are:

- a. To set forth the Catholic doctrine of the Incarnation by promoting the honor due to the Mother of God.
- b. To invoke Our Lady and the Saints for the extension of the Faith and the uprooting of heresy.
- c. To strive after purity of life in honor of the perpetual Virginity of Our Lady.
- d. To make reparation to the Holy Mother of God for the neglect and insults shown to her.

The Rule of Life of the Society is:

- a. To say the Angelus daily.
- b. To say one decade of the Rosary weekly, or the Litany of Loretto, with intention for the Society.
- c. To hear Mass on the feasts of the Annunciation and Nativity of Our Lady (in addition to the feast of the Assumption).
- d. To hear a Mass in November for the souls of the departed members of the Society.

The Secretary of Our Lady of Clemency Ward of the Society is Miss Tacy F. Hurst, 831 Summit Grove, Bryn Mawr, from whom forms for application for membership may be had. More details and the list of members of the parish Ward will be published in next week's leaflet.

Parish Notes

ASCENSION DAY, the feast of Our Lord's culminating triumph, is Thursday of this week and a day of obligation to hear Mass. With three Low Masses and High Mass there is wide opportunity for our people to find a convenient hour to attend. A praiseworthy custom is to receive Holy Communion on this festival. From May 16th to 24th a Novena to the Holy Ghost will be kept in preparation for the feast of Pentecost. The devotions will be offered at the daily 6 o'clock Novena.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY will meet at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. The Sister Ora Mary, C.S.J.B., will give an address on the work of the religious orders for men and women and show slides of the various communities. Sister Ora Mary is known to many of our young people who have visited the Convent of S. John Baptist in Mendham for picnics and retreats. This meeting is open to all Clementines and their friends. "Each one bring one" that this work may be made known to others in the Diocese. The new officers of the W.A. are Mrs. Frederick Cooper, president; Mrs. Joseph Arbuckle, secretary; Miss May Lilly, treasurer. A vice-president will be elected Tuesday evening; Mrs. Alfred T. Sill has been nominated for the office.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION will have its final meeting of the season on Wednesday when the members will be luncheon-guests of the Rev. Father Niblo at his country house, "Oak Knoll".

ON THE ROGATION DAYS, the Litany of the Saints will be offered following the 7 o'clock Mass. The intention of these devotions is to pray God's blessing not only upon the spring planting, but also upon all creation and especially upon Holy Church.

THE BOHLEN LECTURES will be given to-night at 6:30 and Monday and Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Holy Trinity Church. The lecturer will be the Rev. Wm. G. Pollard, Th.D., D.D., of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies. His subject is "The Christian Man and the Nature of Atomic Energy . . . and the Uses of Atomic Energy . . . and the Atomic Crisis." All members of the Diocese are invited.

TO-DAY IS THE LAST DAY for contributors to the Music Committee Fund to have their names enrolled as Patrons of S. Clement's Music. A surprisingly small number have subscribed and we hope this reminder will bring forth many more supporters. Extra forms are available at the bulletin board.

THE SOCIETY OF MARY is a devotional organization which invites wider membership from parishioners. See last Sunday's leaflet. The Father Rector is Superior of the Ward of Our Lady of Clemency and Miss Tacy F. Hurst is Secretary. A Mass for the members and Communion breakfast are planned for the Saturday after the feast of O.L. of Clemency, September 27th, and it is hoped more parishioners will have applied for membership before that date. The annual dues are fifty cents. The members of the Parish Ward are: the Father Rector, the Father Rector-Emeritus, Rev. Mack Johnson, Rev. Robert Schuman, Rev. George A. Stams, Rev. Wm. R. Wetherell, Carl Anderson, Joseph Arbuckle, Mrs. Delma L. Armstrong, Mrs. M. D. Asami, Virginia E. Bald, Elizabeth L. Baur, Charles H. Berg, Mrs. James Booth, Beatrice Briddes, Mrs. Stuart Bryson, Florence Burrows-Pegg, George Carlin, Mr. & Mrs. Frederick Cooper, Mrs. Sumner H. Cross, Mrs. Thomas Crossley, Mr. & Mrs. Charles Edgar, Dorothy Hahn, John M. Haines, Louise M. Haselton, Dorothy R. Howard, Mrs. Gertrude E. Howard, Tacy F. Hurst, Gertrude M. Jenkins, Mrs. Wm. Loeltz, Capt. J. Harland, Don G. Perin, Mrs. Wm. E. Pike, Mr. & Mrs. Wm. C. Ragin, Jr., Mary Rich, Wm. S. Ryland, John J. Sellers, Wilfred C. Smith, Mrs. Thomas E. Terry, Mrs. Ruth Thompson, Edna W. Tuteur, Claude W. Upplinger, Anne P. Vaughan, Robert A. Wagner, Wm. Watson, Mr. & Mrs. Egbert Womack. While this is a good-sized list, nearly half are not members of this parish. We are happy to have them and encourage more people from other parts of the country to enroll. But at this time, the month of May, we ask the clients of Mary within S. Clement's to consider this Society which furthers and magnifies her honor.

ON ASCENSION AFTERNOON your Father Rector will fly to Wisconsin to attend the annual meeting of the Trustees of Nashotah House and to be among the pilgrims to the Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham in Sheboygan at the 8th annual Pilgrimage on May 24th. He will arrive in Philadelphia in the very, very early hours of Pentecost morning.

Parish Notes

NEXT SUNDAY is the commemoration of the awesome experience of the Apostolic Church in the descent of God the Holy Ghost. Pentecost is a glorious festival in observance of an event that continues to happen. God the Holy Spirit manifested Himself to the disciples in the Upper Room in a surprising and dramatic fashion; in quiet and often unrealized ways He continues to come down upon the Catholic Church, and upon the faithful as individual members of the Church. Each of us seeks the guidance of the Holy Ghost in all of his undertakings, and each hopes to attain to sanctity of life through the operation of the Holy Ghost. On Pentecost we offer thanksgiving for this guidance and the opportunity for sanctification,—and formally the whole Church pleads on this holy day for the continued outpouring of the Gifts of God the Holy Spirit. In preparation for the feast, as well as at other times, it is suggested parishioners use the following devotion, taken from a holy card published by the Greyfriars Studio at Little Portion Monastery.

ASPIRATIONS TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

HOLY Spirit, Show me my sins;
Show me the Blessed Lamb of God.

Holy Spirit, give me peace;
Peace with God and peace with man.

Holy Spirit, stir my will;
Give me the gift of holy fear.

Holy Spirit, give me faith;
Faith in God and faith in the Faith.

Holy Spirit, give me hope;
Make me think of heaven and hell.

Holy Spirit, give me love;
Love for Jesus and love for souls.

Teach me and lead me where thou wilt;
Make me know the love of God.

FATHER JOINER has enjoyed calls from many friends and parishioners. He is happy to have callers, but because of his schedule at All Saints' Hospital he asks that his friends call between two and five in the afternoon and not in the evening. His diet is under regulation and so it is easier for him not to receive gifts of food.

THE ANNUAL CHOIR CONCERT will be next Sunday afternoon. You know the standards of our music; you know the excellence of the program. There is little left to be said, other than that it is hoped every parishioner will be present and will bring one or more friends. This is primarily a musical event; however, it also is a missionary opportunity. Many persons first have been attracted to the Church by its music and later have become converted, loyal and devoted Church-members. Next Sunday's program will be a delight both to the invited guests and to those who have been parishioners for years and know what good things to expect.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P. M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

EVERY DAY IN WHITSUN-WEEK the Mass is offered in honor of God the Holy Ghost and no commemorations of Saints are made. All emphasis is laid upon the Third Person of the Holy Trinity and His wonderful sanctifying and guiding of the faithful, and His bestowing of the seven Gifts. In keeping with the liturgy our private prayers should include Veni Creator and other devotions addressed to the Holy Spirit, and also such prayers as the Collect for Quinquagesima. Wednesday, Friday and Saturday are Ember Days when the Church prays for the men studying for Holy Orders and especially those being ordained at this season. The devotional character of the Ember Days is heightened by their being days of Fast and Abstinence. Ember Friday is an exception to that discipline this year. Because Friday is the National Memorial Day the Right Reverend the Bishop of Pennsylvania has dispensed the faithful in this diocese from the fast and abstinence. At the same time the Bishop has granted a dispensation from abstinence on Friday, the Fourth of July.

EASTERTIDE comes to its conclusion on Ember Saturday. Thus ends the period for meeting the minimal requirement of an annual Holy Communion. The Church is charitably considerate in recognizing a reception of the Blessed Sacrament at any time from the beginning of Lent through Trinity Sunday as an Eastertide Communion. This would seem to be almost too easy. Yet, numbers of people on the parish list have not yet made their Easter Holy Communion,—not to the knowledge of their parish-priests, that is. Likewise, many have not as yet made an Eastertide Confession. One of the Precepts of the Church is Confession at least once a year during Eastertide. Some of our members go to priests in other parishes, a custom which is quite proper. The point is to receive absolution from a qualified minister of the sacrament. This notice is given simply in order to remind Clementines that there is but one more week to fulfill their Easter duties.

THE ANNUAL CHOIR CONCERT will be at four this afternoon and it is hoped that all parishioners will be present. Those who are absent will miss a musical treat. Your Father Rector and the Choirmaster are very grateful for the generous spirit of parishioners who have enrolled as Patrons of Music. Their gifts have provided a substantial fund for underwriting the cost of the concert and of the choir-boys' camp. A generous offering this afternoon will be needed to balance accounts, but this initial effort to enlist Patrons has proved itself a sound and sensible method of obtaining parochial backing of the concert and the camp.

A TOUR OF S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH will be conducted at the conclusion of Solemn Mass to-day and every Sunday. The historic aspect and artistic merit of the appointments of the Church and Chapels will be described. Those wishing to make the tour are asked to assemble in the front pews of the center sections.

THE LAYMEN'S CATHOLIC UNION will meet at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening at Trinity Church, Ambler. The Rev. John A. Schultz, Rector of the host parish, will give the concluding address in his series on "The Layman's Mission in the Church."

THE PLANNING AND POLICY COMMITTEE of the A.C.U. will meet at S. Clement's Parish Hall on Tuesday afternoon at 1:15. Your Father Rector is chairman of this committee which will consider many weighty matters in connection with the General Convention.

Parish Notes

JESUS OUR KING honors us with His Presence at every moment in all the tabernacles of the world. This morning we humbly give to Him the best that we can in the votive Mass of Corpus Christi. We honor Him in the only way human beings are capable of honoring Deity,—through utter adoration of the God-Man and oblation of our wills and affection before Him Who is our Beginning and Ending,—our All. As the Sacred Host is carried about the Church recall that it is Jesus going in and out among men doing good and welcoming their praises. In your intercessions during the Procession, pray that Our Lord will be accepted and honored by all Christians as their Eucharistic King,—that Holy Mass will be the invariable mode of worship among all Christians, and that the Blessed Sacrament will be devoutly and frequently received by all Christians. We all long for the unity of Christendom because it is God's will that we be one. And unity can be accomplished only when all Christian ministers are Catholic priests and they with their laity assemble before the altar of God and together offer this Holy Sacrifice.

We pray thee too for wanderers from thy fold;
O bring them back, good Shepherd of the sheep,
Back to the faith which saints believed of old,
Back to the Church which still that faith doth keep;
Soon may we all one bread, one body be,
Through this blest sacrament of unity. Hymn 191

THE VESTRY will have its last meeting before autumn on Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 at the Clergy House.

THE JUNE FETE will be given in the Parish Hall Tuesday evening at 8:30. "Back to Sack" is an amusing entertainment with bright comedy, lilting and nostalgic tunes, and sprightly dances. And to make the tickets a genuine bargain, the strawberry festival is included! The Cross and Anchor Society is producing the show for the benefit of the young people's program of activity. Tickets will be on sale after the Masses.

THE SPRING-INGATHERING of the U.T.O. in this parish amounted to $65.77. In comparison with the total of $28,000 received in the diocese our contribution looks insignificant. However, it should be borne in mind that the location of S. Clement's and the wide diversity of activity of its members are not favorable to large organizational meetings and departmental functions. And our parishioners generously support several good-works of the Church to which many other parishes give little or nothing. All in all, the Woman's Auxiliary of S. Clement's makes a commendable record financially as well as in its spiritual and cultural contribution to the life of the parish.

Parish Notes

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE ERECTION of an apartment building on Pennsylvania Boulevard from 18th to 19th Streets, only two squares from our corner, is good news for S. Clement's Church. At Chestnut and 21st Streets an apartment is just being completed and on the Parkway at 22nd Street a four-unit group of apartments is under construction. Thus our neighborhood again is becoming a residential area on a larger scale than it has been for many years. Unfortunately clergy are generally not permitted to make calls on occupants except those that they know; attempts to evangelize an apartment building are against the rules. We hope, however, that the proximity of S. Clement's will lead some of our new neighbors to visit the parish and then it will be up to the grace of God and our hospitality to encourage them to return. Another aspect of these improvements to property is that parishioners, and people interested in being parishioners, who wish to live near the Church will be able to have apartments within very easy walking distance. When the improving of property has been initiated it usually gains momentum, and thus we may hopefully and reasonably expect that within a few years Logan Square (or we might boastfully say the Clementine) area will be a popular residential neighborhood.

WORD HAS RECENTLY been received that Father Raymond Raynes, C.R., has undergone a serious coronary thrombosis. He was in Brighton at the time but has been removed to London. Father Raynes is affectionately remembered by many friends in this parish, and they are asked to offer prayers that in God's mercy he will be restored to sound health. For three decades he has served the Church in many capacities, mainly through the channels of the Community of the Resurrection, and it is hoped that after convalescence he will be able to resume his active leadership.

THE VALLEY FORGE CONFERENCE will open a week from to-day. Several of our young people have registered. By the time this copy for the leaflet is printed the capacity of the Conference may be reached, but it is hoped that in the meantime a few more of our youths will be booked to attend. There is not a better Conference in the nation; many adult Catholics of the Church, in their youth, were introduced to the full practice of our holy religion at Valley Forge. It is, then, missionary as well as instructional in character.

THE CHILDREN'S CLASSES of instruction will have their last session of this season on next Sunday. During the summer the children, of course, will attend Mass every Sunday; that is the primary obligation. Only the classes of instruction are given up for the hot months. Fr. Ducker's Class for adults will have its last meeting on Sunday the 29th.

A TOUR OF THE CHURCH is conducted every Sunday after the Solemn Mass. Parishioners and visitors who wish to join the tour are asked to assemble in the front pews of the center sections after the Postlude. The artistic and historic features of the Church and Chapels will be pointed out and described.

THE ANNUAL OFFERING for the ACU is now being received. Several gifts already have been given to Mr. Fred Cooper and parishioners are invited to share in giving support to this very important missionary enterprise. Contributions may be put on the plate or given to Mr. Cooper.

Parish Notes

THE FEAST OF SS. PETER AND PAUL, a week from to-day, will be the occasion for the last Sunday Solemn Mass until October. In the liturgical cycle we rather end one chapter with this glorious feast of the Princes of the Apostles and begin another chapter of the long green season. Following our observance of Pentecost and the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the disciples, it is good that on a Sunday we have this feast of those giants of the Faith who were leaders in the development of the Apostolic Church. It provides us unusual opportunity to follow, liturgically, that significant sequence: Resurrection, Ascension, Pentecost, Apostolic Age of the Holy Catholic Church.

THE CHOIR BOYS and Mr. Sill will travel to Wisconsin on Wednesday of this week where the boys will be in camp for about ten days at Camp Blazing Star on Upper Nashotah Lake. On one Sunday of their sojourn they will travel into Milwaukee, about twenty-five miles from camp, where they will attend the High Mass at All Saints' Cathedral. Father Maynard, Dean of the Cathedral, has generously invited the Clementine contingent to be his guests at luncheon. We expect to hear colorful reports of goings-on in camp after the boys return home.

ANOTHER DEPARTURE this week will be that of your Father Rector. He will travel to Lexington, Virginia, for a brief holiday with relatives at their farm-home. In July he will have another short holiday with friends in a different Lexington, this time in Massachusetts. Thus his vacation in 1958 consists of a series of little jaunts,—little in time, that is. The final one will be a venture of work as well as pleasure,—the General Convention at Miami Beach in October.

THE SISTERS leave the parish to-day for the summer. One of the Sisters again will be on the staff at Valley Forge Conference, and eventually both of them will be at the Convent in Fond du Lac for retreat and rest period, and also, for recreation, at the Sisters' attractive cottage on Green Lake, about twenty miles from Fond du Lac.

A TOUR OF THE CHURCH will be conducted after the Solemn Mass to-day and every Sunday. Those wishing to join the tour are asked to go to the front pews of the center sections after the Postlude.

Parish Notes

WITH THIS PUBLICATION, the weekly leaflet goes into abeyance until October. Your Father Rector, who in this capacity is editor, gives forth a sigh of minor thanksgiving for a few months of release from a duty which is pleasant enough but comes with pressing regularity. The printed page is a welcome opportunity for communicating with parishioners and visitors. But like all editors this one has so much news some weeks he hardly can squeeze it all on one page and in others, this week for instance, he is pushed into a state of expansiveness because of paucity of items. If items sometimes are not as up to date as they ought to be, it should be kept in mind that the copy always is written ten days in advance of the Sunday on which the program is used. This margin of time allows for proof-reading and making of corrections, and for mailing the leaflet to subscribers on Wednesday preceding its Sunday date. The increase of postage rates on August 1st will necessitate a rise of about fifty cents a year in the price of subscriptions-by-mail, but more about this in the fall.

THE KALENDAR for the summer months will be distributed to all parishioners this week. Some changes have been made by omitting names of some of the less-known Saints and including more of the Anglo-Saxon tradition. An effort has been made for the Kalendar to be catholic in the sense of being inclusive of the heroes of the Catholic Faith in the Eastern and in all the nations of the Western Church. The changes are more or less experimental, first for devotional propriety and second for encouragement of increased attendance at the week-day Masses when the Saints' days are observed.

THIS MORNING and a week from to-day, in Mr. Sill's absence while with the choir-boys in Wisconsin, Mr. Stuart Dick is the organist. Mr. Dick is employed at the Free Library.

YOU ARE ASKED TO OFFER PRAYERS and Mass intentions during the next several weeks for Lambeth Conference. Most of the Anglican Bishops will be in London for this Council of our Province of the Church. In addition to the relationship of the Church of South India to the Anglican Communion, other highly important theological and moral questions will be discussed, studied and resolved in the form of recommendations to the various national provinces of the Church. Lambeth Conference has no legislative authority whatsoever, but possesses unique prestige which influences the legislative action in the provincial churches. Normally this is as it should be. Our Fathers in God through the ages have been the proclaimers and guardians of the Faith, and we rightly expect God the Holy Ghost to guide the Fathers into all truth. Human error has unfortunately found its way into similar meetings in the course of the Church's history. We are hopeful that at Lambeth error will be avoided and that our Fathers in God truly will be channels of the Holy Ghost and that God's will may be apprehended and declared in convincing terms. Out of your love for the whole Church, then, pray for divine guidance of Lambeth Conference.

THE PARISH OFFERING for the ACU, at the time of this writing, amounts to $548. $250 of this is from the parish budget and $298 from individual contributors. It is hoped that every parishioner will give a bit to this cause. Contributions may be placed on the plate or handed to Mr. Cooper.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

OCTOBER IS A BEAUTIFUL month, distinguished for its bringing out the red and gold of the woodland, and in Clementine circles for bringing back the Solemn Mass every Sunday in our parish Church. While we are thankful for the autumn after the hot summer, we are more grateful for the opportunity of worshipping each week at the Church's normal way of offering the Holy Sacrifice. Another welcome return on this Sunday is that of the complete choir of boys and men. The Choirmaster has gained a few new boy sopranos, but if parishioners have names of others who might be candidates will they please make them known to Mr. Sill? We look forward to another season of excellent music offered to God's Glory and for the edification of the worshippers.

GENERAL CONVENTION will open this evening with a colorful offering of Evensong at the Exhibition Hall in Miami Beach. It is a new building and our Convention is the first to use it. Your prayers are asked daily for this important legislative meeting, especially in two matters: the proposed recognition of the Church of South India and the election of a Presiding Bishop. Many other crucial matters will be decided but these two are the foremost in our thoughts and hopes. Your Father Rector has gone to Miami Beach as a visitor but with the expectation of being of assistance in planning strategy. He begs your prayers for all of those who have responsibilities and especially for those who labor long and hard to keep the Church the Church.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL begins its sessions to-day under the supervision of the Sisters and a few ladies who assist them. Father Ducker's Class of Instruction for adults will also have its first session this morning following the 9:15 Mass. Many have found this class very profitable and it is hoped that "nine-fifteeners" who have not attended in the past will visit the class and perhaps join it.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will be held Thursday, December 4th. An earlier date was announced on the Woman's Auxiliary Program, but it has been changed in favor of the traditional first Thursday in December. Miss May Lilly and Mrs. James Booth are co-chairmen of the event this year. They and the chairmen of the various departments are already at work on highly interesting plans. A form is on the bulletin board for volunteers to sign their names. On Monday, October 20th a meeting will be held of all those who in any way will be helping. More about this later, but save the date.

NEARLY THREE WEEKS ago the editor of this leaflet observed another birthday. This is a bit late but the first opportunity of expressing gratitude. The multitudinous greeting cards he received from parishioners were both solemn and jovial, and all were most welcome, and he thanks you. If you are wondering about the age, '01 is the year!

10. Fr. S. PAULINUS OF YORK, B.C., Mass 7 & 9:30. Abstinence. Confessions 4-5 & 7:30-8. Stations of the Cross, Meditation & Benediction 8 P.M.
11. Sa. MOTHERHOOD OF THE B.V.M., Mass 7. Confessions 4-5 & 7:30-8:30.
12. Su. NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY (S. Wilfred), Mass & H.C., 8 & 9:15 (Hymns). Confessions 7:30 & 9. Father Ducker's Class & Church School 10. Solemn Mass 11.

Parish Notes

THE WEEKLY LEAFLET is mailed to nearly a hundred people each week. Some parishioners like to have it on hand in advance of Sunday but the greater number go to people outside of the Parish. Because of the increased postal rates it is necessary to ask that each subscriber send fifty cents more this year than last. Those who wish the leaflet by first-class mail will pay $2.50 and those who prefer second-class will pay $2.00. Payment now is in order for this season. Will you please make checks payable to "S. Clement's Rector's Fund" and send to 2013 Apple Tree Street?

CONFIRMATION INSTRUCTION for boys will begin on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the Parish Hall. This hour will be convenient for choir-boys who have a rehearsal at 11, but the class is open to all boys whether or not they are in the choir. The ADULT INSTRUCTION CLASS which meets on Sundays after the 9:15 Mass will study Jewish worship as an antecedent to Christian worship during the first part of this season. This class is not Confirmation instruction, but is intended for any parishioners and friends who wish to broaden their knowledge of our holy religion.

THE DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD will have a Quiet Evening at S. Clement's on Wednesday. The first address will be at 5:30, and the others at 7:30 and 8:30. Each lady will supply her own box-supper and coffee will be provided. Ladies of the Parish are invited but are asked to notify the Sisters of their intention to attend. The conductor will be the Rev. William J. Alberts of Chrsit Church, Media. For many years the Diocesan Altar Guild has held this first event of its season at S. Clement's and the Parish is most happy to have the arrangement continued.

A GUEST AT THE CLERGY HOUSE this week will be Dom Francis Hilary Bacon, O.S.B., the Chaplain of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity. He will be here for several days to make his visitation to the Mission House. Dom Francis comes from S. Gregory's Priory at Three Rivers, Michigan.

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA will meet on Tuesday of next week, October 21st, at S. Paul's Church, Aramingo. The Woman's Auxiliary will meet at 4; the Clergy at 5; and supper will be at 6:30. Unfortunately, this event conflicts with a meeting of the Vestry that afternoon. If women of the Parish wish to attend, will they please notify Mrs. Cooper, President of the local branch of the Auxiliary?

THE CLERICAL UNION will meet on Wednesday at S. Paul's Church in Doylestown. The Reverend Father Paige will speak on "The Possibility of a Common Approach to Clergy Work and Pastoral Techniques."

THE GENERAL CONVENTION will close on Friday and we expect the Church will still be the Church. Following all the praying and planning, the debating and voting we are hopeful that tensions will be lessened and that clergy and laity will return home in good humor to tend to the pressing business of the praise of God and the sanctification of their souls. In all likelihood next Sunday your Father Rector will speak at sermon time on "The Florida Climate" or "Ecclesiastical Miasma of Miami."

Parish Notes

TO-MORROW EVENING a meeting will be held of all who will work for the Christmas Bazaar. The chairmen of the various booths and their assistants are asked to meet in the Parish Hall at 8 o'clock. The Bazaar is only a bit more than six weeks away and there is much to be accomplished in planning and working before that date. It will be a happy and profitable occasion if all available hands will be busy on it in the meantime.

THE NORTH PHILADELPHIA CONVOCATION will meet Tuesday at S. Paul's Church, Aramingo. Will ladies who wish to attend the meeting of the Auxiliary of the Convocation at 4 o'clock please notify Mrs. Cooper? Supper will be at 6:30 and an interesting program has been arranged.

THE VESTRY will have its first fall meeting on Tuesday at 4:30 at the Clergy House.

A QUIET DAY for women will be held at S. Margaret's House, Germantown, on Saturday. Mass will be offered at 8:30 and the events of the day will end at 3:15. The Rev. Father Pottle will be the conductor. Will ladies who wish to make the Quiet Day please call S. Margaret's House early in the week in order to register?

A WEEK FROM TO-DAY is the feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King, one of the great days of the liturgical year, and two weeks from to-day will be the Parish's Feast of Dedication.

LADIES OF THE PARISH, please note this advance warning. A week from Tuesday, the 28th, the Woman's Auxiliary of S. Clement's, S. Mark's and Christ Church will have a joint meeting at S. Mark's Parish House, Locust Street. Plans for a joint meeting were initiated by this Parish and it is hoped many of our women will be present.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH UNION will have its annual banquet in New York on the same evening, the 28th. The business of the ACU Council has increased to such proportions that it is necessary to have a two-day session, —Tuesday and Wednesday. The demand for the dinner tickets always exceeds the capacity of the Fifth Avenue Hotel dining-room and therefore early application is recommended to those who wish to attend. Will interested persons please speak either to the Rector or Mr. Cooper?

THIS IS THE TIME of year to think about your support of the Church in 1959. A canvass of the parish will be held within the next few weeks and each of you will be asked to declare in writing your pledge for the support of the work of the Church during the next twelve months. Two years have passed since such a canvass was held and in the meantime expenses have increased to rather a considerable degree. You will hear more of this later, but you are asked to give prayerful consideration to the matter now.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P. M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

"O COME, let us sing unto the Lord; let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation . . . For the Lord is a great God; and a great King above all gods." So declares the familiar and loved Psalm, Venite exultemus,—and so do we to-day follow the bidding of the Psalm in our singing and rejoicing in honor of the "great King above all gods." Our Lord Jesus Christ the King is the fulfillment of David's ancient hymn,—the Greater than David,—the Son of God and Mary,—and King over all. We thank God for the sovereign and benevolent dominion of Our Blessed Lord and pray we may become worthy subjects of His Kingdom.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY will meet in joint session with the Auxiliaries of S. Mark's Church and Old Christ Church on Tuesday evening at 8 in the recently remodelled Parish House of S. Mark's Church, Locust Street. The speaker of the evening will be the President of the W. A. of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Edward J. Parnum. Mrs. Parnum was a delegate to the Triennial Meeting and will give an account of the sessions and interesting highlights of the Convention at Miami Beach. This event takes the place of the October meeting of our local branch, and it is hoped many ladies of S. Clement's will attend the Tuesday evening event.

THE ANNUAL COUNCIL of the ACU will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin, New York. On Tuesday evening the annual dinner will be held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel and it is expected that a number of Philadelphians will be present for the banquet and the business sessions. Mr. Cooper is the national chairman of the Membership Committee and will undoubtedly report a healthy growth in the number of members of ACU; the Father Rector is national chairman of the Planning and Policy Committee.

ALL SAINTS DAY will be Saturday, with Low Masses at 7 and 8, and a Solemn Mass and Holy Communion at 9:30. It is a Holy Day of obligation and being on Saturday,—more or less a holiday according to current custom,—it is expected many of the parishioners will be able to do their duty in their own Parish Church. Thus the Solemn Mass is put back to 9:30 with the hope that many Clementines will assist at the principal Mass of the day and make their Holy Communion, too.

A QUIET EVENING FOR WOMEN will be held on Saturday, All Saints Day, at S. Margaret's House, Germantown. It will begin at 4:30 and close at 9. The Rev. Father Robert W. Hill, Curate of S. Luke's Church, will be the conductor. Ladies who plan on making the retreat are asked to notify the Sisters of S. Margaret early in the week.

A WEEK FROM TODAY we keep the parish feast of Dedication. On this day Mass is offered in thanksgiving for the many blessings and opportunities for S. Clement's Church, and for the beauty of this House of God in which it is our privilege to offer Him our holy worship. The preacher on the Feast will be the Reverend Father René M. Bozarth, Rector of S. Luke's Church, Gresham, Oregon. Before taking Holy Orders Father Bozarth was active in the political life of the State of Oregon. He is a gifted speaker and we are pleased to have him with us at S. Clement's. He is in the East to attend the ACU Council and will stop in Philadelphia enroute home.

Parish Notes

ON THIS, THE FEAST OF DEDICATION, Clementines have reason to offer profound thanksgiving to Almighty God. The Church has been erected and ornamented for His greater Glory, but those who worship within its walls have opportunity to drink in the beauty of its holiness. Through love, labor, skill and generosity this has been developed into one of America's great Churches. Its magnificence is not in any respect an end in itself. Every stone and statue is an aid to the faithful's devotion to Holy God, the Saints and Angels. It is our right to have a Church; it is our privilege to have the beautiful S. Clement's Church. To-day we say "Thank-You" to God, and we pledge ourselves to still better use of this holy place.

THE REV. FATHER RENE M. BOZARTH is the preacher this morning at Solemn Mass. Father Bozarth, besides being Rector of S. Luke's Church, Gresham, Oregon, also is Warden of the Society of S. Paul,—a new religious community whose magazine "The Anglican Paulist" has been distributed in this parish. We are pleased to have him make his initial visit to S. Clement's to-day.

THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL SOULS will be to-morrow. Low Mass at 7, 8 and 9:30 and Solemn Mass at 11. Names of those to be remembered at the Masses will have to be submitted to-day. The lists of names will be placed on the altar to-morrow and, during November, at all Requiems and at other Masses, e.g. Thursday of this week, when the intension is for the faithful departed. The All Saints - All Souls offering will be divided between S. Anna's Home and the Guild of All Souls and, we hope, will be generous.

A WEEK FROM SATURDAY, being the 15th, will be a Mass at 8 for our three sodalities: the C.B.S., the G.A.S., and the Society of Mary. It is hoped all members will attend, receive Holy Communion and remain for a short meeting. Breakfast reservations may be made with the Priests or the Sisters.

PREPARATION FOR THE BAZAAR increases in pace as the weeks pass. At the Work-Shop each Tuesday evening in the Parish Hall more workers are needed to help in making "things". Post cards describing the Bazaar will be printed for mailing to friends not of this parish. Will you write names of people who you think might just possibly be interested in coming to our Bazaar and give your list either to Louise Haselton or Jean Purdy? They will address the cards and mail them. The event will be staged in unusually attractive fashion this year and those who miss it will be sorry if they hear it has already been held.

S. CLEMENT'S is engaging in a new missionary enterprise this year through the good works of the Mission Sisters. Once a week one of the Sisters gives an afternoon to work among the children at the Church of the Annunciation. The Rev. Father Harris' program with youth has developed in such a way as to need assistance of a Sister and we are thankful for the Reverend Mother's permission and the Mission Sisters' support of this endeavor. Please offer your prayers that the work will be fruitful.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH UNION of this area will have a meeting on Thursday evening, November 13th, at 8:15 at S. Mary's Church, Wayne. ACU has not been as active as the members might wish and now is the time to revive its life in Philadelphia and environs. More about this next Sunday, but will the ACU members and all friends of its cause save the date and plan to attend?

EACH SUNDAY after Solemn Mass there is a tour of the Church. Charles Randall conducts the group and provides a description of the artistic and historic appointments. Will those who wish to join the tour assemble in the pews at the front of the nave after the Mass?

Parish Notes

ON SATURDAY OF THIS WEEK, at 8 o'clock, Mass will be offered in S. John's Chapel, for the parish branches of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, the Guild of All Souls and the Society of Mary. Breakfast and a brief meeting will be held in the Parish Hall. This is an experimental venture and one which your Father Rector hopes will be sufficiently well supported to become an annual affair. With the members becoming aware of who the other members are and learning to know them, the societies ought to be strengthened in spirit and their membership increased. Please indicate to the Priests or Sisters your intention of being at the breakfast.

A REGIONAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN CHURCH UNION will be held on Thursday evening, November 20th, at 8:15 at S. Mary's Church, Wayne (postponed from November 13th to November 20th). The ACU in some parts of the country holds series of interesting and even exciting meetings, while in our immediate community it has been too dormant to attract the number of members this diocese ought to have. The public relations effectively established by ACU among the people at General Convention was on such a high level that NOW seems to be the time to revive the Philadelphia branch. It is hoped that not only all the members of ACU but also all parishioners who do not belong to ACU will attend this meeting. The ACU is primarily a lay organization and for this reason each of you is urged to give your own support to the meeting and to invite Churchmen from other parishes.

AT THE OCTOBER VESTRY MEETING changes in the organization were made. The Father Rector appointed Dr. F. D. W. Lukens the Rector's Warden to succeed the late Mr. Kremer. Mr. Thomas H. Clark was elected Secretary of the Vestry to succeed Dr. Lukens who resigned that office. Mr. Henry A. Reiter was elected to fill the unexpired term of Vestryman created by the death of Mr. Kremer. Forty years ago Dr. Lukens' grandfather, F. D. W. Lukens, was the Rector's Warden and later both his father and uncle were Vestrymen. It is gratifying indeed to witness family loyalty to the parish generation after generation. Mr. Clark is not a stranger to the secretaryship; he has very capably filled the office during brief, temporary periods. Mr. Reiter as an electrical contractor will offer counsel helpful in the continual consideration of the care of the property.

THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION was unanimously adopted by the Vestry.

The Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of S. Clement's Church record with sorrow the death of John Kremer, Rector's Warden. Long a member of this Parish, he had been a member of the Vestry since 1935. From 1939 to 1949 he served as Accounting Warden. His painstaking and conscientious devotion to the welfare of the Parish was an example to us all. In difficult decisions he displayed a combination of gentleness, wisdom and courage which made him a recognized and beloved leader. The Vestry and the Congregation owe him gratitude for such loving service. May he rest in peace.

HAVE YOU EVER BEEN IN A BAVARIAN VILLAGE? You will have the opportunity to wander through the enchanting scene of a Bavarian Village in our Parish Hall on December 4th, visit the quaint shops with their attractive wares, and enjoy the friendly environment of a market-place in the Tyrolean hill-country. The Bazaar will be appropriately marked with this motif, for Bavaria in a distinctive way is Christmas-Country. Dinner tickets are now for sale; be sure to buy yours well in advance. A request is made for donations of inexpensive gifts for both children and adults that can be used in the fish-pond, or grab-bag. The gifts will be wrapped by the committee. Please give them to a member of the committee or bring them yourself to the workshop on Tuesday evenings in the Parish Hall.

Parish Notes

OUR PATRONAL FESTIVAL will be inaugurated on Friday night of this week. At 8 o'clock there will be Solemn Magnificat and Solemn Benediction with sermon by a former Curate of the Parish and one of its good friends, the Rev. John A. Schultz, Rector of Trinity Church, Ambler. Following the service there will be a Reception in the Parish Hall to which all parishioners and friends of the Parish are invited. Other priest-visitors will be with us, among whom may be Father Paul Collins, now of S. Mary's Convent, Peekskill. It is hoped that, being on a week-night, this function will attract many former Clementines and thus be rather a reunion. You are asked to assume the responsibility of passing the word among those who in the past have been associated with our Parish.

THE RT. REV. CHARLES ASA CLOUGH, Bishop of Springfield, will be our guest of honor next week-end. He will be present in choir Friday night and at the Reception where those of you who do not know him may be presented to him. At Solemn Mass on Sunday, S. CLEMENT'S DAY, the Bishop will perform the episcopal ceremonies at the throne and will preach. A sermon by Bishop Clough is a memorable experience and those of you who usually attend Mass at other hours are advised to switch to 11 next week. S. Clement's Day is distinctively our Parish-festival, and it is hoped that once again the Church will be filled and it will be filled if every able-bodied parishioner wends his way to 20th and Appletree Streets at 11 a week from this morning.

THE CLEMENTIDE OFFERING is an important item in our financial structure. The Father Rector and the Vestry ask you to make your contribution commensurate with your deep and great love for your Parish-Church.

BAZAAR NOTICE! All members of committees and all who in any way work for the Bazaar will meet to-morrow evening in the Parish Hall at 8. Two weeks from Thursday is the big event and all must be in readiness. And PARISHIONERS, one and all, have you set aside the night, Dec. 4th, and have you procured dinner tickets? This is the only promotional effort of all the year and it deserves the generous support of each of you.

THE CLERICAL UNION will meet on Wednesday at S. Alban's Church, Olney. Father Chapin will lead in a discussion on "Pastoral Principles in Holy Baptism, Confirmation and Marriage." The meeting will be preceded by Mass at 10:30.

THE REGIONAL ACU MEETING, postponed from the 13th, will be held on Thursday of this week at S. Mary's, Wayne, at 8:15. Priests in this area are working hard to revive the local branch of ACU and to make it as interesting as it is in other parts of the country. Inasmuch as it is mainly a lay-organization, it is hoped a large number of men and women of this and other parishes will attend. Will not those of you who are members of ACU attend and bring a non-member with you?

EVERY MEMBER of the Parish very soon will be asked to make a pledge of his or her support of the Church in 1959. How do you decide how much to give the Church? Many people arrive at the figure by arbitrary choice. The scriptural injunction is to give a tithe, and the tithe is an undebatable standard,—God's revealed expectation of each of us. If you do not know what a tithe is, read carefully the next Parish-letter. Read Deut. 14:22, 23, 24 and to gain an insight into God's judgement of those who fail, read Malachi 3:8.

U.T.O.—OUR DIOCESAN PRESENTATION SERVICE on November 19th will be the first of the new Triennium so let us make it particularly meaningful. The service will be held in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square, at 8 P.M. The Rev. Rowland J. Cox, the new Assistant Secretary of the Overseas Department, will be the speaker. Before coming to the National Council, Mr. Cox was stationed in Point Hope, Alaska. This notice did not get into the leaflet last Sunday, but will the ladies kindly have their offering in before the 19th.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P. M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

It was about November-tide,
A long, long time ago,
When good S. Clement testified
The faith that now we know.
Right boldly then he said his say,
Before a furious king;
And therefore on S. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.

Work in the mines they gave him
then,
To try the brave old saint;
And there two thousand Christian
men
With thirst were like to faint.
He prayed a prayer, and out of clay
He made the waters spring,
And therefore on S. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.

Parish Notes

THE RT. REV. CHARLES ASA CLOUGH, D.D., Bishop of Springfield, honors S. Clement's Church with his presence during the days on which we observe the Patronal Festival. Bishop Clough has been a scholarly champion of the Catholic Faith and an effective teacher of the same throughout his ministry. We count his being with us on our parochial holiday a blessing and a privilege and are hopeful of his returning to our sanctuary and pulpit for other gala occasions.

THE REV. JOHN A. SCHULTZ comes to S. Clement's on Friday evening both as a former Curate and a loyal friend of the Parish. During the past three years he has been of invaluable assistance to the Father Rector in planning committee projects of the ACU. He will deliver the sermon on Friday night.

THE REV. FATHER RECTOR-EMERITUS is in the Parish for Clement-Tide, having returned to Philadelphia to make his home. It is a distinct joy to parishioners and friends to have Fr. Joiner again in choir and sharing in the life of the Parish. The Rev. Father Paul D. Collins and the Rev. Father Alfred M. Smith, D.D., both much loved by Clementines, are joining us in celebrating the Patronal Festival. And the Rev. E. Paul Jowett, Curate of S. Paul's Church, Overbrook, is assisting in the Mass. Fr. Jowett was a Yarnall Education Fund student, now is a deacon, and will be ordered priest on December 20. We are grateful to his Rector, Fr. Acton, for loaning him to us to-day.

THE MUSIC OF THE MASS is Ralph Vaughan Williams' Mass in d,—not sung by S. Clement's Choir before to-day. It has been chosen for the Patronal Festival as a tribute to the memory of the late Mr. Williams, Dean of English composers and one of the foremost contemporary Church musicians.

THE NATIONAL THANKSGIVING DAY is Thursday. Low Masses will be at 7 and 8, and a Solemn Mass with Holy Communion at 9:30. As American citizens we have much for which to be thankful and it is only right that we respond to the Presidential Proclamation by assisting at the liturgy which is properly described as being "The Holy Thanksgiving." The plate offering on this day will be given to Episcopal Hospital.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet on Tuesday at 8 at the Church of the Annunciation, 12th and Diamond Streets. The Rev. Edward C. McCoy will conclude his series of addresses, and his topic this month is "Worship in the Reformed Churches—Lutheranism as Seen Through its Liturgy."

THE BAZAAR is only one week from Thursday. The Bavarian scene is rapidly moving in upon us, and the shops require a generous stock of goods. The Jewelry counter requires old gold, or new,—that is,—good used jewelry or brand new. And the Food Shop will need large supplies of all kinds of baked goods; contributions of your best "Gebak" are requested. Tickets for the dinner are being purchased in a goodly number; if you do not yet have yours, you are advised to hurry. We cannot serve more than 200 guests. It will be a most festive evening and an excellent opportunity to get your Christmas gifts.

The Clement-Tide Offering is for the Parish Maintenance Fund.

An anchor 'round his neck they tied,
And cast him in the sea;
And bravely as he lived he died,
And gallantly went free.
He rests a many miles away,
Yet here his name we sing,
As all upon S. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.

Our fathers kept it long ago,
And their request we make:
Good Christians, one small mite
bestow,
For sweet S. Clement's sake;
And make his feast as glad and gay
As if it came in spring,
When all upon S. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P. M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

S. CLEMENT'S DAY is a most happy memory and, actually, much more than a memory. It long will remain a high mark of devotion that each participant will attempt to keep alive. Everything that contributed to the event was just right—the music, the presence of loyal friends,—both cleric and laic,—the erudite sermon, the courtly ceremonies, and above all the generous outpouring of praise and love for Almighty God in the sacred liturgy in honor of our Patron Saint. We are most grateful to God for the opportunity of having part in the celebration and once again going a-Clementing.

TO-DAY we begin the new Church-year. Advent is the most exciting of the liturgical seasons because it is replete with anticipation. The writings of the prophets become rekindled with holy fire as, during this season, one reads their proclamations of the coming of the Messiah. Over and over again Advent tells us "get ready" for the Lord is at hand. Each year we are called upon again to make preparation. It is fun to prepare for Christmas jollity, but spiritually the Nativity will be flat unless it has a devotional preparation.

A BAVARIAN VILLAGE in the Parish Hall will be the setting of the Bazaar on Thursday. The shops will be open from 3 to 9; the Auction will be held in two sessions,—at the end of both dinner hours. The committees have done their parts; the shelves are stocked. The only element still needed for success is a large number of customers,—and every parishioner and friend of the parish is asked to help in this regard. Come yourself, and bring another shopper with you, and help our shop-keepers to end the evening with empty counters.

SCYO will assemble this afternoon in the Parish Hall to make candy for the Bazaar, and later to conduct the monthly business meeting.

THE ALL SAINTS-ALL SOULS OFFERING has been divided for the benefit of two most worthy causes. $260.00 was given to All Saints Sisters for use at S. Anna's Home, and $75.55 was given to the Guild of All Souls. Your Father Rector expresses to the donors deep gratitude for their contributions which made these benefactions possible; the Home and the Guild are both most appreciative of the parish's affectionate support.

THE ADVENT RETREAT will be a week from Saturday, being Dec. 13th. This year one Quiet Evening will be conducted for men and women and, we hope, for young people,—rather a Family Retreat. The first address will be at 5:00, and the conductor will be the Rev. Father Paul C. Kintzing, Jr. Reservations for dinner should be made in advance with the Priests or Sisters.

THE EASTERN CONVOCATION OF NASHOTAH ALUMNI will have its fall meeting on Tuesday at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin, New York. Mass will be at 12, followed by luncheon and a meeting. The Father Rector and Fr. Davis will be in attendance.

EACH PARISHIONER has received a letter regarding the financial support of the Church in 1959, and each has been asked to make a pledge of support. More cards are available at the bulletin-board. The importance of pledged contributions cannot be overemphasized. A pledge is of value to the pledger because it settles the question of how much to give and it commits him to giving it; it is of value to the parish because it enables the Vestry definitely to know how much income to expect. Without this information the Vestry cannot propose or adopt a realistic budget. For these reasons the Vestry asks EVERY member to make a pledge. Please submit the signed cards within the next two weeks,—certainly before Christmas.

Parish Notes

THE FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION of Our Lady is to-morrow. The doctrine which proclaims the unique sanctity and complete innocence of Our Lord's Mother has been a venerable teaching of the Church since early centuries. We, as Anglicans, find thankful joy in the facts that the doctrine had its first synodical authority in a pronouncement of the Council of London in 1126 and that the feast was celebrated generally in England long before the continental bishops were willing to accept it. It is a day when all Catholics are expected to hear Mass as a courtesy to Our Lord and Our Lady.

BROTHER JOSEPH FRANCIS has completed the novitiate of the Society of S. John the Evangelist, and to-morrow at 9 will make his junior profession in the Society. His many friends at S. Clement's extend to him their greetings and offer prayers on his behalf.

THE VESTRY will meet in the Clergy House at 4:30 Tuesday.

THE ADVENT QUIET EVENING will be held on Saturday. It is for all men, women and youths who welcome an opportunity for spiritual refreshment in preparation for the best observance of the Nativity of Our Lord. The Rev. Fr. Paul C. Kintzing, Jr., will be the conductor. It will start at 5 o'clock; after dinner will be the 2nd and 3rd addresses. Reservations for the meal should be made as soon as possible.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S (formerly Woman's Auxiliary) will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Members are asked to bring gifts for men, women or children in Philadelphia General Hospital, to be wrapped and labelled at the meeting. They are to be distributed on Christmas Day by the Elizabeth Price Martin League. Suggestions are as follows, for adults: soap, wash cloths, Kleenex, talcum powder, candy, cigarettes, cigars; and for children: small rubber, plastic or stuffed toys, coloring books, crayons, educational toys and unbreakable dolls. Contributions of holiday wrappings and tags also are solicited for the meeting. This will be a most enjoyable evening, and it is hoped many of the ladies of the parish will attend.

THE 1958 BAZAAR now is history. This is written too far in advance to comment on its success. The reasonable prediction is that it will be attractive, entertaining and profitable. Many people worked very hard for weeks in preparing the Bazaar. Gratitude,—very generous gratitude,—is expressed to all who helped, from the co-chairmen down to the casual workers. Everyone who lifted a finger in supporting the project hereby receives a metaphorical orchid, and deserves a real one. It was work, but most rewarding labor. We hope within a few weeks to report the profits.

PLEDGE-CARDS for 1959 are coming to the office in the Clergy House in a steady flow. The response, at the time of writing, is gratifying. However, we are optimistically hoping to hear from a very large number of parishioners who, for one reason or another, have not yet submitted their cards. To publish in the leaflet reasons why everyone should make a pledge would be mere repetition. Letter no. 28 was convincing to its author. Will not those of you who have not yet pledged please re-read the letter? Whether it be large or small, a pledge is expected of every member of S. Clement's Church.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

ONLY TEN DAYS until the winsome feast arrives! Shopping lists are being checked off as gifts are provided for children, parents, aunts and uncles and sweethearts. Have you planned your gift for the One Whose birthday will be celebrated? What are you going to give Our Lord? After all, that is the most important present to prepare. You will give Him your love, your worship, your special offering,—but there is still more for each to consider. You will give Him your best self in oblation in the act of Holy Communion. What is your best self? It is a thoroughly recollected self, one that has examined itself so that the soul may be presented every whit clean and reconsecrated. This means a good examination of conscience, and a planned time to come to the Church for a sacramental confession. Your gift to the Christ-Child should include a good confession so that, absolved, you may worthily take your place with the Holy Mother, S. Joseph and the shepherds in kneeling before the Son of God Incarnate on the Christmas Altar.

CHRISTMAS CHARITIES are being planned by the Parish. Gifts will be sent to a number of parishioners who are ill or confined to their quarters. Flowers for the Altars and the Shrine are to be provided. Contributions for these purposes may be given the Priests or the Sisters. Promptness is requested so that the purchases may be made well in advance. Another charity that may appeal to some parishioners is S. Anthony's Bread. This fund, largely supported by one or two people, has been the means of giving about 250 meal tickets in the past year to hungry people who ring the Clergy House door-bell asking for food. Make checks to S. Clement's Rector's Fund.

TWO SHORT RETREATS for women will be held this week at S. Margaret's House in Germantown. TUESDAY: Mass at 8:30; 1st address at 10:15; day closes at 3:15; conductor, the Rev. Harry S. Longley, D.D. SATURDAY: 4:30 to 9:00; conductor, the Rev. Wilfred F. Penny. The Sisters of S. Margaret, who graciously invite our ladies, request early registration.

THE FALL INGATHERING of the United Thank Offering amounted to $107, Miss Elsie Williams, the custodian, has announced. This is an excellent offering and indicates a wholesome interest on the part of our Woman's Auxiliary.

THE REV. E. PAUL JOWETT will be ordained to the Sacred Priesthood by the Suffragan Bishop of Pennsylvania at S. Paul's Church, Overbrook, at 10 a.m. Saturday. Fr. Jowett has had association with this parish and assisted in the S. Clement's Day Mass. He was graduated from Berkeley Divinity School in June and is Curate of the Overbrook parish. Parishioners are invited to attend the ordination and are asked to offer their prayers for the ordinand. The Father Rector will be the Litanist and Father Ducker the Master of Ceremonies.

EVERY YEAR AT THIS TIME the Church Periodical Club mails Christmas presents of books and magazines to our missionaries in many parts of the world. A donation of $5 will bring a much-desired piece of literature to someone as far away as the Philippines, with Bunting & Harris generously providing the postage. Anyone wishing to give Christmas joy to one of our missionaries is asked to see Mrs. Harold G. Pile immediately. She is the new C.P.C. Secretary for S. Clement's. She also can help if you wish to remail your own magazines to a mission worker.

ABOUT ONE HALF of the 1958 pledgers have sent in their pledge cards for 1959. May we have the others NOW so that envelopes may be prepared for all who will wish them?

Parish Notes

"BE JOYFUL, O daughter of Sion, and exceeding glad, O daughter of Jerusalem," sings Holy Church, as Advent dawns; "for behold, thy Saviour cometh to loose thee from thy chain."

The joyous note of expectation that thrills through the Advent liturgy in no wise obscures the note of penitence: it is the very consciousness of our need for salvation that causes our joy at its approach. Knowing ourselves to be bound as "prisoners in the prison-house, sitting in darkness and the shadow of death," we cry to Him to come and save us "whom He formed of clay."

It is for each of us, this Advent, to prepare a place for Him—a heart loosed from its chains by the priestly Absolution that follows confession of all one's sins. With this sorrowful myrrh of penitence each one of us can greet Him, pouring forth at His feet the gold of our love and the incense of adoration.

Thus, prepared to meet Him, may we joyfully receive Him in our Christmas Communion, cradling in lowly hearts this "Love All-lovely, Love Divine," Him Who is

Joy, all joys excelling;
Enlightenment to know our sins;
Sorrow for transgressions;
Unction, to heal the wounds of sin;
Sweetness, beyond all sweets beside;—
JESUS, our Life, our Love, our All.

—From "Gems" published by the Order of S. Anne.

* * * * *

THE SCHEDULE of Christmas services is given on first page and the complete Christmastide schedule is being distributed to all parishioners by mail. Encouragement to attend Mass on the Holy Nativity seems uncalled for. Everyone who loves the Lord Jesus will want to be at His Birthday celebration and receive Him in His Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Each of the several holy days of the season makes its special appeal and it is hoped many will attend on the feasts of the Christmas Saints. Judging from all indications it will be a season of great happiness as well as deep holiness; in fact, each quality is complementary to the other. "Good Christian man, rejoice, With heart, and soul, and voice . . . Christ is born to-day!"

FOLLOWING BENEDICTION on Friday night the Holiday Party for the Parish will be held in the Hall, and it is hoped many will come to it and share the festive spirit of our Parish Family. The Children's Christmas Party will be on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5, and SCYO will have a Yule-tide Party on Saturday evening. On New Year's Day the Parish Priests will be at home to parishioners and friends from 3 to 6 in the Clergy House, and they hope to greet all of you on that day.

THE CHRISTMAS CHARITIES FUND still is open and in need of additional gifts. The fund provides food or small gifts for parishioners confined to their quarters, and also the greens and flowers for the altars and the shrines. S. Anthony's Bread provides lunches for some of the hungry people who appeal to the Parish for help. Make checks payable to S. Clement's Rector's Fund.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

THE PRIESTS OF THE PARISH express their deep gratitude to the many parishioners and others who contributed much to the joy of the Christmas season by sending cards and gifts to the Clergy House.

THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY, Tuesday, is one of the major chapters in the Christmas cycle of holy days. It is one of the great festivals, not only beautiful with its appealing account of the adoration of the Wise Men, but theologically significant because of its demonstration of Our Lord's being God and King of all peoples. Its secondary title is "The Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles," a revolutionary conception of the role of the Saviour compared with that which the Jews had expected their Messiah to be. It was a dramatic portrayal of the universality of Our Lord's sovereignty. This is a day when those who love Our Lord wish to join the Magi in kneeling before "the young Child with Mary His Mother" for worship of Christ the King. Many out of love and devotion will receive Him in the Blessed Sacrament. At S. Clement's we shall have three Low Masses and, in addition, a Solemn Mass and Benediction.

SCYO will meet next Sunday evening. An important item on the agenda is the election of officers for 1959.

ADVANCE NOTICE is given that on a week from Tuesday, the 13th, will be a Family Film Night sponsored by The Women of S. Clement's, as our branch of the W. A. now is known. The program at 8 p.m. will be for the men, women and youths of the parish and their friends. The film will be of the Church's work in Alaska.

BAZAAR REPORT! At this writing, two weeks in advance of the date of this leaflet, the profits on the Christmas Bazaar may be announced as being $1300. Sale of cards, calendars and other articles will raise that figure somewhat. This is an increase of about 45% over the profits of the 1957 Bazaar. In addition to being a profitable undertaking it was a most pleasant evening. The Hall was artistically converted into a charming continental setting; the shops were laden with attractive goods; and a delicious dinner was served to nearly 300 guests. This brilliant success was not accomplished by wishful planning; it was the result of many hours of hard work on the part of many people. The larger income is the result of the generous patronage of parishioners and friends. The most suitable comment seems to be, "We thank God and our fellows for all that has been offered on behalf of the missionary program of the Church."

IF YOU HAVE NOT RECEIVED envelopes for 1959, it is because you have not submitted a pledge-card for 1959. More cards are available at the bulletin boards. The Vestry will be grateful if those who have not completed their 1958 pledges would do so very soon. Prompt payment will make possible the Vestry's adherence to the budget,—a sound business practice.

Parish Notes

NEWS! NEWS! CHRISTMAS NEWS! It is a great happiness to report to the Parish that as of last Sunday, the Christmas Offering amounts to $3200. Announcement was made that every penny of the offering will be used to reduce the debt for the new roofs on the Parish Hall and Clergy House and the repairs to the Church roof. The debt has been $12,000 and this generous offering will pay more than a quarter of it. Your contribution to the fund is an outward sign of your thanksgiving for the Incarnation of Our Blessed Lord; it is an emblem of your love for the Christ Child. Because of the high motive behind your giving, you may prefer not to be thanked. However, your Father Rector and the Vestry do express deep gratitude for your largesse; they are appreciative of your response to an appeal prompted by an acute situation. The fund remains open for the convenience of those who have not yet been able to share in this undertaking. The Christmas Bazaar netted $400 more than was needed for the Missionary Quota. This $400 has also been used against the roof debt. How much there is for which to be thankful!

SCYO will have its monthly meeting this evening at which election of officers for 1959 will be held. A week from to-night the young people will be guests of S. Barnabas' Church, Haddington.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S invite the parish,—men, women and youths,—to the meeting on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Parish Hall. It will be "Family Film Night" with a picture and a talk on the Church's work in Alaska. Refreshments will be served. Parochial interest in the 49th State has risen considerably since one of our Clementine youths has enrolled in the University of Alaska and has reported his activity in the near-by Parish-Church.

THE JANUARY MEETING of the Vestry has been postponed until Tuesday, February 3rd. One of the principle duties of the Vestry at their first meeting in each new calendar year, is to adopt a budget for that year. So many parishioners have not made pledges for 1959 that the adopting of a realistic budget is an impossibility at present. Hence, the postponement,—with hope. Without knowing how much money to expect in contributions, there is not a reasonable method for determining how much money to spend. With most people the delay undoubtedly is old-fashioned procrastination. A second letter has been sent to those who did not respond to the earlier one. It is not pleasant to talk or write about pledges, payments, etc., and your Father Rector will be thankful when the pledge cards have been submitted so that he can devote his energies to the more priestly aspect of his duties, and spare the prompt parishioners from further messages like this one.

Parish Notes

THIS EVENING SCYO will attend the YPF of North Philadelphia Convocation at the Free Church of S. John, Elkhart and Emerald Streets. Father Ducker will conduct the installation of the new convocational officers.

THE DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD will meet to-morrow afternoon at 1:30 at the Church House on Rittenhouse Square. The speaker of the afternoon will be the Rev. Father Walter Strickland, Chaplain on the staff of the City Mission. It is expected that ladies of this Parish who can be free at that hour will attend this meeting.

THE CLERICAL UNION will hold its January meeting at this Parish on Wednesday morning. The C.U. meetings open with Mass and this year the organization planned to have a Solemn Mass at one meeting, and chose S. Clement's as the place for this function. Our cantors will sing the Proper of the day and the priests will sing the Ordinary. Parishioners wishing to attend this Solemn Mass of S. Agnes at 10:30 will be most welcome.

A SERVICE OF WITNESS sponsored by the local branch of the American Church Union will be held next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at S. Mark's Church, Locust Street. The date,—the 25th,—was chosen because it concludes the eight-day period dedicated to prayer for Christian Unity which annually is observed by most Christian people. Several Eastern Orthodox Clergy will be present. The preacher will be the Rev. C. Edward Hopkin, Ph.D., Professor of Theology and Ethics at the Divinity School. The ACU is taking a new lease on life,—nationally through its enlargement of staff and program, and locally through a revitalized branch under capable leadership. This advance notice is being given in detail in the hope of leading many parishioners to plan now to attend the Service of Witness. The purpose of the service is to testify to our Catholic strength and conviction,—and to win the interest of more people in the fulness of the Faith. It is desirable, therefore, to have a large number present affirming the Faith and singing the praises of Triune God.

THE CHURCH UNITY OCTAVE begins to-day. You are familiar with its purpose, and you are asked to respond to the appeal for prayers. The daily intentions are given here so that parishioners may pray them in their private intercessions and at Mass:

18. The Unity of All Christians and the Peace of the world.
19. Reunion of the separated Eastern Christians.
20. Reunion of the separated English Christians.
21. Reunion of the separated Christians in Europe.
22. Reunion of the separated Christians in America and the British Commonwealth.
23. The Conversion of the Lapsed.
24. The Conversion of the Jews and Moslems.
25. The Missionary Conquest of the world to Christ the King.

A NEW LOW MASS set of vestments is being used at the 8 and 9:15 Masses to-day. It is of handsome green damask with orphreys of bright red velvet and ornamentation in gold calf-skin. The Parish is grateful to Mrs. William O. Baker for giving the vestments. A corresponding cope will be ordered so as to provide us with beautiful appointments for the High Mass on the summer Sundays in Trinity season.

A WEEK FROM TO-DAY, by appointment of the Presiding Bishop, is Theological Education Sunday when every congregation is asked to receive an offering for seminary support. The plate offering, over and above the average Sunday income, will be sent to Nashotah House . . . Sunday also is our Station-Day in the ACU Cycle of Prayer. Leaflets with suggested intercessions and envelopes for support of this department of ACU will be available.

Parish Notes

IN ADDITION TO BEING SEPTUAGESIMA, the beginning of the Pre-Lent season, to-day has further significance. This is Theological Education Sunday. The plate offering, above the average Sunday collection, will be sent to Nashotah House. Your generosity is solicited on behalf of this worthy institution. This is the concluding day in the Church Unity Octave; as a fitting culmination to the week of prayer for the unity of Christendom, the intention to-day is for the Missionary Conquest of the world for Christ the King. Locally, this is our day for observing the ACU Cycle of Prayer. Every day of the year one or more parishes or religious houses has its turn in the scheme of continuous intercession on behalf of the Church and its works. It is an excellent spiritual project furthered by the ACU giving religious and moral support to all of the good works undertaken by the Church. Lastly, this evening at 8 o'clock will be the Service of Witness at S. Mark's Church, Locust Street. It is sponsored by the local branch of the ACU and has the approbation of episcopal authority and that of the Eastern Orthodox leaders. All of you are asked to attend the service and to give support to this testimonial of Catholic conviction. An attempt is being made to revive the ACU as a strong and constructive element in the Philadelphia Church-scene, and S. Clement's is being relied upon to do its part.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet at S. Clement's on Tuesday evening. Solemn Benediction will be given at 8, and the meeting will follow. The Rev. Father Paul C. Kintzing, Jr., will give the first in a series of addresses, his subject on Tuesday being "Daily Public Prayer of the Church—the Offices." In keeping with established custom, ladies are invited to the meeting at S. Clement's. Ladies of the Parish please note: you are invited to join the gentlemen for this evening of Catholic enlightenment and fellowship.

A WEEK FROM THIS AFTERNOON at 4 o'clock will be the Candlemas liturgy,—Solemn Evensong, the Blessing and Distribution of Candles, Procession and Solemn Benediction. After the service there will be a social hour in the Parish Hall with refreshments. This bit of sociability will be the Parish's Pre-Lent party and it is hoped that many of the members and their friends will attend.

AT A RECENT SCYO MEETING new officers for 1959 were elected. They are Peter Moore, president; Carol Traxler, vice-president and treasurer; Averill Moore, secretary. The congregation is asked to offer prayers for the guidance of these young leaders of an important part of the Parish. The Rev. Father Ducker is the Spiritual Director of the organization.

THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE ACU will have its regular meeting at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin, New York, on Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. Father Henry C. Beck, editor-elect of the ACU News, will assume office on February 1st and will make his residence in Lawrenceville, N. J. The Father Rector will be in New York Monday and Tuesday; he and Mr. Cooper will attend the meeting of the Executive Board.

Parish Notes

THIS AFTERNOON, following Solemn Evensong at 4, will be the Blessing of Candles, Procession and Benediction. Blessed candles for use in homes will be available. An informal social hour in the Parish Hall will follow the service. This will be the Parish's pre-Lent party. It is expected that all who possibly can do so will return to the Church this afternoon for the Candlemas Service and the social gathering. To-morrow there will be four Masses of the Purification of Blessed Mary,—the last one being a Solemn Mass at 11. Often the attendance at week-day sung Masses is sparse. Won't you come at 11 and share in offering the liturgy of this beautiful festival?

ON TUESDAY, S. Blasius' Day, throats will be blessed after each Mass, and also after the Masses next Sunday.

THE VESTRY will have the postponed January meeting on Tuesday at 4:30 in the Clergy House.

SCYO will have the annual Mardi-Gras next Sunday evening.

THIS IS THE LAST weekly leaflet that will be mailed to those who have not subscribed for the 1958-59 season.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S will have an open meeting for men, women and youths on a week from Tuesday at 8.00 p.m. The program will be on Puerto Rico.

Parish Notes

BEING ONE OF THE YEARS with a very early Lent, it gives us both advantages and disadvantages. The great festivals that follow Easter will come before the heat of June. The last one, the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, will be Sunday, May 31st. On the other hand, we run the risk of the vagaries of winter during Lent and we can only hope and pray that ice and snow do not impede any of our members from a good observance of the holy season. Lent should have a good beginning, which means the making of a rule for self-discipline and for attendance at services in addition to Sunday Mass; and it also means the making of Confession. Shrove-Tuesday is set apart for coming to shrift as a suitable preparation of soul and body for increase in sanctity during the forty days.

ON THE SEVEN FRIDAYS of Lent Fr. Ducker will give a series of sermons on "Characters of the Passion." His subjects will be: Feb. 13th, "Peter"; Feb. 20th, "Judas"; Feb. 27th, "Pilate"; Mar. 6th, "Herod"; Mar. 13th, "Claudia and Herodias"; Mar. 20th, "Barabbas and the Thieves"; Mar. 27th, "Christus Victor." These will be given at 8 p.m. when each Friday, except Good-Friday, there will be Stations of the Cross and Benediction. On Good-Friday the Litany and Penitential Office will be said at that hour. Each sermon will be complete in itself but the series on these notable persons who had part in the Passion, concluding with Our Lord Himself, should be welcomed by a large number of our parishioners and friends.

BLESSING OF THROATS will be given after each Mass to-day for the convenience of those who were unable to receive the blessing on the feast of S. Blasius.

CANDLES BLESSED on Candlemas for home use are available in the Church corridor. An offering of $1 for a box of two is requested.

SCYO will have its annual Mardi Gras this evening in the Parish Hall. Each member is asked to invite a friend from out of the parish to join in the festivities.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S will hold an open meeting for men, women and youths on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall. The program will be on the work of the Church in Puerto Rico and refreshments will be served. Being on Shrove Tuesday, this will be the last of the "eating" events at S. Clement's until after the Lenten fast, and it is hoped a goodly number will attend. For the convenience of people attending this event, two priests will be in the confessionals at 7:30.

AN APPEAL FOR CHILDREN! Each Saturday Mass is offered at 9:30 followed by instruction of the children. The Priests and the Sisters make preparations for an interesting and varied morning for the benefit of our young parishioners. In recent years attendance has been pitifully small. Will not parents, older brothers and sisters and guardians give the children encouragement to attend these services and instructions?

Parish Notes

A QUIET EVENING for men will be held on a week from Saturday, February 28th, from 5 to 9. Reservations for dinner should be made with the Sisters. Non-parishioners as well as men of S. Clement's are welcome to make the retreat.

THE VESTRY held a highly satisfying meeting on February 3rd. The Accounting Warden's report for 1958 revealed solvency in all accounts and further, remarkable progress in reducing the debt for roof repairs. On behalf of the Finance Committee he presented a budget for 1959 which makes reasonable provision for all the foreseen expenditures of the year. The diocesan authorities have increased the parochial Missionary Quota for 1959 by $500, to a total of $6000, and the large figure is allowed for in the new budget. A few other items, including Clergy stipends, were increased. This realistic budget has been made possible largely through the generous and often sacrificial giving of you, the members of the parish. Many members have increased their pledges; others already had been giving a justly large proportion of their income. Your Father Rector is deeply grateful for the faith and love and devotion that prompt such giving,—and, rather in a personal way,—for your confidence in his administration of the parish and that of the Vestry. More than once he has offered Holy Mass for you, in gratitude to God that He has so richly nourished you in the Christian manner of living,—and in petition that He will bless you for all that you give Him of yourselves and your goods.

CONTINUING IN THE SAME VEIN a bit further, a mystifying question is why such a rather considerable number of Clementines lean so heavily on other Clementines to support their parish. The satisfaction of the above-mentioned report notwithstanding, there are fewer pledgers this year than last. Perhaps some of our people have lost their cards, forgotten about them or simply postponed action. We hope that this is the case, and we remind those people, "It is better late than never." When the year arrives that ALL of our members (and be assured we love every member and want every one) contribute a fair share of income to the Church, S. Clement's will not only be solvent but will be able to make many needed improvements to property (adequate lighting of the nave and sanctuary is one example), and in other ways provide for brightening the life of the parish. Pledge cards and boxes of envelopes still are available and we hope that musing on the message of Lent and God's sacrificial gifts to His people will move dozens of parishioners to make return for those gifts.

A NEWLY ELECTED VESTRYMAN attended the meeting and was properly welcomed. He is William Pike, who with his family drives from Feasterville every Sunday to assist at Mass at S. Clement's. Mr. Pike is an Account-Executive with the Sealtest Supplee Dairy Products Corporation and is qualified to give counsel in the many business questions which arise in Vestry considerations. He was elected to fulfill the unexpired term made vacant by the resignation of Lt. Gen. Milton G. Baker. For several good reasons, Gen. Baker has been unable to attend recent meetings and he therefore felt he should give his place to another. We have regretted his resignation and are deeply grateful for his wise advice on many matters through the years and his generous gifts to the parish. General and Mrs. Baker continue as parishioners of S. Clement's and we hope they always will do so.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING will be held on Monday, March 2nd at 8 o'clock. At this meeting more details of parish-business will be reported and four vestrymen will be elected for a three-year term.

Parish Notes

OFFICIAL NOTICE is hereby given of the Annual Meeting of S. Clement's Church on Monday, March 2nd, at 8:00 in the Parish Hall. Reports will be given by the Rector, the Accounting Warden, representatives of each of the organizations. There will be election of four vestrymen to serve for three years. Those whose terms will be concluded at the Annual Meeting are Messrs. Thomas H. Clark, Frederick Cooper, Robert N. Mattis and Dr. Alger L. Ward. Those who continue in office until 1960 are Dr. Roland Holroyd, Dr. F. D. W. Lukens and Messrs. James Booth and Harold G. Pile; those who continue until 1961 are Messrs. John J. Sellers, Lealor J. Wilson, Henry A. Reiter and William Pike.

ARTICLE 4, Section 1 of the By-Laws of S. Clement's Church is the following: "Those qualified to serve on the Vestry shall be baptized and confirmed male, lay persons of the age of twenty-one and upwards, a majority of whom shall be residents of Pennsylvania and members of the Corporation, and who shall have been nominated in writing to the Secretary before the time fixed for the election." The Secretary, who will accept written nominations of candidates before the time of the meeting, is Mr. Thomas H. Clark.

THE LAYMEN'S CATHOLIC UNION will meet on Tuesday at 8 p.m. at S. Mark's Church on Locust Street. Continuing his series of addresses, the Rev. Father Paul C. Kintzing, Jr., will speak on "Christian Initiation (Baptism and Confirmation)".

THE LENTEN QUIET EVENING for men of the parish and any other men who wish to share in it will be on Saturday of this week. The Father Rector will give the addresses, the first of which will be at 5 o'clock. Reservations for dinner should be made with the Sisters.

THE QUESTION HAS BEEN ASKED several times lately as to posture during Et Incarnatus est in the sung Creed. The general rule is: if the people are standing at the time the Incarnatus is about to be sung, they kneel for this passage; and if the people are sitting when the Incarnatus is about to be sung, they remain seated, and bow during the passage. At S. Clement's on most Sundays the Sacred Ministers arrive at the sedilia at just about the time the choir will sing the Incarnatus and therefore as the Sacred Ministers sit, the people usually kneel. All quite proper. Occasionally the music is more elaborate and causes a few minutes to pass during which the Sacred Ministers are seated and the people still standing. A safe rule to adopt is to genuflect when the Sacred Ministers recite the Incarnatus and genuflect at the altar; sit when the Celebrant sits at the sedilia; bow when the choir sings the Incarnatus. However, be prepared to genuflect if you are standing when the choir begins this passage. The two exceptions to sitting while the choir sings these sacred words are Christmas Day and the Annunciation, when everyone, including the Celebrant of the Mass, humbly kneels in honor of the fact of God the Son's taking human flesh. In becoming accustomed to the routine it is suggested that the congregation follow the priest, or priests, in choir.

CONFIRMATION will be administered in S. Clement's Church by the Bishop of the Diocese on Sunday, April 19th. Any persons wishing to be confirmed, please speak this week to the Priests or Sisters.

Parish Notes

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING will be held to-morrow evening at 8 in the Parish Hall. Nominations for vestrymen must be made in writing to the Secretary, Mr. Clark, before the time of the meeting.

THIS AFTERNOON at 4, at S. Andrew's Church, 36th and Baring Streets, a program will be given for organ, tympani and trumpets. The recital will be played by Zane Gordy, organist and choirmaster of that parish, and formerly a member of S. Clement's and frequently a substitute-organist for Mr. Sill. He will be assisted by students of the music department of Drexel Institute. The program will include three Bach Chorales and works by Dupre, Haendel and Peeters. Members of S. Clement's are invited to attend the recital.

THE WOMEN'S LENTEN RETREAT will be held, as in other years, on Rose Sunday, a week from to-day. Members of this parish and friends in other parishes are invited to attend. Addresses will be given at 9:50, 2 and 3:30. Please sit to the front of S. John's Chapel and leave the back rows for those who may arrive late. Those who can attend the 8 o'clock Mass and make their Holy Communion are urged to do so for this is the most suitable way to begin a day of retreat. Breakfast will be served only after the first Mass. Fr. Ducker's Class will be omitted this Sunday. Dinner will be served at 1, and retreatants are asked to make reservations for the meals with the Sisters as soon as possible. The Father Rector will conduct the retreat, and it will close with Benediction at 4.

FR. DUCKER will preach at S. Ambrose' Church on Wednesday evening and on Saturday will conduct a Parish Quiet Day at the Church of the Advent, Hatboro.

THE REVEREND CANON CANT, of York Cathedral, England, Visiting Professor of Ascetic Theology at General Theological Seminary during 1958-59, will address the Prayer and Worship Committee at Church House, Wednesday, March 4 at 10:30 a.m. Everyone is welcome; this is a rare opportunity for hearing one of the great teachers on the Spiritual Life.

SEVERAL PARISHIONERS have made gifts for reducing the debt which was created to replace and repair roofs. This is not an appeal but an announcement that inasmuch as people are interested in eliminating the debt, the Accounting Warden has opened an account called the "Roof Fund". Contributions to this fund will be saved until there is sufficient on hand to make a payment. The gifts thus far received have been small, but the accumulation of small gifts can become a considerable sum. And, as everybody knows, reducing the debt means the parish will pay less interest.

THE PARISH ALTAR GUILD was revived on Wednesday evening, February 18th, with about a dozen women ready to work. Many vestments are in need of mending, embroidery is in need of restoration, and new linens and vestments are needed to replace those badly worn. Fortnightly meetings will be held for sewing, and on Saturdays sacristy and altar work will be done. This organization will make a valuable contribution to the life of S. Clement's and to the beauty of its worship. Your prayers are asked for God's blessing upon the members.

DOES SOMEBODY wish to give red roses for the altar for next Sunday?

A TOUR OF THE CHURCH is conducted every Sunday after the Solemn Mass. Those wishing to join the tour please assemble in the front pews.

Parish Notes

S. CLEMENT'S WELCOMES the ladies who are visitors to the parish to-day for the purpose of making the retreat. We are happy to have women of other parishes come for this event, and we hope they will return to their homes spiritually refreshed.

THIS WEEK provides further abundant opportunity for women to make retreat. At S. Margaret's House, Germantown, there are two events: a Quiet Day on Tuesday, with Mass at 8:30 and the first address at 10:15 and conclusion at 3:15, and the Rev. C. Edward Hopkin, Ph.D., the conductor; a Quiet Evening on Saturday from 4:30 to 9, with the Rev. A. Edward Chinn, the conductor. For these two events please register early by calling Victor 4-4612. A third opportunity this week will be a Quiet Day conducted by H.R.H. Princess Ileana on Friday from 11 to 3 at Old Christ Church. For the noon-day meal on Friday each lady will provide her own box-lunch; coffee will be served in Neighborhood House.

THE ANNUAL PASSIONTIDE QUIET EVENING for men will be at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Rosemont on Saturday, starting at 5 o'clock. For dinner reservations call LA 5-2241. The conductor will be the Rev. Father Hawkins, O.H.C.

THE VESTRY will meet at the Clergy House at 4:30 on Tuesday.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S will meet on Tuesday evening at 8 in the Parish Hall. The program will be a panel-discussion of the chapter on death in Bishop Bayne's "Christian Living".

THERE WILL BE A CORPORATE COMMUNION of the women of this parish on Saturday at 8 o'clock in S. John's Chapel. The intention of the Mass will be for the United Thank Offering and a breakfast will be served. A special service for the U.T.O. has not been held in recent years, and it is hoped the innovation will be well supported.

A YEAR OR TWO AGO notice was given of the need of a piano for the choir-room and unfortunately no parishioner has had one to give away. In the meantime the old instrument has fallen to a still lower musical and mechanical standard. To refurbish it would cost more than the poor thing is worth. And so, thinking that perhaps with changes in some households a piano might have become available, the announcement is repeated that the choir-room is seriously in need of a grand piano in fairly good condition.

THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA is 175 years old this year and observances of the anniversary already have begun. To-day is Mothering Sunday, and appropriately the Mother Parish, Christ Church, will hold a service at 4 this afternoon commemorating the founding of the Diocese. Clergy of the five original parishes will conduct the service and the Bishop Suffragan will preach. The choir of S. Peter's Church will sing. All Churchmen of the Diocese are invited to attend.

Parish Notes

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Parish manifested both a good record for 1958 and a wholesome spirit for the future. The devotional societies have a very goodly number of members and lend valuable support to the spiritual life of the Parish. The Guild of All Souls is the largest of the three and besides carrying out its program of prayer and worship has been able to give material backing to the Parish and to the Guild at its national level. The Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament and the Society of Mary are, in each case, only a little more than half as large as the Guild. The purposes underlying these two organizations have the general approval, in principle, of our parishioners and it is hoped more will become active members of them. There are no meetings; the only obligations are that of believing and practicing the Catholic Faith (expected of Clementines anyway), and offering the prayers of the respective societies. Last October there was a corporate Holy Communion of the three organizations and it is planned to have this repeated annually. Reports of activities and plans also were made by officers of The Women of S. Clement's, the Cross and Anchor Society, the American Church Union, the Order of S. Vincent and S. Clement's Youth Organization. The Accounting Warden's report showed an excellent financial record for 1958. The reduction of the Roof Debt of over $12,000 to $6500 within a few months was an amazing accomplishment. Credit for the reduction of debt and the balanced budget for 1959 goes to the loyalty and generosity of the nucleus of parishioners who give and give of themselves and their means. God has indeed been good to us with His benedictions of grace, and His disciples' gifts for maintaining our beautiful House of Worship.

THE RETIRING MEMBERS of the Vestry were returned to office for another three-year term. Other men were nominated,—any of whom would have been helpful and loyal officers of the corporation. In the past three years, the extent of the present rectorate, four memberships, or one third of the Vestry, have been changed. For the sake of continuity of policy and stability of administration, the retaining of present members may be wise. At any rate, your Father Rector is deeply grateful for the earnest and constant moral and spiritual support of the Wardens and Vestrymen and is happy to give public acknowledgement of the same.

THIS EVENING Father Ducker will preach at S. Martin's Church in Marcus Hook. On Saturday the Father Rector will preach at the noon-day service at S. Stephen's Church on 10th Street.

CONTRIBUTIONS for the Easter Charities and Easter Flowers are now receivable. Again, the request is made that gifts be given to the Priests or Sisters as early as possible so that we may know our financial status. At Christmas we overestimated the amount that might be received for flowers and while the altars and shrine were glorious, we spent twice as much as we actually received. Not an approved business method!

ON PALM SUNDAY we shall again have the assistance of the Rev. Fathers Alfred M. Smith and Alfred Q. Plank for deacons of the solemn chanting of the Passion of Our Lord. They will have the same parts in the Mass of the Pre-Sanctified on Good Friday.

ARE YOU FILLING your Lenten self-denial envelope? This offering will be applied toward our Missionary Quota. How wonderful to think that the savings from your denials of luxuries during Lent will help in bringing Our Lord's grace to somebody who, without your help, might not have that joy and comfort!

SOLEMN BLESSING, DISTRIBUTION & PROCESSION OF PALMS

HYMN DURING PROCESSION—All glory, laud, and honour...No. 62

INTROIT—Domine, ne longe. O Lord, remove not thy succour afar from me; have respect to my defence, and hear me: deliver me from the mouth of the lion; yea, from the horns of the unicorns hast thou regarded my cry.

PSALM—My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me: and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

O Lord, remove not . . .

KYRIE ELEISON—Mass in the Doric Mode Antonio Lotti

GRADUAL—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone: my treadings had well nigh slipped. And—why, I was grieved at the wicked: I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT—My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? And art so far from my health: and from the words of my complaint? O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man: a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying: He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

SOLEMN SINGING OF THE PASSION

SERMON THE REVEREND FATHER RECTOR

OFFERTORY—Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man: neither found I any to comfort me; they gave me gall to eat, and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

HYMN—Ride on! ride on in majestyNo. 64

Parish Notes

HOLY WEEK means a great deal to every Churchman but to those in a parish situated as S. Clement's is it should have special significance. A large number of our members do not keep Lent in their parish-church other than by their attendance at Sunday Mass. There is no appreciable increase in numbers at the week-day Masses, except on Wednesday noons. Even the Friday night service does not draw more than a third of the people who attend on Sundays. We trust that many go to parishes near their homes. At any rate, it is understood that most of the absentees cannot travel to their own parish on week-days. Holy Week, then, for Clementines is opportunity for larger attendance. It is hoped that all of those who have not been "regulars" during Lent will be in the church frequently this week.

THE SERVICES will be the same as those of last year. Your attention is drawn in particular to two of them. In the GOOD-FRIDAY LITURGY the laity again will have opportunity to make Holy Communion. This is a restoration of ancient usage. Receiving the Blessed Sacrament on this day is a sharing in the Sacrifice of Our Lord; it is taking part in making the divine oblation. Many came to the altar last year and it is hoped a larger number on Friday will make this sacramental and devotional alignment with Our Savior in His full, perfect and sufficient Sacrifice for the sins of the world. . . . If any people cannot remain through all of the PREACHING OF THE PASSION from 1:30 to 2:30, will they kindly enter or leave only during the hymns? Entrances and exits during the addresses are distractions. THE EASTER VIGIL will start at 10:30 and the First Mass of Easter at midnight when the faithful may make their Easter Holy Communion. It is expected, of course, that those who attend Midnight Mass will also be present for the Liturgy of the Vigil. Changing this service from early morning to late evening was welcomed by many last year and was well supported. We confidently expect this year that many more will avail themselves of the opportunity of assisting in this glorious liturgy. Devotional wisdom and liturgical propriety should lead the midnight worshippers to return to the Solemn Mass at 11 for the more festive celebration of this high day.

THE FAITHFUL ARE REMINDED not only of the ancient Catholic precept of receiving Holy Communion in Eastertide but also of the precept of making sacramental Confession at this season. Adequate hours are provided in the kalendar but if any members cannot come during those hours they may make appointments with the Priests. The Sacrament of Penance is a precious gift of Our Lord's mercy and justice; the Sacrament is first a matter of obligation, but it is valued and revered because it is a sign of God's unbounded love.

ON LOW SUNDAY, April 5th, Mr. Sill will give an organ recital at S. Clement's at 4 o'clock. All parishioners and their friends are invited.

Parish Notes

MAY THE JOY of the Easter Festival be with each of you,—and may the love of the Risen Christ abide with you to-day and always!

THE EASTER PARTY for adults and the older youths will be Friday night in the Parish Hall following Solemn Benediction at 8. It will be pleasant to have a gathering mainly for the purpose of sociability and it is hoped that most of those who have attended Stations on Lenten Fridays will assemble for the Eastertide jubilation. The children will have their Easter party this morning during class-period.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet on Tuesday at 8 p.m. at S. Luke's Church, Eddystone. Continuing his series of addresses, the Rev. Father Paul C. Kintzing will speak on "Sacramental Estates in One's Life (Holy Orders, Confirmation, Holy Matrimony)".

AN ORGAN RECITAL will be given by Mr. Sill in S. Clement's Church next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Our Choirmaster and Organist has prepared a highly interesting and varied program of works by Girolamo Frescobaldi, Paul Hindemith, Dietrich Buxtehude, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and Johann Sebastian Bach. All of the offering received at the recital will be used toward the cost of sending the choir-boys to camp.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH UNION, Philadelphia Branch, will meet at the Church of S. James the Less on the evening of April 8th, a week from Wednesday. An unusual program on the Eastern Orthodox Church will be given. More about the program next week; this notice is given now with the hope many will save the date.

THE PARISH PRIESTS will endeavor to administer Holy Communion within the next week or two to all parishioners who are confined to their homes or live in institutions where the Sacraments are not available. They will be grateful for notification of names of such persons in order to guard against inadvertent omissions.

CAKE SALE, sponsored by the Women of S. Clement's, will be held a week from today, before and after the Solemn Mass.

ADVANCE CONTRIBUTIONS for the Christmas Bazaar may be given to Miss May Lilly who sails for Europe on April 24th. She plans on making purchases of small but interesting foreign items for the Bazaar.

DURING EASTERTIDE the Regina Coeli is said daily in place of the Angelus. For your convenience, it is printed on the back page of this program.

SCYO will have its stated monthly meeting this evening at 6:30.

THE VESTRY will meet at 4:30 Tuesday afternoon in the Clergy House.

AN OPEN MEETING, to which all parishioners and friends are invited, will be held in the Parish Hall Tuesday evening at 8. The meeting is sponsored by The Women of S. Clement's. A program of diversity and wide interest has been prepared. Miss May Lilly will review the provocative book, "Smoke on the Mountain—An Interpretation of the Ten Commandments in Terms of To-day," by Joy Davidman. In addition to the book-review there will be a showing of slides, "Day of a Seminarian," with commentary by a student of the Philadelphia Divinity School. Mrs. Harrison, of the Bishop's Committee, will speak briefly on what the laity can do to help the Seminary. It is expected that this program will attract many parishioners,—men, women and youths,—and their friends.

THE RIGHT REVEREND THE BISHOP OF PENNSYLVANIA will make his official visitation to S. Clement's next Sunday afternoon at 4. Solemn Evensong will be followed by the Sacrament of Holy Confirmation and the Bishop's sermon. This is a very important step in the spiritual progress of each candidate, and even though it be a small class of children and adults, it is hoped the parishioners will be present to greet them as members of the parish-family and to welcome Bishop Hart, our Father in God.

AN ACOLYTES' FESTIVAL for all the altar-boys of the diocese will be held on Saturday at 10 a.m. at S. Andrew's Church, 36th and Baring Streets. A Solemn Mass will be celebrated and luncheon will follow. The function is sponsored by the Catholic Clerical Union and Father Ducker is the chairman of arrangements. In addition to our acolytes, the other parishioners are invited to attend the Mass.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION will meet Wednesday at S. John's Church, Bala-Cynwyd. The Father Rector will be the moderator of the program which will be a discussion of the papers on pastoral theology given during this season.

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA will meet on Tuesday, April 21st, at S. Matthew's Church, 18th Street and Girard Avenue.

THE CROSS AND ANCHOR SOCIETY will meet at 8:00 o'clock on Thursday evening in the Parish Hall.

THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE consisting of all Chairmen will meet on Wednesday night, April 22nd, in the Parish Hall. The Committee will review the last Bazaar and make tentative plans for the 1959 event.

Parish Notes

S. CLEMENT'S is honored to have the Bishop of the Diocese make his official visitation to our Parish this afternoon. We express cordial welcome not only to him, but also to the candidates who will receive the Sacrament of Holy Confirmation at his hands and who thereby will enter the full fellowship of our Church-life. Following the service this afternoon the Vestry will receive the Bishop in the Clergy House.

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA will meet on Tuesday for supper at the Church of S. Matthew, 18th Street and Girard Avenue. Delegates chosen by the Vestry will represent this Parish; others are welcome to attend as visitors.

THE ANNUAL MASS of the Guild of All Souls will be celebrated at 11 o'clock Saturday of this week, at S. Paul's Church, Clinton and Carroll Streets, Brooklyn. Luncheon and the Annual Meeting will follow. Reservation for the luncheon at $1.50 should be sent to the Rev. Donald L. Irish, 199 Carroll Street, Brooklyn 31, N.Y. Approximate travel time from Pennsylvania Station by subway, on Saturday, is 50 minutes. It is hoped that a number of Clementines will be present for this event.

Parish Notes

NEXT WEEK-END will be the main celebration of the 175th Anniversary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Every Parish will observe the anniversary a week from to-day; this will constitute the opportunity for participation in the historic event by most of the laity. Monday night, the 4th, following the opening of the Diocesan Convention there will be a Mass Meeting at the Academy of Music at which the Presiding Bishop will speak. Each Parish will be allotted only a few tickets of admission and these will be given to deputies to Convention and Parish-officers.

THE BOHLEN LECTURES will be given at Holy Trinity Church at 8 this evening, and at the same hour on Monday and Tuesday. The Rev. Massey H. Shepherd, Jr., Ph.D., S.T.D., will speak on "The Liturgical Movement in the Episcopal Church." The subjects of the lectures will be, respectively, "Ritualism," "Prayer Book Revision" and "Prospects Today and Tomorrow." Dr. Shepherd is Professor of Liturgics at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, a priest learned in this subject and respected by all Churchmen. The members of S. Clement's are invited to attend.

A QUIET DAY will be held at S. Margaret's House on Tuesday. Mass at 8:30; first address at 10:15; closing at 3:15. Conductor will be the Rev. Randall J. Conklin, Rector of S. Stephen's Church, Beverly, N. J. For reservations call VI 4-4612.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet Tuesday evening at S. Andrew's Chapel of the Divinity School. The Rev. Father Kintzing will give the fourth in his series of addresses; this month the subject is "Sacramental Repair in One's Life (Penance and Unction)."

THE MUSIC COMMITTEE will meet at 5 on Wednesday at the Clergy House to make plans for enlisting Patrons for the moral and material support of the Pentecost Choir Concert and the sending of choir-boys to camp. Don't be surprised if you are asked to become a Patron!

THE ALTAR GUILD of the Diocese will hold its spring meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Cathedral of Christ. Bishop Hart will give the address. It is expected that representatives of S. Clement's will be present to give support to this important diocesan activity.

CLEMENTINES WILL BE interested in news from a Sometime-Curate, the Rev. Peter H. Thompson of S. Mary's Church, South Ruislip, Middlesex, England. Regarding the completion of his new Parish-Church he writes: "The consecration of our new basilica approaches. It is really very satisfactory and the lines are wonderfully simple and restful. My Lord of London consecrates on Saturday, May 2nd at 3 p.m., anointing the altars and twelve consecration crosses on the walls. The following day at 8:30 a.m. my Lord of Kensington will be solemnly received, seal relics in the two altars and sing Pontifical Mass from the throne. The glass over the sanctuary is being made by Keith New who is doing much of the glass for Coventry Cathedral." The prayers of parishioners are asked on behalf of Fr. Thompson and S. Mary's Church. If friends of Father Thompson wish to contribute to his church, their gifts will be used toward the cost of the Tabernacle. Bank drafts should be made payable to S. Mary's Church, and sent to the Rev. P. H. Thompson, S. Mary's Vicarage, The Fairway, South Ruislip, Middlesex, England.

The Great Diocese of Pennsylvania

The early settlers in Pennsylvania were Dutch, Swedes, English and Welsh. The Swedes established Gloria Dei in 1642. 200 years later it became part of the Episcopal Church.

Old Christ Church was established in 1695. By 1712, there were 10 Episcopal Churches in this area, all under the direction of the Church of England. Missionaries sent out by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, established in 1701, ministered to many of these early Churches.

After the Revolutionary War, in 1784 the Rev. Dr. William White, rector of Christ Church, together with representatives of the other Churches in Pennsylvania organized the Diocese. Dr. White was consecrated Bishop in 1787 in England. Bishop White is given credit for the establishment of many Diocesan and secular organizations.

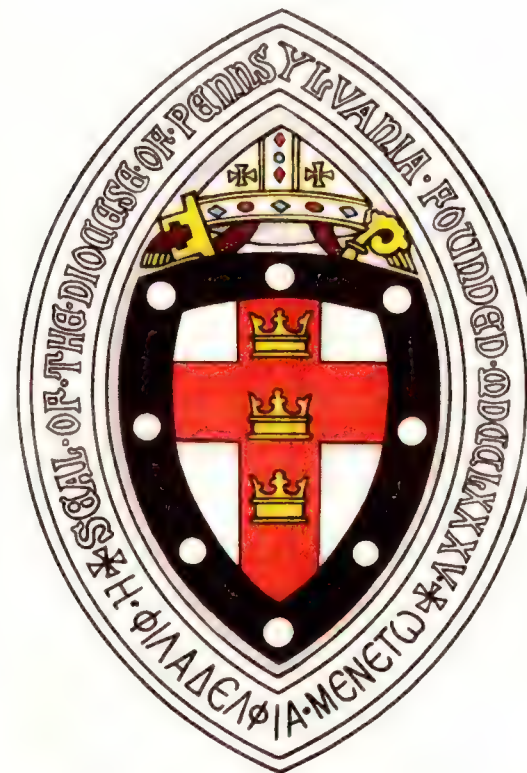

In 1836, he was succeeded by Bishop Onderdonk. Then came Bishop Potter, the great organizer, 1845-65. He started some fifty Churches and various institutions such as the Episcopal Hospital and the Divinity School.

Bishop Stevens (1865-1887) continued the development of the Diocese and was responsible for the organization of sixty-three Churches. During this period, the Diocese was divided and the present area established. The Churches in the rest of the state eventually becoming four other Dioceses. There followed in succession, Bishop Whitaker (1887-1911), Bishop Mackay-Smith (1911), Bishop Rhineland (1911-1923), Bishop Garland (1924-1931) and Bishop Taitt (1931-1943).

Today under Bishop Hart, who has served since 1943, we have 204 Churches, 86,202 Communicants, 27,226 Sunday School scholars and 18 institutions. The Bishop and the Suffragan, together with the Deans of the Convocations have extended the missionary work of the Diocese into many newly developed areas.

THE SEAL AND COAT-OF-ARMS OF THE

The Arms consist of a shield bearing (1) the cross of St. George for the English Church; (2) the three golden crowns of the arms of Sweden, for the three Swedish parishes that now form part of the Diocese; (3) a black border with white discs, the elements of the arms of William Penn, who founded the Colony of Pennsylvania and (4) of the Mitre, key and Pastoral Staff found on Diocesan Seals. The Greek words are from Hebrews 13:1, "Let brotherly love continue."

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P. M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

EVERY PARISH AND MISSION in the Diocese has been asked to observe on this Sunday the 175th Anniversary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. S. Clement's, whose own history covers more than half that span, is happy to have part in the celebration. To-day is the Feast of the Finding of the Holy Cross. There is an apparent connecting theme between the Feast and the local observance. The one points out the recovery from utter neglect of the actual Holy Cross on which Our Lord offered His sacrifice on behalf of mankind and the other points out the organizing of the Church in this area for the purpose of honoring Our Blessed Lord and the Eucharistic Sacrifice of the Holy Cross. The services in each congregation to-day are intended to constitute the observance of the anniversary for the total membership within the Diocese; only in this way could every person have part in the celebration. To-morrow evening there will be a Mass Meeting at the Academy of Music at which the Presiding Bishop will give the address. Attendance at this obviously is limited and only a few tickets have been allotted each congregation for the use of Convention Deputies and other officers. The Clergy will vest at S. Mark's Church and process down Locust Street to the Academy, headed by the band of Valley Forge Military Academy.

THE 175th ANNUAL CONVENTION of the Diocese will open to-morrow afternoon at Holy Trinity Church and will continue through Tuesday. The Deputies representing this parish are Mr. Clark, Mr. Cooper and Mr. Pike. The Alternate Deputies, who will serve in case of the inability of Deputies, are Mr. Booth and Mr. Reiter.

AT THE REQUEST of the Diocese a special offering is being received to-day for the endowment of the episcopate. The Vestry voted to give support to this project which is a thank-offering for the 175th Anniversary. Envelopes are available for your gift to this fund. Checks should be made payable to S. Clement's Church; the total parochial offering will be forwarded to the diocesan office.

ON THE ROGATION DAYS, the Litany of the Saints will be offered following the 7 o'clock Mass. The intention of these devotions is to pray God's blessing not only upon the spring planting, but also upon all creation and especially upon Holy Church.

ASCENSION DAY, the feast of Our Lord's culminating triumph, is Thursday, and a day of obligation to hear Mass. From May 8th to 16th a Novena to the Holy Ghost will be kept in preparation for the Feast of Pentecost. The devotions will be offered at the 6 o'clock Novena.

THE SISTERS OF THE HOLY NATIVITY and their Associates invite The Women of S. Clement's to the Parish Hall at 3 o'clock Saturday. Mr. Ivan Michelson Czap will give a lecture on "The Treasures of Mt. Athos" and show his unusually beautiful colored slides of the monasteries, ikons, etc. Mr. Czap, a Philadelphia lawyer and member of the Greek Orthodox Church, has done research at Mt. Athos and is most able in describing the artistic and historic features of that holy place.

THE UNITED THANK-OFFERING is now being received. Donations should be sent to Miss Elsie Williams by May 10th. The Diocesan Service of In-gathering will be in S. Cornelius' Chapel, Valley Forge Military Academy, on May 19th.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

A WEEK FROM TO-DAY is the Feast of Pentecost, one of the three top-ranking Christian festivals. According to the Church of England, from whose discipline the American Church intends not to depart, it is a season of obligatory reception of Holy Communion. It is a glorious celebration in honor of God the Holy Ghost; in order to give emphasis to the festival a Solemn Procession will precede the Solemn Mass. Let us mark the holy day by having every member present in the Parish-Church for Mass and having as many members as possible receive the Blessed Sacrament in S. Clement's Church.

THE ANNUAL CHOIR CONCERT will be held next Sunday at 4 p.m. A most excellent program has been prepared and deserves the moral and material support of all members. Opportunity has been offered for all of you to be Patrons of the Music of our Parish-Church; the names of Patrons will be printed on the program. The contributions of Patrons and the collection taken at the concert will be used for two purposes: to pay the expense of the concert and to provide a summer-outing for the choir-boys. To-day is the last day for members and friends to enroll as Patrons and have their names on the program. It is hoped that all of those who are appreciative of the high standard of our music will lend support to this project and, above all else, be present at the concert.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Parish Hall. The program will have two features. One of the Mission Sisters will conduct a Prayer-Book Quiz which will be both informative and entertaining. The second part will be an illustrated address on the work of the Church in Honduras by Mrs. Joseph R. Clair. Mrs. Clair is Chairman of the diocesan project of encouraging support of the Church in Central America. This is the final program-meeting of the 1958-59 season and it is hoped many of the ladies will attend.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION will hold its last meeting of the season at S. John's Church, Cynwyd, on Wednesday morning. The Rev. John A. Schultz of Ambler will give a summary of the various addresses heard this season on pastoral techniques and priestly work. The Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Pennsylvania will be guest of honor at this meeting.

THE JUNE FETE will be given two nights this year. It will be staged at 8:30 on Tuesday and Thursday, June 9th and 11th. A wide and ambitious step has been taken in that the group is producing an entirely original play with music. You will hear more about this later; it is enough to say now that the play has been written, composed and directed by Clementines.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

CLEMENTIDE of each year seems in some way to be more appealing, more stirring, more beautiful than ever before. These appellations certainly are true of the patronal festival 1959. So seldom are we able to witness Solemn Pontifical Vespers that this most dignified offering of the Divine Office on last Sunday afternoon invited an expression of deeper devotion and in itself suggested the glory of heavenly worship. Your Father Rector is tempted to dedicate this page to a literary rhapsody of the magnificence of S. Clement's Day. In checking the temptation, however, he expresses profound gratitude for Bp. Burton's travelling from Nassau to keep holy-day with us, for the assistance of the several Reverend Clergy, for the diligent and painstaking preparation by choirmaster and choir, for the self-denying service of acolytes, for the attractive arrangements for the reception accomplished by the corps of ladies, for the special offering (which he trusts is generous), and for the excellent support of the festival by the large attendance by parishioners and friends. Deo Gratias!

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR is Thursday afternoon and evening. Preparations are well in hand. The principle project still before us is procuring 300 people to be dinner guests and patrons of the Bazaar. This project rests with the congregation. Do come yourself and if possible invite others to come with you. Following the spiritual elevation that Clementide gave to us, everyone should be filled with enthusiasm to do all possible to make the Bazaar a success BECAUSE the profits are given to the missionary work of the Church. We should be anxious to share our spiritual blessings with others and one of the best ways of sharing is through our generous giving to missions. As S. Clement's Day was "tops" let the Bazaar, in its way, also be "tops". Only YOU can make it so.

A QUIET MORNING for women will be held in S. Clement's on Friday from 10:30-12:30. The Diocesan Department of Prayer and Worship has elected to have its annual Quiet Day in our Parish and, in response to this signal honor, it is hoped as many of our own ladies will attend as possible. The conductor will be the Very Reverend John B. Coburn, D.D., Dean of the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge. It is the day following the Bazaar and a suitable opportunity to recoup strength spent during that exhausting project.

ANOTHER YOUNG LADY of the Parish now enters the life of holy religion. At this season Miss Edith Jean Crossley is being received as a Postulant by All Saints Sisters of the Poor at their convent at Catonsville, Md. Your prayers on her behalf and on behalf of the community are requested.

THE FATHER RECTOR will conduct a Day of Recollection on Tuesday at the Sisters of the Holy Nativity's Chapel at Bayshore, Long Island.

TO-DAY WE START THE NEW CHURCH YEAR. Happy Christian New Year to all of you! You have been written concerning the appropriateness of reviewing the past and resolving a better spiritual future. Have you done this? You also have been written concerning the resolving of a "tithe-pledge" for 1960. Have you done this? December is just ahead. For the welfare of YOUR parish, please act.

ADVANCE NOTICE! A week from to-morrow night, the 7th, at 8 o'clock the Regional Branch of ACU will meet at S. Clement's. Benediction at 8 followed by a meeting in the Parish Hall which will be addressed by Fr. Henry C. Beck, editor of AC News. EVERY ACU member will be expected. All others welcome.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

ON THIS FEAST OF THE DEDICATION of our S. Clement's Church we offer Almighty God profound thanks for this House of Prayer and for the worship of Triune God which is maintained here every day in the year. Churchmen across the country, and in foreign parts, know of this Church and many, many of them wish they were sufficiently close-by to share in the offering of the Sacrifice of the Mass at our altars. Let us never take our parish privileges for granted. The best way to manifest appreciation for the beauty of worship in S. Clement's Church is for ALL of our parishioners to be present and assist at Mass here on as many Sundays as possible. Our parish-list includes a large number who seldom do their Sunday duty in their own parish-home. We now appeal to those that infrequently attend here and that wish to continue to be members of S. Clement's, asking them to take advantage of their membership and join the parish-family in their Sunday worship. We ask them especially to come to the Solemn Mass,—the principal service of the day,—and restore their active participation in the spiritual life of the parish. Your Father Rector has not even met some of these people and he will be most glad to have them identify themselves to him,—and the parishioners will be happy to have them back home.

SCYO will have its regular monthly meeting to-night at 7 o'clock.

NOVEMBER IS DEDICATED to the welfare of the holy souls departed. While all the faithful departed were prayed for on All Souls' Day, requiem Masses are offered this month as frequently as the calendar allows. If you wish Mass to be offered for the repose of the souls of relatives or friends your priests will be happy to say requiems according to your requests.

THE ANNUAL REQUIEM for the departed Associates of S.H.N. will be at 8 o'clock on Saturday and Father Lander will be the celebrant.

PLANS FOR THE BAZAAR continue at an encouraging level. Dinner tickets now are on sale at $2.00. It is very important that every member not only procure tickets for himself but for friends. The ones who patronize the sale-tables and auction are the ones who have had dinner. Therefore, invite your friends for dinner and try to sell tickets to as many as possible. This year we shall have three servings,—5:30, 6:30 and 7:30.

CHURCH HISTORY will be the field of investigation for the Adult Class which meets immediately after the 9:15 Mass each Sunday. A light breakfast will be followed by a lecture and discussion on the subject, "The English Church and the Reformation". Using current works in the field of Anglican apologetics, Father Ducker will offer for discussion the peculiar background and characteristic of the English Church's struggle to retain its Catholic character. Under specific consideration will be arguments commonly used against the Anglican Church by both Rome and the Protestants and some answers to these charges. Adults are welcome to attend both the breakfast, for which a donation of 25¢ is asked, and the class.

ARE YOU THINKING OF YOUR 1960 PLEDGE? In keeping with the trend of the whole Episcopal Church we ask you to consider your pledge to the Church in the terms of a tithe. Many places now call it a "tithe-pledge". This means one-tenth of your income, either before or after taxes according to your ability and your conscience. A few of our members do so very much for their Church and so many do so little or nothing. If ALL of those who seemingly value membership in S. Clement's Church (see first paragraph above) would assume their responsibility of worship and support, our spiritual and material strength would be doubled! Pledge cards for 1960 soon will be distributed. Hear ye, and act!

CONTRIBUTIONS to the U.T.O. must be in the hands of Miss Williams by next Sunday, the fifteenth. Diocesan ingathering will be Wednesday evening, November 18th, at Holy Trinity Church.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

TO-DAY IS THE FESTIVAL devoted to the greater glory and worship of God the Holy Ghost. Pentecost and Christmas and Easter are the most solemn holy days of all the year and should receive equal recognition from all Christian people. We often are critical of the commercial emphasis of Christmas and Easter but apparently Church people are more influenced by the secular observance of those days than they realize. In this country there is no secular celebration of Pentecost,—no greeting cards, flowers or presents, and hence the festive keeping of Whitsunday suffers somewhat in comparison with that of the other two days. The situation presents Churchmen with an interesting challenge. How can we make Pentecost, lacking commercial appendages, as significant and as popular as Christmas and Easter,—fill the Church on this day and successfully appeal to every member to receive the Blessed Sacrament on this Holy Day? Something more moving is needed than only to teach the doctrine of the Holy Spirit. What that "something" is,—without resorting to novelities,—is the hard question to which we should like to find an answer.

THE ANNUAL CHOIR-CONCERT will be at four this afternoon. Everyone already knows of the program and the guest-performers, and everyone also recognizes the high standard attained by our choir. This notice is a last-minute appeal to every Clementine to attend and to bring one or two guests. The concert will be followed by a social-hour in the Parish Hall to which all are invited. The collection, after expenses of the concert have been allowed, will be used for the choir-boys' summer outing.

WEDNESDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY are Ember Days when your prayers are asked on behalf of those studying for Holy Orders, and for an increased number of vocations to the priesthood. Many ordinations take place during Whitsun-week and your prayers are requested for the fulness of God's blessing upon the young men being admitted to this life of grave responsibility and high privilege.

EASTERTIDE will conclude on Saturday noon. Beginning Saturday evening the Angelus will again be the thrice-daily commemoration in place of the Regina Coeli, and the extra Alleluias will be dropped.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will have a Corporate Holy Communion at the Cathedral of Christ, 8630 Ridge Avenue, on Saturday at 8 o'clock. Reservations for breakfast at $1.25 should be sent the Cathedral by Wednesday, or telephone IV 3-5756.

THE CROSS AND ANCHOR SOCIETY'S production now has a name. It has been given the engaging title "BUSTLES AND BEAUX." The play and the music are original, and the dates of performance are June 9th & 11th. This is to be the annual June Fete or Strawberry Festival.

ON FRIDAY, the Father Rector and Father Davis will observe their 32nd anniversary of ordination to the priesthood, and on Saturday the anniversary of their first offering of Holy Mass. They were ordained at the same hour in the same diocese, but in different places by different bishops. They will be grateful for your prayers.

Parish Notes

CORPUS CHRISTI, Thursday of this week, is the culminating crown of the liturgical cycle. It proclaims the comforting truth of the abiding presence of the crucified, resurrected and ascended Lord in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. We shall have Low Masses at 7 and 8 and a Solemn Mass and Benediction at 11. At 11 o'clock next Sunday we shall have the Solemnity of Corpus Christi with the Procession of the Host and Benediction after the Mass. At 8 o'clock we shall observe the 1st Sunday after Trinity and at 9:15 the feast of the Queenship of Blessed Mary.

SOLEMN VESPERS OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT, Procession of the Host and Benediction will be held at S. Alban's, Olney, at 8 p.m. Thursday. The preacher will be the Rev. Father John Chisholm, S. Paul's Church, Doylestown. All Clementines are encouraged to attend this service sponsored by the Regional C.B.S.

THE CHILDREN of the recent Confirmation Class will receive First Holy Communion at 9:15 next Sunday. All of those who were confirmed will attend the 9:15 Mass and have breakfast in the Parish Hall. This is the event to which those under instruction have looked forward for months and is an occasion of great spiritual joy. Fr. Ducker will omit his adult-class that morning but all who wish to be at the breakfast will be welcome.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will hold its last program-meeting of the season at 8 p.m. on Tuesday at S. John's Church, Bala-Cynwyd. Fr. Kintzing will conclude his series of addresses and his subject will be, "Sacramental Nourishment in One's Life (The Eucharist)."

A QUIET EVENING will be held at S. Margaret's House for women-members of the C.B.S. on the Eve of Corpus Christi, Wednesday, from 5:15 to 9:00. The conductor will be the Rev. Father Ducker. Please notify the Priests or Sisters to-day if you wish to attend so that an early registration may be made for S. Savior's Ward.

THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY REQUIEM will be offered for the soul of Rachel Ann (Housam) Kirby at 7 o'clock on Friday.

THE CONFRATERNITY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT will have Pontifical Mass and the Annual Meeting at the Church of S. John the Evangelist, Bowdoin Street, Boston, Saturday at 11 o'clock. Registrations for luncheon should be made early this week with the Rector of S. John's Church, the Rev. Father Banner, S.S.J.E.

THE SUDDEN DEATH of the Rev. Fr. Everett B. Bosshard at the age of 49 was a stunning shock to all who knew him. He was a top-ranking scholar of Dogmatic Theology and learned in kindred subjects. As a priest and teacher he has had a wide and helpful influence over students and young priests. Following several terms as instructor at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific and Nashotah House, for six years he has been Senior Curate at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin, N. Y. He has been confessor to many religious and parish-priests, advisor and lecturer; in these and in other roles he has become a valued and revered priest-friend of a countless number of Churchmen. He died on Sunday afternoon, May 10th, while returning home from making parish-calls. The large Church of S. Mary the Virgin was nearly filled for the Solemn Requiem Mass, and the Suffragan Bishop of New York conducted the absolution over the bier. S. Clement's Church was officially represented at the funeral by the Rev. Fr. Ducker. May the soul of Everett, Thy Priest, rest in peace and enjoy the fellowship of Him in Whom he hoped and believed.

Parish Notes

THE VESTRY will hold its last stated meeting before the autumn on Tuesday of this week at 4:30 at the Clergy House.

THE JUNE FETE is another Tuesday event and also an event of Thursday. On both evenings at 8:30 the Cross and Anchor Society will present "BUSTLES AND BEAUX," a play with music. The Parish Hall has been equipped with an enlarged stage, foot-lights, and a temporary proscenium. Some costumes for the 1888 setting have been designed and made for the production by Mrs. Ralph Moore while others have been rented. Miss Josephine Barron has written the play and is directing its staging; Edward Loeffler has composed eight of the songs; Mrs. Frederick Cooper has arranged an old French folk-story as the lyrics of one song and your Father Rector has invented some rhymes for the remaining seven. The usual festival of strawberries and ice-cream will follow each performance. Tickets are usable either night. If you have not yet procured tickets you are advised to purchase them to-day. Demand is heavy and the management is trying to guard against over-selling the seating capacity.

WHILE WE STILL are within the aura of Corpus Christi we shall profit by thinking further about the Real Presence of Our Lord in the Holy Sacrament. In his recent book "The Old Religion" Canon J. L. C. Dart devotes his talents to defending the Prayer Book as teaching the Catholic Faith. Part of his section on the Prayer Book's upholding of Transubstantiation follows:

"The doctrine is easier to accept to-day than it has been in the past. About one hundred years ago scientists taught that matter was made up of separate and distinct atoms, whose nature was quite different. For people who believed that to be true, transubstantiation involved the miracle of transmuting atoms into something contrary to their very nature—a thing which seemed as fabulous as the philosopher's stone. But now we know that the substance of all matter is electricity. It is the very same everywhere, and the different atoms are merely electricity arranged differently. In consequence transmutation, so far from being incredible, is continuously taking place. For those who believe in a God who creates, and who can see, as the latest scientific teaching asserts, that creation proceeds continuously through the unending bringing into being of atoms in their simplest form, which are changed into more and more complicated forms, the doctrine of transubstantiation is not very difficult to hold. There would seem to be no question that God could, if he wished, do upon our altars the same kind of thing which he is continually doing in the universe. The change of the substance of bread and wine can take place as readily, and as certainly 'as hydrogen is being steadily converted into helium'. (Hoyle, Nature of the Universe.) One substance is being continually converted into another. The substance of bread and wine therefore, from a purely scientific point of view, can be converted into the Body and Blood of Christ. It depends on whether God wishes to convert it. Our Lord said he did. 'This is my body . . . my blood', and he was 'The Truth, who spake it'.

"What, then, did our reformers make of this doctrine of the Catholic Church? Mountains of books have been written to prove that they rejected it, or changed it in some way, but the surprising fact is that they made no change whatsoever. They repudiated a doctrine of transubstantiation which the Church had never officially taught. They rejected a term which, defined as they never defined it, the Church also rejected. Their positive teaching was that of the whole Church."

Parish Notes

ONCE AGAIN, it is a joy to draw the attention of the congregation to new vestments. The most recent acquisition is for use during Trinitytide and Epiphanytide. In order to procure the correct shade of green to harmonize with the frontal, the silk damask was bought locally from J. T. Cuthbertson, Inc., and shipped to Switzerland where the Carl Moser Studios executed the vestments according to our specifications. The ornamentation, symbolizing the Holy Trinity, is in bright red velvet, gold calf-skin and interesting stitching in black and gold. In addition to the small pieces the set includes cope, chasuble, dalmatic, tunicle, humeral veil, a most beautiful preaching-stole, and three apparels for the amices. Another green set, consisting of cope and chasuble, has been provided for summer Sundays. From Canada, it is very light-weight material with simple ornamentation. All of these vestments are the gift to the parish of Mrs. William Osborn Baker and we express to her deep gratitude for her generosity in making this equipment available to us. The Mission Sisters have accomplished a successful project in re-making the green frontal by mounting new orphreys of red silk which matches the red of the vestments, and for this we also are grateful.

WHILE WRITING OF VESTMENTS, it should be noted that the Altar Guild is making satisfactory progress in refurbishing the tapestry cope. A handsome dossal is being made for the crypt chapel. It is black and white fabric of interesting pattern. Soon work will be started on a new funeral pall on which the ladies will embroider lilies to match those on the black altar frontal. The Guild meets for work on every second Wednesday evening and some of the members also sew on Thursday afternoons.

ATTENTION IS DRAWN to a new tract now on sale. It is called "Frequent Confession". Written by a Roman Catholic Dominican Father in England, it contains helpful suggestions for those who use the Sacrament of Penance at brief intervals.

THE FATHER RECTOR will be away a few days this week to visit a cousin in Bloomsburg. He will be in residence most of the summer and take holiday in September.

THE CHOIR-BOYS will sing for the last time until autumn on next Sunday. Later in the week they will begin their jaunt to Nashotah House in Wisconsin for their annual outing. They will join boys from that area at Camp Blazing Star on the shore of Upper Nashotah Lake. The project is financed by the Patrons of Music of S. Clement's Church. However, the fund is not sufficient to meet all of the expense. If admirers of the choir-boys wish to add to the fund their gifts will be much appreciated. Please send checks to the Clergy House within the next few days.

A LETTER IN REGARD to the American Church Union recently was sent to the parishioners by Frederick Cooper, National Chairman of Membership of the ACU. The story does not need to be retold. Support of the organization is urgently needed and it is expected Clementines again will respond with generosity.

Parish Notes

THE REVEREND FATHER HENRY C. JOHNSON is our guest-preacher this morning. He is chairman of the Christ The King Foundation in Evanston, Illinois. This Foundation is a Corporation devoted to research in higher education. We are happy to have Father Johnson with us to-day to tell us the exciting story of the plans of Christ The King Foundation and its eventual college on a university campus.

THE VESTRY will meet at the Clergy House at 4:30 on Tuesday.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S will have the first meeting of the season on Tuesday evening at 8. It will be an open meeting for men, women and youths. The program will be a panel discussion on the 100th anniversary of the Anglican Church in Japan, followed by a Japanese Ceremonial Tea conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rivel.

THE ANNUAL RETREAT of the Diocesan Altar Guild will be held at S. Clement's Church on Wednesday with the Rev. Father Vincent Pottle the conductor. It starts with the first address at 5 o'clock, followed by a box-supper, and two more addresses in the evening. We are very happy that the Diocesan Altar Guild returns to this parish year after year for the retreat and it is hoped members of S. Clement's Altar Guild will take part in this spiritual exercise.

SCYO will have its first fall meeting this evening at 6:00 o'clock in the parish hall after which the young people will attend in North Philadelphia a convocation Y.P.F. meeting at St. John's Church, Emerald and Elkart Streets, Phila. Plans will be made for some members to attend the Diocesan Y.P.F. Conference on Vocations at Whitemarsh next week-end. It is most important for S. Clement's to be well represented at a diocesan function of this type both for gaining knowledge on the questions involved in choosing a vocation and also for the contributions our youths may make. Fr. Ducker has been invited to be chaplain of the conference this year.

A WEEK FROM SATURDAY, the 24th, will be the second annual Corporate Communion for the devotional societies of the parish: the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, the Guild of All Souls and the Society of Mary. The Mass will be at 8 o'clock in S. John's Chapel and will be followed by breakfast in the Parish Hall. This advance notice is given in the hope that all members will plan on attending.

A GUEST at the Clergy House at the end of the week will be the Rev. Father Paul Collins. We always are glad to have Fr. Collins return to his Clementine home where he has many friends.

LAST SUNDAY at 9:15 Mass a brief period of catechism was introduced. At the time of this writing the response to the experiment is unknown but the instruction will be continued. Parents are asked to have the children sit in the front pews so that they may more readily make answers. The Father Rector is desirous of having closer contact with the children and this seems to him a profitable opportunity.

Parish Notes

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR CHAIRMEN of Committees will have an important meeting to-morrow evening at 8 in the Parish Hall.

MEMBERS OF THE SERVANTS OF CHRIST THE KING are urged to receive Holy Communion at the 8 or 9:15 Mass on the feast from which the society derives its name.

ON SATURDAY OF THIS WEEK there will be a Corporate Communion of the members of the devotional societies at 8 o'clock in S. John's Chapel. Will the members of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, the Guild of All Souls and the Society of Mary please accept this notice as their official invitation? While the American Church Union does not fall in the category of a devotional society it is of such purposes that its members ought also to attend. Probably most of our ACU parishioners belong at least to one of the other three but if there are some who belong only to ACU will they please consider themselves invited? Following the Mass on Saturday breakfast will be served in the Parish Hall.

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA will hold its fall meeting on Monday, October 26th, at the Free Church of S. John, Emerald and Elkart Streets. The schedule will be: 5:00—Meeting; 6:00—Evening Prayer and Sermon; 6:30—Dinner and Program. The dinner will cost $1.50. Reservations and advance-payment should be made this week either with your Father Rector or with Mr. George Graber, 3110 Emerald Street, Philadelphia 34. It is hoped that some of our parishioners will attend.

ONE OF THE UNPLEASANT assignments in writing copy for the weekly leaflet is to announce that copies will be mailed only to those who pay for the mailing. This is the season for renewing subscriptions. First-class mailing costs $2.50; second-class mailing costs $2.00. We do not ask that you subscribe. The mailing is done only for your convenience. Father Davis is custodian of the Addressograph and he usually folds and mails the leaflets each week. After Nov. 1st the mailing list will be cut down to those who actually subscribe. Make checks payable to: S. Clement's Rector's Fund.

THE ANNUAL COUNCIL OF ACU, held in New York October 6th-7th, was highly successful. It was attended by a larger number of people, and by a group more representative of the whole U. S. than any previous Council. Clergy and laity were there from California, Oregon, Maine, Florida and points lying between these extremities. A day and a half was hardly enough time to cover all of the business. The opportunities before the ACU are tremendous and the only deterrent is lack of funds. A bold step was taken this year in adopting a budget for 1960 of a little over $100,000 and plans were approved for new ways of raising some of this large amount. You will hear more about the plans another time. S. Clement's has been generous toward ACU in the past, and now with its wider and finer program than ever, the support ought to increase. The devotional high-light of the Council was the Solemn Mass in the Presence of His Grace, the Archbishop of Capetown. At 7:30 in the morning the Church of S. Mary the Virgin was comfortably filled with ACU members and others who prayed the liturgy for God's blessing upon Church and Country.

KYRIE ELEISON

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS } Mass in d David McK. Williams

COLLECT—Almighty and everlasting God, who in thy beloved Son, the King of all, hast been pleased to make all things new: mercifully grant; that all the families of the Gentiles, dispersed by the wounds of sin, may be made subject to his most gracious governance: Who liveth.

THE EPISTLE (Col. 1:12)—Brethren: We give thanks unto God the Father, who hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son, in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: for by him were all things created, that are in heaven and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalities, or Powers: all things were created by him and for him: and he is before all things, and by him all things consist. And he is the head of the body, the Church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead: that in all things he might have the pre-eminence; for it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell: and having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself, by him, I say, whether they be things in earth or things in heaven, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL—His dominion shall be from the one sea to the other: and from the flood unto the world's end. All kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall do him service.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia. Alleluia. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away; and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. Alleluia.

THE HOLY GOSPEL (S. John 18:33)—At that time: Pilate said unto Jesus: Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered him: Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? Pilate answered: Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered: My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered unto the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him: Art thou a King then? Jesus answered: Thou sayest that I am a King. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth: everyone that is of the truth heareth my voice.

CREED—Mass in d David McK. Williams

Parish Notes

TO-DAY is the Father Rector Emeritus' birthday. On behalf of the entire Parish we extend cordial greetings to Father Joiner, wish him every happiness and assure him of our frequent prayers on his behalf.

THE SERVANTS OF CHRIST THE KING will receive Holy Communion to-day, the festival which gives the organization its dedication. The young people who belong to SCK are bound by a rule of life which emphasizes the purpose of their lives and leads them to wholesome dependence upon Prayer and Sacraments.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet Tuesday evening at 8 at S. Barnabas' Church, Haddington. Father Terry, O.H.C. will continue the series of addresses on "Our Bounden Duty". Each month during the 1959-60 season a member of the Order of the Holy Cross will address the Laymen's Union.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will be Thursday, December 3rd. Will every parishioner mark this date on his calendar? The continental flavor will be retained but this year instead of Bavaria, the accent will be from Switzerland, —a Bazaar with a Swiss Twist! Each Tuesday evening there is a work-shop in the Parish Hall. Won't you join the crew of workers who give an evening a week to sewing, cutting, painting, etc., for the Bazaar?

Parish Notes

THE FEAST OF DEDICATION of S. Clement's Church will be celebrated next Sunday. The building actually was consecrated in April, 1864,—a date which usually falls in Passiontide. In keeping with a respected tradition we transfer the observance to the Sunday following All Saints' Day. This Church is known far and wide as one of the most beautiful in the country and our own people's gratitude and appreciation of their treasure is manifest. Next Sunday we shall offer Mass in thanksgiving for the holy beauty in which we have the privilege of worshipping, and for the truths of the Faith which are proclaimed and maintained in S. Clement's Church. For the second time this season the people will join the choir in singing the Mass. Copies of Missa Marialis will be distributed and all will share in the singing of the Solemn Mass. In five years, 1964, we shall celebrate the 100 anniversary of the Church's consecration. One of your Father Rector's ambitions is that the parish be entirely debt-free before that celebration. You recall that $10,000 recently was borrowed in order to complete repairs to the roofs. This is a large amount but we cannot worthily offer solemn thanksgiving to God for our lovely Church until the repair-bills have been paid.

THE ANNUAL SOLEMN REQUIEM MASS for departed members of the Guild of All Souls and the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament will be offered on Saturday of this week at 10:30 a.m., at S. Mary's Memorial Church, 256 McKee Place, Pittsburgh 13, Pa. Even though that Church is rather a long jaunt from S. Clement's it is hoped some of our members will attend. Luncheon will be served and reservations should be made as soon as possible by writing to the Rev. Father John H. Heidt, at the above address. The cost of the meal is $1.50.

THE PROVINCIAL YOUTH CONFERENCE will be held at the Diocesan Conference Center at Radnor on Friday and Saturday. Father Ducker is one of the leaders and it is expected one or two of our young people will attend.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will be only four weeks from Thursday, that is,—December 3rd. It will be a Bazaar with a Swiss Twist! Contributions for the tables are needed, and workers at the weekly Tuesday night Work-Shop are most welcome. The Co-Chairmen of the event are Miss Lilly and Mrs. Booth and they are glad to answer inquiries or suggest to our members ways in which they may help the project. This is not an event of drudgery; it is a joyous occasion of people's giving their talents and time for the welfare of the parish and their having a good time doing it. For these reasons we are not hesitant in asking more and more people to help; we are asking them to share in the holy fun of laboring for God and Church.

PERSONAL NOTE: This week-end your Father Rector is host to a brief but happy family-reunion,—his sister and six cousins!

THE CHURCH WILL BE OPEN on Sunday afternoons until 5:00 o'clock. This is possible because of lay volunteers who will guard the property. Tours of the Church will be conducted during the afternoon in addition to the tour following Solemn Mass.

Parish Notes

THE CLERGY AND PEOPLE OF S. CLEMENT'S extend an affectionate welcome to the Right Reverend, the Lord Bishop of Nassau. We are happy to have Bishop Burton return to us to assist in celebrating the Patronal Festival.

ALL OF THE CONGREGATION is invited to the Parish Hall for a social hour following Vespers and Benediction this afternoon. Light refreshments will be served.

THE S. CLEMENT'S DAY offering will be used for the maintenance of the Parish. In view of the unusually heavy repair bills your generosity is respectfully solicited.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet Tuesday evening at 8 at S. Andrew's Church, 36th and Baring Streets. Fr. Bessom, O.H.C., will continue the series of addresses being given by members of the Order of the Holy Cross.

WEDNESDAY OF THIS WEEK marks the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Order of the Holy Cross. On Nov. 25th, 1884, the Father Founder, James O. S. Huntington, took his life vows. You are asked to offer prayers of thanksgiving for God's blessings on the community through the years and for the service to God and Church which the Order has performed for three-quarters of a century. The 7 o'clock Mass on Wednesday will be offered with these intentions.

THE 53rd ANNUAL CHRISTMAS SEAL campaign will open a week from to-day. This noteworthy record of the campaign against tuberculosis speaks for itself, and it is hoped members of this parish will lend their support to the project.

YOUR ATTENTION is drawn to the schedule for Thanksgiving Day. We shall have only one Low Mass,—at 7. Solemn Mass with Holy Communion will be offered at 9:30.

NEXT SUNDAY EVENING, the 29th, the young people will meet to make candy for the Bazaar. They will welcome contributions of bitter chocolate and confectioner's sugar. It may be brought to the Church at any time this week or Sunday morning.

CAROL FOR S. CLEMENT'S DAY

It was about November-tide,
A long, long time ago,
When good S. Clement testified
The faith that now we know.
Right boldly then he said his say,
Before a furious king;
And therefore on S. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.

Work in the mines they gave him
then,
To try the brave old saint;
And there two thousand Christian
men
With thirst were like to faint.
He prayed a prayer, and out of clay
He made the waters spring,
And therefore on S. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.

An anchor 'round his neck they
tied,
And cast him in the sea;
And bravely as he lived he died,
And gallantly went free.
He rests a many miles away,
Yet here his name we sing,
As all upon S. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.

Our fathers kept it long ago,
And their request we make:
Good Christians, one small mite
bestow,
For sweet S. Clement's sake;
And make his feast as glad and
gay
As if it came in spring,
When all upon S. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.

Parish Notes

THE REGIONAL BRANCH OF A.C.U. will hold a meeting to-morrow evening at S. Clement's Church. Solemn Benediction will be given at 8 and will be followed by a meeting in the Parish Hall. The Rev. Father Henry C. Beck, editor of AC News, will be the speaker. Father Beck, a former Philadelphian well known to many of our people, has accomplished a blessed revolution in making over the magazine. Thereby he is responsible for winning many new friends for ACU. The Regional Branch has so few meetings that it is hoped this one will be well supported by all the members of ACU and other Clementines. Refreshments will be served.

THE VESTRY will meet Monday afternoon at 4:30 at the Clergy House. THE ADVENT RETREAT for the entire family will be held on Saturday of this week, Dec. 12th. The first address will be at five o'clock, and after the six-thirty dinner will be two more addresses. The conductor will be the Rev. Father Philip Fifer, Rector of S. Peter's Church, Phoenixville. Last year, instead of holding two Quiet Evenings, one for men and one for women, we experimented with a Family Retreat and it was judged a successful initiation. We hope this year to have a large number of men and women and boys and girls take part in this spiritual exercise. Your Father Rector knows of no parish-priest better equipped than Father Fifer to "tone us up" for Christmas, and he longs to have all of you reap the advantages of this blessing. Reservations for dinner should be made with the Priests or the Sisters.

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF OUR LADY is Tuesday when we shall have three Low Masses and Solemn Mass. Two aspects of the feast make their special appeal: 1st, God's choosing the Daughter of S. Anne and S. Joachim to be Mother of the Messiah, along with the signal, humbling honor that is implied in His choice of Her; 2nd, Our Lady's constant obedience to the will of God—obedience which preserved her state of blessed purity. These points are worthy of your meditation on that day. Catholics regard this feast as a Holy Day of Obligation; therefore we trust you will be at Mass.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S will meet Tuesday evening. Benediction will be given in S. John's Chapel at 8. At the meeting in the Parish Hall hymns and carols will be sung, and Christmas packages for the Philadelphia General Hospital will be wrapped.

THE FALL INGATHERING of the U.T.O. was recently received at a diocesan service. S. Clement's offering came from twenty-two participants and amounted to $71.00.

A BELATED BOUQUET of metaphorical orchids is hereby presented to SCYO. Several weeks ago, on a pleasant Sunday afternoon, a group of our young people worked on the six large iron bier-lights. They burned and/or scraped off the old paint and the accumulated wax and then applied a coat of fresh black paint. It was a hot, hard job and we are grateful to our youths for their interest in improving equipment. Later Mr. David Taylor added a few touches of color so that the candle-sticks now are handsome. They were first used in their refurbished state on All Souls' Day.

YOUR FATHER RECTOR will attend a meeting of the Executive Board of the ACU in New York on Tuesday afternoon. Later he will preside at a meeting of the Publications Board, a subsidiary of the Planning & Policy Committee, having the responsibility of authorizing all publications of the ACU. He will attend a dinner meeting to initiate plans for an important conference to be sponsored by ACU and to be held next summer at Margaret Hall School in Versailles, Ky. Mr. Cooper, as Chairman of Membership, also will attend the Executive Board meeting.

RADIO NEWS. On Sunday nights at 9:30, through the 1st S. after Christmas, Evensong at S. Mark's will be broadcast over WI-FI (92.5 FM). The music is by S. Mark's choir of men. This project is sponsored by the Church of the Holy Nativity with the cooperation of the clergy and choir of S. Mark's Church.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P. M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

ADVENT, known for its characteristic quality of anticipation, this year is also a time of retrospect. We look forward to the celebration of Our Lord's Birthday and think of the many, many graces, good things and distinctive joys that originate with Incarnate Lord and are now so much parts of our daily lives that we almost take them for granted. With the keenest delight we anticipate Christmas with its message of sweetness and truth,—the truth that Jesus the Son of God and Mary truly abides with us. . . . The retrospect consists of a continued looking back at the glory of Clementide, the excitement and success of the Parish Bazaar (and the beauty of its Swiss Twist), the Regional Meeting of ACU, and the excellent Quiet Evening by Father Fifer. All of these, which we hold dear, provide further foundation for profound thanksgiving when we gather next week to offer the Mass of the Holy Nativity.

TWO QUIET DAYS for women will be at S. Margaret's House this week. On Tuesday the program starts with Mass at 8:30 and ends at 3:15. Conductor will be the Rev. Canon Joseph H. Hall, 3rd, Th.D. On Saturday evening the first address will be at 4:30; the program will end at 9. Conductor will be the Rev. Michael R. Becker. Please register as soon as possible. Telephone VI 4-4612.

CONTRIBUTIONS for Christmas Flowers and Charities are most welcome. Last year the cost of flowers and greens quite exceeded the amount given for that purpose; this year we shall limit the expenditure to the amount provided.

A REPORT TO THE PARISH on its support of ACU. Each year S. Clement's Church makes a gift over and above the dues paid by the individual members of the organization. In 1959 the Parish has sent ACU $1126.25. In addition, the Father Rector gave from his discretionary funds $300 to cover the cost of eight more-than-usual pages in the November AC News. We are deeply thankful that we have been able this year to support this important work to the extent of $1426.25!

THE PARISH recently has received gifts of very useful equipment. Mr. Charles Randall has given an excellent projector of slides and film-strips and Mr. Lealor Wilson a 70" by 70" screen for showing pictures. Mr. Randall also has supplied the large bulletin board displayed in the corridor and he furnishes it with the interesting candid shots of parochial events. We are most grateful for these gifts and for the many hours of service that prepare them for our use. Mr. Randall, with the assistance of Fr. Ducker and Mr. Thomas Rivel, is making a series of liturgical pictures which will illustrate all the details of the celebration of Holy Mass. The series will be used for lectures on the liturgy and for instruction of seminarians learning to celebrate Mass.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P. M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

AT LAST THE GREAT FEAST is just before us! For four weeks we have been anticipating it liturgically and many of us have longingly been looking forward to it for even a greater length of time. Last year the attendance at the Carol Service increased substantially and so we continue to have it. It is an excellent preparation for the Mass of Christ and your Father Rector encourages as many of you as possibly can be here to attend. A good devotional program is to come to the Church that evening for confession and the Blessing of the Bambino and then Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. What better way can there be for making ourselves ready for participating in the Midnight Mass and receiving the Word Made Flesh in the Blessed Eucharist? No better way has yet been devised. The fast before the midnight reception of Holy Communion should be at least three hours from solid food and alcoholic beverages and at least one hour from other beverages. It should be kept in mind that the Vigil of Christmas is a day of fast and abstinence and therefore food between meals is out of order. The older principle, then, of not eating after the evening meal seems the sensible and practical one to observe. Along with confession and devotions this physical discipline is a necessary part of preparing for a worthy Christmas Holy Communion.

THE CHILDREN OF THE PARISH will have their holiday party in the Parish Hall from three to five on Saturday. This announcement calls for a word of warning to parents. Surprisingly and ironically, children frequently are deprived of their right and obligation of assisting at Christmas Mass. Parents sometimes attend at midnight after the children have gone to bed. They do not return to Mass later in the morning and thus the children pass the holiday with no Christ-Mass. The party on Saturday is no substitute for Mass. We wish to have all the children at the social function and to enjoy a happy time with their friends,—but first,—they are to enjoy their right of assisting at Mass on the feast itself.

A WEEK from to-morrow evening, the 28th, there will be a party in the Parish Hall for the adults and older youths. The occasions of our parishioners assembling for sociability are few and it is hoped many of our members and their friends will share in the social evening planned for their enjoyment. After Benediction Miss May Lilly will show the colored slides and tell us interesting high-lights of her recent European trip.

THE VESTRY in its meeting of Dec. 7th concluded that the parish-treasury is sufficiently healthy that the Christmas Offering may be applied against the debt for roof-repairs. Instead of using the collection for the general maintenance of the parish, the Vestry will apply every dollar of the Christmas Offering toward reduction of the debt. This is good news and ought to appeal to every member. The debt now is about $10,000.

SCYO will have its Christmas party at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening. Mr. Curry will again be host at this annual function at his home.

THE 1960 ENVELOPES will soon be distributed to those who have submitted pledge-cards. Many parishioners have not yet returned their cards. Will you please do so now? Extra cards are at the bulletin boards.

ABOUT THE COVER:

In this cover design, we are reminded of the glorious fact that through that lowly birth at Bethlehem, the Eternal Word became flesh, and lived on earth as true-God and true-man. In that lowly birth, the words of Isaiah were fulfilled: "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called, Wonderful, Counselor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace." The Chi Rho (the first two letters of the Greek word for Christ) reminds us that this is the Eternal Christ, born in a manger.

...and the word was made flesh

Parish Notes

THIS BEING THE FIRST writing of NOTES since Christmas, it is the appropriate time to make record of how well the festival was kept by our Parish as a whole. The change from 9 o'clock to 11:30 for the Blessing of the Bambino seemed to meet with approbation, and the congregation of course was far larger than the number who attended at the earlier hour. It is an appealing prelude to the Midnight Mass and provides opportunity for devotional preparation for making Holy Communion. After several years of use in our Parish, Charpentier's Messe de Minuit is becoming a Clementine tradition for this feast,—and again our choir sang it with a happy combination of reverence and vivacity. We usually have only two Masses later in the morning, at 8 & 9:30, but because Christmas was on Sunday we returned to 11 o'clock for the Solemn Mass of the Day. To our surprise, the 11 o'clock congregation was very nearly as large as our regular Sunday number. And as might be expected, many visitors were with us at these festival services. The confessions testify to the spiritual fitness of preparation; while the number of penitents was a little less than the number of communicants the proximity is a healthy sign. At Easter we usually have more penitents than communicants, but we are grateful for the Christmas record. All in all the Holy Feast was truly a festival of the Parish-Family, and indeed a most happy one.

THE PARISH, and the Clergy in particular, are grateful to Father Jacoby for offering the Solemn Mass on three successive Sundays and Low Mass on several week days of his vacation.

THE JANUARY MEETING of the Vestry, normally held on the second Tuesday, has been postponed to February 14th.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S will meet on Tuesday evening at 7:45 in the Parish Hall. The program will be on behalf of the Church Periodical Club and will include a skit to be presented by S. Anne's Players of S. Anne's Church, Willow Grove. This is an open meeting to which the men as well as all the ladies of the Parish are invited.

TWO SPECIAL OFFERINGS of the autumn may now be reported to the Parish. The All Souls' Day Offering was $275, and was used as follows:

To S. Anna's Home	$200
To the Guild of All Souls	25
To Altar Guild for supplies for Requiem Masses	50

The Offering for S. Clement's Day was $1457 and was used for general expenses in maintaining the Parish. These offerings represent self-denial and generosity which are outward signs of the loyalty of Clementines, and for both the spiritual and material aspects of the gifts we are deeply thankful. The Christmas Offering cannot yet be reported for we trust it is not complete,—i.e., that some parishioners will even now send their offering for this holy festival.

THE BAZAAR may also be reported, even though the figures are not final. The Vestry had placed $1200 in the 1960 budget as the expectancy from the Bazaar. At the time of the event, the successful raising of this figure looked unlikely. But,—somehow, we have made it! The Accounting Warden has received $1200 and he in turn, acting according to the budgetary plan, paid the Missionary Quota. This was our final payment to the Diocese, and S. Clement's has met in full and on time its Quota of $6500 for 1960. And for this we are deeply grateful. The Bazaar account now has a small balance with which to begin preparations for the Bazaar of 1961 and this is not too early to dream and plan of that fabulous event.

THE SEVEN-DAY CANDLE at the Lady Shrine is burning this week in memory of Father Joiner,—given by Miss Gladys V. Bly of Fairhaven, Mass.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

WEDNESDAY is the beginning of the Church Unity Octave. Clementines are informed on the high significance of this week of prayer for the unity of Christians and they are urged to participate in the activity of the week as their time allows. Daily Mass and Holy Communion are the ideal observance but those unable to do this can at least pray the intentions of each day in their private devotions. The daily intentions and suggested prayers are listed on cards that are at the bulletin boards,—free for you to pick up and use.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION will meet at S. Clement's on Wednesday. Please note the usual 9:30 Mass will be omitted this Wednesday, but a Solemn Mass will be offered at 10:30. Parishioners are welcome to attend the 10:30 Mass and receive Holy Communion. The program, planned in the interest of Christian Unity, will include addresses by a Roman Catholic priest and a Lutheran minister. Ladies who can help serve luncheon to the Clergy at 1 o'clock are asked to offer their services to Mrs. Arbuckle. The prepared food will be supplied by a caterer, but the Parish will provide the staff.

ANOTHER EXCEPTION to our usual program of services will be on Friday. The evening Devotions and confessions-hour will be omitted in order to allow our people to attend a significant function at Holy Trinity Church at 8 p.m. The Overseas Mission Society (a national organization) is sponsoring a three-day conference and its opening session is Friday night. It is to be "A Service of Missionary Witness" with an address by the Rt. Rev. Stephen F. Bayne, Jr., who is filling the newly created post of Anglican Executive Officer with his headquarters in England. The secular international world is of such character in this age that the work of Overseas Missions is of multiplied importance,—for example,—the Episcopal Church's parishes and schools in Cuba. It is important for us to hear opinions and statements from the coordinator of all Anglican Overseas Missions and the members of S. Clement's are encouraged to attend the service Friday night.

A DINNER FOR THE BOYS AND MEN of the Choir and the Parish-Clergy was given by Mr. Thomas D. Gravell on December 29th at Kugler's Restaurant. The boys were entertained in the afternoon by seeing the movie "Spartacus", and after the dinner all joined in singing a few carols. It was a most happy and enjoyable occasion, and was but one of a series of Christmas dinners given the choir by Mr. Gravell.

ON TUESDAY AFTERNOON at 2 a service for the Church Periodical Club will be held at S. Mark's Church, Locust Street. The various parochial representatives of C.P.C. will be inducted by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Pennsylvania. The speaker will be the Rev. William D. Eddy, who is in charge of the Hokkaido University Center in Japan. It is hoped that ladies of S. Clement's will attend this diocesan service.

BAPTISM OF ELEVEN CHILDREN took place on S. John's Day, December 27th, preceding the Children's Party. All of them are either choir-boys or the brothers or sisters of choir-boys whose families do not belong to S. Clement's. This event testifies to the possible missionary results of choir-activity and we hopefully look forward to the perseverance of these children to attaining of communicant-status. The new young members, and their ages, are: John Jacob Snell, 12; Linda Mae Snell, 9; Nancy Ellen Snell, 7; Christina Anne Snell, 6; Edward William Snell, 5; Evelyn Louise Snell, 4; Catherine Anne Hofsis, 12; Thomas Carl Hofsis, 8; Ivan Ephraim Parodi, 14; Herman Parodi, 11; Dennis Mark Ansbro, 1. Your prayers are asked on behalf of these young Christians and their families.

Parish Notes

A WEEK FROM TO-DAY will be kept as Theological Education Sunday, an observance which is officially called for each year by the Presiding Bishop. There is every reason to expect the seminaries to need increased financial support: the population explosion, more Church-members, more congregations, more priests and, of course, more seminarians. More students call for more faculty. Faculty stipends must be on levels comparable with those of parochial and administrative clergy. Every aspect of seminary planning includes an item of increased support. The ones who must provide the support are those who derive the benefit of clergy,—and they are YOU, dear parishioners and friends of the Parish! As in other years, our offering will be given to Nashotah House where both of your Parish-Priests received their training.

ON ANOTHER OCCASION you will hear of the plans for expansion at Nashotah House,—for new buildings, including a chapel, and for additional endowments. And when the time comes, you undoubtedly will be asked to contribute. The appeal described in the above paragraph is only for the current maintenance of the institution. The Very Reverend Father Klein, Dean of Nashotah, will preach at S. Clement's on Low Sunday, April 9th, and he may then make known to us some of his plans for developing the school.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet at S. Clement's on Tuesday evening. Solemn Benediction will be at 8, followed by the meeting in the Parish Hall. Continuing his series on Anglican Worthies, the Reverend Father Ducker will speak on "Thomas Bray". The meeting at S. Clement's is the annual opportunity for ladies freely to pass the door-keeper of this customarily all-male organization. It is hoped that Lady-Clementines, then, will grace this gathering in considerable number, and will drink in the sanctified atmosphere of this venerable confraternity of the gentlemen of the Church.

ARE YOU PRAYING the intentions of the Church Unity Octave? It will come to its conclusion on Wednesday, the Conversion of S. Paul, and in case you have been remiss, there is time to catch up and complete the plan of prayer according to schedule. For over half a century this Octave of Prayer has been kept by an ever-increasing number of Christians, and apparently the prayers are bearing fruit. The ecclesiastical air that is breathed by Catholics is becoming clearer, and seems to be friendlier as the years pass. Recently the Archbishop of Canterbury called on the Holy Father of Rome. Publicity has not been given to the content of their conversations, and the silence in itself is significant. A local newspaper carried the story the other day,—and we hope this is authoritative,—that in the autumn of this year a meeting is planned for the Pope of Rome, the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Patriarch of Constantinople! Wonder of wonders! Simply the fact that such a conference is discussed carries a deal of meaning and encouragement. And so, get to your knees, brethren, and pray this week and every week for Catholic Unity. When this Unity has been accomplished we shall be in a position of sounder stability for discussing union with the sects that are seeking Apostolic Order.

REPORTS OF PAST EVENTS always are a bit stale in these paragraphs because copy is written ten days prior to the Sunday on which the leaflet is used. However, your Father Rector wishes to record his gratitude for the holy observance of the Epiphany at the Evening Mass and the spirit of the party which followed. The Mass and the Italian Carol were his choice, and he expresses thanks to the choir and the tenor-soloist for their excellent singing of the same, and also to the ladies who arranged the social hour and to those who did the accompanying chores. Misunderstanding has arisen as to the year of your Rector's retirement, and so here it is for the record. According to the present Canons of the Church, he may retire in September of 1969; he must retire, at the latest, in that month of 1973! He is not likely to be called elsewhere,—so,—be patient with him.

Parish Notes

ON ASH-WEDNESDAY ashes will be blessed before the first Mass and will be distributed at every Mass and at the evening service. Last Sunday's leaflet carried an appeal for an observance of Lent with a more-than-usual valiant, intrepid forbearance of weather and other inconveniences. All that might be added to that appeal is that, in view of the sacramental principle, if Lent is to mean a spiritual growth and a girding in the Faith there simply must be a degree of physical effort. The only historic demand of Lent is the discipline of fasting and this is extremely important. But self-discipline without a spiritual goal is to travel without arriving. Therefore, along with your self-discipline, each of you should have a definite intention for Lent and a rule of devotional exercises for accomplishing your intention. The parochial schedule provides ample opportunities for assisting at week-day Masses, for making more frequent Holy Communion and for taking part in the recitation of Stations of the Cross on Friday nights. For the sake of God's greater glory, for the sake of the corporate spiritual tone of our Parish, and for the sake of your personal spiritual health—do enter the Lenten life with animation and determination and, above all, with perseverance.

THE VESTRY will meet on Tuesday at 4:30 at the Clergy House. At this meeting two highly important matters will be before the gentlemen: the adoption of a budget for 1961 and the election of a vestryman to fill the unexpired term of Mr. James Booth, who, because of removal from this area, has resigned. Your prayers are asked for God's guidance of the Vestry in these and all other matters that may be presented.

SHROVE TUESDAY NIGHT will be FAMILY FILM NIGHT! This will not be as glamorous as traditional Mardi Gras but it will be interesting and socially pleasant, and will be our last fling at Parish Hall parties until after Easter. A colored, sound-picture will be shown on the work of the Church in the Panama Canal Zone, and a lovely film this is, too. No champagne that we know of, but there will be good coffee and tea and cakes so that everybody will be in fine fettle for Ash-Wednesday morning. The sponsors, the Women of S. Clement's, invite all of the men and women and youths of the Parish, and their friends, to attend this party.

DO YOU NEED A LITTLE PRODDING to hie your way to shrift during Shrovetide? There is little point in calling the day "Shrove Tuesday" unless its proper significance is observed. The Penitential Office appointed for Ash-Wednesday is a call to repentance, and genuine repentance is a call to the confessional. Start the holy season with a clean sweep; you will find holy joy in the sweet tears of contrition and the gift of absolution.

CANDIDATES FOR CONFIRMATION are now under instruction. A group of boys and girls meets on Saturday mornings for this purpose. If there are adults that are interested in receiving this sacrament, will they kindly speak to one of the priests so that times for instruction may be arranged? Among the frequent visitors there may be some who are not yet confirmed and some who are timid about identifying themselves. Please, dear visitors, be assured we are happy to have you with us and that we shall be glad to provide instruction when your time and ours permits. On Sunday afternoon, the 30th of April the Rt. Rev. Y. Y. Tsu, retired Bishop of West China, will visit S. Clement's to administer Holy Confirmation. Forced out of China by the Communists, Bishop Tsu is now assisting the Bishop of Pennsylvania and lives in Fort Washington.

BAZAAR COMMITTEE please take notice. All chairmen of the various departments of the bazaar, and their helpers, are asked to attend a meeting at 8 p.m. on Monday, February 20th, in the Parish Hall.

ORGAN—Trio Sonata I: Moderato Johann Sebastian Bach

HYMN—Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve No. 577

ASPERGES ME—Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, O Lord, and I shall be clean: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

PSALM—Have mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness: according to the multitude of thy mercies, do away mine offences.

Glory be to the Father . . . Thou shalt purge me . . .

INTROIT—Circumdederunt me. The sorrows of death came about me; the pains of hell gat hold upon me: and in my tribulation I made my prayer unto the Lord, and he regarded my supplication out of his holy temple.

PSALM—I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my fortress, and my Saviour.

Glory be to the Father . . . The sorrows of death . . .

KYRIE ELEISON—Mass in d David McK. Williams

GRADUAL—The Lord will be a refuge in the time of trouble; and they that know thy Name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast never failed them that seek thee. For the poor shall not always be forgotten; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever: up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand.

TRACT—Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. O let thine ears consider well: the voice of my complaint. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it? For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.

CREED—Mass in d David McK. Williams

Parish Notes

WE, AT S. CLEMENT'S, to-day are making an offering for Theological Education. Last week's leaflet announced this offering and each of you has received in the mail a further description of the needs of Nashotah House. We have one Clementine at that seminary at present and expect to send more. If any of you have thought you would skip contributing this year, please revise your thinking. And if any have forgotten their offering to-day, you may submit it later. The fund will be held open for about a month and we hope very much the total will be increased over the average amount we have sent to Nashotah.

THE PURIFICATION OF OUR LADY is Thursday of this week, and do you recall what parochial anniversary this is? Your Father Rector has a keen remembrance of it. One year ago, after prayerful deliberation and, yes, with a feeling of "How will it be received?" he announced the first Evening Mass at S. Clement's. In view of long-established, venerable, praiseworthy traditions of Holy Communion only in the morning, and Holy Communion only after fasting from midnight, the innovation carried elements of risk. Never will he forget the Church that night. The nave, usually dusky even when electric-lighted, gleamed with the shine of candles during the Candlemas ceremony; the Lady-hymns were stirringly and enthusiastically sung; and the congregation looked to be nearly as large as that on a Christmas Midnight. He only could think, while going about the Church in procession, "Praise and thanks be to God! And thanks be to God for a Parish that is open-minded to changes!" It was no stunt. It was a devotional experience, and the conversion to the principle of Mass-later-than-noon has stuck. We have had about half a dozen Evening Masses in this first year and not one has been poorly supported by our people, and each of them has attracted visitors who probably could not get to a morning service. It is noteworthy that we began this change on a Lady Feast; we may properly reckon that the innovation has been under Her patronage and, as always, She has been good to those who honor Her at the time they honor Her Son. Let us keep the Purification, then, not only with our usual intention of the Feast itself, but also in thanksgiving: 1st, for the much increased number of the faithful who now assist at Mass on greater Holy Days; 2nd, for the increased number of confessions and receptions of Holy Communion on these days; and 3rd, for our people's humble willingness to follow leadership in this matter, even though the new way was a wide spiritual step from what they had been taught for many decades.

THE SHRINE DEVOTIONS will be at 5:45 on Thursday. If you can arrive that early, please join in the making of responses and the saying of the Rosary. The Candlemas Ceremony will be at 6:15, followed by the Solemn Mass. Copies of Missa Marialis will be passed to the people and you are asked to lift your voices, so that the Liturgy may really be a work of the people.

NEXT SUNDAY a sale of Baked Goods will be held before and after the Solemn Mass. The proceeds will go towards the good works of the Women of S. Clement's. Orders for fudge may be placed with Mrs. Milson to-day or through this week.

DO YOU KNOW that you may make a prayer-offering by providing for the sanctuary light, or the lamp at the Lady Shrine? Each light costs a dollar a week. This is not an appeal for funds. It is announcement of an opportunity for votive offerings. This week, your Father Rector will provide both lights,—the lamp before the Blessed Sacrament in thanksgiving to Our Lord for the first year of Evening Masses, with many Communion well-prepared for; the lamp at the Lady Shrine in thanksgiving for Blessed Mary's prayers on behalf of our Parish, and especially those on behalf of Evening Masses which were innovated on a Feast in Her honor. The lamp at Lady Shrine was provided last week by Mrs. David Nicastro on behalf of her mother. When you wish to provide either of these lamps, speak to one of the Priests.

THE CROSS & ANCHOR SOCIETY will meet after Solemn Mass to-day.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S sponsor a Bake Sale to-day after the 9:15 and 11 o'clock Masses. Home-made fudge is available, in addition to the various attractive pastries. The fund which underwrites the good works of this organization needs bolstering and this sale is a step toward accomplishing a balanced budget for the ladies' program of works.

THE HOLY SEASON OF LENT will be with us in only ten days. Easter is early this year, April 2. The earliest it ever can be is March 22 but it will not fall on this date in the years remaining in this 20th century. In this period it will be on March 26 three times: 1967, 1978 and 1989. However, at this moment we are more concerned with 1961 when Easter will be only eleven days later than the earliest possible date. This means we may have in one fell swoop, Lent and a continuance of severe winter weather. In fact, The Old Farmer's Almanac predicts snow, rain, wind and fog from February right through the first part of April. All of this will add to the testing of a Christian's vocation to live the devout life and to keep a reasonably good Lent. Your Father Rector would be embarrassed to put in print the recent average attendance at week day Masses. Won't you do your part in Lent to correct this situation? Some of you who travel from outlying parts to center-city for business could stop at your Parish-Church for Mass at 8 in case 7 is too early. And the 12:10 Mass each Wednesday should draw more parochial support. The subject of observance of Lent is being presented to you in advance so that you may carefully think through your plans for the season. Regardless of where you live, regardless of weather, you can adopt and keep a rule of self-discipline. On the other hand, your rule of public devotional observance depends to a degree upon your domestic location. But do not let geography and weather become an alibi. The greater your sacrificial acceptance of inconvenience and weatherly risk, for the sake of pursuing the devout life, the greater honor you do to Holy God. And further,—albeit secondary,—the stricter you are in your self-discipline and devotional rule, the wider and deeper will be your spiritual joy for having been "faithful over a few things".

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION will meet on Wednesday at Christ Church, Media. The Reverend Father Alberts, Rector, on that day will celebrate the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the sacred Priesthood. We of this Parish wish him all good things, and assure him of prayers on his behalf.

YOUR FATHER RECTOR will be in New York from Monday through Wednesday, mainly on business for the ACU. On Monday he will preside at a meeting of the Planning and Policy Committee which has the responsibility of reviewing many Church issues, both constructive and controversial, and making recommendations of action to its parent committee, the Executive Board. Later on Monday he also will be in charge of a meeting of the Publications Board for viewing new film-strips and discussing publications and authorizing distribution of both. Through the kind hospitality of the Reverend Father Paul C. Weed, Jr., the Monday meetings will be held at S. Luke's Chapel in Greenwich Village and all participants will enjoy luncheon in the cafeteria of the handsome S. Luke's Parochial School. On Tuesday the Executive Board will meet at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin. This legislative Board conducts the authoritative business of ACU between convenings of the large Council. Thus the American Church Union, because of the generous dedication of time and energy by men and women elected to office, carries on a herculean task on behalf of the whole Church. In this year of General Convention the opportunities and demands will be heavily increased, so that additional office help must be employed and many other "extras" will be needed. If you are not now a member, do speak to Mr. Frederick Cooper, our Parish Chairman, so that you may join those who, with prayers and a few dollars, uphold the arms of those who are trying to lead the Church up the path which was begun by Keble and Pusey and the other Oxford Fathers.

Parish Notes

THE COMMITTEE OF THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR, chairmen and helpers, are asked to attend a meeting in the Parish Hall at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening. The final reports of the 1960 Bazaar,—department by department,—will be presented, and plans laid for the 1961 event. Reviewing the strengths and weaknesses of the Bazaar while they still are fresh in the memory is the best way of beginning preparations for the next one.

HOW HAVE YOU BEGUN LENT? With a definite rule of self-discipline? With a definite program of devotional exercises, including week-day assistance at Mass and participation in the Stations of the Cross on Friday nights? With a definite goal for your self-denial Lenten Offering? If these are part of your planned way for observing the holy season, blessed are ye! If not, the season is still in its early stages and you can make a late start; and, be assured, you will be moving in the right direction if you make even a late start in adopting a definite rule for Lent.

THE QUIET EVENING FOR MEN will be on a week from Saturday, being March 4th.

S. MATTHIAS' DAY, Friday, is the eighth anniversary of the consecration of the Rt. Rev. William H. Brady, D.D., Bishop of Fond du Lac. Your Father Rector, as Honorary Canon of Fond du Lac, wishes publicly to extend not only his own good wishes but those of the members of S. Clement's Church to the Bishop and assure him of our prayers on behalf of himself and his diocese. The 7 o'clock Mass will be offered with special intention for Bishop Brady that, at the intercession of Our Lady and the Apostle Matthias, the fulness of God's blessing will be upon him and that his clarion championing of the Catholic Faith will bear rich fruits in the Diocese of Fond du Lac and beyond its borders.

NOTES ON A DRAMA! During his recent visit to New York for meetings of several ACU committees, your Father Rector saw a play that holds deep interest for all churchmen that have appreciation of the chapters of history that have kept the Church the Church. Such a chapter is that of S. Thomas a Becket and his determination to preserve the Church's authority over spiritual matters against the king's autocratic claim to authority in spiritual affairs,—later known as Erastianism. This historical chapter is artistically and movingly presented in "Becket", a translation of a play by Jean Anouilh, now at the Royale Theatre, and recommended for Clementines to see even during Lent. Sir Laurence Olivier is a winning, convincing Thomas without being ingratiating. After taking Holy Orders his Thomas becomes stalwartly loyal to Holy Church, charitably understanding of people, but never sentimentally pious. Anthony Quinn's King Henry is rough-voiced, earthy and possessed of a combination of ruthlessness and deep affection. His genuine love for Thomas is constant, manifests itself even through their sharp altercations and is the basis of his unrestrained repentance for riding himself of "this man". A highly amusing episode,—not irreverent,—is a conference on England's impasse between the pope and Cardinal Zambelli. Without being lavish, the production is handsomely designed by Oliver Smith. As to the French author's play, its character is far removed from the rhapsodic beauty of the poetry in T. S. Eliot's "Murder in the Cathedral". Comparison is unfair, however, for their only common ground is the story of Thomas and Henry. Anouilh's script is direct and Miss Hill's translation possesses prose rhythm and a literary freshness often lost in the move from one language to another. It is a good play both to see and to hear.

THOSE OF YOU WHO ARE across-the-ocean-travellers should give consideration to making pilgrimage to Walsingham this summer. 1961 is the 900th anniversary of the appearance of the Blessed Virgin to the Lady Richeldis and the founding of the Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham. The American Express Company has announced three pilgrimages in May, June and July. Each tour will be about five weeks, starting in New York and ending in Paris. Descriptive folders are in the narthex and more detailed information may be had at the American Express office on Chestnut Street. The Rt. Rev. F. William Lickfield, D.D., Bishop of Quincy, will be Spiritual Director of the first pilgrimage. Here is rare opportunity for a jolly and holy outing. At least a few Clementines ought to be among the pilgrims.

Parish Notes

OFFICIAL NOTICE is hereby given of the Annual Parish Meeting to be held Monday, March 6, 1961 at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall. An important item on the program each year is the election of Vestrymen. The four men whose term expires on March 6th are Messrs. Pike, Reiter, Sellers and Wilson. Nominations of candidates must be made in writing to the Secretary, Mr. Clark, prior to the meeting. Reports of organizations will be made and opportunity given for parishioners to make suggestions for the welfare of the Parish.

AT THE MEETING OF THE VESTRY on February 14th, Mr. Henry Hagert was elected to fill the unexpired term of Mr. James Booth, class of 1963. Mr. Booth still is a member of the Parish but resigned because of changing his residence to his farm at Elkton, Maryland. The Vestry recommended to the Rector an innovation which the gentlemen hope will be appreciated as a contribution to the morale of the Parish. The recommendation is that, in gratitude for their support of the program of the Parish, the names of those who have made pledges for maintenance of the Parish be published in the leaflet. In cooperation with this constructive recommendation, the Rector within the next few weeks, will publish the list of pledgers in a Sunday leaflet. The suggestion was made that shortly after giving public recognition to pledgers, there be published in the leaflet the names of parishioners that do not pledge. However, this suggestion remained in the category of suggestion and has not as yet become a recommendation.

A QUIET EVENING for men will be held on Saturday, under the direction of the Father Rector. The first address will be given at 5 and the program will close at 9. Reservations for dinner should be made with the Priests or the Sisters as early as possible.

THE REVEREND FATHER E. FRANK SALMON, D.D., will be the preacher at Solemn Mass next Sunday. We have such a thankful remembrance of his sermon at the Mass of S. Clement last November that all parishioners look forward to his return to our pulpit.

A HANDSOME GIFT has recently been received by S. Clement's. It is a gold and silver monstrance of contemporary design and for use mainly in S. John's Chapel. It is several inches taller than the lovely small, traditional monstrance that heretofore has been used in that chapel, and will harmonize well with the new altar and reredos. The late Richard C. Martin was a devoted layman and loyal member of S. Clement's. When he died in May 1960 he not only left two financial bequests to the Parish but also his family sterling. His instructions were that the silver be melted and made into a chalice and paten or other sacred vessel of the Rector's choosing. In addition to his other bequests he provided sufficient funds to cover the cost of having the vessel made. The Parish does not need another chalice and paten, and it was felt a somewhat larger monstrance of contemporary design would be an asset to S. John's Chapel. During Lent it will be used for Benediction at the high altar in place of the more elaborate festival monstrance. The vessel was designed and executed by Louis Glasier of New York, a talented and highly respected silversmith and himself a loyal Churchman. By Mr. Martin's direction, this gift has been made in memory of his mother, Lucretia, and it is so marked. Those of us who knew Mr. Martin have a happy memory of him and his active participation in the devotional life of the Church. S. Clement's is deeply grateful for his gifts. May the souls of Richard and Lucretia rest in peace and light perpetual shine upon them.

OUR PIANO TUNER has given notice that the piano in the Choir-room is at the point of demise. The sound-board is not only cracked; it is disintegrating. New strings are needed and also repairs to the block to prevent the strings from slipping. To make the old thing usable would cost $500 and it still would be an outworn relic of its noble past. Actually there is not need for a new instrument. Does anyone know of a good second-hand grand piano that might be given to the Parish? The cost of moving will be provided if an instrument is given. Our Choir produces music of such superior quality with this tinny box for rehearsals that one wonders what heights will be attained when it practices to the sweet sound of music of a good piano!

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. Last week the seven day lamps before the Blessed Sacrament, at the Shrine of Our Lady of Clemency and at the Crucifixion Shrine were anonymously provided as a thank-offering for a brother's recovery from an eye operation. This week the lamps before the Blessed Sacrament and at the Lady Shrine are given by Mrs. Harry MacLaughlin in thanksgiving for the recovery of her son, Donald, following a serious operation.

Parish Notes

THE REVEREND FATHER E. FRANK SALMON, D.D., is our guest-preacher this morning, and we are indeed happy to have him with us. A native of Reading, England, Father Salmon was ordained both Deacon and Priest by the Bishop of London but spent a large part of his ministry in Canada. The University of Toronto gave him his Doctorate in Divinity. From 1938-1950 he was Rector of Holy Trinity Church on Rittenhouse Square and since his retirement has lived in West Philadelphia.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE PARISH will be held to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Parish Hall. See last Sunday's leaflet for details regarding election of Vestrymen. Will representatives of the organizations present brief reports of their finances and activities? This is the single, annual opportunity for open and free discussion of matters pertaining to the welfare of S. Clement's, and the actual parishioners may cast ballots.

A QUIET DAY will be held at S. Margaret's House, Germantown, on Tuesday. Mass at 8:30; first address at 10:45; day closes at 3:15. The conductor will be the Reverend Father George W. Davison, Rector of the Church of the Advocate.

S. CLEMENT'S ANNUAL RETREAT FOR WOMEN will be a week from to-day. While it officially starts with the 8 o'clock Mass, after which breakfast will be served, some may prefer to attend the 9:15 and omit breakfast. The addresses will be at 9:50, 2 and 3:30. Dinner will be served at 1 o'clock. Reservations for the meals should be made with the Sisters as soon as possible. The retreat will close with Benediction at 4. The conductor will be the Father Rector. Visitors always are welcome at the retreat and it is hoped our ladies will invite from other parishes friends who are interested in this type of spiritual exercise.

UP TO THE TIME OF WRITING this leaflet (February 23rd) Lent at S. Clement's has been well supported in the main. This is especially true of the 7 o'clock Mass on week days, the 12:10 on Wednesdays and the evening services. The Question Box seems to have aroused interest on Friday nights, and many more questions have been submitted than time has allowed to be answered thus far. Eventually all of them will be answered, and more good questions will be needed on the coming Fridays. The 8 and 9:30 Masses still are our deficient points as far as week-day attendance goes and it is hoped that through this reminder more members will plan their comings and goings so as to assist at these hours. Are you using your self-denial folders for your dimes? This is an easy way,—almost too easy,—to make an offering representing your savings through lenten self-discipline. If ALL the folders mailed to the congregation were filled and returned the fund would be sufficient to pay two months of our Missionary Quota. That would be a most wonderful lift. Won't you do your part to see that it happens?

PURSUANT TO LAST WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENT of the Vestry's recommendation of giving public recognition to pledgers, the names of those who are pledging to S. Clement's in 1961 will be published two weeks from to-day, March 19th. If any of you have inadvertently forgotten to submit your pledge cards, better hurry and get them in so that all names may be included. Of course, the amount of pledges will not be given,—only the names.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. This week the candles for the sanctuary lamp before the Blessed Sacrament and for the lamp at the Shrine of Our Lady of Clemency have been given anonymously as thank offerings for the remarkable improvement of Mrs. Thomas Clark following her severe illness.

PERSONAL NOTE. To-day is the 50th anniversary of your Father Rector's Holy Confirmation. He was confirmed in Grace Church, Sheboygan, Wisconsin, on the 1st Sunday in Lent, March 5, 1911 by the venerable and much loved Bishop Weller of Fond du Lac.

Parish Notes

S. CLEMENT'S ANNUAL RETREAT for women is being held to-day. Inasmuch as the first address will be given very shortly after the conclusion of the 9:15 Mass, the non-retreating congregation is respectfully requested to retreat from assembling and conversing in the corridor between the 9:15 and 11 o'clock Masses. The Parish welcomes the visiting ladies who are taking part in this ascetic exercise and hopes they will find it a profitable medium for nourishing their spiritual welfare.

THE VESTRY will meet at 4:30 on Tuesday at the Clergy House.

SEVERAL QUIET DAYS will be held in the near future. They are:—

Tuesday Evening,—for men and women of the North Philadelphia Convocation, 5 to 9, at S. John's Free Church, Emerald & Elkhart Streets. Conductor: the Rev. H. R. Lorenz, Rector of S. Luke's Church, Kensington. Make reservations by calling Mrs. Paul Loeffler at GA 6-4035. Dinner $1.00.

Saturday Evening,—for the Catholic Laymen's Union, at Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont. Conductor: a Holy Cross Father. Make reservations for dinner by calling LA 5-2241.

Saturday Evening, March 25th, for women, at S. Margaret's House, Germantown, from 4:30 to 9. Conductor: the Rev. Robert W. Hill, Curate of S. Luke's Church, Germantown. Make reservations by calling VI 4-4812.

A Quiet Day for Priests of the Catholic Clerical Union will be held on Tuesday of this week at S. Luke's, Germantown. The Conductor will be the Ven. Canon Harry J. Stretch of Long Island. Archdeacon Stretch will be a guest at S. Clement's Clergy House.

The retreat-movement apparently has healthy establishment in this community and we all should be profoundly thankful that it is so generally accepted. Every person wishing to spend a few hours apart from his usual routine for the sake of glorifying God through the cultivation of his spiritual self, should find among these several opportunities, a time and place for his convenience. All of these are events of only a few hours duration. One of the great needs in this area is a genuine Retreat House, designed and built for that purpose, a place where men or women or youths could spend several days without distraction. That such a house will be provided frequently should be the subject of our prayers.

THE FEAST OF THE ANNUNCIATION OF OUR LADY, being on Saturday this year, will not have an evening Mass. The Solemn Mass will be at 10 a.m. Saturdays have become so nearly holidays that many of our people should be able to attend at 10 o'clock and make Holy Communion in thanksgiving for Our Lord's Incarnation. The Low Masses will be at 7 and 8. The 8 o'clock will be attended by the Associates of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. Mrs. Alger Ward has provided the lamps before the Blessed Sacrament and at the Lady Shrine this week in thanksgiving that Dr. Ward has come safely through his serious illness and for the many blessings that have been received by both herself and the doctor. Mrs. Ward also has provided the same lamps for next week in thanksgiving for Mrs. Thomas Clark's recovery following her trying period of illness. Thanks be to God and Our Lady of Clemency.

NEXT SUNDAY'S PARISH NOTES will be entirely given to the names of those who are pledging to S. Clement's Church this year. Copy for next Sunday's leaflet already has gone to the printer but last-minute names may be added until noon on Tuesday. Thus there is opportunity for the procrastinators to back up their status as parishioners with the expected pledge of support.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR EASTER FLOWERS and Easter Charities may be given to Priests or the Sisters at any time. The past few years nearly all of the flowers have come from the greenhouses of one parishioner, now deceased. Therefore, if our altar on Holy Thursday and Easter is to be as resplendent as in the past more funds will be required. The preferred way is not to have a few large gifts, but many small ones. Would not a fine sense of practical participation be realized if each member gave something, only fifty cents or a dollar? There is desirable liturgical significance in distributing this giving, so that it becomes actually the work of the people.

SOLEMN BLESSING AND DISTRIBUTION OF PALMS

HYMNS—All glory, laud, and honour No. 62

Ride on, ride on in majesty No. 64

INTROIT—Domine, ne longè. O Lord, remove not thy succour afar from me; have respect to my defence, and hear me: deliver me from the mouth of the lion; yea, from the horns of the unicorns hast thou regarded my cry.

PSALM—My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me: and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

KYRIE ELEISON—Missa Iste Confessor G. P. da Palestrina

GRADUAL—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone: my treadings had well nigh slipped. And—why, I was grieved at the wicked: I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT—My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? And art so far from my health: and from the words of my complaint? O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man: a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying; He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

OFFERTORY—Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man. Neither found I any to comfort me: they gave me gall to eat, and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

WHEN PALM SUNDAY arrives eyes often become focused on Easter Day as being the next "big day". To be sure, it is "big". But the intervening days make it that. Holy Week must be taken step by step in order for Easter to be in scale with the Church-year. On Lady Day, Eternity humbled Itself to join forces with Time. This week we stand, not tip-toe and reaching upward, but with our feet firm on the earth earthy, peering ahead through the partitions of Time to the glories and mystery of Eternity itself. We mainly take this stance on Holy Thursday at the commemoration of the eternal Eucharistic Offering; on Good-Friday at the solemn remembrance of the Eternal Sacrifice of God's Son; finally on Saturday night and Sunday at the Vigil of Easter and then at the celebration of the Resurrection of the eternally living Son of God. Each day of Holy Week is opportunity for glorifying Almighty God and for uniting ourselves in unique and close fashion with Our Blessed Savior. Every Clementine should make prodigious effort to attend at least one service, either morning or evening, every day this week, and thus really walk the Way of the Cross with our Lord. This is an obvious method of denying yourselves, taking up your cross daily, and following Him.

FATHER ALFRED Q. PLANK will assist in the Parish Monday through Saturday of this week, and we are most grateful to him for coming to S. Clement's. He will give four addresses at the evening services. They will be a series of meditations on Our Lord's Passion, as follows:—

Monday	The Day of Authority
Tuesday	The Day of Controversy
Wednesday	The Day of Retirement (Silence)
Good Friday	The Day of Suffering

THE FAITHFUL ARE REMINDED of the ancient Catholic discipline of sacramental confession during Eastertide. Eastertide continues through Pentecost,—allowing rather a wide margin of time for fulfilling this obligation. Minimums, however, are necessarily low and are never satisfactory ideals. They are for accomplishing orderliness and not for developing piety. Performance of the Eastertide confession should be honored and encouraged with all the moral persuasion the Church can muster, but on the part of the faithful the Eastertide confession never should be regarded as sufficient. To the conscientious Churchman it is but one of several or many confessions during the course of the year.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet Tuesday evening at 8 at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont. The Reverend Father Ducker, continuing his series of addresses, will speak on "Jackson Kemper".

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. This week the lamps before the Blessed Sacrament and at the Lady Shrine are provided as thank-offerings by Mrs. Thomas Crossley. It is gratifying that parishioners have been quick to respond to the announcement of this opportunity for outward and visible expressions of devotion to Our Eucharistic Lord and to His Holy Mother. It is hoped more will follow the trend.

HAVE YOU as yet given something toward the Easter Flower Fund?

FLOWERS ON THE ALTARS and at the Shrines are the gifts of many persons. Some are thank-offerings, some memorials and some are simply gifts for the Glory of God. Of special interest are the flowers at the Paschal Candle. These are the gift of one parishioner in memory of Father Joiner. The garland around the candlestick is of artistic plastic flowers and greens. For several years, then, we shall be able to use this lovely memorial to the late beloved Father Rector.

YOU ARE AGAIN reminded of the concert by Doris Mayes, contralto, at 8:30 on Thursday evening at Town Hall. It is sponsored by the Church of the Advocate for the benefit of its organ fund. Tickets at $3.00 may be ordered through your Rector or bought at the door that evening. In a congested area, the Church of the Advocate carries on a strategic missionary work and deserves our moral as well as material support.

DURING EASTERTIDE the Regina Coeli is said daily in place of the Angelus and also is sung after the Sunday Solemn Mass. The text is below.

THE EASTER PARTY for adults and older youths will be Friday evening after Solemn Benediction. There will be a brief program of Irish music and folklore in honor of S. Patrick. You will hear songs by choir boys, and stories by Miss May Lilly, our parochial raconteuse of the first order. Refreshments. Come, one and all, and share in this Easter jubilation.

MR. SILL will give an organ recital in S. Clement's Church two weeks from today at 4 o'clock. The collection will help send the choir boys to camp this summer.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

JESUS CHRIST IS RISEN TO-DAY, ALLELUIA! Let us rejoice and be glad in this day which the Lord hath made. Yes, let every Christian soul be happy and thankful on this greatest of great days. Let every Clementine shout the glad tidings and exultingly sing, "Messiah is King over life and death. He reigns as the victorious, risen and glorified King!" Also, let every Clementine humbly thank God for the days of Lent and for the somber beauty of Holy Week which have prepared the way for the glories of Easter. May our dear Lord in His Most Blessed Sacrament give to each of you, as you receive Him in Holy Communion, the fulness of His Paschal Blessing, His love, His peace, and the spiritual energy to persevere in your vocation to be a son of God.

SOMETHING NEW, BUT SOMETHING OLD! A pair of new-for-us, very handsome candlesticks is being initiated today for Low Mass and for the acolytes' hand-candles at Solemn Mass. They are antiques, in renaissance style and quite in harmony with the design of the six large candlesticks. They are the gift of the Misses Eveline and Florence Burrows-Pegg in loving memory of their mother, Margaret, who departed this life on May 17, 1960. The interesting old candlesticks have been newly plated with silver and lacquered. The same ladies have provided for the refinishing of the six office-lights so that all the pieces on the High Altar will have the same glossy finish. We are indeed grateful for this addition to our altar appointments. The new pair will replace the beautiful silver ones which are of Colonial design, and actually not in character with our sanctuary. We shall try to find use for them elsewhere in the Church. Does anyone recall the name of the donor of the Colonial candlesticks? . . . This is an appropriate time to give public recognition to the donor of the six large, silver candlesticks which have been on the High Altar for several years. Father Joiner made the purchase of them in London and they were largely paid for by Miss Irene Ramage. Miss Ramage asked that as long as she was alive her gift remain anonymous. Now it may be made known, and as we pray for her soul we may with propriety offer thanksgiving for her generous consideration of her Parish Church. May the souls of Irene and Margaret rest in peace.

THE EXECUTIVE BOARD of the Cross and Anchor Society will have its first meeting next Sunday after Solemn Mass in the office on the third floor of the Parish House. The recently formed board consists of Mesdames Salvatore Campisi, Frederick Cooper, Horace Crofton, Thomas Rivel, Miss May Lilly, Messrs. Joseph A. Arbuckle, Paul Casey, Robert Freeman, Quentin Long, Robert Mattis, William Pike, Charles Randall.

THE VERY REVEREND WALTER C. KLEIN, Th.D., Dean of Nashotah House, will preach the sermon at Solemn Mass next Sunday. Recognized as one of the American Church's few eminent scholars of Old Testament literature, Dean Klein is also respected as a leading authority on theological education. His background is indeed varied: Curate at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin and Grace Church, Newark; Vicar of S. Augustine's Chapel, Norristown; Chairman of the Graduate Department of Philadelphia Divinity School; Chaplain in U.S. Navy; American Representative on the staff of the Anglican Bishop in Jerusalem and Canon of S. George's Cathedral in that city; Professor of O. T. at Seabury-Western Seminary and Assistant Dean;—and now Dean of Nashotah House. In not a few cases, great scholars are dull preachers, but Father Klein is a notable exception to this plight. A treat is in store for you at sermon-time next Sunday. The Dean will preach at Evensong on Thursday at the Divinity School Chapel.

THE THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY OFFERING is now complete. At any rate, we have closed the fund for this year and gifts from late donors will be saved for next year. Our offering is $700,—all for Nashotah, and a marked increase over our offering of 1960. We all should thank God that He has moved so many hearts to open their purse strings for so worthy a cause.

Parish Notes

S. CLEMENT'S IS MOST HAPPY to have as the preacher this morning the Very Reverend Walter C. Klein, Th.D. We assure him of a hearty welcome at our parochial threshold not only today but at any time he chooses to visit us. This afternoon Father Klein will preach at Evensong at the Cathedral of S. John the Divine, New York; on Tuesday he will address the Eastern Convocation of Nashotah Alumni at S. Mark's Church, Locust Street; and on Thursday evening he will preach at the Divinity School.

THE NEWLY CREATED Executive Board of The Cross and Anchor Society will meet briefly after Solemn Mass.

THE VESTRY will meet at 4:30 Tuesday afternoon at the Clergy House.

ON TUESDAY EVENING AT 8:00 will be a meeting open to all the members of S. Clement's and their friends. The speaker will be the Reverend Father George W. Davison, Rector of the Church of the Advocate. His address will be on the intensely interesting program of activity now being conducted by that Parish. A few years ago this Parish gave to the Advocate a handsome polychromed altar with tabernacle and candlesticks and matching ambry,—all formerly in S. John's Chapel. In their new parochial home, these appointments are in the north transept which now bears the dedication, "S. Clement's Chapel". Our gift has enabled that Parish to reserve the Blessed Sacrament decently and with safety. Tuesday's meeting is sponsored by The Women of S. Clement's. It is hoped men of the Parish will respond to the invitation to this meeting for surely the urban missionary project at the Advocate is a man-sized job.

YOUR FATHER RECTOR will be in New York Monday for meetings of the Planning and Policy Committee and the Publications Board of the American Church Union. He will not, however, remain over night for the Executive Board of ACU. Too many things going on at home on Tuesday!

THE REVEREND FATHER GRIEG TABER, Rector of the Church of S. Mary the Virgin, New York, will be in the Parish on Saturday to conduct a retreat for the Associates of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity at S. Clement's.

AN ORGAN RECITAL will be given next Sunday at 4 o'clock at S. Clement's by Mr. Sill. The program is published in the Eastertide Kalendar. The collection will be given to the fund for sending the choir boys to camp this summer. Invite your friends and of course plan on being here yourself.

THIS LEAFLET is being written on the morning of Holy Thursday and therefore comment on Holy Week at S. Clement's can hardly now be recorded. Palm Sunday, a beautiful spring day, introduced the Week on a grand scale. We were able to have the solemn singing of the Passion through the kindness of the Rector of Trinity Church, Swarthmore, the Reverend Layton B. Zimmer, who generously lent to S. Clement's his Deacon-Assistant, the Reverend William E. Danforth, who was Narrator of the Passion. We are deeply grateful for this courtesy. On the basis of the better-than-usual attendance during Lent it is reasonably expected that the great days of Holy Week and Easter itself will be very well supported . . . P.S. Easter Tuesday. Our expectations were well fulfilled. Participation in the rites of the Triduum was not only devotional and constant, but by large members of the faithful—, and Easter day was the best during the present rectorate. Deo Gratias!

Parish Notes

BISHOP HART will hold a conference for all the clergy of the Diocese of Pennsylvania at Mt. Pocono this week. The leader of the conference will be the Rev. Edward N. West, D.D., Canon Sacrist of the Cathedral of S. John the Divine, New York. In order to attend the conference, your Father Rector will be absent from the Parish from Monday through Friday.

A DAY OF WITNESS will be held on a week Saturday, being April 29th. Sponsored by the Catholic Clerical Union, this will be a function that should have the support of all Catholic laity of the Diocese as well as clergy. It will be far more than a festival for acolytes. Members of young people's societies and of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament are asked to join the clergy and acolytes in a street procession. All will meet at the Philadelphia Divinity School in time to be in the line of procession at 10 a.m. All will march to the Church of the Saviour at 38th Street above Chestnut where Solemn Mass will be offered at 10:30 in the presence of the Bishop Coadjutor. This will be excellent opportunity for witnessing to the Faith in the University area of West Philadelphia, and it is hoped many Clementines will be in both the procession and the congregation at Mass.

THE AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY conducts its annual solicitation for funds this week. This charity makes a universal appeal because of the widespread vulnerability to the disease. It is hoped that Clementines will respond to this humanitarian cause.

Parish Notes

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA will have its spring meeting on Tuesday at S. George's Church, Indiana and Livingstone Streets. The Convocation will open at 5:00 o'clock, to be followed by dinner at 6:30 and Evensong at 7:30. Reservations for dinner, at $1.50, may be made today with either Mrs. Cooper or the Rector. Our Parish has been represented by very small numbers in recent years and it is hoped that more Clementines will be in attendance Tuesday evening.

ANOTHER TUESDAY NIGHT MEETING will be that of the Catholic Laymen's Union at Christ Church, Media. The Reverend Father Ducker will give an address on "Samuel Schereschewsky", another chapter in his series on Anglican worthies.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION will meet at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday at S. John's Church, Bala Cynwyd. The Reverend Father Daniel Stevick of P.D.S. will lead a discussion on "The Cure of Souls".

THE GREAT SERVICE OF WITNESS will be held on Saturday,—a function which should have the support of many members of S. Clement's Parish. All members of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, the Society of Mary, the Guild of All Souls and the Cross & Anchor Society are invited to be in the procession. They should assemble at the Divinity School, 4205 Spruce Street, a little before 10:00. Parking space will be available west of the school. The procession will begin to move at 10 and will arrive at the Church of the Saviour, 38th Street above Chestnut, in time for Solemn Mass to be offered at 10:30. The Bishop Conclutor will preside at Mass and the Reverend Father Davison, Rector of the Church of the Advocate, will preach. If there is rain at 9 o'clock Saturday, the procession will be cancelled but the Mass will be at 10:30 regardless of weather. Sponsored by the Catholic Clerical Union, this outgrowth of the Acolytes' Festival, provides opportunity for a demonstration of Catholic evangelism in the area of the University. Come, one and all! If you can walk a few blocks, be in the procession; if walking is too much for you, come directly to the Church for the Mass.

HOLY CONFIRMATION will be administered a week from today following Solemn Evensong at 4 o'clock. The Rt. Rev. Andrew Y. Y. Tsu will give Confirmation and preach. First Solemn Holy Communion will be on Sunday, June 4th.

AN EASTER GIFT TO THE PARISH. A Benediction set, consisting of a cope of handsome Chinese silk brocade with matching stole and burse, and a humeral veil of silk broadcloth, has been presented to the Parish by Robert N. Mattis. The gift is made to the glory and honor of Almighty God and in loving memory of Valentin Francois d'Ogries, a well known artist and stained glass craftsman whose work beautifies many churches in this area. We are indeed grateful for this set of distinctively beautiful vestments which will be worn on most Friday nights in S. John's Chapel and at the high altar except when Benediction is given solemnly with deacon and sub-deacon. May God have mercy on the soul of Valentin, and light perpetual shine upon him.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. The lamps before the Blessed Sacrament and at Our Lady's Shrine are provided this week by Dr. and Mrs. Alger Ward in thanksgiving for the 86th birthday on April 24th of the Reverend Father Edmund Syzinger of the Community of the Resurrection. Mass will be offered for the good Father tomorrow. A few weeks ago the Father Rector received a communication, written on behalf of parishioners. Part of the letter follows: "We do appreciate the opportunity of being allowed to make these votive offerings. You will be interested to know that we have told a number of friends in other cities about the happy custom you inaugurated at S. Clement's. The idea has instant appeal, and we feel sure it will be taken up by other parishes." This expression of appreciation is most gratifying. By printing the above, we hope that many more parishioners will respond to the appeal by providing the lamps in the coming weeks. The usual offering is a dollar for one lamp for one week.

Parish Notes

THE RT. REV. ANDREW Y. Y. TSU makes his first visit to S. Clement's Church this afternoon, and we extend to him a holy and happy welcome. Assisting the Bishop of Pennsylvania, he comes to us to administer the Sacrament of Holy Confirmation and to preach. The class of a little more than a dozen includes only two girls; we are highly pleased to present so many males, but look forward to having a higher percentage of young ladies next time. The offering received this afternoon will be given to the Bishop's Discretionary Fund.

THE 177th ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA will be held on Monday afternoon and Tuesday. The mass meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at Holy Trinity Church is open to all who wish to attend. It is hoped Clementines will be there to hear the Bishop give his charge to the Diocese. The deputies from S. Clement's are Messrs. John J. Sellers, Frederick Cooper and Henry Hagert; the alternate-deputies are Paul A. Casey and William D. Pike.

TWO COMING EVENTS AT S. MARGARET'S HOUSE, Germantown, will be: a Quiet Evening for Women, Saturday, May 6th from 4:30 to 9; conductor—the Rev. Father Paul C. Kintzing; and a Quiet Day for Women, Rogation Tuesday, May 9th, starting with Mass at 8:30; first address at 10:15 and the day closes at 3:15; conductor—the Rev. Father Lloyd E. Teter, Jr. For reservations, call VI 4-4812.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

ASCENSION DAY is Thursday,—the glorious festival of Our Lord's ultimate victory in His human nature. It commemorates His moving onward to the realms of heaven where, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, He occupies the position of honor as Sovereign King of the Universe. Easter commemorates His triumph over earthly life and death; the Ascension commemorates His human triumph in life eternal. It is a day for every Churchman to be in the House of God for Holy Mass to speak and sing the glad tidings of the heavenly Kingship of Our Blessed Lord. There will be two Low Masses for those who cannot be present in the evening but it is hoped that all Clementines who possibly can do so will be assist at the 6:15 p.m. Solemn Mass. This is provided for the purpose of being the great liturgical act of ALL the Parish and you are solemnly asked to give it support.

ON TUESDAY EVENING AT 8, will be an open meeting in the Parish Hall. Sponsored by the Women of S. Clement's, the meeting will welcome the men and youths of the Parish as well as the women. The Father Rector will speak on Our Lady of Walsingham and Her shrine in Norfolk, England.

MAY IS THE MONTH OF MARY and a suitable time to hold the program mentioned above. And being the 900th anniversary of the establishment of the great Shrine in England, 1961 is the year for us of S. Clement's to manifest our filial devotion to the parent-shrine. Following the 1960 visit to S. Clement's of the Administrator of the Walsingham Shrine, the Rev. Father J. Colin Stephenson, the Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham bestowed upon the Shrine of Our Lady of Clemency a Diploma of Affiliation,—an honor which we highly prize. Another tie between the ancient place of Marian devotion and our Shrine is the appointment some years ago of your Father Rector to be an Honorary Guardian of the Holy House of Our Lady of Walsingham.

The above all leads to the point that we of the Shrine of Our Lady of Clemency will send an offering to Walsingham in honor of the great anniversary. This announcement is an invitation to our parishioners and our friends that receive the leaflet to contribute to the fund. We have over $700 on hand and expect your gifts and those of clients of our Shrine to increase it to $900. Thus we shall send one dollar for every year of the noble history of the ancient Shrine. You may place gifts marked for this purpose on the alms basins at Mass, you may mail them to the Clergy House, you may hand them to a priest, or you may simply drop your gifts in the coin box at the Shrine.

Please offer your prayers for God's blessing upon both the Walsingham and Philadelphia Shrines, that each will stir people's hearts to a greater praise of Jesus Incarnate, and to a greater praise of the Mother of God, Help of Christians. In thanksgiving for the privileges that are ours as Anglo-Catholic Christians let us offer frequent prayers and let us make an outward sign of our gratitude by means of a material gift for Walsingham.

The authorities at Walsingham have launched a Campaign of Giving under the direction of A. Peter Marron. Funds are being sought not only for the maintenance but the endowment of the Catholic missionary endeavor at Walsingham. This is a project which will appeal to Clementines and our friends. Perhaps we shall go over the top of our goal. Let us try to do just that. Remember, every dollar is to further the Glory of Jesus Christ Incarnate, and to further the Honor and Veneration of Blessed Mary, His Holy Mother,—and our special Friend at the Throne of Grace.

THE SPRING COLLECTION OF THE U.T.O. will be on May 16th at the Chapel of Valley Forge Military Academy. Ladies of the Parish are asked to send their offerings to Miss Williams by the 15th, and preferably by Sunday the 14th.

Parish Notes

TODAY IS RELIGIOUS LIFE SUNDAY. Annually the Council of Religious Communities asks the parishes of our country to emphasize the life and works of the various communities on the Sunday after the Ascension. S. Clement's is more than happy to cooperate with this plan. Our Parish has been so closely aligned with the Religious Life that this emphasis very naturally falls in with our main interests. Your prayers are asked for the increased appreciation and support of our monasteries and convents by ALL of the clergy and laity of the Church.

THE SPRING IN-GATHERING of the U.T.O. of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be at 10:30 Tuesday morning at the Chapel of S. Cornelius the Centurion at Valley Forge Military Academy. Anyone interested in attending please see Miss Williams. Tomorrow is the last day for submitting contributions to the Thank Offering.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION will hold its last meeting of the season on Wednesday at S. John's Church, Concord. Guest of honor will be the Right Reverend the Bishop of Pennsylvania. Election of officers for 1961-62 will be held.

THE FEAST OF PENTECOST, a week from today, is the third of the great festivals of the liturgical year. It ranks with Christmas and Easter and according to ancient tradition is a day for every Churchman to make Holy Communion. Christmas is the feast of the love of the Father in His sending His only begotten Son into the world; Easter is the feast of the love of the Son in His victory over death for mankind; and Pentecost is the feast of the love of the Holy Ghost in His empowering the Catholic Church to fulfill its role as the Life of God in the world. Let every Clementine celebrate the feast with due solemnity. It is a most appropriate time for making confession as well as receiving the Blessed Sacrament.

WHITSUNDAY will be a great day of music at S. Clement's. For the Solemn Mass the choir will sing Mozart's Coronation Mass. At four in the afternoon will be the Choir Concert. Our choir has had a remarkably fine season and is well prepared to present a concert of high calibre. You are encouraged to invite friends to hear the concert and to attend the reception in the Parish Hall after the program. The singers will be supported by strings and harpsichord in addition to the organ, and there will be a Bach Concerto for instruments without the voices. The detailed program is printed in the Eastertide Kalendar. It should be noted that the program includes the William Byrd "Mass for Four Voices" that so delighted our congregation when it was sung on a Sunday in Lent . . . The collection next Sunday afternoon will be used to pay the expense of the concert. A little later opportunity will be offered parishioners to be Patrons of S. Clement's Music, and the gifts of the Patrons will be used to provide the summer camp for the choir boys.

Parish Notes

THE CHOIR WILL OFFER a concert this afternoon at four to which every member of the congregation is invited. Strings and harpsichord will supplement the organ. Judging by the sound of music that has carried into the Clergy House during the choir-rehearsals, the concert will be superbly beautiful. Invite friends to come with you this afternoon. An informal reception will be held in the Parish Hall following the program, and you also are invited to be present at this.

THE BOHLEN LECTURES are of special interest to Clementines this year. The lecturer will be the Most Reverend Joost deBlank, D.D., Archbishop of Capetown, a great champion of Catholic Faith and Morals in the midst of the conflicts and in the face of bitter adversity in Africa. The lectures, to which all of us are invited, will be given at 8 o'clock this evening, Monday, and Tuesday evenings, in Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square. The subjects will be:
Sunday: "The Gospel of Reconciliation in the Church".
Monday: "The Gospel of Reconciliation in the World".
Tuesday: "The Gospel of Reconciliation in Our Time".

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will hold its final meeting of this season,—except for its July picnic,—on Tuesday at 8 p.m. at S. Mary's Church, Bainbridge Street. The Reverend Father Ducker will conclude his series of addresses with a paper on "James O. S. Huntington, Father Founder of the Order of the Holy Cross".

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. The lamp before the Blessed Sacrament burns this Whitsuntide as a thank offering from Mrs. Harold M. Lufkin.

THE REV. EDWARD C. LOEFFLER, ordained to the Diaconate May 13, is Deacon of the Solemn Mass today. We welcome him to his home parish for this happy event.

AN IMPORTANT ITEM

EACH YEAR AT ABOUT THIS TIME an appeal is made on behalf of the American Church Union. Please accept this announcement as a personal message from your Father Rector, and from Mr. Cooper, our Parish Chairman of ACU. The ACU simply does not have on hand funds sufficient to do all the things it should do or that the members wish it to do. In view of its limited income from memberships, its accomplishments are amazing. Because this is General Convention year, the demands upon the leadership of ACU already are multiplied and expenses will soar. The A C News is being sent to all Deputies to G.C., and to all Bishops—and, further, is being gratefully received. The new American Church Quarterly will also be sent to all of these members of Convention. These mailings are our best method for spreading the good news, and for publicizing truths concerning the vital issues that will come before Convention. This program should be accepted by all Catholics as part of their missionary endeavor, and should have their moral and material support. In past years S. Clement's has contributed over $1000 to this spring campaign. Last year for the first time we fell below this mark. This year we should make every effort not only to attain our former goal but to exceed it. Gifts for the ACU—so marked—may be placed in the alms basins, or given personally to the Priests or Mr. Cooper. Please make checks payable to S. Clement's Church. Do not drop these gifts in the coin boxes. This appeal is a very, very serious matter, and each of you is asked to consider it as addressed just to you. In most of our special collections certain parishioners always respond, and others never respond. This is an appeal for support of our front-line of defense of the Faith. Every one of you should do something for it. God bless you for your charity and your material expression of charity.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

CORPUS CHRISTI is Thursday of this week and a day of obligation for members of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament. Low Mass will be offered at 7 & 8 and Solemn Mass followed by Benediction at 11. This is one of the most beautiful of our festivals and offers wide opportunity for devotional expression. The Solemnity of Corpus Christi, as usual, will be observed at 11 o'clock next Sunday.

THE FESTIVAL for this province of the C.B.S. will be at S. Alban's Church, Olney, at 8 p.m. Thursday: Solemn Vespers of the Blessed Sacrament, Sermon, Procession of the Host and Benediction. All members of S. Clement's have been invited to attend the service and the informal reception which will follow it.

S.C.Y.O. will hold its regular meeting today at 12:45. Plans will then be completed for the young people's outing at Olympian Lakes, N. J., on Memorial Day. The members of the group will make Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass on Tuesday, have breakfast in the Parish Hall and then be off on their picnic.

FIRST SOLEMN HOLY COMMUNION will be next Sunday at 9:15. Those recently confirmed will have the joy of making Holy Communion as a group, and they are encouraged thereafter to receive the Blessed Sacrament as frequently as they wish. The Father Rector invites this group to breakfast after the Mass. This should be one of the happiest days of their lives. The Solemn Mass of Corpus Christi, at 11, will be an appropriate thank-offering for their new privilege.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. The lamps before the Blessed Sacrament and at the Lady Shrine burn this week for the happy repose of the soul of Margaret Burrows-Pegg, the first anniversary of whose death was May 17th. R.I.P. The offering is from her daughter, Miss Eveline Burrows-Pegg.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING from S. Clement's ladies this spring amounted to $115 and was provided by twenty-eight donors. At the diocesan service at Valley Forge Military Academy, on May 16th, a thousand were in attendance including three from this Parish. Our parishioner, Lt. Gen. Milton G. Baker, was one of the speakers at the luncheon.

"A TALE OF A SAIL"—an original musical comedy, will be given in the Parish Hall on Thursday and Saturday nights, June 8th & 10th. Under the direction of Mrs. Anthony Smoluk, the cast has been in rehearsal for well over a month. The story is amusing, the score is attractively tuneful, the costumes and sets are colorful—all indicative of an entertainment of high merit. Tickets at $1.00 are now on sale. The play is sponsored by the Cross & Anchor Society.

LAST WEEK notice was given of the annual drive for the American Church Union. Parishes over the country are asked to pledge and pay $61 in '61. This scheme was initiated nine years ago with a campaign for "52 in '52". As the number of the calendar year has advanced, the asking has increased. S. Clement's has regarded the ACU as a field of missionary endeavor and therefore has led the way for more generous support of the organization. $1000 has been our goal; in most years we have given at least this amount, and sometimes more. Because of the extra expense in General Convention year a large underwriting is required. You will not receive an appeal by mail this year; this is it. Please accept this as a personal message for you and dig deep.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

HOW APPROPRIATE AND HOW SOLEMN to bring the season of great festivals to its conclusion with the commemoration of CORPUS CHRISTI! Our human lives will come to their ultimate end, God willing, when we are invited by Our Lord to assemble about His Throne of Grace in heaven. A preview of that happy experience is our privilege today in assembling about His earthly Throne of Grace for the adoration of Him as our Eucharistic King. In the Mass, in the Procession of the Host and in Benediction let us consider, this morning, that this is heaven on earth,—that this, even with all its splendor, is a mere suggestion of the everlasting glory and beauty of the life that lies before us.

NEXT SUNDAY is the feast of S. Barnabas the Apostle. Do you realize that this will be the first time in the 20th century that this holy day has been kept on a Sunday? When June 11th fell on Sunday in former years it nearly always has been on Whitsunday, Trinity or the Sunday within the Octave of Corpus Christi, each of which took precedence over the Apostle. We shall have the joy, then, of initiating the long Trinity season by giving honor to this notable missionary bishop who, although commemorated on week-days, has been so long without recognition at a Sunday Mass.

"A TALE OF A SAIL" will be staged at 8:30 Thursday and Saturday nights in the Parish Hall. This nautical but nice musical is being sponsored by the Cross & Anchor Society,—is being directed by Mrs. Anthony Smoluk,—is being acted by amateur but gifted performers, members of S. Clement's and a few friends for whose help we are grateful. The tickets are now on sale, and they cost only one dollar. And so, invite a boy-friend or girl-friend and come to have a happy evening on the high seas of Cherry Street.

SEVERAL OF OUR YOUNG PEOPLE have registered for the Valley Forge Conference to be held June 18th-24th. Last year forty-some last minute applicants were turned down for lack of room, and so if any other Clementine youths wish to go they are advised to register very soon. There is no better conference in the country; every boy and girl that attend are much benefitted and of course have a perfectly grand time.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. Richard Hohlfeld provides the lamps this week before the Blessed Sacrament, at the Lady Shrine and at the Crucifixion Shrine in thanksgiving for the success of the operation recently performed on his grandmother, Mrs. Mathilda Bea.

THE LAST TWO WEEKS in July will be the time of our choir boys' outing. Again they will go to the Canadian Gaspé to be at the Church camp maintained by the Archdeaconry of Quebec. Our parishioners and friends of the Parish are again asked to be "Patrons of Music at S. Clement's". Last year the fund contributed by our Patrons provided the major share of the cost of the trip and it is expected this generosity will gladly be repeated. With the beauty of the superb concert on Pentecost still fresh in our memory nearly everybody will wish to help the boys to have this treat. Our boys do not have holiday trips other than the one given them by the Parish and we should be thankful for the opportunity of providing this sort of educational-recreational jaunt for them. Names of the Patrons will be printed in the leaflet later this month. Checks payable to S. Clement's Church, or cash, may be given to the Priests, to the Choirmaster or placed in the alms basins.

GRATITUDE FOR YOUR GENEROSITY to the fund for the Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham and to the American Church Union is the sincere expression of your Father Rector. This is the season for a series of askings. It is regrettable to have so many, one upon the other, but our diversity of good interests demands a multiplicity of gifts. You will be richly blessed some day for your charity of the present.

Parish Notes

THE VESTRY will meet at 4:30 on Wednesday at the Clergy House.

NOTES ON SPRING HOUSECLEANING. This is not an ad for detergents or insecticides. It is merely a plea for putting your cast-off clothes to good use. The Cross & Anchor Society will sponsor a Rummage Sale in the first week of October. If you have clothing, shoes, hats or bric-a-bracs cluttering your rooms, bring them to the Parish Hall now and they will be put on sale in the autumn . . . And then, too, in sorting out your old things you may come across objects suitable for the Antique Table at the Christmas Bazaar. Send them along now, too, if you wish. We should be thinking and planning for the Bazaar. Some of the ladies do a great deal of sewing during the hot months and surely, the Fancy Goods Table always can use more stock. Those interested in this summer-time activity are asked to confer with Mrs. Harding for suggestions.

VOTIVE OFFERING. This week the lamp at the Lady Shrine is burning as Father Davis' thank-offering for the excellent recovery of sound health by Carrie Turner, the good housekeeper of the Clergy House.

HAVE YOU NOTICED THE NEATNESS OF THE CHURCH YARD? Several young men, under the leadership of the Cross & Anchor Society, have given their Saturdays to the garden,—to cleaning, weeding, pruning, sowing and mowing. Flower beds are next on their program, so that by mid-summer there should be much color. Giving of talents and energy for the Church's welfare is indeed praiseworthy, and the many who stop to admire are appreciative of the strenuous efforts of this group.

THE FATHER RECTOR will be out of town early this week. He will attend meetings of the Planning & Policy Committee and the Executive Board of the American Church Union in New York on Monday and Tuesday and will return to the Parish on Wednesday in time for the Vestry meeting. Such absences put the responsibility of two Masses a day on Father Davis. He deserves the thanks of the Parish for patiently taking on extra duties; until we can manage to have a second curate this condition will continue.

THE JUNE FETE will be held on Wednesday, June 21st, or in case there is rain that evening, on Thursday, June 22nd. The Garden will be festive for the occasion, and from 8:30 on through the evening interesting entertainment will be provided.

ANOTHER WORD ABOUT PATRONS OF MUSIC. Clementines love the choir and are proud of its artistic attainments. They agree that the boys should be given an annual outing. This is your opportunity to help provide that outing. By enrolling as a Patron of Music you give your public moral support to the boy-choir and by contributing when you enroll as a Patron, you provide the material backing of the project. A letter will not be sent you this year; this is your notice and your invitation. The choir will travel to Canada in the handsome Mercedes-Benz omnibus which belongs to Trinity Church, Ambler. We are deeply grateful to Father Schultz for placing this chariot at our disposal at a most reasonable cost. The boys will not go until the middle of July. June 25th, however, is the date of our last weekly leaflet. On that Sunday we shall print the names of the Patrons and we hope it will be a long, long list;—it actually should include every parishioner. In order to be included, all names will have to be sent to the Clergy House by next Sunday, the 18th. You are advised to act quickly, then, and are asked to act generously.

Parish Notes

THE JUNE FETE will be on Wednesday evening, starting at 8:30, but if there is rain that night, it will be on Thursday. Last year's Fete was one of the most enjoyed evenings at S. Clement's in the memory of this generation and this one will be another of the same calibre. That is, it will be enjoyed if you are there. For a social function to be successful it must be supported by the people. If you wish to have an informal and pleasant few hours in the garden witnessing good entertainment and eating strawberries, come to S. Clement's this week.

THE VALLEY FORGE CONFERENCE FOR YOUNG PEOPLE will be in session from this evening to Saturday morning. S. Clement's will be represented by: Barbara Chomko, Bill Pike, Ike Freeman, Tom Rivel and, as counselors, Beverly Pike and Martha Cooper.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. Thomas Rivel, Sr., provides the lamp at the Crucifixion Shrine this week as a thank offering. Even though the leaflet will not be published during the summer, the lamps still may be provided by parishioners or friends. Names of summer donors will be printed in an autumn leaflet.

A WEEK FROM TODAY this space will carry the names of Patrons of Music. Some of those who were Patrons last year have not renewed their support but they still may do so today. Sufficient already has been written of the boys' deserving the outing. All that remains to be done is for those that appreciate the high quality of the young men's singing to subscribe as Patrons and thus provide them with a treat. Names, in order to be included, must be in the hands of the Clergy before this evening.

GIFTS TO THE PARISH. Before the summer is passed, two much needed and artistic additions will be made to our equipment. The several donors of both wish to remain anonymous. The first is a set of appointments for funerals in S. John's Chapel. It will include an altar frontal, a pall, a cope and low Mass vestments. This matching set is being made by the Katherine Morgan Terry Studio in Bordentown, N. J. Mrs. Terry, an associate of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity, has provided the original designs of ornamentation. The black stuff will bear orphreys of red and of an interestingly woven braid, and will be highlighted with touches of gold calf-skin. The second gift is a wooden processional crucifix of unusual interest. Small crosses will be carved at ends of the upright and arms of the cross, and below the linden-wood corpus will be a fleur-de-lis, symbolic of Our Lady in Her traditional position at the foot of Her Son's Cross. The oak of the cross will be rubbed with blood-red stain and the shaft rubbed with black stain. A substantial matching oak stand will be provided. Thus the crucifix can be used at the absolutions of the body even when a crucifer is not available. It will be an appropriate crucifix to be carried during the recitation of Stations of the Cross. The crucifix will of course be used in the Church as well as S. John's Chapel. It has been designed for this Parish and being made by the Cathedral Craftsmen of Waukesha, Wisconsin. We are indeed grateful for these gifts which will do much to dignify the celebration of funeral requiems.

ANOTHER GIFT WILL ONLY BE MENTIONED NOW. After six or seven months of correspondence with the Warham Guild of London designs finally have been definitely agreed upon, and work has started on a set of white vestments for Solemn Mass and an altar frontal. Delivery is expected in the late fall, possibly for All Saints. The generous gift of Mrs. William O. Baker these will be our very best and most festive vestments. They will be embroidered with heraldry and Eucharistic symbols, and the several fabrics employed are magnificent. They will be described in detail at the time of their arrival and a proper "thank-you" will then be expressed. This notice is given in order that you may share in the high joy of anticipation.

Parish Notes

THE FRIDAY NIGHT services will be held every week during the summer. It is a season when many activities cease and therefore more people should be free to come to Church on Fridays. And wherever you may be on Sundays during the summer months, do not take a vacation from Church but rather, attend Mass with regularity. One of the treats of travelling is the opportunity of attending Mass in other Churches.

YOUR FATHER RECTOR will attend the Margaret Hall Seminar in Versailles, Ky., this week. Flying down this afternoon, he will return at the end of the week. He will be in residence practically all summer and will go to Detroit in September for General Convention. The Rev. Father Davis will be on holiday during August. During July and August a visitor will be the Rev. Father Peter Thompson, former Curate, now in England. It is expected he will be at S. Clement's a few Sundays (definitely on Sunday, August 6), when his many friends will be happy to visit with him.

Parish Notes

THIS SUNDAY we have the joy of resuming the Solemn Mass as the main, usual Sunday liturgy until next summer. Your Father Rector regrets not being present for this occasion. Having given ten days to assisting in the program of the American Church Union at General Convention, he now is on a brief holiday in Wisconsin. These notes are being written in advance of the opening of the Convention and obviously no comments can safely be made as to what will happen there. We confidently trust the Church will still be the Church and we still will be in possession of the full Faith of our Fathers.

THE REVEREND FATHER PLANK returns to S. Clement's today to assist Father Davis for the next ten days. This morning and a week from today, he will offer the Solemn Mass and preach, and, of course, is in residence at the Clergy House. On the past two Sundays the Reverend Father Ducker, after having celebrated two Masses in his parish in Lumberton, N. J., rushed down here to sing the High Mass and preach. We are indeed grateful to these two priests for giving us this most welcome assistance. The Rector would also like to give public thanks to Father Davis for assuming all parochial responsibilities during these four weeks and for doing so with complete willingness and utter graciousness. We look forward to the time when the Parish budget again will provide for a second curate. Our program is highly awkward to manage with only two priests.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR COMMITTEE will hold a Rummage Sale on Thursday from 11 to 5:30 in the Parish Hall. As these notes are being written,—in the torridity and torpidity of this mid-September,—Christmas crispness seems far away. Before long, however, the snows will fall and the Bazaar will be a reality. It will be held on Thursday, November 30th. The Rummage Sale can be a great help in raising funds to underwrite costs of holding the Bazaar. Please bring or send your contributions of rummage to the Parish Hall before the sale opens.

VOTIVE CANDLES. The 7-day candles before the Blessed Sacrament and at the Lady Shrine were provided as a thank-offering the two weeks of July 24th & 31st by Maria Araujo; the candles at the same two places were provided on behalf of Mrs. Elizabeth Day the week of August 27th by Dr. and Mrs. Alger L. Ward; and candles at these same places and also before the Crucifixion Shrine were provided as a thank-offering the week of August 6th by Paul E. Hons.

ON OCTOBER 10th at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall, the Reverend Father H. B. Liebler, for many years a missionary to the Navajo Indians in Utah, will give an address on his work and show slides. This will be the first of the Parish Programs for the year. You will find copies of the complete program for the 1961-62 season at the tract case.

TWO INTERESTING VOCATIONS of parishioners developed toward full fruition during the summer. Maria Araujo, of Madrid, Spain, and a communicant at S. Clement's less than a year, has entered the Convent of S. Anne in Arlington Heights, Mass. She now is a Postulant in that community, and this fall will teach Latin and Spanish in the girls' school maintained there by the Sisters of S. Anne . . . Paul E. Hons was graduated from Mt. Airy Lutheran Seminary in May. He had attended S. Clement's regularly for several months, and immediately upon graduation undertook a course of instruction. On July 11th he was confirmed by Bishop Armstrong and was admitted by the Bishop as a Postulant. He has entered Nashotah House as a Special Student and if all goes as expected he will be made a deacon next summer. We thank God that our Parish again has played a part in leading souls to devout service of Our Lord, and your prayers are asked on behalf of Maria and Paul.

Parish Notes

THE VESTRY will hold its first meeting of the 1961-62 season on Tuesday at 4 o'clock in the Clergy House.

TUESDAY EVENING the first of the Parish Programs will be held at 8 o'clock in the Parish Hall. At that time we shall welcome the Reverend Father H. B. Liebler, known far and wide for his thrilling work among the Navajo Indians in Utah. Come, both men and women, and bring friends, to hear Father Liebler speak and to see his slides. Refreshments will be served.

THE DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD will hold its annual Quiet Evening at S. Clement's on Wednesday of this week. The Reverend Father George Davison, Rector of the Church of the Advocate, will conduct the meditations. The first address will be at 5 o'clock. Each of the ladies will provide her own supper and the Sisters will provide the coffee. Women and S. Clement's are welcome to take part in this spiritual exercise. Year after year this group returns to our Parish for the Quiet Evening and we are grateful for their good will toward us and their desire to assemble here.

THESE NOTES are being written on September 14th. However, if all moves according to his schedule, the Father Rector this morning should be entering the Indiana Turnpike headed for home. He plans to arrive about noon on Tuesday,—just in time to meet with the Vestry in the afternoon and to attend the Parish Program in the evening.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE WEEKLY LEAFLET are now due. The leaflet will be sent from now through June 1962 for $2.50, first-class mail and for $2.00, second-class mail. This service is provided simply for the convenience of those who wish it. Please draw checks to S. Clement's Rector's Fund.

THE ANNUAL COUNCIL of the American Church Union will be held on Wednesday and Thursday of this week at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin, New York. The Council has been somewhat enlarged; there probably will be about 150 present and they will be from all corners of the continent. The business sessions will be held Wednesday afternoon and all of Thursday. Two interesting items on the program will be the banquet at the Roosevelt Hotel on Wednesday evening at which the Bishop of Montana will be the speaker, and the Solemn Mass at 7:30 Thursday morning at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin at which the Bishop of Quincy, President of ACU, will preside. A large number of Clementines are active members of the ACU, and the parish is represented among the officers by the Father Rector, Chairman of the Planning & Policy Committee, Fred Cooper, of the Executive Board and Lt. Gen. Milton G. Baker, a Vice-President of the organization. It is hoped other parishioners will attend the banquet and the Mass,—but be sure to procure your banquet ticket in advance.

ON ALL SAINTS' NIGHT, November 1st, two weeks from Wednesday, we shall have Solemn Mass at 6:15 p.m., followed by a Parish Supper. Seldom do we have a meal in the Parish Hall simply for the enjoyment of eating together, but this is exactly the purpose of this function. This year the women of S. Clement's will sponsor an old-fashioned dish supper and it is hoped that many of you will share your favorite recipes with us. Meat and vegetable casseroles may be brought to the Parish Hall beforehand and will be warmed while you attend the Mass. For those not expert in the culinary arts, there is a part to share in the preparation of the meal by contributing rolls, butter, or money for ice cream. Full particulars are on the Bulletin Board. Do you remember how wonderfully enjoyable the supper was after our first Evening Mass—the feast of the Purification 1960? This will be just as successful, if YOU are there!

THOSE WHO WISH TO HAVE THE LEAFLET mailed to them are asked to submit their subscriptions now. Beginning with the first Sunday in November, the leaflet will be mailed only to those who have subscribed. The cost is $2.50 for first-class mail and $2.00 for second-class mail. Please make checks payable to S. Clement's Rector's Fund.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA will meet at S. Luke's, Kensington, on Tuesday, October 17, 1961. The Women's meeting will begin at 3:45 p.m., the Men's at 5:00. Supper will be served at 6:30 and cost $1.50. Reservations should be made with the Rev. H. Robert Lorenz, the Rector. A report will be made on General Convention.

Parish Notes

ALL SAINTS DAY is a day for honoring all of the heroes of the Church,—the little-known ones who won their crowns by doing simple duties at hand and the famous ones who performed spectacular works. Let all Clementines gather about the altar to assist in offering Mass in thanksgiving for the Saints,—for their lives, their good works and their prayers. On Wednesday Low Mass will be at 7 & 9:30 and the Solemn Mass at 6:15 p.m. Father Davis will hear confessions from 5:30 to 6 before the Solemn Mass, and the Novena will be said at 5:45.

THE PARISH SUPPER on Wednesday is intended for ALL parishioners,—the men, the women and the children. If you have not yet signed up for supplying food, please do so today. And those who do not supply food may make a contribution to the incidental cost. At this moment we are actually in need of more food; there is no way of knowing how many will attend and we wish to be sure of having sufficient for everyone. We look forward to this event and expect it to be a most happy evening, but it will not be a success unless YOU are there.

THURSDAY IS THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED. You have received by mail the form for submitting names you wish to be included in the intention of the Masses. The names will lie on the altar at every Mass during November and they will be read at several Requiems. In next week's leaflet announcement will be made of the dates of Requiems and which names will be read on which days. Eleven o'clock on a weekday morning is not a convenient hour for attending Mass. However, a plea is made to all who possibly can do so, to attend the Solemn Requiem on Thursday when we not only pray for the dead but also honor their memory.

THE RT. REV. TREVOR HUDDLESTON, Bishop of Masasi, Province of East Africa, and a member of the Community of the Resurrection, will preach at Solemn Evensong at 8 p.m. Friday at the Church of the Advocate. We shall have Holy Hour and Benediction in S. John's Chapel at the same hour which we hope will be well attended. However, your attention is drawn to the service at the Advocate for the benefit of those who have a special interest in Bishop Huddleston and his notable work in Africa; and it is hoped that some Clementines will be present to hear the Bishop and give support to his program.

A QUIET EVENING for women will be held from 4:30 to 9:00 on Saturday at S. Margaret's House in Germantown. The conductor will be the Reverend Father Michael R. Becker. Please register early by calling Victor 4-4612.

A WEEK TODAY is the Feast of Dedication of S. Clement's Church. While the consecration actually was in April 1864, that date usually falls either in Lent or Easter Week. By long established tradition, then, the Sunday after All Saints' Day is the occasion for celebrating the dedication.

THE FOLLOWING ITEM on "Who Makes a Church a Success?"—author unknown, has been widely reprinted, and is once again, for the benefit of Clementines. In view of many coming events,—the Masses of Holy Days this week, the Parish Supper, the approaching Every Member Canvass, and Christmas Bazaar, etc., the amusing little parable is timely.

Parish Notes

GOOD NEWS! The Rev. Edward C. Loeffler, for long a member of S. Clement's, will be ordained to the Sacred Priesthood on Saturday, November 18th at 10 a.m. The Bishop of the Diocese has honored this parish by appointing S. Clement's to be the place of the ordinations. Alleluia! Mr. Loeffler is Curate at S. Mark's Church, Frankford, and after becoming Father Loeffler he will continue in the same post. We are indeed grateful to Bishop Hart for his choosing to come to our parish for this event which will mean much to our people. To be ordained at the same service will be the Rev. James E. Gardner from the Church of the Holy Comforter, Aronomink, now a graduate student at General Theological Seminary, and the Rev. James F. Mole from the Church of Christ and S. Michael, Germantown, now Vicar of S. Nathanael's Church, Philadelphia. We are most happy to have this diocesan function in our Parish Church.

SECOND CHAPTER OF GOOD NEWS! On S. Clement's Day, November 23rd, Father Loeffler will offer his First Solemn Mass at 10 a.m. in S. Clement's Church. Ordination is the solemn initiation, the essential step of Catholic Order, which leads to the ecclesiastical right and priestly privilege of offering the Holy Eucharistic Sacrifice. His First Solemn Mass, while equally as grave as the ordination, takes on the added note of a spiritually gala homecoming. At the altar where innumerable times he has been Acolyte, Thurifer and Master of Ceremonies, he will ascend to the humbling yet honored pivotal post of celebrant of the Church's ancient and most dignified rite, the Solemn Mass. The day is not only the feast of our Holy Patron but also Thanksgiving Day, and much we all have to be thankful for at this sacred function.

THIRD CHAPTER OF GOOD NEWS! A new piano for the choir-room. Through the generous benefaction of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hagert an excellent piano has been given to the Parish. It is a very little used Schomacker parlor grand, beautiful to hear and beautiful to see. You are invited to the choir-room to look at this lovely addition to our equipment. The piano has been given in loving memory of Mr. Hagert's aunt, Sarah Louisa Haffelfinger, who was a loyal and faithful churchwoman. R.I.P. Through their gift of the harpsichord last year and now the gift of a piano, the Hagerts, in a unique, gracious manner, are patrons of our music and we are deeply thankful for their interest and their support.

REGARDING THE LISTS OF NAMES submitted for commemoration on All Souls' Day, they will be used as they were last year. All the persons whose names were submitted were prayed for at all the Masses on All Souls' Day, but the names are too many in number to be read on that day. The lists have been divided into four sections,—one group of names to be read at each of four requiems. The following schedule applies to the names of those who submit the lists; it does not apply to the names of the departed for whom we pray.

Thursday, November 16. 7:00 a.m.—lists submitted by A through F

Monday, November 27. 7:00 a.m.—lists submitted by G through L

Tuesday, November 28. 7 & 8 a.m.—lists submitted by M through R

Wednesday, November 29. 7 & 9:30 a.m.—lists submitted by S through Z, and also those lists submitted with no names.

Please keep this schedule and if possible attend Mass on the day when your list will be commemorated.

VOTIVE CANDLES. This week the candle before the Lady Shrine is burning for the happy repose of the soul of Father Joiner. It is the gift of James and Grace C. Jarrett.

THE BAZAAR will be three weeks from Thursday. Don't allow the excitement of intervening events,—the Ordinations and First Mass,—distract you from the gargantuan project. The committee works hard, but badly needs more things for the sale-tables: — fancy-goods, bakery, aprons, good antiques, etc. Have you tickets for the dinner? If not, now is the time to purchase at least one for your own use, and to sell or give one to a friend. Invite people that will be lively, generous patrons of the auction. The auction is fun and is profitable only if it enjoys participation by a large number of willing bidders.

Parish Notes

THE PRESIDING BISHOP has called all Churchmen to observe this day as a special occasion for prayers for the peace of the world. We are pleased to give support to our Primate's summons to this solemn spiritual duty and we ask each of you to include in your prayers today and this week, petitions that God in His justice and mercy will guide all men everywhere into the love of peace and the means of accomplishing good-will among men. The Bidding Prayer (page 47) will be used before the sermon this morning. A Novena for the peace of the world will begin at the Lady Shrine tomorrow evening.

THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE will hold its final meeting in preparation for the big event on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall. All of those who are working for the Bazaar are asked to attend. Two weeks from Thursday is THE DAY and much still is to be done to get everything in readiness. Each of the recent Bazaars has been more beautiful than the one before it, and we expect to maintain this record. This year we shall have new appointments for carrying out the theme "Christmas in Colonial Philadelphia", better lighting,—and, well—come and see for yourselves. The choir-boys will sing a few appropriate and little-known carols during dinner. And writing of dinner,—we are reminded to ask—have you your tickets for the meal? Now is the time to purchase them. The advance sale of tickets helps your committee very much in making its plans. And do invite friends,—people that will enjoy and participate in the Colonial Auction. At the committee's insistence, your Father Rector holds the perennial post of auctioneer. He is glad to serve in this role; in fact, he enjoys the job as long as the audience does its part. But when bidding is slow, spotty and even sluggish he is frustrated and a bit embarrassed. Let's make the auction a lively affair this year,—a snappy and smart success.

THE ORDINATIONS TO THE PRIESTHOOD will elevate Saturday to a banner-day in S. Clement's history. At 10 o'clock the Rt. Rev. Oliver J. Hart, D.D., will ordain three Deacons to the Sacred Priesthood. See last week's leaflet. Among them will be the Rev. Edward C. Loeffler, a candidate from this Parish. You need no encouragement to attend; everybody will wish to be here to witness the ordinations. You are advised to arrive early for each of the candidates has many friends who will be here. The new priests will give their blessing at the altar rail following the service. All of you are invited to a reception in the Parish Hall where you will have opportunity to congratulate the young Fathers, greet the Bishop and visit with our many guests.

S. CLEMENT'S DAY is on Thanksgiving Day, a week from Thursday. Father Loeffler will offer his First Solemn Mass at 10 o'clock that day, and how fortunate for him and us that this happy "first" will be on the feast of our Holy Patron. This will be another great day in S. Clement's history.

ALL SAINTS' DAY was very well kept in the Parish. The attendance at 6:15 was probably the largest that we have had at any evening Mass and the hearty singing of the stirring hymns of the Saints was thrilling. The informal supper was an unquestioned success. The large number and excellence of the hot dishes brought by the parishioners made gluttony an easy sin that night. An unauthoritative, but generally agreed upon plan, was promoted that night. It is that the next covered-dish supper will be completely executed by the men! We'll see.

AT THIS WRITING, November 3rd, the offering for All Souls' Day amounts to $340. Of this, $315 will be given to All Saints Sisters of the Poor for S. Anna's Home and $25 to the Guild of All Souls. A few late contributions will probably come in and they will be given to S. Anna's Home. We are deeply grateful to be able to make these gifts,—and they are possible only because of your charitable generosity.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

S. CLEMENT'S DAY is looked forward to year by year as a rather special festival. And quite rightly, for it is our parochial holiday. In the Diocese of Pennsylvania there are 169 parishes and in addition to these, several chapels. Yet, of all these congregations with many duplications of titles, ours is the only one dedicated to S. Clement. The day, then, as far as this area is concerned, is definitely our day. We love to assemble and offer Mass in honor of our Patron; we love to sing the Carol of S. Clement. Inasmuch as our parochial holy day and Thanksgiving Day fall together this year there will be no problem about our people's travelling even great distances to be present and share in public worship as a Christian family under the patronage of our Father Clement.

EVERYBODY KNOWS BY THIS TIME that Father Loeffler will sing his First Solemn Mass at 10 o'clock on S. Clement's Day. Parishioners as well as your Clergy take pride (we hope this is righteous pride) in witnessing a son of the parish ascend the altar and there exercise the highest privilege man attains,—the offering of Holy Mass. Ordination to the Priesthood is the climax of one's vocation; the offering of the Sacrifice of the Mass is its culmination! Father Loeffler has chosen those that will assist in the Solemn Mass including the preacher who will be the Reverend Father C. Edward Hopkin, Ph.D., Professor of Systematic Theology and Ethics at The Philadelphia Divinity School. S. Clement's Day 1961 will indeed be a most happy festival.

ONE MORE WORD regarding the Patronal Feast,—and that is the special offering. For many, many years the S. Clement's Day offering has provided a substantial part of our parish support and we expect it to do this same thing this year. In fact, we have so many reasons to be deeply thankful on this Church and National holiday that the offering may reasonably be larger than usual. We hope it will be.

THE FALL INGATHERING of the United Thank Offering will be on Wednesday evening, November 29th at Holy Trinity Church. The Women of S. Clement's are asked to bring their offering to the Church next Sunday or send it to Miss Elsie Williams at any time before the 29th.

THE CHRISTMAS SEALS are now on sale. While the spread of tuberculosis has been greatly reduced, the disease still is a major menace. Buying the seals is a real help in the campaign of preventing T.B., and using the stamps is an outward sign of your loyal interest.

AT THIS SEASON, notes for the Sunday leaflet would be incomplete without mention of the Bazaar. Do you know the date? It will be held on a week from Thursday,—which is November 30th. Some people are working very hard to make it a success. No matter how long and hard they work, their efforts will not be rewarded with success unless we have scads of people. And the people that attend the Bazaar are those that hold tickets to the dinner. Enough said? The Colonial Philadelphia setting will be most charming. Your friends will thank you for leading them to the Parish Hall on the 30th.

THE LARGE PAINTING of Our Lord that hangs in the Parish Hall has been deteriorating over the past few years. There are several breaks in the canvas including a nasty gouge which simply removed the right eye of Our Lord. The total impression has been one of neglect bordering on irreverence. The Reverend Father Robert S. Harris, Rector of the Church of the Annunciation, and a good friend of S. Clement's, has offered to make the needed repairs. Prior to his taking Holy Orders Father Harris worked professionally at the restoring of paintings. We are grateful to have the voluntary services of this priest-artist.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

BAZAAR! BAZAAR! BAZAAR! Don't tire of that word. It should be on your lips and passing therefrom to the ears of your friends the coming few days. We should have many more guests at the dinner than the present ticket sale indicates will be present. It will be a magnificent affair,—lovely to look at and pleasant to be at. (Unchurchillian phrases but they tell what we are aiming AT.) Last minute donations to the tables, especially the Wishing Well, Fancy Goods and Antique counters, will be most welcome. Little more need be said. Simply be there, and not alone. Dine with friends at 5:30, 6:30 or 7:30; and carry a handful of change and currency for the Colonial Auction. It will be work and it will be fun,—and if all goes as planned, it will be profitable!

PLEASE NOTE on the Kalendar the requiem Masses on the coming three days and try to be present when your list of names will be read. Also take note that on Saturday there will be a second Mass at 10 o'clock. Generally on the first Saturday of each month the choir boys attend Mass and make their Holy Communion. Monthly Confession and Communion is their commendable rule. Others are of course welcome to join the boys at this service. The Rector gives the boys breakfast in the Parish Hall; thus their monthly event is spiritual and social and gastronomic.

THE FEAST OF S. ANDREW THE APOSTLE is Thursday. We might regard him, then, as Patron of this year's Bazaar. There is no reason to suppose that S. Andrew ever saw the British Isles; nevertheless, he is Patron of Scotland. By some sad circumstance the Scottish people are reputed to be ungenerous,—actually stingy. Does this mean that our Bazaar, under the influence of the Scotsmen's Patron, will suffer from frugality in its customers? Not at all. The jokesters' jibes notwithstanding, Scottish people actually are warm-hearted, hospital and generous. Their Kirk does not suffer from lack of support. Therefore, our Bazaar on S. Andrew's Day will be peopled by warm-hearted, hospitable and generous patrons, with hands in their pockets not to hold down their coins but to draw them out and spend them for the welfare of the Church. Hoot mon, a bonny nicht it'll be!

ON TUESDAY, your Father Rector will attend a meeting of the Planning and Policy Committee of the A.C.U. in the Parish Office Building of Trinity Church, New York. Because of preparations for the Bazaar and other commitments he will return home that night rather than remain for the meeting of the Executive Board of A.C.U. on the following day.

THE HOLY SEASON OF ADVENT begins next Sunday. With the Bazaar and other events that have strained our energy all behind us, we shall be able to give our parochial attention to observance of these holy weeks. The devotions of Advent are dominated by anticipation of the Holy Nativity. It is an exciting season in the way that the days immediately before Christmas were exciting in our childhood,—with the front parlor closed to the children so that Santa Claus could slip in and trim the tree and lay presents and even talk to the children through the faintly disguised voice of the father of the household. Waiting through those days until the door was ceremoniously opened while a music-box tinkled "Silent Night" was most exhilarating, delightful torture. In our blasé maturity we no longer have that ingenuous joy. However, a blessing of our maturity is that we now look from the tree and Santa to the Altar and Our Lord and during Advent we can, and ought to be stirred in both thoughts and emotions as we anticipate the Holy Birthday Party of the Midnight Mass and all that goes with that blessed event.

ADVANCE NOTICE. On a week from Friday, December 8th, Solemn Mass will be at 6:15 p.m., for observance of this great day in honor of Our Lady.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

DURING DECEMBER we shall have no projects at S. Clement's,—no meetings, except the Vestry on the 12th. Advent, then, may be observed as it should be with emphasis on a prayerful preparation for the feast of the Holy Nativity. In the past month we have had wonderful events at our Parish Church and in the Parish Hall. We are deeply thankful for them but we are glad now to have a change in pace.

FRIDAY IS THE FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION of Our Lady, a day that is dear to those who love and venerate the Mother of God. The feast has its origin in old England and even though the Church of England has dropped the adjective from the official title the feast still is on the kalendar of that Province of the Anglican Communion. In addition to the usual Low Masses at 7 and 9:30, Solemn Mass will be offered at 6:15 and the Novena Devotions will be at 5:45. The usual Friday evening service will be omitted. Attendance at evening Masses has been very good and we should expect the record to be maintained on Friday for it is a feast on which Catholics realize a moral obligation to assist in the Holy Liturgy. On Friday afternoon and Saturday night the Philadelphia Orchestra with vocal soloists will present Berlioz' "L'Enfance du Christ", an artistic and appropriate musical treat for this holy day.

PLEASE NOTE; the change in confessions hour Friday night.

NEXT SUNDAY gifts may be brought to the Church for the Elizabeth Price Martin participation in the Christmas project at Philadelphia General Hospital. Distribution of the packages will be simplified if you will clearly mark each "man", "woman", "boy" or "girl" and on the children's packages, the contents. Gift suggestions are:

MEN

Cigarettes
Soap (Lifebuoy or Dial)
Toothpaste and brush
Kleenex
Candy

WOMEN

Scented soap
Wash cloths
Writing paper
Talcum powder

CHILDREN

Small rubber toys
Small stuffed toys
Coloring books
Unbreakable dolls

Soft plastic toys
Educational toys (Holgate type)
Crayons

S. MARGARET'S HOUSE, Germantown, announces the following Advent events: Quiet Day for Women, Tuesday, December 12th; Mass at 8:30, first address at 10:15; conductor, the Rev. Edward L. Lee, Jr.; and a Quiet Evening for Women, Saturday, December 16 from 4:30 to 9:00; conductor, the Rev. Richard J. Herschel. Make early reservations by calling VICTOR 4-4612.

THE ADVENT QUIET EVENING for the families of S. Clement's and any others who wish to attend will be Saturday, December 16th, starting at 5:00. The Reverend Father Joseph Parsell, O.H.C. will be conductor. His subject will be "The Art of Meditation". It will be a most suitable time to invite friends who are not accustomed to meditating or to retreating. They will hear direct and understandable instruction in this highly important department of the spiritual life. Better plan on being here yourself, too. It is intended for men and women and youths.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. This week the lamps before the Blessed Sacrament and at the Lady Shrine burn as Miss Jean Purdy's thank-offering for the Ordination to the Priesthood of Father Loeffler.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

THE MEMBERS OF S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH are invited to hear Händel's "The Messiah" at Holy Trinity Church this evening at 8 o'clock. Members of the Philadelphia Orchestra, with harpsichord, and using the original orchestration, will accompany the choir. Many Churchmen for generations have regarded the hearing of "The Messiah" as being de rigueur if Advent is to be a proper preparation for Christmas. It is good to see this commendable tradition persist and it is expected some of our parishioners will accept this neighborly invitation with relish.

TOMORROW morning the Mass will be a Requiem for the repose of the souls of Elizabeth Day and Matilda Jane Williams. R.I.P.

THE VESTRY will meet in the Clergy House at 4:30 on Tuesday.

THE ADVENT QUIET EVENING will be Saturday of this week. The Reverend Father Joseph Parsell, O.H.C., will give the addresses, starting at 5 o'clock. Further addresses will be at 7:30 and 8:30. In cooperation with the Diocese's suggestion of subject-matter for this season, Father Parsell will speak mainly on "The Art of Meditation". The making of meditations is an exercise basic to the spiritual life. Even though most conscientious Churchmen attempt to meditate there is among these good people a high percentage of blundering amateurs,—and only because they have not been instructed in the mechanics of mental prayer. Here is excellent opportunity to take a short course in this aspect of our holy religion. And one unusual advantage of this Quiet Evening is that it will provide not only instruction, but guidance in doing that which the participants are learning. If you are present, as you hear instruction, you will also make a meditation. You surely have friends in other parishes who would like to join you in this spiritual treat. They will be most welcome, but they will not know about it unless you invite them. Please make dinner reservations with the Sisters as soon as possible. LOcust 7-2044.

A WEEK FROM TODAY, Rose Sunday, Father Parsell will preach the sermon at the Solemn Mass. The congregation will be most happy to have a religious again occupy our pulpit.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING of the women of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was presented at Holy Trinity Church on November 29th. S. Clement's part in the offering is $82.00, which came from twenty-three donors.

THE BIG PROJECT IS NOW HISTORY! And wasn't the Bazaar a beautiful affair? The Colonial setting,—artistic, colorful and authentic,—was a congenial background for the merchandizing and the dining. The choir-boys' singing of the Francis Hopkinson songs with harpsichord accompaniment was a rare treat. The same boys had made most of the ornaments for the old-fashioned Christmas-tree, strung the pop-corn, the cranberries and made the paper chains. If all the lovely details were to be described another page would have to be added to the leaflet. Your Father Rector would like to express gratitude to each of the many persons that planned and worked in every department of the enterprise, but again, the list is too long for publication. Each has labored for the honor and welfare of S. Clement's Church and the best return for the hours of work is the satisfaction that it is a job well done. At the time of writing, the financial results are not known, but regardless of that important facet, the Bazaar was a success for its drawing the parishioners and friends more closely together through harmonious endeavor and neighborly sociability.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.

Parish Notes

THIS MORNING we welcome to the Parish and the pulpit the Reverend Father Joseph Parsell, O.H.C. Yesterday Father Parsell addressed the Associates of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity and last night gave the meditations for the Advent Quiet Evening. Today we are glad to have for the sermon the third chapter of his Philadelphia trilogy.

ONLY ONE WEEK remains before we celebrate Our Lord's Birthday. Only one week to make spiritual preparation for Christmas Holy Communion. The purchasing and wrapping of gifts, the sending of greeting cards, the decorating of houses and the planning of festive meals are important and contribute to the keeping of the festival. They are appropriate and lovely outward signs of our joy and gratitude that Our Lord once came into the world as Man and still dwells within our world as Man. But never allow these outward signs to crowd you in getting ready for the other and greater outward signs of Christmas joy,—the Holy Sacraments. EVERY Churchman expects to assist in offering the Christ-Mass and to receive Our Blessed Lord in Holy Communion. In a way, this is THE Christmas Sacrament,—for as God came from heaven to be born of the Blessed Virgin and showed Himself to mankind on the first Christmas,—so likewise, in every Mass God comes from heaven and shows Himself in His Divinity and His Humanity to the faithful present at that Mass. THIS outward sign of Jesus Our Lord,—this manifestation of the Son of God and Mary in the Blessed Sacrament is the apex of our Christmas festival. It is THIS for which each of us must take time to prepare. Among devotions and prayers to this end will be the other great sacrament of Christian living, the Sacrament of Penance. Hours for confessions are frequent but if any parishioners find they cannot be here at the appointed hours, they need only ask a priest for an appointment and it will be arranged. It is such a happy season, but is truly happy only if first it is holy.

1961 GIVES US THE SHORTEST ADVENT that the season ever can be,—three weeks and one day. A compensation for this shortening of the season is Kalendar's giving us the Solemn Vigil of Christmas on Sunday. By ancient tradition, the Mass of the Vigil takes precedence over that of Fourth Advent. The beautiful and fitting Introit is taken from the Book of Exodus, "Today shall ye know that the Lord will come to deliver us: and in the morning shall ye behold his glory". In line with this pronouncement, the faithful will assemble on Sunday morning to make liturgical preparation, and reassemble at midnight or Monday morning to "behold his glory". The Mass of the Vigil is said, of course, every year but usually on a week-day; not until 1972 shall we have opportunity again to observe it on a Sunday. The leaflet next week will carry the complete text of the Vigil Mass.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. The candle at the Lady Shrine burns this week for the happy repose of the soul of the Reverend Father Joiner, being the gift of Miss Gladys V. Bly.

YOUR PRAYERS are asked on the Ember Days for the candidates studying for Holy Orders and for those that will be ordained during this Embertide. S. Clement's now has two men in seminary and one aspirant in college. You are requested to pray especially for these fellow-parishioners on their way to the Sacred Priesthood.

CONTRIBUTIONS for Christmas Charities and greens will be welcomed. Please hand your gift to the Priests or the Sisters.

Parish Notes

CHRISTMAS AT S. CLEMENT'S was another beautiful festival. We enjoyed the artistic and appropriate scene of a white Christmas. It was lovely to look at, but my, my—it became a hazard to travel. The big regret, resulting from nature's fall-out, was the inability of a number of parishioners to travel to the Church. They must have been saddened by not assisting at Mass in their own parish and they were missed. However, there were good congregations. At midnight we had many visitors,—a large share of them being from other parishes. In fact, our congregations at the Masses on the holiday were a bit larger than last year and more people made Holy Communion than last year. We were thankful again to hear the Messe de Minuit, the enchanting Charpentier Mass based on old French carols. At this writing, the feast of the Holy Innocents, radio announcements are being made that more and heavier snow is expected today and tomorrow. Long before you read this you will know whether the prediction is accurate, but it certainly is to be hoped that our people will not suffer another week-end of slippery, slushy walking.

THE JANUARY MEETING of the Vestry has been postponed until Tuesday, February 13th.

ON TUESDAY EVENING an open meeting will be held in the Parish Hall at 8 o'clock. The speaker will be the Reverend J. F. McElroy of the Seamen's Church Institute. Father McElroy will address the group on the work of the Institute among the 200,000 seamen in the Port of Philadelphia. Everyone should be interested in the life of a sailor, and therefore it is hoped that our men and older youths will join the ladies in this meeting sponsored by the Women of S. Clement's. Refreshments will be served.

TO RETURN TO THE DAY OF WRITING, December 28th, we are now in the midst of the various holiday parties. The final one will be on Saturday of this week when the Associates of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity have their Epiphany festivities. Every member of the Parish has been invited to one or another of these gatherings. It has been a most happy season in every way except weather. The Clergy House was suitably decorated and your priests enjoyed the holidays both spiritually and socially. They are ever so grateful to the many, many parishioners that sent them greetings and gifts. And the joy of the season has not ended. Epiphanytide is an extension of the Feast of the Holy Nativity and we continue our rejoicing in the gift of God the Son Incarnate, our Savior. This year we shall have the liturgical treat of observing all six of the Sundays after Epiphany before we assume the violet of penitential days. Let us take full advantage of this longer-than-usual green season to offer our thanks to Almighty God for His manifestation of Jesus Christ as Savior of all the peoples of the world and for the continued Incarnational Presence of the Son of God in the Blessed Sacrament.

Parish Notes

ON THURSDAY THE CHURCH UNITY OCTAVE will begin and will conclude on the Feast of the Conversion of S. Paul. We all should be spurred to greater zeal in our prayers for the unity of Christendom by the several encouraging developments in recent times. The genial and cordial attitude of His Holiness, Pope John, has by itself colored the inter-Church attitudes with rosier hues than it has known in the memory of man since the great schisms divided Christendom. A new brand of friendliness has developed and this friendliness is a necessary foundation if serious conferences are to be fruitful. According to The Living Church of January 7th, our Presiding Bishop recalled his audience with the Pope in these words: "Pope John was very hospitable. I walked into his private study and he rose and came to me with his arms wide in greeting, saying, 'Bravo'. We had a 40-minute talk, through interpreters. We didn't discuss specifics." The magazine goes on to report, "Speaking generally of Christian unity, Bishop Lichtenburger said the movement may make it possible some day for a member of one Church to be received as a communicant by a Church of another Communion." The article concludes with another direct quotation from the Presiding Bishop, as follows: "I do not see a unified Church, as such—a Church with immense power. There still will be many differences in Church government, doctrine, and ceremony—but essentially the Churches will be together."

Bishop Lichtenburger apparently visualizes Christendom united in a fashion similar to that of the Anglican Communion,—a body of national Churches united by their common heritage, and by the regular and fraternal conferences of all their Bishops. To your Father Rector, this seems to be a reasonable hope,—with one exception. "Many differences in . . . doctrine" would deny the essential unity for which we yearn. There might be allowable differences in pious opinions, but the FAITH OF THE CHURCH is expressed in the DOCTRINE OFFICIALLY DECLARED BY THE CHURCH. The Church's "charter of salvation (is) one Lord, one faith, one birth". However, the Presiding Bishop's general plan is a workable plan, and one we all may pray will be guided to fruition by God the Holy Spirit.

THE DAILY MASS INTENTIONS during the Octave will be those published by the American Church Union, and which are on the pamphlets—free—at the bulletin boards. If you are unable to be at daily Mass, at least use at home the daily devotions suggested on the pamphlet.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet at S. Clement's on a week from Tuesday, being January 23rd. Both the ladies and men of the parish are asked to save this date and be present for Benediction and the meeting.

THE ANNUAL EPIPHANY PARTY was held on the evening of January 5th, following Solemn Benediction. On the night of the Epiphany 1956 your Father Rector was instituted in S. Clement's Parish by the Right Reverend, the Bishop of Pennsylvania. While he was in residence and was on duty from December 1st, 1955, he then was the Rector-Designate. The late Father Joiner was officially the Rector through the remainder of the year 1955. The plan to observe this event annually seems a good one and it is hoped the parishioners are pleased to share in the festivities. Judging by the response this year, the parishioners ARE pleased, for it was a happy,—a jolly occasion. Anniversaries always prompt reminiscences. Six years do not constitute much of an age,—but in these few years several changes have come over the Parish. Death has removed some of the stalwart Clementines,—all of whom we miss very much. Through Confirmation and transfers we have gained others,—and we have hopes of increasingly vigorous parochial life in the future. Prospects for 1962 are bright but the year is too young to comment in detail on this matter. At the Annual Parish Meeting on March 5th a more complete report will be in order. Your Father Rector is deeply grateful for the many good wishes and other comments of good will offered to him on Epiphany Eve. He will try by the grace of God to live up to them.

NEXT SUNDAY, January 21st, Solemn Evening Song at 4:00 P.M. at S. Mark's Church, Locust Street, sponsored by the Catholic Clerical Union. The preacher will be The Reverend Father H. Ellsworth Chandlee of S. Andrew's Seminary, Manila. He will tell the fascinating story of the Philippine Independent Church. You should not miss this; it will be an ecumenical treat of a different flavor!

Parish Notes

THIS AFTERNOON AT S. MARK'S CHURCH will be a function of interest to all Churchmen, and most surely to Anglo-Catholics. The General Convention 1961 established intercommunion with the Philippine Independent Church, by far the largest Church outside of the Anglican Communion with which we are associated. Its membership is as large and probably a little larger than that of the Episcopal Church. This official step, then, is a major move in the present hopes and plans for a united Catholic Christendom. The Reverend Father H. Ellsworth Chandlee of the faculty of S. Andrew's Seminary in Manila will address the congregation at S. Mark's at four o'clock on the subject of the Philippine Independent Church. He spoke to the Clerical Union earlier this season and the priests were so keenly interested in and favorably impressed by Father Chandlee's report that they invited him to speak again, this time before as many laymen as will attend the service this afternoon. The service is sponsored by the Catholic Clerical Union as the main event of the Philadelphia Branch's observance of the Church Unity Octave. Following the address, and perhaps some discussion, will be Solemn Evensong and Eucharistic Devotions, with S. Mark's choir leading the music. The collection will be given to S. Andrew's Seminary which educates the candidates for Holy Orders from both our Missionary District of the Philippines and also the Philippine Independent Church. Clementines are encouraged to attend the program and Evensong this afternoon at S. Mark's and to invite other Churchmen to go with them. We hear so much of ecumenicalism of a different character that to hear this story of our new brethren in this thoroughly Catholic and somewhat colorful manifestation of the Faith will be very heartening. Come one and all!

ARE YOU using the daily devotions for the unity of Christendom as suggested on the A.C.U. leaflet now available at the two bulletin boards? If not, you really ought to begin today. The Octave of prayer will come to its conclusion on Thursday, the Conversion of S. Paul. This week of praying "that all may be one", started by Anglicans, is now observed by Roman Catholics and by many Protestants.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet at S. Clement's on Tuesday evening. Solemn Benediction will be at 8, and the meeting will be in the Parish Hall. This is the only meeting in the year to which ladies are invited, and so it is hoped that the ladies as well as the men of S. Clement's will be in attendance to show hospitality to our guests. The Reverend Father Wappler, former Curate, will be the speaker.

BY THE APPOINTMENT OF THE PRESIDING BISHOP, next Sunday is the annual Theological Education Sunday when the sermon will be related to theological education and the special collection given to Nashotah House. With our having two parishioners new enjoying the benefits of that school we should be especially generous in our offering.

A LETTER has been received from the Elizabeth Price Martin League thanking our parishioners who sent packages to the Philadelphia General Hospital at Christmas. We are pleased to have had part in this program of good works.

REPORT ON THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR! Parishioners will be grateful to know the Bazaar attained its financial goal and went a bit beyond it. The Accounting Warden was given a check in December for $1200 to be applied on the Missionary Quota,—and this was our main aim. We started the work on the Bazaar with a balance of $75 from 1960, and we now have on hand about $90. Religious articles continue to be sold for the benefit of the 1961 Bazaar. Kalendars and Missals will be on sale for some months and therefore the eventual balance to be carried over for the beginning of the 1962 Bazaar is unpredictable, but it will be well over $100. A report of the sales, department by department, will be made a little later to the Bazaar Committee.

ADVANCE NOTICE. Candlemas Ceremonies and the Solemn Mass of the Purification at 6:15 P.M., on a week from Friday, February 2nd.

Parish Notes

IN ALL THE PARISHES AND MISSIONS of the Episcopal Church in this country and abroad, the congregations are being asked today to contribute to the support of our theological seminaries. The special collection is authorized by the Church and the day is appointed by the Presiding Bishop. And so, we are doing what everybody else is doing today. Our offering will go to Nashotah House. It will be used for the maintenance of the seminary and is not to be confused with Nashotah's "Decade of Development Fund". The latter is a fund now being raised for the purpose of providing new buildings and additions to the endowment. Of this you will hear more at a later date. At present we are taking part in the usual campaign for contributions to keep the school operating. If you did not receive a special offering envelope in the mail, or forgot to bring yours with you this morning, you may pick up an extra envelope at the bulletin boards. Nashotah House is not only a top-grade seminary but it teaches and practices, by its life of worship and discipline and instruction, the undiluted Catholic Faith. It deserves our generous support.

MASS ON FRIDAY EVENING AT 6:15. Clementines always have attended the Candlemas Ceremonies in goodly numbers. There is every reason why they should do so. The feast, coming just forty days after Christmas, has strong Incarnational significance. In fact, the kalendar 1962 notwithstanding, Purification rather brings to its conclusion the Christmas-Epiphany season. As Dr. Pius Parsch aptly writes, "The theology proper to today's liturgy forms a fitting transition from Christmas to Easter. The small Christ-Child is still in His Mother's arms, but already she is offering Him in sacrifice." S. Simeon's well-known words of reference to Our Lord as a "Light to lighten the Gentiles, and the Glory of thy people Israel" underscore the emphasis the feast throws on the light-theme. Starting with Christmas itself, through Epiphany the light-theme moves in an exciting crescendo, attaining a climax in this feast of Candlemas in which Christ is shown forth as the Light of the whole world. You, the faithful, are even given candles to hold during parts of the Mass,—a further dramatization of Christ Our Lord's being the Light that shines on all the people about us and those far removed from us. Celebrating the ceremonies in the darkness of evening seems to enhance their effectiveness. The Light of Our Lord's character shines in sharp contrast to the darkness of the human world; likewise, as a liturgical parable, the light of the candles which symbolize Our Lord the Light of the world, shine in sharp contrast to the darkness of the evening and also in sharp contrast to the deep gloaming of our nave even when all the electric lights are turned on! While the Purification is not strictly a Holy Day of Obligation, it nevertheless is a day when Catholics wish to assist at Mass and to have part in the wonderful candle liturgy and, if they choose, to march in the glorious procession.

THE NOVENA DEVOTIONS on Friday will be at 5:45 p.m. Will not some of you who love Our Lady arrive by that hour and take places on the Epistle side and join in the offering of the Rosary and the other prayers? You may move to your favorite location later, but kneel near the Shrine for this spiritual exercise. To have a good-sized congregation for the Novena, at least on the Lady festivals, is certainly heartening to your Father Pastor who yearns for a more general congregational participation in the cycle of prayers at the Shrine of Our Lady of Clemency.

THE CHOIR OF BOYS AND MEN will sing on Friday night. However, the ordinary of the Mass will be Missa Marialis by the choir and the congregation. Do try your best to be here and do lift your voices in the text of the liturgy and hymns in order that this may truly be "the work of the people",—the people's Mass. On Saturday at 10 o'clock Mass, the choir boys will make Holy Communion, and later have breakfast.

THROATS WILL BE BLESSED at all Masses on Saturday and next Sunday.

Parish Notes

THE COMMITTEE ON S. CLEMENT'S CENTENARY will meet tomorrow evening at 8 in the Parish Hall. Are you wondering, "What committee is this?" At the Annual Meeting of the Parish in March 1961 the Father Rector appointed a long list of parishioners to serve on a committee to make plans for a proper observance of the 100th anniversary of the consecration of S. Clement's Church on April 12, 1964. He expressed the wish that the committee would draw up a program of several events to be held at various times during 1964. There is at this moment an embarrassed, reddish rectorial face at 2013 Appletree Street because nearly eleven months have passed and the committee has not been convened. Notices, however, now have been mailed to the appointees and it is hoped that all of them will be present Monday evening. Two years will not give a moment too much time to make plans, revise the same plans and put them into operation. The 100th anniversary of the organization of S. Clement's Parish occurred in the autumn of 1955 between the dates of Father Joiner's leaving the Parish and Father Elwell's arrival. The 100th anniversary of the laying of the corner-stone of the church building was in May 1956, only six months after the initiation of the present rectorate. The latter was observed with historical dignity at Solemn Mass one Sunday and with gala informality at a dinner in the Parish House on another day. It all had to be planned so quickly but was suitable and highly pleasant. As the baptism of a child is the most important single event in his career and deserves an annual commemoration of greater festivity than his birthday,—so,—the consecration of a church building is the most important event in its history and deserves the most festive commemoration a parish can provide. The baptism makes the recipient a child of God, and the consecration makes the recipient a House of God. God-willing, we shall have, then, a fine celebration in 1964.

AS WE APPROACH the close of the long Epiphany season, our thoughts return to the message of Epiphany itself. The following, by Phyllis McGinley, is a good prod as we prepare to make the transition from festive green to penitential violet.

THE LEGEND OF BEFANA

Befana, the housewife, scrubbing her pane,
Saw three old sages ride down the lane,
Saw three gray travellers pass her door—
Caspar, Balthazar, and Melchior.
"Where journey you, sirs?" she asked of them.
And Caspar answered, "To Bethlehem,
For we have news of a marvelous thing:
Born in a stable is Christ the King!"
"Give Him thy welcome!" Balthazar smiled,
"Come with us, mistress, to greet the Child."
"Oh, happily, happily would I fare
Were my dusting through and I'd polished the stair."
Old Melchior leaned on his saddle horn:
"Then send but a gift to the small Newborn."
"Oh, gladly, gladly I'd send Him one
Were my cupboards clean and my weaving done.
I'd give Him a robe to warm His sleep
But first I must mend the fire and sweep.
As soon as ever I've baked my bread,
I'll fetch Him a pillow for His head,
And a coverlet, too," Befana said.
"When the rooms are aired and the linen dry,
I'll look to the Babe." But the three rode by.
She worked for a day and a night and a day,
Then, gifts in her hands, took up her way.
But she never could find where the Christ Child lay.
And still she wanders at Christmastide,
Houseless, whose house was all her pride,
Whose heart was tardy, whose gifts were late;
Wanders and knocks at every gate,
Crying, "Good people, the bells begin!
Put off your toiling and let love in."

Parish Notes

HONORING S. CLEMENT'S in being our guest this week will be the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Fond du Lac. Dr. Brady will spend Thursday evening and Friday here in order to visit the Mission House and confer with the Sisters of the Holy Nativity. During February he will call at each of the several branch-houses of that community, of which he is the official Episcopal Visitor. As a priest formerly of that diocese, and now as a Canon-of-Fond du Lac-not-in-residence, the Father Rector takes nostalgic delight in welcoming the Bishop to S. Clement's Clergy House.

THE VESTRY will meet at 4:30 on Tuesday at the Clergy House.

THE S. CLEMENT'S YOUTH ORGANIZATION is a very lively part of our parish family. Recently Irvin Freeman, the energetic president, wrote a letter to each member enclosing a proposed program of events for 1962. This young organization has set a goal for other Clementine groups to emulate; it already has an activity planned for every month through January 1963! For several obvious reasons the young people have problems in maintaining a solvent treasury. Perhaps some parishioners are interested in giving them a helping boost. They deserve it for they are loyal to the parish now and are likely to be the leaders of our parish family in the future.

THE SEAMAN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE has been picking up our bundles of old magazines for sometime and wishes to continue to do so. They not only want magazines but puzzles of all kinds. The seamen who do not speak our language can enjoy doing a puzzle. Women's magazines are in demand by seamen from abroad who take them to their wives,—or sweethearts. A Clementine tour of the Institute, 1222 Locust Street, is planned for a Saturday or Sunday afternoon in the spring.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. The lamp at the Lady Shrine is offered by an anonymous donor this week with the intention of the physical well-being of S. Clement's Church. (In view of the continued in-flow of rain water and the continued stoppage of the oil-burner, in spite of expert treatment for both ailments, this intention is most aptly chosen. It is thought that both problems have been solved but certainty is never possible, and your joining Our Lady in Her praying for us is an excellent idea.)

FAREWELL EPIPHANYTIDE! After this unusually long extension of the Festivals of the Incarnation we assume violet vestments and move into a different liturgical mood. This morning we sing an 11th century hymn described in the Hymnal as An Essay on the Church Plain Chant. It is no. 54. It tells in verse why we forgo the Alleluia with the coming of the "Gesima" season. Note the third stanza. A quaint custom of former days in England was that of the Burial of the Alleluia. Choir-boys literally buried in a specified place within the cathedral or church an ornamented box containing a handsome manuscript of Alleluia. There in darkness it remained from the Saturday before Septuagesima and all through the weeks when that word is not used in the Church's liturgy. On Easter Eve occurred the more colorful chapter of the ceremony, for then the box was lifted from its grave, and the beautiful parchment bearing Alleluia was resurrected and waved to the restrained but nevertheless gleeful cheers of Choir-boys and congregation. A wonderfully devised bit of symbolism, this,—a homely dramatization of the discipline of Lent and the triumphant joy of Easter.

PLANS FOR LENT at S. Clement's are highly interesting. In fact they are a secret that is hard to keep. Soon the schedule will be printed and then you will be informed of the good news of who is to visit us and when!

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING will be Monday, March 5th. SUPPER WILL PRECEDE THE MEETING. The covered-dish supper on All Saints was so successful and so much enjoyed that we shall repeat that arrangement for having a meal. More of this later, but start now planning your most exciting casseroles and salads. It would be fun to have a contest on the merits of the dishes but nobody would have the courage to be a judge. We shall not go in for contests; we only ask you to bring your best but economical culinary creations.

Parish Notes

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING is hereby given. It will be on Monday evening, March 5th, at approximately 7:45. The indefiniteness of the hour is because of the uncertainty of the time required for the supper which will precede the meeting. An essential item of annual business is the election of Vestrymen. Nominations of candidates for the Vestry must be submitted to the clerk, Mr. T. H. Clark, prior to the opening of the meeting. Four vacancies, created by the completing of their terms of office by four members, are to be filled by election. Those whose terms are completed this year are Messrs. Clark, Cooper, Mattis and Dr. Ward. They are eligible for re-election. The eight that continue in office are Dr. Lukens and John J. Sellers, the Wardens, and Dr. Holroyd, Messrs. Pike, Wilson, Reiter, Hagert and Henderson. The treasurers of the various organizations are asked to prepare brief reports of financial records and other statistical information.

PARISH SUPPER! A covered dish supper will be an added feature of the Annual Meeting. This is being done for the convenience of those who work in center city and for the sake of the pleasant sociability it will add to the evening. As on All Saints night, when such a supper was first tried, you are asked to supply a casserole, a salad or a dessert. Those who are unable to provide food will find plenty on the tables for their meal and will have opportunity to contribute to the incidental cost of the production. Please use the chart on the bulletin board to record your offering of culinary delights.

WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S! This week a spiritual treat is in store for you. It is an address by an expert on "The Art of Meditation", and it will be given twice in order that you may choose between morning and evening. The Rt. Rev. Kenneth Riches, S.T.D., the Lord Bishop of Lincoln, and the visiting Lecturer in Ascetical Theology at General Seminary, will be the speaker. Seven years ago his Lordship, then the Bishop of Dorchester, was the first in the series of visiting Lecturers in this subject at G.T.S., and at that time spoke before the women of this Diocese. He is a master of the subject and it is genuinely hoped that many ladies of S. Clement's will take advantage of this unusual opportunity for helpful instruction on meditation. At 10:30 Wednesday at Holy Trinity Church, will be Holy Communion, followed by the address. Luncheon at 50¢ will be served those who wish it. At 7:30 Wednesday evening, a duplicate address will be given in the Memorial Room of Church House. Dinner at $1.25 will be served for those that make reservation by calling the Women's Office at LO 7-6650. The meals are only matters of convenience; you are entirely free to attend the sessions without having the meals, if you so choose. This is a diocesan event which should have not only the moral but the active support of S. Clement's Church, and all its ladies.

THE PLANNING AND POLICY COMMITTEE and the EXECUTIVE BOARD of the American Church Union will hold meetings respectively on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Church of the Resurrection, New York. The Father Rector will attend both and will be out of the Parish from Monday through Thursday. Mr. Cooper, a member of the Executive Board, will attend the meeting of that body on Wednesday.

A WEEK FROM TODAY the leaflet will carry the announcement of lenten preachers. Thus far during the present rectorate we have had very few guest speakers during the Lents, but this year we depart from this recently established precedent and shall hear notable visitors on most of the sermon-days. This much may be said now: the Question Box of last year will be repeated on three Fridays. Better start now to work on the stating of theological problems and place them in the box early. First received,—first answered. There will be only three sessions of this engaging presentation of theological and moral truths. If you give it the support it deserves, and allow the forty days to take over you and your interests, THIS LENT WILL SURELY BE THE MOST WONDERFUL LENT YOU HAVE KNOWN IN MANY YEARS!

Parish Notes

NOW FOR THE EXCITING NEWS that has been so hard to keep a secret. LENT is, of course, primarily a season of discipline for the sake of spiritual advancement. It is a time of fasting from meat on certain days and fasting to a degree from all foods; it is a time of withdrawal from worldly diversions that detract from the concentration on spiritual advance. This much is taken for granted but at the same time is the hardest part of Lent to observe with any degree of strictness. However, it is the basic foundation of the holy season and that for which all Churchmen ought now to start to ready themselves. Following close behind the discipline very often is a program for enlightenment,—a program which is important but never should be a substitute for the traditional self-discipline. The former establishes the mood for the latter. And it is our parochial plan for the latter which we now announce. You will enjoy this,—you will gain wholesome enlightenment provided you first follow the traditional scheme for Fast and Abstinence. The preachers at the Solemn Mass at S. Clement's on five Sundays will be:

THE REVEREND J. V. LANGMEAD CASSERLY, D.Litt., A.K.C., Professor of Apologetics at Seabury-Western Seminary, Evanston, Illinois,—who will occupy our pulpit on the 3rd and 4th Sundays in Lent, March 25th and April 1st. Dr. Casserly, a native of London, and educated at S. John's College and King's College in that city and at London University, is one of the top-flight scholars in the Anglican Communion. He was Professor of Dogmatic Theology at General Theological Seminary, N.Y., for eight years before going to Evanston. Not only is he a scholar, but an outstanding speaker in scintillating style, and in heavy demand for sermons and lectures.

THE REVEREND ALBERT J. duBOIS, Canon Missioner of the Diocese of Long Island and Executive Director of the American Church Union,—who will preach at S. Clement's on the 1st, 2nd and 5th Sundays in Lent, March 11th & 18th, and April 8th. While Father Casserly is not known to many in our congregation Father duBois is very well known; has appeared here on several occasions and some years ago made his initial bow in our pulpit. Clementines are already familiar with his spirited manner of defending the Faith and of proclaiming the ancient Truths. In his post as leader of Anglo-Catholics he has become, to many Episcopalians, "Mr. A.C.U.", and thus has been the target of numerous attacks as well as the recipient of fragrant bouquets. He comes to S. Clement's at this season, not so much as Executive Director of A.C.U., as the Canon Missioner,—a teacher of the Faith.

On three Friday nights, March 16th, 23rd and 30th:

THE REVEREND JOHN AHERN SCHULTZ, Rector of Trinity Church, Ambler, and former Curate, will join the Father Rector of S. Clement's in Dialogue Sermons. "Join" is perhaps not the word to use, but it sounds more hospitable when writing of a guest than to say "oppose". However, one will be proclaimer of the Truths and the other, more or less, the devil's advocate. The purpose of this plan is not to provide entertainment; it is to teach through a unique method. But, by George, the preachers will have fun doing it and they hope the congregation will enjoy their presentation. The subjects for the three sermons will be "Creed", "Cult", and "Code"!

On the other three Fridays, excluding Good-Friday, the Father Rector will again hold the Question Box. This was so popular last year that it is thought the congregation will respond again.

ON LOW SUNDAY, April 29th, the Reverend Father Malcolm DeP. Maynard, Superior General of the Guild of All Souls, and former Dean of All Saints' Cathedral, Milwaukee, will preach at Solemn Mass. Father Maynard is an old friend of S. Clement's and we shall be delighted to have him return.

THIS IS A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY for gaining the enlightenment mentioned above. Won't you make this Lent a missionary endeavor? Won't you invite friends, especially those who have no attachment to a Church and those who have fallen away from regular participation in the Church's life? Ask them to visit S. Clement's with you, and undoubtedly they will thank you. This CAN be our most wonderful Lent in many years. Whether it is or not depends upon YOU.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING will be on Monday evening, March 5th, following the 6:30 covered-dish supper. Please take note of the chart on the bulletin board and sign up for your part of the meal. We want this to be a pleasant Parish-Family affair, and it will be that providing the parishioners are present!

Parish Notes

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING will be held tomorrow night following the 6:30 covered-dish supper. After the election of Vestrymen and other official business we plan on holding an informal discussion on parish affairs, the 1964 Centennial, and any related matters that parishioners may wish to present.

LENT WILL START on Wednesday of this week,—so late this year that we may reasonably expect weather conducive to easy travel and thus to good attendance at all services. You have the schedule, and extra copies are available at the bulletin boards. You hardly need be reminded that the day before Lent is called Shrove Tuesday because of its being a traditional time for going to shrift—to sacramental confession. The rich blessings of the holy season are best taken advantage of when one is in a state of grace; for this reason Christians for centuries have entered the season of repentance by first being absolved. DO, PLEASE, keep in mind the 12:10 Mass every Wednesday in Lent. Let us try and maintain on all Wednesdays the high attendance which we usually enjoy on Ash-Wednesday. On Friday night we shall have Stations and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and the Question-Box. Because of the great interest the questions and their answers stirred last year we anticipate a good response again this year. On a week from Friday will begin the Dialogue Sermons between the Rev. Father John A. Schultz and your Father Rector.

THE REVEREND CANON ALBERT J. duBOIS will be the preacher next Sunday. He will initiate the series of sermons by two Sunday visitors to our parish pulpit,—himself and the Reverend Father J. V. Langmead Casserly, D.Litt., A.K.C. We often hear that Catholics do not go to Church to hear sermons—that they go to worship God through the offering of Holy Mass. It is very true that a Catholic comes into his Church on Sunday primarily to offer Mass but at the same time a Catholic may be edified and much helped through attentive listening to the proclaiming of the eternal Truths of his Holy Religion. To place high value on sermons is not to be a Protestant. Unfortunately, the heaviest emphasis on sermons today is that of Protestants. However, the greatest preachers in Christendom have been Catholics,—S. John Chrysostom, S. Augustine,—and in more recent days on the local scene,—Bishop Weller of Fond du Lac, Canon B. I. Bell, Bishop Manning of New York. They OUGHT to be the greatest preachers because Catholics have the greatest message to proclaim! Therefore, all of you Clementines are not only asked, not only encouraged, but you are EXPECTED normally to attend the Solemn Mass and join the others of your Parish Family in offering the Eucharistic Sacrifice and in hearing the Word of God both through the Scriptural lessons and through the teaching of the preaching.

THIS LENT adopt the rule to be at 11 o'clock Mass every Sunday and never to come by yourself. Ask another to attend with you. We hope during this Lent to recover some of the lapsed, the careless, the stay-at-home-Clementines and if you know any of these,—even only one,—do not allow the first Sunday to pass without your having tried to get him or her to come with you. And then keep up your good efforts,—and my! you will have cause to offer special thanksgiving at Easter,—thanksgiving for having helped resurrect at least one dormant soul. Next Sunday is the day to start. Let us have a good beginning to our Lent.

THE FAST OF LENT is well known but we repeat the rules for the benefit of new members and those who may have forgotten.

ABSTINENCE from meat at all meals on all weekdays except at dinner on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays (except Ember Saturday and Vigil of Easter). This applies to all Churchmen over seven years of age except those whose ill health demands, under doctor's orders, meat at other times.

FAST is the lessening in quantity of food. Every weekday is a day of fasting, i.e., very light breakfast (traditionally 2 ounces); light collation (traditionally 8 ounces) which may be taken at either noon or night. There is no restriction on the quantity of food at dinner; it is to be a normal meal. No food is to be taken between meals. This rule of fasting applies to all between the ages of 22 and 59 inclusive. It does not apply to those engaged in heavy manual labor or to those under such mental concentration that their work would be impaired by the strict fast. In cases of doubt whether the rule applies, consult the parish priest.

A QUIET EVENING for North Philadelphia Convocation will be held Tuesday, March 13th, from 5 to 9, at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Kensington. Conductor: The Rev. Father George W. Davison. For dinner reservations ($1.50) telephone GA 6-3147.

Parish Notes

TODAY WE EXTEND S. Clement's cordial hospitality to the Reverend Father Albert J. duBois, Canon Missioner of the Diocese of Long Island and Executive Director of the American Church Union. He initiates a series of five sermons by himself and the Reverend Dr. Casserly. Canon duBois is no recently found friend of your Father Rector; he knew the Canon when he was a student at Lawrence College, Appleton, Wisconsin, and at the same time was Director of the Boy Scouts of that area. Through the intervening three decades they have been associated with each other in various Church activities and in the last six years have worked closely together on committee projects of the A.C.U. There is a good deal of personal joy, then, in having Canon duBois be our first Lenten preacher. He will be with us again a week from today.

FRIDAY EVENING, at Stations and Benediction, we shall have the first of three Dialogue Sermons by our good neighbor and a former Clementine, the Reverend Father John Ahern Schultz, Rector of Trinity Church, Ambler, and your Father Rector. As far as is known, these will be the first dual sermons in S. Clement's. However, they are no innovation to the Church; they constitute a venerable homiletical form. Father Schultz will present the positive side while the local man will be the adversary. The novelty of presentation lends a degree of entertainment which, it is hoped, will attract all of you and many of your friends. The fare, however, will be solid theological meat. Tasty, we trust, and well seasoned, but spiritually healthful.

THE LENTEN QUIET EVENING FOR MEN will be from 5 to 9 on Saturday. That will be S. Patrick's Day. It seems hard to imagine any sight that would so touch the Irish heart of that saint (only he was Scotch) as the chapel well populated with men,—all of them quiet,—and giving themselves to the improvement of the state of their souls. A fine way to honor S. Patrick, and we look for a large number of our lads, regardless of age,—to be there,—honoring S. Patrick and taking a good look at themselves and their spiritual deficiencies. The P. P. will give the addresses. Make dinner reservations now with the Priests or the Sisters.

THE VESTRY will meet at the Clergy House on Tuesday at 4:30. Being the first meeting after the Parish Meeting, it will be the annual organizational session. Officers and committees will be elected or appointed.

THE APPEAL OF NASHOTAH HOUSE this year has been somewhat more fruitful than in recent years. Your Father Rector is deeply grateful that the response on Theological Education Sunday and the following Sundays is now just $800.00! Checks totalling this amount have been sent to Nashotah and a letter of sincere appreciation has been received from Dean Klein, addressed to the Parish. You will be pleased to know, further, that in February the Vestry voted to pledge to the Building Program of Nashotah House the sum of $1000.00 on behalf of S. Clement's Church. It will be paid at the rate of $100 each year. Future payments will be made only with the approval of the Vestry then in office. During the Decade of Development Nashotah hopes to raise FIVE MILLION DOLLARS for buildings and endowment,—all of which can easily be used for additions and improvements. Later on, some of you will be asked to make gifts or pledges to this fund, and it is hoped you will respond favorably.

THE LENTEN EMBER DAYS are this week, when you are asked to pray especially for seminarians and for more men to respond to the vocation to Holy Orders. Wednesday, Friday and Saturday are the Ember Days and days of Fast and Abstinence.

BAKE SALE NEXT SUNDAY! Yes, during Lent, and some of you are surprised. In the first place Sunday never is a Fast-day. In the second place, you eat something even on the Lenten weekdays, and what you eat might as well come from S. Clement's as a super-market. And so, bake some goodies to be sold and then buy some goodies that somebody else baked. Economically, this is silly,—but, it works. The hours of sale will be after the 9:15 and 11 o'clock Masses. Sponsored by the Women of S. Clement's for the benefit of their several good works.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT! The cope of the new solemn white set of vestments has arrived. Ordered a year ago, the set is being made by the Warham Guild in London. The cope, magnificently embroidered, and cut from rich damask, will be on exhibition in S. John's Chapel after Solemn Mass today, and the meaning of the symbols and heraldry will be explained. The donor, who has done much for the supply of vestments at S. Clement's Church, is Mrs. William Osborn Baker.

Parish Notes

THE REVEREND FATHER ALBERT J. DUBOIS, Canon Missioner of the Diocese of Long Island, returns today for the second in his series of sermons at S. Clement's. Following his excellent sermon of last Sunday, based on the collect for Ash Wednesday, his next chapter is eagerly anticipated. His third appearance in our pulpit within this season will be on Passion Sunday, April 8th.

ON A WEEK FROM TODAY we shall have a newcomer to S. Clement's, the REVEREND FATHER J. V. LANGMEAD CASSERLY, D.Litt., Professor of Apologetics at Seabury-Western Seminary. Dr. Casserly is well known to those that read Church publications. Among his books are "The Bent World" and "No Faith of My Own", and his articles have appeared in various Church magazines. He is on the Editorial Committee of "The American Church Quarterly" and is one of the principal literary contributors to that journal. A native of London, and educated in England, Dr. Casserly is a brilliant speaker. In view of his heavy bookings for addresses, S. Clement's is fortunate to have him travel from Evanston to Philadelphia to be with us on two Sundays.

LAST SUNDAY saw a marked increase in attendance at Solemn Mass. Yet, most of the many visitors attended of their own volition. Not many parishioners brought guests with them. Perhaps you have friends with you today. If you have, good for you! This type of evangelism is part of our parochial plan for Lent 1962. Won't you cooperate with this plan next Sunday? Above all, do attend the Solemn Mass yourself and try not to come all alone.

AN ILLUSTRATED TALK on the Church in Latin America will be given on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Parish Hall. Miss May Lilly, our gifted Clementine speaker, will tell us this fascinating story. This is another of our Open Meetings for both men and women, sponsored by the Women of S. Clement's. Entirely appropriate as Lenten diversion, the program should attract a goodly number of our parishioners and their friends.

ANOTHER DIALOGUE SERMON by the Reverend Father John A. Schultz and your Father Rector will be given on Friday evening at 8 o'clock at Stations and Benediction. Inasmuch as this leaflet will be printed before the first of the Dialogue Sermons has been given, nothing can be reported on its success. However, on the basis of the interest manifested in the series, substantial support of the services is expected. A word of caution is in order. Even though this leaflet and the parish-letter and the publicity in "The Church News" have laid heavy emphasis on sermons and preachers during Lent at S. Clement's, the basic motive for attending our services, either Sundays or Fridays, is the worship of Almighty God. The instruction is of high value and it should stir the hearers to more earnest submission to God's will and to deeper devotion. Sometimes a sermon becomes a spring-board from which a fresh start is made in the practice of one's religion, and sometimes even calls a careless Churchman back to regularity in worship and in receiving the Sacraments. These all are good possibilities; they are the reasons for the enlarged schedule of preachers this Lent. Let us never minimize the value of sermons, but let us always be worshippers first.

GOOD NEWS FOR 1964! The annual Parish Meeting on March 5th was by far the best the Parish has experienced. The supper provided a pleasant, sociable beginning and the meeting showed deep concern for the Parish's welfare. The retiring Vestrymen, Dr. Ward and Messrs. Cooper, Clark and Mattis were re-elected to office without opposition. A good bit of time was spent on discussing plans for the 100th anniversary of the Consecration of the Church in 1964. There was unanimous and enthusiastic approval of the suggestion of a preaching mission. The Reverend Father J. Colin Stephenson, Administrator of the Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham, replying to an invitation, has written that he will be able to come from England to give us the mission. The favored dates, by him and by us, are the week between the Feasts of Christ the King and All Saints. More of this later. It is good for us to know now that this international leader of Anglo-Catholicism, will be our Father Missioner.

THE SHROVE TUESDAY storm not only hindered some penitents from reaching S. Clement's but performed some physical damage to the property. A metal trap door on the roof of the tower was blown off and smashed. A large window on the east side of the tower was blown in and broken to bits and the opening admitted piles of snow. We are fortunate not to have suffered worse damage. Deo Gratias.

Parish Notes

THE REVEREND FATHER J. V. LANGMEAD CASSERLY, D.Litt., is our guest this morning. S. Clement's welcomes him and is honored to have him be the preacher. He is at present Professor of Apologetics at Seabury-Western Seminary after having been for eight years Professor of Dogmatic Theology at General Theological Seminary. Born and educated in London, Father Casserly is a writer and lecturer of distinction. He will again occupy our pulpit a week from today.

TOMORROW IS LADY DAY. In addition to Low Masses there will be a Solemn Mass at 6:15 p.m. Let our congregation assemble to celebrate this great festival of the Incarnation. And also, remember the 12:10 Mass every Wednesday noon.

THE THIRD AND FINAL DIALOGUE SERMON will be given Friday evening at Stations and Benediction. We are indeed grateful to the REVEREND FATHER SCHULTZ for coming in from Ambler to uphold the Faith while your Father Rector has feigned attacks on the same. The subject this week will be Christian Morals and it is hoped the parishioners will give the service substantial support themselves and will invite others to come with them.

THE ANNUAL RETREAT FOR WOMEN will be given next Sunday. The ideal schedule is to attend the 8 o'clock Mass for Holy Communion, after which a light breakfast will be provided. Some prefer to start the day with the 9:15 Mass and Holy Communion, but there will not be time for breakfast before the first address at 9:50. The second and third addresses will be at 2 and 3:15. The conductor will be the Father Rector. Reservations for breakfast and dinner should be made with the Sisters. Benediction will close the day at 4 o'clock.

ARE YOU FILLING YOUR LENTEN FOLDERS? The self-denial offering can be significant in your keeping of Lent if you make offerings daily or weekly rather than wait until the season is about to end. It is hoped this year that every parishioner will use the folder. The offering will be given to our Missionary Quota—a most appropriate Lenten project.

S. MARGARET'S HOUSE, Germantown, announces two events. A Quiet Day for Women, Tuesday, April 3. Mass at 8:30. First address at 10:15. Day closes at 3:15. Conductor: the Reverend Father George W. Davison. A Quiet Evening for Women, Saturday, April 7, from 4:30 to 9. Conductor: the Reverend Father Walter E. Frieman, Th.D. For reservations, call VI 4-4612.

PLANS FOR PUTTING our property and equipment in good order before the 1964 Centennial include a long list. There will be plastering, painting, plumbing, lighting and many other things. Also many smaller items are to be provided. It is to these that your attention is now called. Sometimes your Clergy are asked to suggest a not-too-expensive gift for the Church. Here are some things that are needed; some are already ordered. Small gifts will be greatly appreciated. It is hoped that some of you will wish to furnish one or more of the following:

Linen for 10 acolytes' cottas—about $5.00 each, or a total of $50.00.

Material for 30 choir cottas—about $2.50 each, or a total of $75.00.

(The making of both of these items will be donated.)

Two cope-stands (one for each sacristy) @ $23.50, or a total of $47.00.

Re-silvering and repairs to the large monstrance, $75.00.

114 red kneelers for the side aisles @ $3.35.

Eight electric fixtures for S. John's Chapel @ $25.00, or a total of $200.00.

(The wiring in the chapel is defective and must be replaced. This is the time, then, to install fixtures that will provide more adequate light.)

An electric light fixture for the upper sacristy to replace the single bulb now in use, $100.00.

(The sacristy is to be painted. The electric work should be completed before the painting is begun.)

The last item on this list (more may appear later) is a larger one. Five ranks of organ pipes have not been usable for several years because of faulty air-ducts. To make this repair will cost $1600. If all of this is not received in one gift perhaps several would like to make partial provision. Actually we need a completely new organ, costing from 50 to 60 thousands of dollars. This is beyond our present apparent expectation. Therefore the repair is regarded as urgent.

Parish Notes

TODAY THE REVEREND J. V. LANGMEAD CASSERLY will deliver his second and last sermon at S. Clement's,—last, that is, during this Lent. We are deeply grateful to Father Casserly for twice making the long jaunt from Evanston to Logan Square in order to give us the benefit of his theological erudition. Next Sunday the REVEREND CANON DUBOIS will return for the peroration of his series of three sermons. It's your last chance to invite your guests to hear our guests.

THE ANNUAL RETREAT FOR WOMEN is being held today. Because of the silence which the women maintain during this spiritual exercise the coffee hour will be omitted. All persons attending services this morning are asked to restrict conversation in the corridor to a minimum, especially between the 9:15 and 11 o'clock Masses. During that period the first retreat-address will be given after which the retreatants are expected to make their initial meditation. For this they should have the benefit of quiet.

BENEDICTION will be given at 4 o'clock this afternoon, mainly as the conclusion to the retreat, but any parishioners who wish to attend are quite free to do so.

THE PASSIONTIDE QUIET EVENING FOR MEN will be held at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont, on Saturday from 5 to 9. The conductor will be the Reverend Father Herbert Hawkins, O.H.C. For dinner reservations call LA 5-2241. It is sponsored by the Catholic Laymen's Union. All men are welcome.

ON WEDNESDAY EVENING, your Father Rector will preach at S. Luke's Church, Germantown. The mid-week Evensong is part of the Lenten program of that parish.

THE PACKET OF 36 envelopes for the Centennial Fund, recently distributed within the Parish, undoubtedly was a surprise to many of you. Only those that had attended the Annual Parish Meeting were informed in advance of the plan. The letter accompanying the envelopes explains the purpose; repetition in the leaflet is hardly needed. The plan, suggested by the Centennial Committee and authorized by the Vestry, is highly practical. No pledges are requested; people give what they wish and can give. The monthly amount may vary. The suggestion of $1.00 a month is only a suggestion. Some will give less, some will give more. The important aspect of the plan is that it enables every family to share in providing a fund which is sorely needed for a specific purpose. To save on expenses, only one packet has been given to a family. If more than one person in a household wishes to contribute,—all the members of the family may place their gifts in one envelope. And of course, gifts may be placed in any other envelope which has been marked "Centennial Fund". From time to time reports on progress will be published. You all will be interested in seeing the Fund grow, and grow, and grow!

FRIDAY EVENING of this week will see the resumption of the Question Box at Stations and Benediction. That is, there will be answers from the pulpit providing there are questions in the box. It is not quite cricket for the preacher to stuff the box with his own questions, as sometimes is done in parishes where the people are reticent in making queries. Last year the questions were the work of the people. And what provocative questions they were! Let us keep up that standard for the coming two Fridays.

S. CLEMENT'S PARISH TOUR of the Seamen's Church Institute will be held next Sunday, April 8th. All the tourists are asked to be at the Institute, 1222 Locust St., promptly at 2:30. Some may wish to bring a box-lunch to eat after the Solemn Mass. The coffee hour will provide the beverage and cookies.

Parish Notes

WE EXTEND a cordial welcome to the Reverend CANON ALBERT J. DUBOIS as he returns to S. Clement's for his third visit this Lent. We express regret, however, that this is his last sermon in this series of three. The parishioners and our visitors have manifested deep gratitude for his excellent delineations of the Holy Word. We look forward to his returning for a similar series at some time in the future. This brings to a conclusion our program of special Lenten preachers and we, as a Parish, wish to express our appreciation to Dr. Casserly, Canon duBois and Father Schultz for their considerable contribution to the uplifted spiritual tone of Lent 1962 at S. Clement's. Our next visitors will be the Reverend Father Alfred Q. Plank who will help us during Holy Week and the Reverend William E. Danforth who will be a Deacon of the Solemn Passion on Palm Sunday and Good Friday.

ON PALM SUNDAY the children will not attend the 9:15 Mass and will not have classes. They will attend the 11 o'clock Solemn Mass so that they, too, with their parents may share in the glorious liturgical drama of the Palm Procession and the Mass of Our Lord's Passion.

THE VESTRY will meet at 4:30 Tuesday afternoon at the Clergy House.

ON MONDAY EVENING your Father Rector will conduct a Quiet Hour for men and women at S. Mark's Church, Frankford.

CONTRIBUTIONS for Easter Charities and Easter Flowers may now be given either to the Priests or the Sisters. Inasmuch as both must be purchased somewhat in advance of the festival your early gifts will be appreciated.

THIS IS THE SEASON for turning in your Lenten Self-denial Offering. You have been accumulating this day by day, or week by week, during the entire season; it should soon be completed and ready for the alms basin. This fund will be applied against our Missionary Quota of $7,551.00. S. Clement's for years has had many special collections for various stated purposes. The congregation is accustomed to them and expects them. To do justice with them, however, it is necessary to keep up to date. Better get the Lenten Offering in good shape now, for the Easter Offering will very soon be the order.

HOW ARE YOU DOING in maintaining your Lenten Rule? Only two weeks remain for you to make progress. Dr. Casserly, in his first sermon at S. Clement's, stressed the three aspects of the season: penitential, disciplinary and contemplative. If Easter is to mean to you a day of spiritual and moral victory preparation for it must be made along these lines. Take full advantage of these closing days of the season. Begin to think and examine yourselves now for your pre-Easter confession, and plan your resolution of amendment. Anticipation of this act of great mercy on God's part,—His generous and loving absolution,—is a significant spiritual exercise. In line with the Resurrection from the dead, the sacramental forgiveness is a raising of the faithful penitents to a new life,—to a new beginning. In part, it is like the benefits of Holy Baptism—so closely associated with Easter. The greatest days of the entire Christian year are immediately before you. They invite you to a newness of life. Be ready for them.

THIS AFTERNOON AT 2:30 Clementines will tour the Seamen's Church Institute. All making the tour are asked to assemble at the Institute, 1222 Locust Street, promptly at 2:30.

SOLEMN BLESSING AND DISTRIBUTION OF PALMS

HYMNS—All glory, laud, and honor No. 62

Ride on, ride on in majesty No. 64

INTROIT—Domine, ne longe. O Lord, remove not thy succour afar from me; have respect to my defence, and hear me: deliver me from the mouth of the lion; yea, from the horns of the unicorns hast thou regarded my cry.

PSALM—My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me: and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

O Lord, remove not . . .

KYRIE ELEISON—Missa Secunda Hans Leo Hasler

GRADUAL—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone: my treadings had well nigh slipt. And—why, I was grieved at the wicked: I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT—My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? And art so far from my health: and from the words of my complaint? O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them.
They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man: a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying; He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him.
They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born:
whom the Lord hath made.

Copies of "THE ORDER FOR HOLY WEEK, the Revised Rites for Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday & Holy Saturday" are at the Tract Rack. A new shipment has just arrived from London. Only 30¢ a copy.

THE SOLEMNITY OF HOLY WEEK hardly can be over emphasized. These are days that are solemn, yes, but not days of long faced lugubriosity. Those of you who made the parish retreats for men and women know what is meant by beata passio,—the blessed or happy passion. We are so profoundly thankful for the fact of redemption,—thankful that Our Lord has accomplished the atonement, that we truly rejoice in the events of this week. We are deeply sorry that Our Lord suffered and died because of our sins; we are moved to contrition because we have failed Him. But our more dominant attitude should be: Thanks be to Jesus for our Redemption. Deo gratias.

LET US TAKE THINGS IN PROPER ORDER. We follow Our Lord through the humiliations,—the human disappointments of the early part of Holy Week. On Maundy Thursday we go with Him and the Apostles to the Upper Room for the institution of His most precious Gift to the Church,—the Holy Sacrament of His Body and Blood. In His words we hear the forboding of sacrificial death; and yet we also hear beyond the words of that day and know that this institution means that through all the ages of time Our Lord will be present with the faithful in his divine and human natures wherever the Blessed Sacrament is. This institution which commemorates His Death also commemorates His Incarnation. Deo gratias.

ON GOOD FRIDAY we are in the Church from 12 to 3 to keep a vigil of honor for the hours He hung on the Cross. The Mass of the Presanctified is a liturgical portrayal of the Passion and Death. In order most intimately to share in the Passion we receive Holy Communion on this, the day of His Passion. Even on Good Friday with its heavy overtone of grief, we see ahead. In the distance we see the Third Day and we know victory is beyond the grave. Deo gratias.

THE VIGIL OF EASTER at 10 on Saturday night is an historical and liturgical commentary on Easter,—the Old Testament preparation, and Baptism's close tie to Easter. The climactic sequence to the Vigil is the First Mass of Easter itself. The rite still is offered in its curious, telescoped, primitive form. And it is as exciting as a liturgical function can be exciting. The Resurrection itself is a curious phenomenon,—the Son of God and Mary rising from His grave by His own power! THIS MIRACLE CALLS FOR AN UNUSUAL RITE. The call is jubilantly fulfilled in the First Mass at Midnight. Deo gratias.

THE CULMINATION OF THE WEEK is the Solemn Mass on Easter morning at 11. Preceded by a Solemn Procession,—singing the praises of the Risen Lord,—this truly is the most glorious moment in the Christian year. Again, Deo gratias.

* * * *

DELIVERY OF THE MASS VESTMENTS that complement the cope already displayed, is promised us so that we shall have them by Easter. We are prepared to rush to the Customs Office at a moment's notice. We hope to initiate the set at 11 o'clock Easter Day.

THE CHILDREN OF THE PARISH will have their Easter Party next Sunday during the usual hour of their instruction classes. Parents, please note.

GIFTS FOR THE EASTER charities and flowers are now in order. They may be given to the Sisters or the Priests.

WE HAVE HAD A WONDERFUL LENT at S. Clement's. Holy Week, following all this helpful preparation, should be even more wonderful. And it will be if EACH of you will give yourself to the opportunities of worship, of self-examination, of confession and finally the Easter Holy Communion.

Parish Notes

THE REVEREND FATHER MALCOLM DEPUY MAYNARD, Superior General of the Guild of All Souls, is our guest this morning and will preach the sermon at Solemn Mass. During the many years that Father Maynard was Dean of All Saints' Cathedral, Milwaukee, he and your Father Rector were neighbors and good friends. We are most pleased to have him at S. Clement's today and hope he will return to us many times.

THE 178th ANNUAL CONVENTION of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be held tomorrow and Tuesday at Holy Trinity Church. The service at 8 o'clock Monday evening, when the Bishop delivers his charge to the Diocese, is open to the public and it is hoped Clementines will be present. Your prayers are asked that the Convention will be guided in its deliberations by God the Holy Spirit. Deputies from S. Clement's Parish to the Convention are: Messrs. Henry Hagert, Frederick Cooper and William Pike; Alternate Deputies are Paul A. Casey, Thomas H. Clark and Dr. Roland Holroyd.

THE REVEREND EDWARD GEORGE HARRIS, D.D., on Thursday afternoon will be installed the tenth Dean of the Philadelphia Divinity School in S. Andrew's Collegiate Chapel. Your prayers for him and the seminary are requested. Your Father Rector, representing the Yarnall Library of Theology of S. Clement's Church, will be in the academic procession.

MR. SILL will play an organ recital at 4 o'clock a week from this afternoon. The program is in the Eastertide Kalender. The collection will be used toward the cost of sending the choir boys to camp this summer. Has not our choir's singing been of exceptional quality during Lent? And wasn't the Mozart on Easter Day done impeccably? Surely the boys deserve an outing of exceptional quality.

HELP! HELP! FOR THE CLERGY HOUSE. Who knows how to splice the ends of a rope? For several weeks the dumb waiter has been completely dumb,—unusable. The old rope was worn to shreds and has been replaced by a fine new rope,—but the two ends of the rope await being put together. Many inquiries have been made but we have not found a person who knows the art. The splicing must be done so that at the place of fusion, the rope is not larger in diameter than it is in its unspliced section. Can any parishioner help, or does anyone know an available splicer?

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. Dr. and Mrs. Alger Ward supplied the candles before the Blessed Sacrament and at the Lady Shrine last week with intention for the repose of the soul of the Reverend Father Ernest Edmund Seyzinger, C.R. May he rest in peace.

THE PARISH OFFERS PROFOUND THANKSGIVING to Almighty God for a most beautiful Holy Week. The best part of the week was the devotion of the people,—their sincerity at worship, and their large numbers. The people's devotion was wonderfully supported by the faultless music of the liturgy and the dignified spirit of the acolytes. To our choir and our servers we offer our gratitude. It was a Holy Week we cannot soon forget.

A MOST HANDSOME GIFT in memory of Mrs. George Day has been received by the Parish. It is a Luna Holder, designed and executed by Louis Glasier of New York, to hold the luna of the new monstrance provided by the bequest of Richard C. Martin. Like the monstrance it is gold over sterling with a silver cross its single ornament. Its use is to hold, within the tabernacle, the luna with the Sacred Host, used at Benediction. It is a very beautiful and practical addition to our equipment. It is inscribed "To the greater glory of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and in loving memory of Elizabeth H. Day, 1880-1961, R.I.P. S. Clement's Church, Philadelphia." The luna holder is the gift of George W. Day, Miss Elsie Williams and Mrs. Anthony Smoluk.

Parish Notes

IT IS HOPED that most of you at Mass this morning, reading the above program, will return this afternoon for the Recital. It is Mr. Sill's contribution, not only to the cultural life of the Parish, but also to the fund for the benefit of the choir boys' camp. On both bases, that of its musical merit and that of its monetary favor, it deserves the support of parishioners. After the recital an informal reception will be held in the Parish Hall.

ON TUESDAY EVENING at 8 in the Parish House will be the last of this season's programs planned for all of the Parish and sponsored by the Women of S. Clement's. The subject of the evening is fascinating and the speaker very able. Mrs. Odell Prather, for eleven years designer for Willet Stained Glass Studio of Philadelphia, but now a free-lance designer, will speak on "Contemporary Trends in Stained Glass" and will also show slides of European churches with emphasis on contemporary structures. In Europe and in this country she has appeared on several panels which discussed various aspects of sacred art. These "open meetings" this year have not enjoyed the support they deserve and it is very keenly desired that many of our men and women will be present on Tuesday evening.

A QUIET DAY for women will be held at S. Margaret's House on Tuesday, May 22nd. Mass at 8:30; first address at 10:15; day closes at 3:15. The conductor will be the Reverend Father E. Paul Jowett. Register early by telephoning VI 4-4612.

THE REVEREND MOTHER Alicia Theresa of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity will visit the Mission House from Monday through Friday of this week. This will be her first visit here as Mother Superior and we are saddened that it probably will also be her last one.

NEWS NOTE. The U. S. Navy came to the rescue of the Clergy House and successfully spliced the rope. The dumb waiter is now operating with the greatest of ease.

Parish Notes

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA will meet on Tuesday of this week. The sessions will be at S. Matthew's Church, 18th Street and Girard Avenue, the Mother Parish of S. Clement's Church. For this reason alone, Clementines should be present to manifest their filial loyalty. The Women's Meeting will open at 4:30, the Convocation Meeting and election of officers will be at 5:15. Dinner will be served at 6:30 and Evensong will be at 7:30. Reservations for the dinner, at $1.50, must be made as soon as possible, today or at the very latest tomorrow. Telephone the rector of S. Matthew's Church, the Rev. Dr. W. Roulston McKean at CE 2-7644. This notice should have been published in last week's leaflet but that leaflet was already in print before the official notice was received at the Clergy House! Anyone wishing to know what happens at these meetings may make inquiry of Mr. Cooper, who nearly always attends them. Perhaps you can arrange a car-pool and thus solve transportation problems.

THE PRESIDING BISHOP'S FUND FOR WORLD RELIEF is now being collected. This is a worthy project of charity, described in a little folder available, free, at the tract racks. Also available there are envelopes for offerings toward this fund. The envelopes may be placed on the alms basins.

YOUR FATHER RECTOR will be absent from the Parish for the coming fortnight. Immediately after a quick brunch this noon he will head for the west, stopping tonight at Pittsburgh, Monday night in Flossmore, a suburb of Chicago, and Tuesday night at Nashotah House. On Wednesday he will go farther north in Wisconsin to visit old friends here and there. On Tuesday the 22nd he will return to Nashotah for the Trustee and Alumni meetings and commencement. With our two seminarians, Jack and Paul, as passengers, he will start for home on Thursday afternoon and be back at S. Clement's for Sunday the 27th. This is a fairly close schedule; you will be doing an act of charity if you pray for the car and its driver on this extensive excursion.

THE REVEREND FATHER ALFRED Q. PLANK will return to S. Clement's this week to assist Father Davis on the coming days when he otherwise would be alone in the Parish. On his several visits here Father Plank has made many friends among our parishioners and they will be happy that he will again be with them.

ANNOUNCEMENT MAY NOW BE MADE that Mr. Paul E. Hons, candidate for Holy Orders from S. Clement's, upon being ordained Deacon early this summer, will be Vicar of the Church of S. Mary of the Annunciation, Wilbard and Memphis Streets in the North Philadelphia Convocation. The congregation is made up mainly of persons of Italian background. Even though English is the language of the public services, Paul will study Italian this summer in order to establish the most complete rapport with his people. The Diocese expects to buy a small house next to the Church for a Vicarage. The retiring Vicar is the Reverend Father Silvio Guido Biagini, a native of Rome, Italy. His record of ministry almost matches that of the late Father Joiner in that each became an incumbent in 1920 and each had but one cure. Father Biagini, then, has been Vicar of S. Mary of the Annunciation for forty-two years! What a wonderfully long ministry within one congregation. He will continue to live in his own home in the neighborhood and will offer Mass for the people on Sundays until Mr. Hons becomes Father Hons.

ENGLISH MISSALS. A new shipment of the people's edition of the English Missal has arrived and is for sale at the Religious Goods counter, at $5.00 a copy.

Parish Notes

WE ARE AT THAT SEASON of the year when, as a Parish, we make an offering to the American Church Union. Each spring a collection is taken for that organization and each year we try to send a little more than we did the previous year. This time we have assured the ACU of $1100 from S. Clement's. Between the Parish budget and private subscriptions $750 have been provided. Thus we yet have to raise $350 and it is for this that we now appeal to our parishioners. S. Clement's people do not need to be told of the great contribution the ACU continually makes to upbuilding and underscoring the Catholic life of the Church. They already know this and value it. Their only question is that of how much they can afford to give. You should be reminded of this circumstance, i.e., the usual slump in memberships and in gifts in each year just following a General Convention. When vital issues are scheduled for debate and for the ballot at General Convention, people are roused to the point of sacrificial giving of funds to uphold the Faith, and to disseminate information. Actually there are opportunities in these off-convention years which are just as great as those in the convention years. But this lethargy causes heavy problems for the ACU, and living within its income becomes a neat trick. Do not let the post-convention lethargy overcome you;—rather, multiply your efforts to give generously toward this wonderful, Catholic missionary project. Mr. Cooper is our Parish chairman. Please make checks payable to S. Clement's Church, and please consider this notice as a personal appeal to you.

ON THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK John W. T. Weise will be graduated from Nashotah House and is nearly ready to be ordained deacon. Paul E. Hons is a special student at Nashotah, having spent one year there to supplement his earlier theological training. Both have made very satisfactory records at Nashotah House and the Parish may well take pride in her sons-about-to-be-priests. Your prayers on their behalf are requested. Who will be the next Clementine candidate for Holy Orders?

TUESDAY OF THIS WEEK, the 22nd, will mark the 35th anniversary of the ordination to the priesthood of both the Reverend Father Davis and your Father Rector. The suggestion was made from the pulpit two years ago, when the anniversary fell on a Sunday, that a big celebration be held on the 35th observance. But here we are, widely separated and a ceremonial celebration is out of the question. However, Father Davis will offer Mass at S. Clement's Tuesday morning at 7. Attend if you can, but if that is not feasible at least offer your prayers for your priests. Your Father Rector will offer Mass on Tuesday at the altar where he was priested. He was ordained in his native Parish, Grace Church, Sheboygan, by the then Bishop of Springfield, the Rt. Rev. John Chanler White, acting with the permission of the Bishop of Fond du Lac. On the same day Father Davis and the Reverend Father Francis F. E. Blake, Vicar of the Chapel of the Holy Communion on Wharton Street, were ordained at S. Paul's Cathedral, Fond du Lac, by the then Bishop of Fond du Lac, the Rt. Rev. Reginald Heber Weller. The ordinations took place on the Sunday following the graduation exercises of that year, 1927.

ADVANCE NOTICE is given that on two weeks from today the preacher at Solemn Mass will be the Reverend Father Christopher Rex Bryant, S.S.J.E., Superior of S. Edward's House, London. That will be Religious Life Sunday and we are fortunate to have an eminent religious visit us for the occasion. Note also, please, that a week from Thursday will be Ascension Day. It will be the day immediately following the national holiday, Memorial Day. Do plan now to be present, if possible, at the Solemn Mass at 6:15 p.m.

A TARDY THANK-YOU is offered to the S.C.Y.O. for menial tasks willingly undertaken in preparation for Easter. The work of extra cleaning, scrubbing, polishing, washing was planned and executed by the boys and girls,—all to manifest the glistering glory of the Resurrection!

Parish Notes

THIS WEEK WE OBSERVE Rogationtide with its deeply moving prayers for God's blessing upon the spring planting of the seed. In ancient days there were many Rogation Days through the year,—some of them on set dates and some appointed as crises arose. All that remain are the S. Mark's Rogation on April 25th and these three days preceding Ascension Thursday. Formerly the Litany was sung as the Clergy and people moved in procession from one Church to the appointed Station Church where Holy Mass was offered. On Monday and Tuesday the Litany of the Saints will be recited before the 7 o'clock Mass and on Wednesday before the 9:30 Mass. In each case the Mass following the Litany will be that of Rogationtide. The Mass of S. Augustine of Canterbury will be offered at 9:30 Monday, and that of the Vigil of the Ascension at 7 on Wednesday.

THE ASCENSION OF OUR LORD will be celebrated on Thursday. The usual Low Masses will be at 7 and 8, and the Solemn Mass will be at 6:15 p.m., preceded by the Novena Devotions at 5:45. This glorious culmination of Our Lord's earthly life is a most beautiful festival. Everybody will be in holiday mood on Wednesday when schools and business houses will be closed for the national Memorial Day. Take advantage of the hours for relaxation but be on your guard against allowing the spirit of vacation to carry over to Thursday. Every parishioner, young and old, is encouraged to attend the Solemn Mass at 6:15 and there offer solemn thanksgiving for Our Lord's ascending to His position of supreme honor as King of the heavenly realms,—King of the universe. "The head that once was crowned with thorns Is crowned with glory now; A royal diadem adorns The mighty victor's brow."

THE REVEREND FATHER CHRISTOPHER REX BRYANT, S.S.J.E., Superior of S. Edward's House, London, will be our guest next weekend. Visiting the Cowley monastery in Cambridge, Mass., Fr. Bryant is kindly coming to us for a few days and his presence here will do much to emphasize the significance of Religious Life Sunday. This will be an appropriate time to invite to the Solemn Mass friends that are interested in the religious life.

THE ANNUAL ACOLYTES FESTIVAL, sponsored by the Catholic Clerical Union, will be held on Saturday at S. Luke's Church, Kensington. The procession of Clergy and Acolytes will start at 9:30 from the Chapel of Episcopal Hospital and the Solemn Mass will be at 10. The preacher will be the Reverend Father William J. Alberts, Rector of Christ Church, Media. Last year, at the Church of the Savior more than 650 were in attendance and it is hoped to keep up or exceed this record. Clementines, rise to the occasion; let us have a good representation.

A QUIET EVENING will be conducted at S. Margaret's House for women that are members of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament on Wednesday, June 6th. Meditations at 5:15 and 7:15; Holy Hour from 8 to 9. Conductor: the Reverend Father Robert W. Hill, Rector-elect of S. Luke's, Germantown. Please notify our Ward Secretary, Miss Elizabeth Barton. Early registration is advised for the number of retreatants is necessarily limited.

SEVERAL WEEKS AGO the leaflet published a list of things needed to complete our equipment, ranging all the way from small, inexpensive items to a new pipe organ. The Parish is grateful that the response thus far (the time of writing this copy is May 9th) includes the following:

Re-silvering and repairing of the large monstrance, provided by Miss Florence Burrows-Pegg;

Material for 30 cottas for choir boys and men, provided by Mr. Thomas D. Gravell;

Cope stands for each sacristy, provided by Mrs. William O. Baker.

Linen for acolytes' cottas was bought and is being made into cottas but there is no donor. We trust one will turn up.

This is good beginning! You are referred to the leaflet for March 25th.

HAVE YOU ENROLLED as A PATRON OF S. CLEMENT'S MUSIC—1962? Subscription to this fund is simply an outward sign of appreciation of the rare privilege that is ours in hearing the liturgy offered to Almighty God with unique artistry and deep devotion. We are fortunate to share in the hearing. This is the final week for submitting names for the program.

Parish Notes

THE SUNDAY AFTER ASCENSION for the past several years has been designated by the Conference on the Religious Life as Religious Life Sunday. S. Clement's has been happy to cooperate with this plan by offering prayers for the religious and having a sermon on the subject. For many decades the life of holy religion has been close to the heart of S. Clement's Parish. Probably the foundation of this loyalty to the religious was laid by the magnificent missionary endeavor and pastoral zeal of the Cowley Fathers during their pastorate. They withdrew from the Parish about seventy years ago but the solid effect of their loving work goes on and on. Three communities of women have been associated with this Parish,—All Saints Sisters of the Poor, the Society of S. Margaret and the Sisters of the Holy Nativity. In each case close bonds have been established and the ministrations of the religious have been and now are a marked influence on parishioners. Not only have many young ladies of the Parish entered the religious life but many men and women are Associates of one or another of the various communities, and carry into parochial life the high principles of living by a rule. There has been a two-way stream of loving benefits: the Parish has given much but it has gained more. There hardly is a Parish in the country that can more appropriately observe Religious Life Sunday. We have much for which to be thankful and we look forward to continued devotional association with the religious.

WE EXTEND OUR WELCOME to the Reverend Father Christopher Rex Bryant, S.S.J.E., Superior of S. Edward's House, London. We are happy to have him with us for a few days, and particularly pleased to have him preach the sermon on this rather special day.

JOHN W. P. WEISE will be ordained Deacon on Saturday, June 9th at 10:00 a.m. at the Church of the Holy Apostle and Mediator, 51st and Spruce Streets. All members of S. Clement's Parish are cordially invited to attend. Paul Hons will be ordained in July.

THE PENTECOST CHOIR CONCERT will be next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. In writing these weekly notes, your Father Rector is often tempted to take up the role of music critic because of the many good things he would like to have publicized regarding our choir. It seems to him that the standard of our Sunday by Sunday music is so invariably and dependably of superior rank that we are indeed a blessed congregation. Boy choirs usually fluctuate because of changing voices and the consequent changes in personnel. The past few years, and particularly this season, we have attained an enviably high point and held it. Have you observed the increased repertoire of Masses? This year there was even added, in response to many requests, the elaborate Gounod work, Messe de Pâques. The music is offered to the glory of Almighty God, and we should hope its beauty is as pleasing to Him as it is to our human ears. We look forward with eagerness to next Sunday's concert! Today is your last opportunity to enroll as a Patron of S. Clement's Music.

THE COLLECTION at the concert will be given to the Choir Boys' Camp Fund. The summer camp has been one of the great aids in building a group of loyal boys. The boys deserve the outing as a treat from grateful parishioners. However, be it remembered that in the long run S. Clement's Parish makes a large gain in providing the camp, for through this summer outing we attract boys and thus develop the choir. And some of our loyal, regular young communicants are boys who have learned the Faith only because first they came to sing. Therefore, the summer outing is a most important project,—far more important than being mere entertainment for deserving youths. It is very substantially helping to build a choir and develop this cell of God's Kingdom.

Parish Notes

PENTECOST is a most glorious festival. It is both the commemoration of the descent of God the Holy Ghost, and also a unique festival of the Church itself. It marks the Church's being endowed with the power of the Holy Ghost for carrying out the mandates proclaimed by Our Blessed Lord. Whitsunday is a challenge to the Church of our generation. It ranks in the Church Kalendar with Christmas and Easter, but in distinction from those festivals it receives no support or emphasis from the commercial world. Pentecost does not suggest greeting cards, flowers, candy or gifts. In the secular cycle, therefore, Whitsunday is no different from other Sundays. The challenge to Churchmen and Churchwomen, then, is to make Pentecost just as important in their lives as are Christmas and Easter. Can this be done without the benefit of gimmicks similar to those with which the other great festivals are surrounded? Of course, it CAN be done, but only by DOING it. Confession, Holy Communion and assisting at Solemn Mass,—by the entire congregation,—these are the basic steps.

PART OF OUR PAROCHIAL celebration of Pentecost for the past few years has been our Choir Concert. This afternoon at 4 the concert will be given. This is an entirely suitable special event for this Holy Day, and one which should have the moral, spiritual and material support of every parishioner. It is an event which should attract the music-loving public of this rather generally music-loving community. The excellent program will be given by our choir of boys and men, a string orchestra, harpsichord and organ. The concert will be directed by Mr. Sill, assisted by Mr. Henry Cook of S. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill. If you have not already planned on attending, you are encouraged to be here and to invite others who appreciate the best in music. A reception will be held in the Parish Hall after the concert.

THE VESTRY will meet at 4:30 on Tuesday in the Clergy House.

THE ASSOCIATES OF THE SISTERS of the Holy Nativity will give a party on Saturday afternoon in honor of our Mission Sisters. Assembling at 3:30 for Benediction, the Associates will move to the Parish Hall where they will try to be in a happy mood for their farewell gathering with the Sisters who so soon will give up their residence here.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. The lamp before the Blessed Sacrament burns this week as a thank-offering of Mrs. Harold M. Lufkin. The lamp at the Shrine of Our Lady burns as a thank-offering of Mrs. Thomas Rivell.

TODAY the Junior Curate is being initiated into his role and his duties as a Deacon of Holy Church. Ordained only yesterday, this morning he will administer the chalice at the Low Masses and be Deacon of the Solemn Mass. S. Clement's is pleased to have another of her sons follow in the foot-steps of many others of her sons in responding to the vocation to Holy Orders, and the Parish congratulates the young man and prays the fullness of God's blessing upon him in his ministry. Gone are the days of "Jack" at S. Clement's and come into being are the days of "Father Weise". If we were to be strictly formal in giving title, we should address him as "Mr. Weise" while he is in Deacon's Orders. However, since he will continue on our staff after his being priested, the term "Father" seems the more suitable to use right from the beginning. And, further, from a practical viewpoint, his friends will find the transition to "Father" a far easier one to manage than "Mister".

THIS PAST WEEK witnessed another Clementine's culmination of a religious vocation. The Novice Jean, formerly Jean Crossley, on Friday was solemnly professed as Sister Jean of All Saints. The Parish takes righteous pride in sharing with Sister Jean her joy in this accomplishment. The Father Rector was present at the Catonsville Convent and was Deacon of the Mass of Profession, celebrated by the Rev. Father Maddux, S.S.J.E., with the Rev. Father Bryant, S.S.J.E., the Sub-Deacon. The Right Reverend the Bishop of Maryland, Dr. Powell, received the new Sister's vows. S. Clement's extends to Sister Jean all good wishes and prays that God will richly bless her in her life of complete consecration to His Glory.

Parish Notes

CORPUS CHRISTI will be observed this year in a manner a bit different from our custom. On Thursday, the feast itself, we shall, as usual, have two Low Masses and at 11 o'clock a Solemn Mass and Benediction. During the past few years, since the octave has been dropped, we have had a Solemn Votive Mass of Corpus Christi on the following Sunday. This year, however, next Sunday is S. John Baptist's Day which rules out a Votive Mass. We are happy to have this feast on a Sunday and to observe it in the best fashion we can. To compensate for the loss of the Solemnity of Corpus Christi we shall have a festive service on Friday evening. At 8 o'clock Friday night we shall have the Litany of the Blessed Sacrament, a brief address and then a Solemn Procession of the Sacred Host and Benediction. All of the parishioners are encouraged to be present on Friday night and especially those that are unable to be at the Mass on Thursday morning.

TOMORROW we shall keep the feast of S. Barnabas the Apostle, transferred from Whitsun week.

ATTENTION CROSS AND ANCHOR SOCIETY officers and executive board! There will be a brief meeting after Solemn Mass today. The meeting will be in S. John's Chapel for the purpose of transacting a bit of important business.

THE JUNE FETE and STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL will be held on Monday of next week, June 25th, or, in case of rain, on Tuesday the 26th. The Church Garth will be made attractive for the occasion and some entertainment is planned. Tickets now are on sale. This is always a most pleasant evening and an opportunity to entertain friends in delightful, inexpensive fashion.

THE SISTERS OF THE HOLY NATIVITY will leave S. Clement's Church this week. Efforts to procure Sisters of other communities thus far have not been successful, but a faint hope still exists that some Order will respond to our appeals. In the meantime the Mission House will be closed. We repeat our regrets at losing the devoted, loyal services of our Sisters. We wish them well in whatever new work they are assigned and, above all, we hope and pray for the strengthening of the numbers in their community,—for many new vocations.

THE CHOIR BOYS will take leave of Philadelphia, heading for Canada, next Sunday morning. After attending an early Mass they will board their bus and be on their happy way. More details of their engagements to sing and their recreational plans will be published in the leaflet of the next week. On Saturday they will make Holy Communion at the 10 o'clock Mass which is offered mainly for them but to which other people are most welcome.

NOTE BULLETIN BOARD for details of the Corpus Christi celebration at S. Alban's Church, Olney, on Thursday evening. Many Clementines should be present.

Parish Notes

THIS IS THE LAST of the weekly leaflets until October. You will read no more advice, no more admonitions concerning Church duties, etc. You now are on your own until autumn. The past few summers have been very good ones at S. Clement's, and because of the increased number of visitors during the vacation season our congregations have been almost as large as during the winter season. For this we are deeply grateful. Some of you will enjoy long vacations and some of you brief ones. However, no matter where you be, it is assumed none of you will be on vacation from Sunday Mass. One of the joys of travel is visiting other parishes. When you are out of town, then, inquire of the local Mass-hours and then attend the service. When you are at home, continue to worship at S. Clement's,—for the sake of your own soul's health and for the morale of the parish. On most summer Sundays fruit-juice will be served in the garth after Solemn Mass. This custom of the past few seasons has provided a most pleasant hour for both the parishioners and the visitors. Your Father Rector will be at home all of the summer except one or possibly two Sundays. He hopes very much to greet you every Sunday at the informal gathering after Mass. Father Davis will be on vacation during August, and Father Weise may be away for part of August. The Reverend Father Robert L. Jacoby will supply on Sunday, July 15th, when your Father Rector will be in New England for a brief holiday.

THE JUNE FETE or STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL will be tomorrow evening or, in case of rain, on Tuesday. The starting hour will be when you arrive, but it will end at 10:30 or 11. You may come and go when you choose. This highly enjoyable summer social affair should attract many of our parishioners and their friends. It is given more for the fraternization of our people than to make a profit, and so of course it misses its purpose if YOU are not present. We shall have music by a strolling violinist and also from a record-player, and the Church yard will be dressed up as prettily as we can make it.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. The candles before the Blessed Sacrament and at the Lady Shrine burn this week for the happy repose of the soul of Elizabeth H. Day and are the gift of Miss Elsie Williams. This Sunday is Mrs. Day's birthday.

THE RECENT SOLICITATIONS for various funds have brought gratifying results. The collection at the Pentecost Choir Concerts amounts to $200.25. This means that the collection covers the entire cost of the concert and the reception and even the programs. In addition to the cash collection, there were gifts of cakes, a new tape for recording the concert, flowers and various smaller items. For all of this we are deeply thankful. The Patrons of Music contributed to the fund for giving the soprano boys their summer camp. Up to this date, June 15th, the fund is $695. By adding to this the collection received at Mr. Sill's organ recital there is sufficient to pay all the expenses of the outing,—the travel by bus, the meals, the camp fees and minor recreation. The increased giving indicates an increased appreciation of the boys' singing. To all of the Patrons the Choir, the Choirmaster and the Father Rector express profound gratitude. The third collection has been for the American Church Union. Because some checks have been sent directly to the A.C.U. office the exact total is not yet known but it appears to be about $200. Before the solicitation was initiated $750 had already been provided. In order to meet our pledge to A.C.U. for 1962, $1100, we still need about $150. The fund will be kept open, hopeful of additions. You have read in the ACNews of the critical fiscal condition that has developed in A.C.U. Never let it be said that S. Clement's has failed to do its part in supporting this highly important Catholic missionary enterprise. It has been so successful that an impression has gained ground that it no longer is in need of contributions. Nothing could be further from the truth. . . . To be recipients of three appeals from one Parish at one time has been a near-burden to many of you, and most of you have responded generously. The more we give to causes of this kind the more is our Parish blessed, and also, the more are you yourselves blessed.

THE DATE OF THE OPENING of Choir Camp has been moved back a day. S. John Baptist is a most popular Saint in French Canada and, contrary to last week's announcement, the boys still are with us and appropriately are singing the Mass of this Saint on the day before they travel to the Gaspé. Even though they will be on holiday the boys will sing in the Church of S. John the Evangelist, Montréal, Diocese of Montréal; and in S. Peter's Church, Percé, and in S. Peter's on the Rock, Cap a l'Aigle, Murray Bay, Diocese of Québec.

Parish Notes

CHRISTENDOM'S EARS will be attuned this week to the opening of the Second Vatican Council. It is the most momentous ecclesiastical event of modern times for it will be an official opening of Roman Catholic doors to great hope for a better and brighter, more reasonable world-wide Christian atmosphere. The Presiding Bishop has happily complied with Pope John's request for prayers for divine guidance of the Council and he has published prayers which every congregation is asked to use today and throughout the sessions of the conclave. We shall offer the prayers this morning and you are asked to use them in your private devotions. By fortunate coincidence the Council of the American Church Union will be in session this week, and the ACU will offer a Solemn Votive Mass of the Holy Ghost for God's blessing upon and guidance of the Vatican Council. It will be on the same day that the latter opens, also with a Mass of the Holy Ghost. A new book, "An Anglican View of the Vatican Council", by Canon Pawley of Ely, is recommended for its concise, clear statement of the background and issues of the Council. It is for the laity and is so written that every Churchman can grasp its import.

BISHOP HART'S 20th ANNIVERSARY is Tuesday, October 16th. The program and information regarding banquet tickets is on the bulletin board. As a Parish, we congratulate the Bishop and pray the fulness of God's blessing upon him.

SCYO will meet today after Solemn Mass for a program on the religious life and a box lunch. The meeting will conclude at 3:00 with Evensong and Benediction to which all parishioners are welcome.

THE ADULT CLASS of the Church School will hold its second session this morning at 10. All parishioners and visitors are invited to attend. Helpers for the weekly breakfast are needed. Father Weise, in charge of all instruction, will conduct the Adult Class on Sundays and also a class at S. Anna's Home on Tuesdays.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL for youths and children likewise opened its sessions last Sunday. Father Weise has organized the School with more classes and teachers than we have had in recent years. The School is prepared to receive and instruct all children who attend and a campaign has been conducted to try and enroll more children of our neighborhood. A very large "thank-you" is given to all of those who have cooperated in initiating the new program of education in the Parish.

THE BOHLEN LECTURES will be given at Holy Trinity Church next Sunday evening, Monday afternoon and evening. The program is on the bulletin boards. The speaker is the Rev. John Knox of Union Seminary, N.Y., recently ordained a Priest of the Church.

THE TRACT RACK has been restocked with publications of vital interest. Also for sale are the AC News and the new Forward Day by Day.

VOTIVE OFFERING. The light before the Blessed Sacrament burned the week of August 26th in memory of Martha R. Gibson, the gift of Hannah Crofton.

THE UNITED FUND is now being raised. This annual campaign for support of good works deserves generous contributions from all citizens and certainly from those that embrace the Christian principle of mercy for sufferers.

SEVERAL CLERGY have been of marked assistance to S. Clement's during the summer months. On six Sundays the celebrant of High Mass was the Reverend James W. Halfhill III, recently returned from a year of duty at the Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham, England. The Reverend Robert F. Jacoby celebrated and preached on July 17th. Father Jacoby has gone to England to be Curate in the Diocese of S. Albans for a year. A frequent celebrant of weekday Masses (when only one Priest was in residence) was the Reverend Robert C. Hofmeister, Curate of S. Augustine's Church of the Covenant. On September 2nd the sermon was given by the Ven. John Comfort, Archdeacon of Gaspé, Diocese of Québec, host to our choir boys during their stint of camping in Canada. On all the Sundays in August Father Weise was the preacher. Writing of Father Weise, your Rector is moved to state that during his first four months of curacy our Deacon has established himself as a true Clementine, one who loves this Church and works energetically, effectually and enthusiastically for its spiritual and material progress. Continuing as he has begun, with Church School, SCYO, parish calls, Yarnall Library and sacristy supervision, he will contribute much to our parochial good health.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.

Parish Notes

TUESDAY IS THE 20th anniversary of the consecration of our Diocesan, —an occasion which calls for jubilation throughout the Diocese. Bishop Hart will celebrate the Blessed Eucharist at 10:30 at Holy Trinity Church. The sermon will be by the Bishop of Maryland, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Powell. It is hoped that all Clementines that can, will assist at this Mass and offer it for God's blessing upon our Bishop. The Presiding Bishop will speak at the 7:00 o'clock dinner at the Hotel Sheraton. A few dinner tickets still are available but must be purchased tomorrow at Church House.

THE BOHLEN LECTURES will be given at Holy Trinity Church tonight at 8, and tomorrow at 3 and 8. The speaker is the Reverend John Knox, of Union Seminary, New York, and a priest of the Church. His subject is "The Church and the Reality of Christ".

THE VESTRY will hold its postponed October meeting on Thursday at 4:30 at the Clergy House.

THE VERY REVEREND WALTER C. KLEIN, S.T.D., Dean of Nashotah House, will be the preacher at S. Clement's a week from today. Father Klein is not only one of our most distinguished scholars but also an excellent preacher. All of you will do well if you plan now to attend the Solemn Mass next Sunday and if you invite a guest to come with you.

NEW RECTORS have been instituted in several parishes within the past few weeks. The Reverend Paul M. Washington is now Rector of the Church of the Advocate; the Reverend Charles F. Penniman, Jr., is a new neighbor, being Rector of Trinity Memorial Church; and the Reverend John M. Scott is Rector of S. Mary's Church, Hamilton Village and also Chaplain to Episcopalians at the University of Pennsylvania. On the feast of S. Luke, Thursday of this week, the Reverend Robert W. Hill will be instituted Rector of S. Luke's Church, Germantown. To these several Reverend Clergy S. Clement's extends good wishes and prays the fulness of God's blessing upon them and their ministry.

ADVANCE NOTICE. The Altar Guild of the Diocese will hold its annual Quiet Evening at S. Clement's on Wednesday of next week, October 24th. In the past our Mission Sisters have done much to extend hospitality to these visitors. It is hoped that some of our ladies will be on hand to greet the members of the Altar Guild and do for them what in other years the Sisters have done.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR! At a meeting of chairmen of departments last Monday it was decided to hold the Bazaar on Thursday, November 29th. Mark the date on your calendars. Much help will be needed from many hands in order for the event to be carried off on the high standards of the past. More about this later; for the present the main word is "Get busy".

THE WEEKLY LEAFLET is mailed to those that subscribe to it. During October it will be mailed to last year's list. Beginning with the first Sunday in November it will go only to subscribers. The cost, which is only for the mailing, is $2.00 for second-class and $2.50 for first-class mail. If the postage rates are increased, as proposed, the cost of sending the leaflet will have to be correspondingly increased.

Cereus Slocum Frangel Roranguin Parish Notes

S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH is honored today to have as its guest and preacher the Very Reverend Walter C. Klein, S.T.D., one of the Anglican Church's most distinguished priests and scholars. He occupies the strategic position of the Dean of Nashotah House where his good influence touches the impressionable young lives of many of the Church's future priests. Having been at S. Clement's several previous times he needs no introduction to our congregation. We are glad to have Father Klein here today and hope he will return many times.

THE ALTAR GUILD of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will have a Quiet Evening at S. Clement's on Wednesday. The Reverend Father Penny of S. James', Prospect Park, will give the meditations at 5:30, 7:30 and 8:30. Each lady will supply her own box-supper and we shall provide the coffee and tea. Our women that wish to share in this spiritual exercise are welcome to attend.

THE REVEREND FATHER CHARLES E. GREENE, a good friend of this Parish, will celebrate the 15th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood on Saturday morning in S. Mary's Church, Wayne. Solemn Mass will be offered at 10 o'clock and Clementines that wish to attend are invited to assist in offering the Holy Sacrifice that day in thanksgiving for the fruitful ministry of this devoted pastor and Priest. The Reverend Father Paige of S. Mark's is to be the preacher.

A QUIET DAY FOR WOMEN will be held at S. Margaret's House, Germantown, on Tuesday, October 30th. Mass will be at 8:30; first address at 10:15; the day closes at 3:15. The Conductor will be the Reverend Father L. E. Teter, Jr., Rector of S. Luke's Church, Lebanon. For reservations telephone VI 4-4612.

THE SECOND ANNIVERSARY of the death of our late Rector-Emeritus, the Reverend Father Joiner, is next Sunday, October 28th. The intention of the 9:15 Mass will be for the happy repose of his soul but a requiem will be offered later in the week. A week from Saturday, November 3rd, is the anniversary of Father's burial and a requiem Mass will be offered for him at 9:30 that morning. Requiescat in pace.

THE PHILADELPHIA BRANCH of the Catholic Clerical Union will meet at Christ Church, Palmyra, N.J., on Tuesday. This will be its first meeting in New Jersey in about fifteen years. Father Klein, our preacher today, will address the group on "The Priest and his Prayer Life". This organization has taken a gratifying upsurge of new vitality this fall. At the first meeting, in September, 72 Clergy were present and more are expected on Tuesday. The occasional fraternization of Priests with Priests is almost necessary in order to maintain a wholesome clerical life and this organization is providing opportunity for this unique type of sociability combined with very desirable academic and devotional stimulation.

Parish Notes

THIS WEEK come those wonderful days that usher in November and its holy season. Thursday is ALL SAINTS DAY, one of our best loved festivals. In addition to the Low Masses there will be Solemn Mass at 6:15 p.m. All Churchmen are expected to attend Mass on this day, and for the greater part, they all wish to share in this glorious commemoration. Friday is ALL SOULS DAY, when all of the faithful departed are prayed for at all the Masses. For the greater convenience of our widespread congregation we shall have the Solemn Mass and Absolution at the Catafalque at 6:15 p.m. On both of these evenings the Novena Devotions will be at 5:45. Forms for submitting the names of those souls you wish to be remembered at these Masses and at other Requiems during November have been mailed to all parishioners. Extra copies are available at the Tract Rack.

YOU ARE REMINDED of our annual offering for S. Anna's Home and the Guild of All Souls. This is our once-in-a-year expression of gratitude to the All Saints Sisters and all that they do for the welfare of our Parish and for S. Anna's Home. Your offering may be placed in the envelope along with your list of the departed.

SATURDAY is the second anniversary of the burial of our late beloved Rector, Father Joiner. Requiems for the happy repose of his soul will be offered at 7 and 9:30.

THE FEAST OF DEDICATION OF S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH is a week from today, the Sunday after All Saints Day. We shall have a highly distinguished Priest as our guest-preacher at Solemn Mass. He is the Reverend Father E. Sambayya, Canon of Calcutta and President of Bishop's College, the leading Anglican seminary in India. Canon Sambayya, on leave from his regular duties, is spending the year at General Seminary and working on the script of a book on moral theology for the use of seminarians and Clergy in India. We are indeed fortunate to have Father Sambayya as our preacher at S. Clement's.

A QUIET EVENING for women will be held on Saturday from 4:30 to 9 at S. Margaret's House, Germantown. Conductor: the Reverend Father Paul C. Kintzing, Jr. For reservations, telephone VI 4-4612.

THE BAZAAR will be Thursday, November 29th. This is closer at hand than many of the participants realize! Things most needed, according to present reckoning, will be supplies for the Fancy Goods Table and these may be almost any variety of practical or ornamental supplies for the home or the wardrobe, and also supplies for the Table of Antiques, sometimes called the White Elephant Table. There will be two sittings for the dinner, at 5:30 and at 7:00, with a bit of the famous Auction at each sitting. Get dinner tickets early, and sell some to friends.

THE FATHER RECTOR and the FATHER JUNIOR CURATE will be out of the Parish for the coming three days. This afternoon they will drive to Wilton, Conn., and tomorrow go on to Lexington, Mass., and return home by Wednesday evening. This is mainly a pleasure trip among friends but will include some Church and Convent visiting.

NEXT WEEK and thereafter the Sunday leaflet will be mailed only to those who have subscribed to it. Rates: $2.00, second class; $2.50, first class. Make checks payable to S. Clement's Rector's Fund.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

THE REVEREND FATHER E. SAMBAYYA, D.D., is our preacher today and we extend to him a hearty welcome to S. Clement's Church. Dr. Sambayya is Canon of Calcutta and President of Bishop's College, a preëminent theological seminary in India. Now on sabbatical leave of absence, the Canon is doing research at General Seminary in New York and speaking to many of our congregations.

A LUNCHEON FOR THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S will be held a week from today following the Solemn Mass. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the future of women's work at S. Clement's, the meetings, etc., based upon the replies to the recently distributed questionnaire. There also will be some discussion of plans for the Christmas Bazaar of November 29th. All of the women of the Parish are encouraged to attend the meeting next Sunday. Each will provide her own box-lunch; cake, tea and coffee will be provided. The meeting will close by 2:30 at the latest.

THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE (this means all chairmen and helpers) will meet on Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall. A full attendance is desired. Anyone willing to help at the Bazaar is invited to attend. We are not as highly organized as in other years, and therefore help is urgently needed.

REGARDING THE LISTS OF NAMES submitted for commemoration on All Souls' Day, we shall employ them as we have done in recent years. Because of the large number of names submitted, they were not read on All Souls' Day but all were prayed for at all the Masses. The lists have been divided into four sections, and one group of names will be read at each of the four designated Requiems. The following schedule applies to the names of those that have submitted the lists; it does not apply to the names of the departed for whom we pray.

Friday, November 16, 7:00 — lists submitted by A through F

Tuesday, November 27, 7:00 — lists submitted by G through L

Wednesday, November 28, 7:00 — lists submitted by M through R

Thursday, November 29, 7:00 — lists submitted by S through Z, and also those lists submitted anonymously.

Please keep this schedule and if possible attend Mass on the day when your list will be commemorated.

THIRTY-ONE NEW COTTAS for the choir have been cut and made by Miss Gertrude McClellan. Last spring an appeal was made for the cottas and Mr. Thomas Gravell responded by supplying the material. We are indeed grateful to these two good donors. The choir now is equipped with two first-class sets of cottas and one set that is badly worn. We also are grateful to the several ladies that keep the choir linen in spic and span condition.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will be three weeks from Thursday. Have you set this evening aside so that NOTHING can interfere with your being present? And have you decided what you will donate to the tables? Much is needed and your help in providing the things is optimistically expected. Dinner tickets now are on sale; you will help the committee if you procure yours early.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

LADIES OF THE PARISH will have a box-luncheon today after the Solemn Mass. Coffee, tea and cake will be provided by the committee. The meeting will terminate by 2:30 at the latest. It is hoped many of our women will attend so that there may be a profitable discussion of the future activities of The Women of S. Clement's.

CHRIST CHURCH HOSPITAL will hold its annual tea and sale from 2 to 5 on Thursday. Inasmuch as two of our parishioners, the Misses Little, are residents of this home, encouragement is given to both ladies and gentlemen of the S. Clement's Parish to patronize this pleasant event.

A RECENT GIFT to S. Clement's is a set of six antique candlesticks for the high altar when Requiem Masses will be celebrated. Of renaissance design, they are of wood in accordance with traditional use at Masses for the dead. They were first used at S. Clement's at the Solemn Mass on All Souls' Day. This welcome addition to our equipment is the gift of Robert N. Mattis, Vestryman of the Parish. During his Eastertide Italian holiday, Mr. Mattis discovered these handsome old candlesticks in the cellars of Florence and arranged for their shipment to his Parish Church. They are dated at about 1640. We are deeply grateful for this gift both because of the beauty of the candlesticks and because of the correctness of the wood for the use to which the candlesticks will be placed.

THE BAZAAR! It will be held on only two weeks from Thursday. Has every one of you something on hand to contribute to the tables, especially the Fancy Goods and White Elephant Tables? And has every one of you procured your ticket for dinner? The success of the Bazaar depends upon your support of it. It always has been a most happy evening and all indications are that this will be another such event.

MINORITIES

"If the 2½ billion people of this world were compressed into a group of 1,000 persons living in a single town, sixty persons of that 1,000 would represent the U. S. population; all others would be represented by the 940. The 60 Americans would have half the total income of the entire town, the 940 the other half."

"Thirty-six of the 60 Americans would be members of the Christian Church, and 24 would not. In the whole town, 300 would be Christians and 700 would not. At least 80 would be believing Communists, and 370 would be under the domination of Communists. Three hundred and three people in this town of 1,000 would be white, 697 would be non-white. The 60 Americans would have a life expectancy of 70 years, all the other 940 would have an average of under 40."

Parish Notes

S. CLEMENT'S DAY, the joyful festival of our holy Patron, is Friday. We shall observe the feast with the solemnity that current conditions permit, and this means hearty praise of Almighty God in thanksgiving for the life, the work and the powerful intercession of S. Clement. On Friday night we shall have Solemn Evensong with sermon by a much-loved former Curate, the Reverend Father William R. Wetherell, Rector of All Saints' Church, Orange, and Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. A reception will be held in the Parish Hall after the service. The Masses that morning will be at the usual hours of 7 and 9:30. On next Sunday, the 8 and 9:15 Masses will be of the Sunday next before Advent, but at 11 we shall have Solemn Votive Mass of S. Clement with sermon by the Reverend Canon Albert J. duBois, Executive Director of the American Church Union, and for many years a good friend of this Parish. Friday and Sunday, then, are "our days" and it is expected every parishioner will be on hand to help in celebrating the festival.

ON THANKSGIVING DAY we shall revive a liturgical custom of the days far past. The 7 o'clock Mass will be that of the feast of the day, S. Cecilia, but at 10 we shall have Solemn Morning Prayer and Solemn Mass, without sermon. In the earlier days of the Catholic Revival, the singing of Mattins before the High Mass was the prevailing program in many parishes. The last time your Father Rector was at All Saints' Church, Margaret Street, on a Sunday, sung Mattins preceded the Solemn Mass. We have no intention of reviving this custom at S. Clement's except on rare occasions and Thanksgiving Day seems a suitable time. Certainly for our congregation, which so seldom shares in the Divine Office, this is a plan which should be welcomed. We hope that all of you will be here on Thursday to offer your thanksgiving to God for many blessings upon Church, country and personal lives, and to make this offering through participation in the Morning Office and the Mass.

IN THIS DIOCESE the offering on Thanksgiving Day is given to the support of the Chaplaincy at Episcopal Hospital. This is an awkward business for us because of the usual juxtaposition of Thanksgiving Day with S. Clement's Day. We are quite dependent upon a large offering on our Patronal Festival in order to support our parochial budget. To appeal for support of two special offerings within one week is futile, and hardly just. Envelopes for the Hospital Chapel will be available in the Church and at the bulletin boards. By reading the list of services offered by the Chaplaincy you readily will see it is a good work that deserves to be upheld by all Churchmen in the Diocese. The Chapel was consecrated in 1862, one hundred years ago, and now is undergoing expensive structural repairs to maintain its safety. Those of you that can make contributions both to the Hospital and your Parish Church are encouraged to do so. Perhaps at some future date we may arrange for a collection for the Chaplaincy well removed from other special collections. Episcopal Hospital has been very considerate toward several of our parishioners when they have been patients and a return of the Hospital's generosity is in order.

THE AUTUMN IN-GATHERING of the United Thank Offering will be on Wednesday evening, November 28th, at 8 o'clock at Holy Trinity Church. The ladies of this Parish are asked to submit their offerings by next Sunday, the 25th. If more convenient, your offering may be sent to our parochial custodian, Miss Elsie Williams, 2041 Appletree Street, Philadelphia 3.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION will meet on Tuesday at S. Thomas' Church, West Philadelphia. The Reverend Father Richard A. Norris, Jr., of P.D.S., will speak on "The Ascetical and Spiritual Teaching of S. Gregory of Nissa".

WHAT HAPPENS IN TEN DAYS? Nearly everyone in Philadelphia knows that is the time of S. Clement's Bazaar,—November 29th,—Thursday, that is! Little more need be said. Rush with your last-minute preparations, and be sure to have your dinner tickets in hand. It will be a night to remember.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. The candles before the Blessed Sacrament and the Lady Shrine burn this week as a gift of Miss Jean Purdy in thanksgiving for the first anniversary of the ordination to the Priesthood of the Rev. Father Edward C. Loeffler.

Parish Notes

S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH this week-end welcomes the Reverend Father Wetherell and the Reverend Canon duBois. The preachers on Friday evening and Sunday morning, respectively, they return as old friends to help us celebrate our Patronal Festival and we are indeed happy to have them.

YOU MUST HAVE NOTICED the narthex as you entered the Church today! The walls and ceiling are gleaming with fresh paint—an artistic light grey. This improvement to our property is the gift of Lt. Gen. Milton G. Baker. This generous contribution on the part of General Baker brightens our lives to a very wide degree and we are deeply grateful to him for his kind consideration of his Parish Church.

THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK! Of course, it will be the CHRISTMAS BAZAAR, and of course every one of you will be present with pockets loaded for the Auction and for purchasing holiday gifts. No need to say more than that we look forward to seeing every Clementine and friends on Thursday.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet on Tuesday evening at 8 at S. Valentine's Polish National Catholic Church, 2330 Margaret Street. The Reverend Father Wappler will be the speaker. This should be a uniquely interesting meeting.

THIS AFTERNOON AT 4, at Trinity Church, Ambler, will be Solemn Evensong for the furtherance of the American Church Union. Canon duBois will preach and it is hoped that Clementines will be in attendance.

TODAY THE SALE OF CHRISTMAS SEALS is officially begun. The need of support still is great. Last year 1400 new cases of tuberculosis developed in Philadelphia. Buy the seals and use them.

Parish Notes

ADVENT IS THE MOST EXCITING season in the annual liturgical cycle. Not in the sense of being a time of noise or glamour, Advent is a time of the quiet excitement of anticipation. It is the season for eagerly looking forward to the anniversary of the wonderfully appealing Nativity of the Holy Child Jesus. Although a season of penitence, Advent bespeaks tenderness, joy and the infinite love of God, culminating, of course, in Christ Jesus, of the Father's love begotten, coming within our realm as the adorable Child of Holy Mary. Advent moves onward in a restrained crescendo toward the pianissimo Festival of the Nativity. If you would hear the true and delicate chords of the Christmas Feast you will be wise to become attuned to their harmony through a diligent observance of the weeks of anticipation,—the exciting days of Advent. The Holy Hour on Friday evening of this week will be a major help. The Father Rector will repeat his brief meditations that he has given in recent Advents.

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF OUR LADY will be observed on Saturday with Low Mass at 7:00 and Solemn Mass at 9:30. How fortunate that this feast always falls in Advent for it commemorates a highly significant step in preparing the way for the Incarnation of God's Son; it fits perfectly within our mood of anticipation. It is a day when loyal Catholics assist at the offering of Mass. Being on a Saturday,—a semi-holiday in this age,—the feast should be very well attended by our parishioners.

A QUIET DAY FOR WOMEN will be held on Tuesday, December 11th at S. Margaret's House, Germantown. Mass at 8:30; first address at 10:15; day closes at 3:15. Conductor: The Reverend Father William I. Edwards. For reservations call VI 4-4612.

THE OFFERING on All Souls' Day was $300.00, and parishioners will be interested in its division for various purposes. This is the break-down:—

S. Anna's Home	$250.00
The Guild of All Souls	25.00
For Requiem Mass candles	19.00
Mailing letter to parishioners	6.00

The All Saints Sisters of the Poor have expressed their deep gratitude for our offering to S. Anna's Home. The Home and its Sisters and the guests within its walls mean much to S. Clement's Parish. The spiritual support of the Parish through the prayers of the Sisters and their guests is a constant bulwark to our devotional program and to the general tone of the Parish. We are indeed thankful and happy that a considerable proportion of the membership of S. Anna's Home officially belongs to S. Clement's and that the others make this their Church-home even though they do not transfer to us. We are a blessed Parish to have this friendly home both geographically and spiritually close to us. This offering is our once-a-year gift to the Home; we are thankful to be able to provide it and wish it might be multiplied.

WE SHALL NOT HAVE a Quiet Evening at S. Clement's this Advent. The brief season will be well filled with events this year and the scheduling of meditations on a Saturday night therefore is difficult. It will undoubtedly be revived in 1963. At the time of this writing, Father Weise's ordination to the Priesthood has not been officially authorized but unless something unlikely and unexpected intervenes that happy event will take place in S. Clement's Church before Christmas. Probably by the time this leaflet is in your hands the date will have been announced. See next week's leaflet for details.

THE NASHOTAH QUARTERLY has been at the Tract Case and most of the copies have been bought. They were supplied through the kind generosity of the Very Reverend Dean Klein. Subscription, by mail, is $2.00 a year. Probably some Clementines wish to have it regularly. Ask one of the Clergy for a subscription blank if you are among those who wish to have The Quarterly.

Parish Notes

SATURDAY DECEMBER 22nd is the date of the ordination to the Sacred Priesthood of the Reverend Father Weise. The Bishop-Coadjutor, Dr. Armstrong, will ordain our Junior Curate in S. Clement's Church at 10 o'clock that day. The new Priest will offer his First Solemn Mass the next day, the Fourth Sunday in Advent. These are the happy events to which every seminarian looks forward from the moment he starts his theological training. As the months and years in school pass, his anticipation of these culminating events increases. In a great metropolitan diocese, such as ours, a candidate is fortunate to have his own Parish Church appointed as the place of his ordination, and all of us of S. Clement's rejoice with Father Weise that his hopes and wishes are being so well fulfilled. This will be another history-making event in our Parish and every Clementine will do well to mark the hour and day on his calendar of definite engagements.

THE VESTRY will meet at 4:30 on Tuesday at the Clergy House.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR CHRISTMAS CHARITIES AND FLOWERS are now receivable. In past years our Mission Sisters were in charge of the Charities, and now that they no longer serve the Parish, a committee of the Women of S. Clement's will carry on the project. We have rather a long list of parishioners and friends, sick persons, and others confined to their homes, each of whom will receive a small remembrance at the Christmas season. Some receive food, some flowers, some greetings by way of a calendar,—some appropriate thing to tell them that S. Clement's Church holds them in affection. The fund is also used to furnish greens and flowers for the Church and its Chapels. Contributions may be given to any of the Clergy, or placed in the alms basins, marked "Christmas Fund". Checks should be made payable to S. Clement's Rector's Fund. There will be no personal solicitation; this is your notice. Early response to this appeal will be appreciated so that the busy volunteers of the committee can complete their duties before the last minute of preparation for the holidays.

A QUIET EVENING in preparation for Christmas, for women, will be held at S. Margaret's House in Germantown on Saturday. Opening at 4:30 it will close at 9:00. Conductor: the Reverend Father Richard J. Herschel. For reservations, telephone VI 4-4612,—early this week.

NEXT SUNDAY gifts may be brought to the Church for the Elizabeth Price Martin League participation in the Christmas project at Philadelphia General Hospital. Distribution of the packages will be simplified if you will clearly mark each "man", "woman", "boy" or "girl" and on the children's packages, the contents. Gift suggestions are:

MEN

Cigarettes
Soap (Lifebuoy or Dial)
Toothpaste and brush
Kleenex
Candy

WOMEN

Scented soap
Wash cloths
Writing paper or candy
Talcum powder

CHILDREN

Small rubber toys
Small stuffed toys
Coloring books
Unbreakable dolls

Soft plastic toys
Educational toys (Holgate type)
Crayons

THE TIME OF WRITING this leaflet is too early to comment on the success of the Bazaar. However, on the basis of the appearance of the Hall on the night of preparation, it certainly was a beautiful function. The decorations,—the Colonial setting, the abundance of greens, the twinkling lights, the inviting dining tables, the old-fashioned tree, and the exciting merchandise running the gamut from hot-pads through mouth-watering delicacies all the way to enchanting life-sized, walking dolls,—everything bespoke holiday mood,—everything gave promise of an enjoyable, lucrative Bazaar!

FLASH! As we go to press notice has come that the S. Clement's Day Offering is $504.75 — just about half of the amount of last year's Offering! If any of you had good intentions about S. Clement's Day but postponed action, now is the time to fulfill the intention.

Parish Notes

THE MAJOR EVENT of this week is the ordination to the Sacred Priesthood of the Reverend Father Weise on Saturday at 10 o'clock. The Rt. Rev. J. Gillespie Armstrong, Bishop-Coadjutor, will preside and celebrate the Mass. He will be assisted by the Reverend Fathers Edward C. Loeffler and E. Paul Jowett as Deacons of Honor. The Epistler and the Gospeller will be the Reverend Fathers Charles H. Urban and Vernon Matthews. The Bishop's Chaplain will be the Reverend Father Alfred Vail. The Preacher will be the Very Reverend Father John E. Gulick, Dean of Fond du Lac. The Father Rector will present the Candidate for ordination. The music will be Mozart's Missa Brevis in D.

FATHER WEISE'S first priestly function after the ordination will be the blessing of a rose for his mother. This will be followed by his blessing of members of the congregation as they present themselves at the altar rail. When the solemnities in Church are completed all will go to the Parish Hall to extend greetings and congratulations to the new Priest and to partake of light refreshments. The Bishop-Coadjutor graciously has granted a dispensation from the Ember Day abstinence to those attending the ordination.

A WEEK FROM TODAY Father Weise will offer his First Solemn Mass at 11 o'clock. This event actually is that to which his chapters of preparation have been leading. The culmination of an aspirant's years of study, his examinations, even his ordinations, is the offering of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Very naturally, the FIRST Mass is a very special one both for the celebrating Priest and for his friends that have prayed for him through the anxious and joyous years of training. The Preacher next Sunday will be the Reverend Father John K. Mount, Jr., Rector of S. Barnabas' Church, Sykesville, Md., who was an instructor of Father Weise during his first year at Nashotah House. The Deacon of the Mass will be the Reverend Father Paul E. Hons, another candidate for the Priesthood from S. Clement's. The Father Rector will be Assistant Priest, an officer of the Mass that waits upon a Bishop-Celebrant and on a Priest only at his first Solemn Mass. We look forward, then, to a week-end of liturgical gala and many Clementine reunions.

THERE WILL BE NO SERVICE on Friday night of this week.

THE BAZAAR was socially a great success. Everybody had a wonderful time. The Parish Hall looked just right; it was a perfect setting. The auction received spirited support which lent merriment to the evening. However, the profit at the time of writing, December 6th, is only a little more than $1000. Many of the things still are for sale: kalendars, cards, fancy goods, candles, etc. When the stock of goods is more nearly exhausted our profits may attain the goal of $1200, which is the amount for Missions expected from the Bazaar by our parochial budget.

OUR PEOPLE work for the Bazaar because they wish to do so,—for the honor of S. Clement's Church. Their generous spirit notwithstanding, they all deserve a very large "thank-you" for their jobs well done. An attitude of gracious cooperation pervaded the project from the meeting of the committee for initiating plans to the locking of the doors at the close of the function. Every department chairman, every helper should know that his or her good services are appreciated and highly valued.

PLEDGE CARDS for 1963 were distributed to the Parish by mail in late November. Each mail delivery brings more cards to the Clergy House but the pressures of the season seem to prevent many of our parishioners from submitting their cards. If you have not returned your card, will you not do so within a matter of days? And if you happen to be among those that did NOT pledge for 1962, will you not join the ranks of loyal Clementines who support the Parish by the direct, business-like method of pledging a definite amount for next year? Pledge cards are available at the bulletin boards.

THE NATIVITY PAGEANT AND CHRISTMAS PARTY for the entire Parish will be Friday evening, December 28th, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Parish Notes

TODAY IS THE TWELFTH DAY of Christmas and how fortunate we are to have it fall on Sunday this year. EPIPHANY is rather the second chapter of the Feast of the Holy Nativity; it does not conclude that happy festival as much as it provides another starting point for joyously celebrating the birth of Our Blessed Lord. The Prayer-Book calls for an octave of daily honoring the Epiphany. A week from today the Feast of the Holy Family very appropriately offers another opportunity for thinking of the Young Savior in His holy household. Truly, this is a wonderful season and one for which we all should be, and I trust we all actually are, deeply grateful.

CHRISTMAS AT S. CLEMENT'S was a brighter high-light than we had reason to expect it to be. In the first and most important place the spiritual preparation for the observance of the festival was exactly right,—or rather,—as near to exactly right as the participants could make it. Holy Scripture tells us that the repentance of the faithful gives joy to the angels of heaven, and therefore we assume it gives joy to the Sacred Heart of Our Lord. The communicants of S. Clement's must have given this type of joy to the angels and to Our Lord. In the eight Christmases your Father Rector has spent in this Parish never has there been such a constant stream of people in and out of the confessionals. Each priest of the staff, at each announced hour, was busy, was even rushed with the procession of penitents. For this, we only offer profound thanks to Almighty God that He called so many to repentance and that so many responded. In view of this preparation the feast was bound to be a holy and blessed experience.

IN THE SECOND PLACE, the attendance at Midnight Mass was far larger than usual and consequently more than usual received Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. In addition to parishioners, a very large number of visitors was present. The music was lovely; the choir of boys and men sang the ever-enchanting Messe de Minuit. This Charpentier Mass, based on French carols, has been used sufficient times to be almost in the category of "S. Clement's traditional Christmas music". The fall of snow seemed to be the fulfillment of many persons' dreaming of a white Christmas and for a few hours the city was in glistening beauty under its sparkling white blanket. All in all, it was a night and it was a day long to be remembered.

OUR CHEERY MAIL-MAN, Harry, never complains. However, he must have been wearied by the stacks and stacks of greetings he delivered to the Clergy House. The Priests of S. Clement's extend their gratitude to parishioners and friends that remembered them so kindly with greeting cards and gifts. The Rectory is gala at the season,—a tree, decorations, flowers, etc. It is as much "like home" as we can make it and the thoughtful attention of you good people contributes much to this happy atmosphere. We thank you!

MEMORIAL OFFERINGS. The large candles before the Blessed Sacrament and at the Lady Shrine during Christmas week burned in memory of the late Father Joiner and members of the Bly family, the gifts of Miss Gladys Bly. One of the poinsettia plants at the Lady Shrine was in memory of Alexander Wolf, the gift of Mrs. Charles Wolf. R. I. P.

TWO SEMINARIANS, in town to attend the Inter-Seminary Conference at P.D.S., were guests at the Clergy House over the Christmas holidays. Darrow Aiona, from S. Mark's Church, Honolulu, and a student at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Berkeley, California, was a guest of the Rector. Darrow gave an informal address on "Christmas in Hawaii" at the annual dinner for choir boys and men. The dinner was again graciously provided by Mr. Thomas D. Gravell at Kugler's Restaurant. The other seminarian, Gregory Perrin, a student at Nashotah House whose home is Dallas, Texas, was a guest of Father Weise, and was a crucifer at the Ordination on the 22nd.

MY DEAR FRIENDS AT SAINT CLEMENT'S,

So many thanks are due you for making my ordination such a wonderful occasion. The Clergy, the Choir and Organist, the women who served the reception and coffee hour which your generosity provided, the men who ushered and prepared the Church for the occasion—the many greeting cards and the generous gifts. Your kindnesses will not be forgotten. Pray that I will be the kind of priest Saint Clement's Church should produce.

Affectionately,

FATHER WEISE

A TOUR OF CHURCH HOUSE will be held on Thursday of this week, starting at 10:30 a.m. This tour is for the Women of North Philadelphia Convocation. Bring your own sandwiches; beverage will be provided. Over by 2:30. Church House, at 202 West Rittenhouse Square, is our Diocesan Headquarters and a most interesting institution to visit.

THE NEW POSTAGE RATES are now in effect, and each mailing of a leaflet is one cent more than it was. A few of our subscribers anticipated this increase when they made payment last fall. Will each of the other subscribers kindly send us 30 one-cent stamps, or that much in cash? This may sound like a trivial request. However, the mailing of the leaflet is not for profit; it is only for the accommodation of those who wish the weekly paper mailed to them. It is a service that is not underwritten; it should pay for itself. At the present, the leaflet postage account is in the red.

THE LADIES OF THE PARISH are invited to attend an open meeting of the Altar Guild and to discuss reviving an active group. Time 10 a.m., Saturday, January 26th in Saint John's Chapel.

YOUR COPY of THE CHURCH NEWS should never be thrown away. Pass it on to a family not presently attending Church. Ask them to pass it along, too. The news of your Church's work should not be confined to those already committed to the Church's life. Help us reach people in every neighborhood. A good idea is also to pass along a copy of S. Clement's leaflet.

HAVE YOU SUBMITTED your pledge card for 1963? Most of you have, but a rather considerable number have not. The Finance Committee of the Vestry is trying to write a budget for the year. However, without complete knowledge of assured income the members of that committee are seriously hindered in their task. The Church is a spiritual powerhouse, but the powerhouse can effectively minister spiritually only when it is assured of material support of its establishment. The first step for having a business-like powerhouse is for each constituent to declare in writing what he or she expects to contribute toward its material support.

Parish Notes

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet on Tuesday at 8 p.m. at S. Luke's Church, Germantown. The Reverend Father Wappler will continue his series of addresses on "A Study of the Mysteries of our Redemption as Unfolded in the Liturgical Year". His subject this month is to be "The Christmas Mystery". As has been usual in January of each year, ladies are invited to this meeting. This organization deserves the support of all Catholic Churchmen and it is hoped that many Clementines will attend not only this but all of the meetings.

STILL ANOTHER ORDINATION AT S. CLEMENT'S! The Reverend Paul Edward Hons will be ordained Priest on Saturday, February 2nd at 10 a.m., and what an excellent day to be presented in the Temple of the Lord for the Sacred Priesthood. The members of this Parish ordinarily assist at the Mass of Our Lady's Purification in goodly numbers and this year, having opportunity for assisting at both the Mass of that Feast and the Ordination of another son of S. Clement's, they should be here in even larger numbers. The Bishop Coadjutor, Dr. Armstrong, will ordain the candidate and celebrate the Mass of the Purification, except that the Epistle and Gospel will be those appointed for ordinations. The Candlemas Ceremony of blessing of candles will be held at 8 p.m. Friday the 1st.

FATHER HONS, having come to us from the local Lutheran Seminary a year ago last spring, is not an old-timer at S. Clement's. However, in these few months among us he has won the good-will, the respect and the affection of all the parishioners that have learned to know him, and that means practically all of us. He was confirmed in S. Clement's in July, 1961, and spent the academic year of 1961-62 at Nashotah House for Anglican indoctrination. In July 1962 he was made Deacon and since then has served as Curate at S. Timothy's, Roxborough, where he will continue as Priest-Curate under the Rector, the Reverend Father Eugene Lefebvre. S. Clement's is honored and thankful that the Bishop Coadjutor and the Rector of S. Timothy's have graciously permitted the ordination to be here in the ordinand's home-Church. His First Mass the following day appropriately will be in S. Timothy's Church among the people whom he serves. Keep a week from Saturday clear of other engagements so that you may be here to witness the THIRD ORDINATION TO THE PRIESTHOOD OF A CLEMENTINE IN S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH WITHIN A PERIOD OF LESS THAN FIFTEEN MONTHS! Truly we are making exciting parochial history, and contributing at least an interestingly new chapter to diocesan history.

THE OCTAVE OF UNITY is now in progress. Having begun on Friday it will conclude on the Conversion of S. Paul, Friday of this week. The evening devotional service at 8 o'clock will be built on the theme of Christian Unity. Attendance on Friday nights lately has been far smaller than it was a few years ago. A very good move in the direction of supporting the increased momentum toward Christian Unity would be a concerted effort of parishioners to attend the service on this Friday in S. John's Chapel. The relationships among Christians of various traditions have never been as cordial as they are right now. For this condition we owe profound thanksgiving to Almighty God and at the same time we ought to multiply our prayers and study which will further offer support to fulfilling God's will.

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY is a week from today, when throughout the Episcopal Church offerings will be received for the several seminaries of the Church. Each Parish may give its offering to the seminary of its choice; with three Nashotah alumni on the staff of S. Clement's we naturally send our offering to that distinguished institution. Last year we gave Nashotah House a bit over $750.00. With the help of each of you we can do that well again and, we hope, even a little better than that.

Parish Notes

THE BIG EVENT OF THIS WEEK will be the ordination of Father Hons on Saturday. The combination of the Feast of Our Lady's Purification with ordination to the Sacred Priesthood is indeed appealing. While we popularly refer to February 2nd as a Lady Feast, essentially it is a day in honor of Our Lord,—of His Presentation in the Temple,—and this emphasis points to the unique appropriateness of the day for a young man to be presented to his Bishop for receiving the Order of Priesthood. It will be a gala day. Our new festive white vestments will be worn, Missa Marialis will be sung (by the people, we hope, as well as the choir), a few Mary hymns will be used. The sermon will be by another guest-preacher from Wisconsin, the Reverend Father Thomas A. Mitchell, a Nashotah class-mate of the ordinand. The Deacon and Sub-Deacon will be the Reverend Fathers Weise and Wappler and of course the Celebrant will be the ordaining Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Joseph Gillespie Armstrong, D.D. A reception in the Parish Hall will follow the Mass and the new Priest's blessing of the people at the altar rail. Let S. Clement's people maintain the good record they established in supporting the two previous ordinations. Many of you should be here; and many of you undoubtedly will offer the Mass and make Holy Communion with special intention of thanksgiving for Blessed Mary's presentation of Her Holy Son in the Temple and of petition that, at the intercession of Blessed Mary, Her spiritual son Paul will be a holy and good priest in the Temple of the Lord.

CANDLEMAS CEREMONIES will be on Friday evening at 8:00. Because of the ordination on the feast itself, the Blessing of Candles and the Solemn Procession will be held on the evening before the feast. There will be no sermon; Solemn Benediction will conclude the service.

THROATS WILL BE BLESSED at each of the Masses next Sunday. The complete significance of the petition should be understood, and should be supported by personal effort. The prayer is not only for being spared from all illness of the throat at the prayers of S. Blasius, but also "from all other evil afflictions". This, friends, is worthy of serious reflection; the blessed candles and the priest's prayer will not by themselves deliver anyone from "all other evil afflictions". The grace of God, by itself, is a powerful bulwark but a bulwark that will not stand by itself. It requires the support of much human will-power!

BY APPOINTMENT OF THE PRESIDING BISHOP, today is the day for emphasizing theological education in the sermon in every congregation in the Church. Father Weise, having been graduated from Nashotah House less than a year ago, is well informed on the school's program, its plans and opportunities,—and therefore will give the sermon today. Laymen have at least two parts to play in all of this: 1st,—to be open-minded to receiving a theological education themselves through their seminary-trained Priests, and 2nd,—to be open-handed for making a generous offering for maintaining and expanding the seminary that trains their Priests. Nashotah House has trained not only your present staff but many of the Priests that have served S. Clement's in the past. If you are not prepared today to make a special offering, keep the little envelope bearing the familiar picture of "Michael" in his rustic tower until such time as you can make an appropriate offering.

NOTES ON THE TRACT CASE: The A C News has not been bought lately as it should be. Of course, the greater number of our parishioners belong to the ACU and receive their copies by direct mailing. However, our monthly order is small and ought to be in demand by the few that do not belong to the organization. An excellent missionary project is to buy a copy and give it to somebody that does not know about the ACU and its program of fine works. Another important note on the Tract Case is financial. Somehow, the income from the coin box at the Tract Case hardly meets the cost of buying the items for sale. Is it possible that people sometimes "borrow" a magazine or tract, intending to return it after reading it, and forget to replace it or to pay for it? We expect to have losses on a few items, but we reasonably expect the Tract Case as a whole to maintain itself . . . The November issue of The Marianist has twice been exhausted (100 copies). Fifty more copies have been ordered and even now may be on hand.

Parish Notes

IF TODAY WERE NOT SUNDAY, the Mass would be that of S. Blasius, Bishop and Martyr, and the vestments red. Even though the feast is superseded by Epiphany IV the traditional Blasian Blessing of Throats will be given after each of the Masses. Please refresh yourselves on the message in last week's leaflet regarding this rite. The Grace of God is operative by itself through the blessing, but for it to be most effective the spiritual cooperation of the recipient is needed. Human will-power has a part to play.

THE RECTOR OF THE CHURCH OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD, Rosemont, The Reverend Father James H. Cupit, Jr., will be instituted at four o'clock this afternoon. This venerable Catholic Parish and S. Clement's have been good friends for many years and the retiring Rector, the Reverend Father Lander, who is a Priest-Associate of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity, often has taken part in functions at this Parish-Church. We welcome his successor, Father Cupit, to the Philadelphia community and pray God's blessing upon his ministry in Rosemont. A neighborly gesture would be for some of our Clementine laity to attend the Institution this afternoon and extend our parochial good wishes to the new incumbent.

OUR GUEST PREACHER a week from today will be THE REVEREND FATHER HARRY J. SUTCLIFFE. Father Sutcliffe, one of the few Priests that are completely sightless, is Executive Secretary of the Episcopal Guild for the Blind of the Diocese of Long Island. Being active also in the national Episcopal Guild for the Blind, Father Sutcliffe travels from coast to coast speaking to many groups of persons who are sightless or are aiding the sightless. He has had much to do with the making of various recordings which provide spiritual and intellectual recreation for those that are incapable of reading. Our preacher is a most loyal participant in the affairs of the American Church Union and has contributed heavily to the prestige of the ACU through his ministering to groups of the blind in the name of the ACU. His reports to the Annual Council and the Executive Board of ACU always are stirring and encouraging. Father Sutcliffe is an effective speaker of superior quality and S. Clement's is fortunate to have him as preacher next Sunday.

AND THERE WILL BE A FURTHER SPECIAL TREAT next Sunday. Following the Solemn Mass the Women of S. Clement's will hold a meeting open to the men as well as the women. Each will provide her or his box lunch; coffee and tea will be served by the committee. MRS. DRURY HINTON, representing the Episcopal Community Services, will speak after luncheon on the general subject of the various works of the Episcopal Community Services but especially on the Church's work among the blind in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Thus on one Sunday we shall follow a two-way approach to this highly important activity of ministering to those that do not have physical sight. The sermon by FATHER SUTCLIFFE and the address by MRS. HINTON will complement each other in giving hearers a deeper understanding of opportunities before us. Mrs. Hinton's program will be illustrated with colored slides giving something of the historical background as well as the rapidly expanding programs of the six divisions of Episcopal Community Services. It is hoped that many men and women will take advantage of this double-feature of the Church's work among the blind.

HOLY CONFIRMATION will be administered at S. Clement's at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of Low Sunday, April 21st. The Rt. Rev. Andrew Y. Y. Tsu will again be the Bishop that lays hands on our candidates and we are most happy to have him. However, we still are looking for and hoping for more candidates. Any visitors interested in receiving information about Confirmation, and any parishioners knowing of interested parties are asked to speak to one of the Priests. Instruction will be arranged for the convenience of all concerned. Having Confirmation at the Parish Church usually but once in two years we ought to have fairly good-sized classes.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

OUR GUEST THIS MORNING is the Reverend Father Harry J. Sutcliffe, Executive Secretary of the Episcopal Guild for the Blind of the Diocese of Long Island. Father Sutcliffe, himself sightless, is active in various organizations that in one way or another give assistance to the blind. He is a very able speaker and we are blessed to have him as our preacher today.

LUNCHEON IN THE PARISH HALL will follow the Solemn Mass today for those that have brought with them a box of food. Coffee, tea and cake will be provided by the committee. This meeting, sponsored by The Women of S. Clement's, is open to all that wish to attend, men as well as ladies. The speaker will be Mrs. Drury Hinton, representing Episcopal Community Services. Mrs. Hinton will tell of the various works of Episcopal Community Services and especially of the Church's work among the blind in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. During the question and answer period both Mrs. Hinton and Father Sutcliffe will be prepared to reply to inquirers. This meeting should be a high-light of this Season and it is hoped many of the congregation will avail themselves of this opportunity to become better informed on this highly important aspect of the Church's ministry.

THE VESTRY will meet in the Clergy House on Thursday at 4:30. Being S. Valentine's Day, it sets the scene for a happy session. The Father Rector promised the gentlemen of the Vestry a holiday cake and sherry to celebrate the adoption of a 1963 budget that provides suitable appropriations. However, to date some of our Clementines have not yet submitted pledges for this year. Without pledges, the budget will not be balanced! and no party!

THE ALTAR GUILD will attend Mass at 9:30 Saturday. Light breakfast and discussion will follow in the north room of the Parish Hall. All the women of the Parish are encouraged to attend this meeting and to join the Guild.

CLOTHING COLLECTION for Episcopal Hospital Thrift Shop. Today and next Sunday usable clean clothes may be brought to the Church for this purpose. The Thrift Shop will re-sell the clothing and use the proceeds to provide the patients with comforts not covered by the hospital budget.

LENT IS ONLY seventeen days ahead of us. Last year we had a remarkably good Lent as far as evenings and Sundays were concerned. While your Father Rector wishes ever so much that more people were at the week-day Masses he realizes the difficulty and even the impossibility many of our people experience in trying to come to the Parish Church at early hours on working days. For this reason he is all the more grateful for the increased attendance at other hours. If the public transportation is not operating by Lent we shall be seriously and literally impeded in our attendance. We have offered a novena and other prayers for an early settlement of the strike and ask parishioners to support this prayer-campaign for normal transportation.

THE REVEREND FATHER WILLIAM J. ALBERTS, Rector of Christ Church, Media, and one of the very ablest of the local preachers, will give a series of five sermons on Friday evenings at Stations of the Cross and Benediction. See our advertisement in The Church News for further details. Like the Dialogue Sermons of last Lent, this series should attract many visitors but above all, our own constituency. Plan now to assist at Stations every Friday, starting on March 1st, and to hear Father Alberts' stimulating sermons. And do not come alone; bring with you at least one friend who is not a Clementine.

S. MARY'S CHURCH, Bainbridge Street, is now completing a week of celebrating its feast of dedication and consecration and also the Patronal Festival. This evening at 6:30 will be Solemn Evensong and Benediction with sermon by the Father Rector of S. Clement's. A neighborly gesture would be that some Clementines attend S. Mary's, 1831 Bainbridge Street, this evening and that they extend the greetings of our Parish to S. Mary's on this its parochial festival.

Parish Notes

THIS MORNING FATHER WEISE initiates a series of three sermons. Appropriate to this season, the topics will be, respectively, "Humility", "Repentance", and "Sacrifice". A series of sermons always is most significant to those that hear them as a piece,—with one related to the others. Therefore, today's congregation is encouraged to return to the 11 o'clock Mass on the coming two Sundays in order that the hearers may gain full benefit of the one-message-in-three-chapters.

AN INNOVATION THIS LENT will be a series of meetings for discussion and inquiry on Wednesday nights. Beginning on the second Wednesday in Lent, March 6th, and continuing for five Wednesdays, the class will assemble at 8 p.m. in S. John's Chapel. The Reverend Father Weise will lead the discussion and answer the inquirers. This is a golden opportunity to undertake a missionary project. Each of you must know at least one person that is somewhat interested in the practice of religion but does not attend Church. Attendance at these meetings will commit your non-Church friends to nothing. All may ask questions without embarrassment. Through these sessions a few visitors may find the answers they long have wished to hear,—and thus they may gain the spiritual nourishment of sacramental religion, and the Parish may gain a few new members of its family. However, very few non-parishioners will come unless they are invited. And the inviting is up to YOU! The parishioners themselves will gain much by participating in these meetings and it is hoped this new Lenten event will be well supported.

THE PROGRAM FOR LENT is now being printed and soon will be mailed to members and be available at the Tract Case. Our last letter, that regarding the Nashotah House offering, was delivered in a few Philadelphia zones very late,—twelve days after being posted. We are deeply sorry for this delay and trust it will not happen again. However, our using the third-class mailing at only 1¼¢ is understandably a large saving in comparison with the increased cost of the first and second class mailings.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION will meet on Tuesday at the Church of the Holy Nativity, Germantown. Following Mass at 11:30 and luncheon, the Reverend Father Harry S. Longley, D.D., will give an address on "The Priest as Preacher". A guest of the Father Rector at this meeting and at the Clergy House Monday night will be the Reverend Father Stanley Skrzypek, Pastor of S. Joseph's Church, a congregation of the Polish National Church, in Middleport, Pa.

Parish Notes

OFFICIAL NOTICE of the ANNUAL MEETING of S. Clement's Parish is hereby given for Monday, March 4th at 8:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Election of four Vestrymen will take place. Those whose term of office expires this year and who are eligible for re-election are: Dr. Lukens, Dr. Holroyd, Henry Hagert and James D. Henderson, Jr. Those who will continue in office are: T. H. Clark, Fred Cooper, Robert N. Mattis, Dr. Ward, William Pike, Henry Reiter, John J. Sellers, Lealor Wilson. Nominations of candidates for the Vestry are to be written and placed in the hands of the Secretary, Mr. Clark, before the opening of the meeting.

A POT-LUCK SUPPER at 6:15 will precede the Parish Meeting. This will be an Open Meeting of the Centennial Committee. This means all parishioners are invited to attend the supper and share in the brief session of the Centennial Committee which will be held between the supper hour and the beginning of the Parish Meeting. Our 1964 celebration is one of our chief parochial interests, and the subject may be resumed after the completion of the more austere affairs of the business meeting. If you have ideas of what we ought to do, or what you wish we might do in observing the 100th anniversary of the consecration of the Church, you have this opportunity to impart your ideas to the committee.

THE SUPPER will be the responsibility of everyone that partakes thereof. A chart is on the bulletin board where you may indicate what you intend to supply. If it were to be strictly a matter of luck we might find on the tables an ample supply of meat loaves and no salad,—or quantities of devil's food cakes and nothing for the angels! Instead of Pot-Luck this will be a Pot-Planned Supper.

YOU ALL HAVE THE LENTEN PROGRAM, and more copies are available. Do please note the 12:10 Mass each Wednesday. Only a small proportion of our parishioners can attend early Mass in their Parish-Church. A much larger number can be here at noon on Wednesdays. On other week-days some of you will avail yourselves of the 12:10 Mass at S. Mark's. On every Lenten week-day but Saturday there is a Mass at S. Mark's at 12:10.

THE REVEREND FATHER ALBERTS will give the first in his series of sermons on Friday at our 8 o'clock Stations and Benediction. His titles as announced are enchanting; can you guess the subjects they imply? Every Clementine should be present for this series. You always have been good about making Friday Stations in Lent and last year you were exceptionally good. This year let us aim to exceed the 1962 record. We shall have visitors; please make a point of being cordial to those who come to join us in keeping Lent.

NOTE in the Kalendar the intention of the 7 o'clock Mass tomorrow. Your Father Rector was Master of Ceremonies at the great service of consecration and looks back upon the function with nostalgic thanksgiving.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday at Calvary Church, 814 N. 41st Street. The Reverend Father Wappler will continue his series on the significance of the Liturgical Year. Those wishing to make Shrove Tuesday confessions will have opportunity to do so.

THE TRADITIONAL RULES OF THE LENTEN FAST are:

1. ABSTINENCE from meat on Wednesdays as well as Fridays.
2. The FAST, which applies to all between the ages of 21 and 59, inclusive, except those whose diet to the contrary has been prescribed by a physician, is as follows:—a. One complete meal a day, either noon or night.
 - b. Breakfast and a collation, the total of which amounts to less than one complete meal.
 - c. Meat may be eaten at the main meal on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, except Ember Saturday.

Lent is primarily a time of fasting. It also is a season of voluntary denying ourselves personal pleasures for the sake of offering Our Lord that self-denial. The combination of fasting, self-denying and worshipping at special devotions can result in a fruitful, helpful spiritual exercise.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. The candles before the Blessed Sacrament and the Lady Shrine burned last week in memory of Rufus Henry Decker who departed this life Feb. 16, 1962,—the gift of his sister, Mrs. Henry Rianhard. R.I.P.

Parish Notes

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING will be held tomorrow night at approximately 8 o'clock in the Parish Hall. At 6:15 we shall have a supper for ALL parishioners. The supper-hour and the period of time preceding the Parish Meeting will be an Open Meeting of the Centennial Committee which ALL parishioners are encouraged to attend and in which they are asked to lend their vocal opinions as to ways we may most suitably observe our 100th anniversary. At the Parish Meeting the official parochial business will be conducted, including election of four Vestrymen (see last Sunday's leaflet) and reports of organizations, etc.

THE SUPPER tomorrow night will be supplied by those that partake thereof. Kindly see the chart on the bulletin board and note on it what you will provide. Those unable to bring a pot of food may contribute what they wish toward the cost of beverages, etc. While parish suppers are unusual in Lent this one is being held for the practical purpose of saving time rather than for sociability's sake. We hope for a large representation of the Parish and this means that you should be here.

THE MEN'S QUIET EVENING will be on Saturday, from five to nine. For many years this spiritual exercise has been a feature of S. Clement's Lenten seasons, and for good reason. A quiet review of one's life is necessary in order for the disciplinary and devotional aspects of Lent to be most beneficial. All of the men of the Parish and the older youths are hereby invited and urged to attend. The Conductor will be a young and new voice at S. Clement's: the Reverend Father J. Duncan Kenna, Priest-in-charge of S. Stephen's Church, Florence, N. J. Father Kenna, ordained Priest about three and a half years ago, has often been seen at Clementine functions and we regard him as one of our loyal parochial friends. Reservations for the dinner should be made through the Priests or with Carrie, the housekeeper, and the earlier the better. Clergy House 'phone is LO 3-1876.

THE ANNUAL RETREAT FOR WOMEN will be on Rose Sunday, three weeks from today. The Conductor will be the Reverend Earle H. Maddux, S.S.J.E., Chaplain at All Saints' Convent, Catonsville, Md. He will also preach the sermon at the Solemn Mass that day. Father Maddux is well known to those of you that have visited the Convent, and in view of the close association of the All Saints Sisters with our Parish, his visit here is all the more welcome. His brother, Scott Maddux, and his family, formerly lived on Appletree Street and were active members of S. Clement's. This will be the first Women's Retreat to be held since the withdrawal of the Mission Sisters. We therefore depend upon our parishioners to spread the news of the Retreat to non-parishioners that might be interested in making the Retreat.

THE LENT EMBER DAYS are Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Not merely days of fasting and abstinence, these are days of high devotion. Wednesday, because its Station is S. Mary Major and also because of its Gospel, is devoted to Our Lady; it is a day of reflection and spiritual orientation. Friday emphasizes conversion and penance. Saturday, a preview of Easter, marks the renewal of our baptismal covenant. (cf. P. Parsch: The Church's Year of Grace, Vol II.) One of our intentions on Ember Days always is that of the welfare of men studying for Holy Orders. Having presented three young men for the priesthood within recent months, S. Clement's should have a keen interest in the spiritual development of men still in the seminaries. Even if you cannot assist at Mass, make a point of offering prayers for those that aspire to Holy Orders.

AFTER SINGING in S. Clement's Choir for more than eight years ALEXANDER LA MONT III has resigned. His business has removed him to Chicago. He sang his last Mass with us a week ago today. Mr. La Mont, a musician of high calibre, has added much to the beauty of our music and to the efficiency of our choir. His rich bass will be much missed.

ASPERGES ME—Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, O Lord, and I shall be clean: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

PSALM—Have mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness: according to the multitude of thy mercies, do away mine offences.

Glory be to the Father . . . Thou shalt purge me . . .

INTROIT—Reminiscere. Call to remembrance thy tender compassion and mercy, O Lord, and thy loving-kindnesses towards us, which have been ever of old: neither suffer our enemies to triumph against us; deliver us, O God of Israel, out of all our misery and trouble.

PSALM—Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul: my God, in thee have I trusted, let me not be confounded.

Glory be to the Father . . . Call to remembrance . . .

KYRIE ELEISON—Missa l'Hora passa Lodovico Grossi da Viadana

GRADUAL—The sorrows of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my troubles, O Lord. Look upon my adversity and misery: and forgive me all my sin.

TRACT—O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever. Who can express the noble acts of the Lord, or shew forth all his praise: blessed are they that alway keep judgement, and do righteousness. Remember me, O Lord, according to the favour that thou bearest unto the people: O visit me with thy salvation.

CREED—Credo I Mode iv

SERMON THE REVEREND FATHER RECTOR

Parish Notes

THE PARISH has been shocked and deeply grieved at the sudden death of Mr. Henry S. Hagert on Monday, February 25th. Apparently in good health until Sunday morning, he was taken to a hospital that afternoon and died at 8:30 the following morning. His body was brought to S. John's Chapel on Wednesday and the Solemn Requiem Mass was offered at the High Altar on Thursday. Mr. Hagert was a Vestryman, serving as Chairman of the Music Committee and as a member of the Property Committee with special responsibility for exterior maintenance and improvement. Some years ago he designed and gave the two handsome metal Church signs; and he provided for their being altered upon the change in Rectors in 1956. More recently Mr. and Mrs. Hagert, both interested in the music of the Parish, gave the German harpsichord for the Church and the piano for the choir-room. As a professional designer he often gave his counsel on technical problems concerning equipment and appointments. For several generations, Hagerts have been members of S. Clement's Church and young Henry was an acolyte at our altars when he was twelve. As he began life ministering to the Church, his life on earth was ended with the Church ministering to him. A nurse of the Parish served his last physical needs and a Priest of the Parish ministered to him sacramentally. May he rest in peace.

THE VESTRY will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 at the Clergy House. This meeting, the first following the annual Parish election, is important for organizational reasons. Committees and their Chairmen will be appointed and confirmed at this session.

BECAUSE OF THE LAPSE of ten days between the writing of these Notes and their date of distribution, little can be reported of our Lent. The observance of Ash-Wednesday was close to our record of the past few years. About 175 persons were present at the several services; in addition to these a rather larger than usual uncounted number of visitors were in the Church throughout the day for their private devotions.

IF YOU HAVE NOT YET attended on a Friday night, you hereby are encouraged to do so. The making of the Stations is a Lenten devotion of long standing and venerable custom, and deserves the active participation of Catholics. Father Alberts' excellent sermons are sure to stir their hearers to a review of their lives,—their religion, their recreational habits, their business ethics, their use of leisure and of money. In brief, these sermons will throw light on the choices YOU make in the spiritual and secular aspects of your lives. Only three sermons in this series are yet before you. A word to the wise (I'd like to surmise) Will spark longings bright, T' attend Friday night.

THE ANNUAL RETREAT FOR WOMEN will be two weeks from today. Ladies, you are asked please to register early for the dinner. Procuring an adequate staff for such a function is a bit more of a job than the ordering of food; you will materially help the committee-in-charge if you will either sign up for the Retreat, or notify one of the Priests now. Father Maddux will come up from Baltimore to give the addresses and they will be of exceptionally high calibre.

YOUR FATHER RECTOR will go to Orange, N.J., on Wednesday to preach that evening at All Saints' Church, of which the Reverend Father William R. Wetherell is Rector.

SOMETHING NEW is being added. A Flower Chart is on the bulletin board. You are invited to look at it, and, if you wish, to sign your name at a date when you choose to provide flowers for the altar or the Shrine.

Parish Notes

THE ANNUAL RETREAT FOR WOMEN will be held a week from today. The Reverend Father Earle H. Maddux, S.S.J.E., Chaplain at All Saints' Convent, Catonsville, will give the addresses and also will preach at the Solemn Mass. Will the ladies intending to have meals in the Parish Hall during the Retreat kindly sign the form on the bulletin board? A light and very quick breakfast will be served after the 9:15 Mass for those that wish to make Holy Communion at that service. There will be an interval of only about ten minutes between that Mass and the first address; therefore the ladies that wish this breakfast are asked to leave the Church during the Last Gospel and go directly to the dining-room. Please indicate by an X, if you wish to have breakfast and/or dinner.

FOR MANY YEARS the Women's Retreat has been held on Rose Sunday. Spirited by the Mission Sisters, the women of the Parish and many friends from beyond our parochial borders have shared in this devotional exercise. Now, without the leadership of Sisters, you ladies are, so to speak, on your own. The greatest compliment you can pay to the Sisters and their loving attention to you in the past, is to support this 1963 Retreat with even larger numbers than you did when they were on our staff. You indeed are fortunate this year to have such a gifted and experienced Retreat-master as Father Maddux and you will be much rewarded for your extra effort to be present throughout the day. The Retreat will close with Benediction at 4 o'clock.

THE CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE of the Parish will meet at 8 p.m. on Tuesday of this week. In the meantime, all of you may be interested in perusing the proposed kalendar of events in 1964, posted in the Parish Hall. Suggested additions, omissions or changes should be voiced to a member of the Committee or to the Clergy before Tuesday's meeting.

THE REVEREND FATHER WEISE will preach at a Lenten service at S. Michael's Church, Yeadon, on Thursday evening.

A QUIET DAY FOR WOMEN will be held at S. Margaret's House, Germantown, on Tuesday, March 26th. Mass at 8:30; first address at 10:15; day closes at 3:15. Conductor: the Reverend Father George W. Davison. For reservations, call VI 4-4612.

THE RED CROSS is observing its 100th anniversary at this time. By international treaties known as the Geneva Conventions, which were first signed in 1863, the Red Cross protects wounded and ill combatants and the people caring for them, and people whose homelands have been occupied by enemy forces. In peace the Red Cross is the universal symbol around which people rally to aid and comfort the victims of earthquakes, floods, storms, and other natural disasters. With a total of 157 million in its ranks, the Red Cross averages one member out of every twenty persons in the world! When the opportunity presents itself, will you not join this mighty army of humanitarians?

THE PARISH MEETING, on March 4th, was a most happy affair. Preceded by an informal and open meeting of the Centennial Committee it got off to a good start. Enthusiastic interest in preparations for the 1964 series of events was manifest on all sides. Reports at the Parish Meeting were encouraging, and indicated a bright future. Robert E. Curry was elected to a three-year term on the Vestry, succeeding the late Mr. Henry Hagert. Dr. Lukens, Dr. Holroyd and Mr. Henderson were elected to succeed themselves. For the genial success of the supper, many thanks go to the many cooks who provided food, and a special orchid or two go to Mrs. Cooper and her group of helpers who managed things, and managed them so well.

Parish Notes

THE REVEREND FATHER EARLE H. MADDUX, S.S.J.E., Chaplain to All Saints' Convent, Catonsville, Md., is our preacher at Solemn Mass today and we welcome him back to this Parish where he already is quite at home. He is here primarily to conduct the Women's Retreat and we are deeply grateful to him for adding to that duty the responsibility for the sermon. The Cowley Fathers had such a very large part in developing this Parish in its earlier days and have been such frequent visitors since the time of their being the Pastors that we are doubly happy to have Father Maddux with us on this occasion.

WE ARE PLEASED to have women from other parishes among the retreatants and to them, too, we offer our cordial welcome. Those of you who are not in retreat are asked to be respectful of the silence being observed by the retreatants and to be as quiet as possible in the corridors, especially before and after the Solemn Mass. The Women's Retreat will close at 4 o'clock with Benediction which our parishioners and friends are invited to attend if they wish to share in the service.

SATURDAY NIGHT will be a Quiet Evening in two places in this community. Women are invited to S. Margaret's House, Germantown, from 4:30 to 9. The Conductor will be the Reverend Father William J. Shepherd, C.S.S.S. For reservations call VI 4-4612. The men are invited to the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont, from 5 to 9. The Conductor will be the Reverend Father Alfred L. Pederson, S.S.J.E. For reservations call LA 5-2241. The latter is sponsored by the Catholic Laymen's Union and annually is held at the Rosemont Parish.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will also have its monthly meeting this week. On Tuesday at 8 p.m. the group will assemble at the Church of S. James the Less, and Father Wappler will give another in his series of addresses on the Liturgical Year.

MID-LENT IS A DANGEROUS SEASON! If you made good beginning of Lent you will find that the tapering off of the requirements of your rule is easy. With the observance of Rose Sunday,—its anticipation of Easter joy, the flowers, the music, the note of rejoicing in the mood of this day,—all of these "unlenten accents" will encourage you, in case you already have slipped from your disciplinary ideal,—not to attempt a recovery. You may think,—"It is so near the end of Lent, I think I won't try again to keep my rule." And if you failed to make even a good beginning,—if you have done little or nothing about Lent,—you too will be strongly tempted not to start at this late date. Now these conclusions only follow a misinterpretation of the gladness of Rose-Sunday. True, the liturgy this day offers a bit of respite from the austerity of Lent, but only for the purpose of holding before the worshippers a fractional preview of Easter to encourage them in preparing for the Queen of Feasts. Instead of looking upon the happiness of this Sunday as a stopping place, all thinking Churchmen should regard it as a glorious note to spur them on to doubled or tripled efforts to keep a solemn, disciplined three weeks so that Easter may be the fulfillment of what Rose-Sunday only foretells. Wonderful days lie before us; make the most of them!

AT THE REQUEST of the Very Reverend Walter C. Klein, S.T.D., Dean of Nashotah House, the Father Rector will represent Nashotah House at the inauguration of the Reverend Dr. Donald V. Wells as President of Crozer Theological Seminary. The ceremony will be held Tuesday evening at the First Baptist Church.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

WITH THE ADVENT OF PASSIONTIDE this holy season takes on a different flavor from that of the first four weeks of Lent. Thus far in Lent we have thought a good deal about Our Lord's forty days of preparation for His ministry among men, and we have tried through meditations on this subject to gain insights into how we might better prepare ourselves for fulfilling our Christian vocations. Now we make the big leap from the beginning of Our Lord's ministry to the ending of His earthly life. Through meditations on the Passion and Death of Our Savior we shall try to gain insights into how to die that we might live. During Passiontide, and especially Holy Week, we are aided very much in our meditations by the Liturgy—or—we might put it the other way around and say that our meditations help us very much in appreciation of the Liturgy.

YOU WILL BE AIDED MATERIALLY in following the services and in appreciating their significance if you have a copy of "The Order of the Holy Week Rite". Many of you already have copies, bought in former years. If so, dig them out, dust them, and bring them with you next Sunday. A few copies are for sale at the Tract Case; we have sent for more copies and hope they will be delivered in time for use this year. Copies of "The English Missal"—people's edition—are on hand and for sale. These Missals have the revised Holy Week rite. Those of you that have the English Missal (at $5.00) do not have need for the above mentioned Order for Holy week (at 35¢).

THE REVEREND FATHER MICHAEL R. BECKER will be in residence at the Clergy House from Tuesday of this week through Holy Saturday. We shall be grateful for his assistance during these days which, in the life of every parish-priest, are filled to overflowing. We welcome Father Becker to our staff, even though his stay be very brief. He will preach on Palm Sunday and will assist with confessions and of course will offer several of the Masses.

THE REVEREND FATHER WEISE will preach at a Lenten service at All Saints' Church, Rawnhurst, on Thursday evening. On Friday evening he will preach at St. Clement's, in place of the Father Rector, and the title of his sermon is "My King Walketh in Through a City Gate".

BAZAAR NEWS! Announcement is made that on Thursday, May 9th, a Rummage Sale will be held; and on Sunday, May 5th, a Sale of Baked Goods. The profits on both of these events will be used to underwrite the cost of the 1963 Bazaar. If you engage in spring housecleaning and discover clothes, etc., no more to be used in your household, put them aside for the Rummage Sale or bring them to the Church, plainly marked for this purpose.

IN THIS SEASON of more than usual receptions of Holy Communion, at morning, at noon and at night, a reminder of fasting rules is in order. When the general rule was to be fasting from midnight if one were to make Holy Communion, the question of whether one qualified to make his Communion was easy. Either he was fasting from midnight or he was not. With the shortening of the fast, failure to live up to that shortened fast has become easy,—and in plain language, the Communicant must keep an eye on his watch. The time of the fast is never to be approximate; it must be at least as long as the stated minimum.

1. Water does not affect the fast before Holy Communion.
2. Beverages, not alcoholic, may be taken up to one hour before receiving the Blessed Sacrament.
3. Solid food may be taken up to three hours before receiving the Blessed Sacrament.

Rules 2 and 3 apply to clergy and laity receiving Holy Communion. For a priest celebrating Mass the fast from beverages and food must be one hour and three hours, respectively, before the time he begins the Mass.

EASTER CHARITY AND EASTER FLOWERS. Now is the time to make contributions to this fund. The Charity Fund will provide small holiday remembrances for parishioners that are unable to attend Church because of illness or infirmity. The Flower Fund will augment the gifts of flowers as listed on the Flower Chart. Gifts may be given to the Priests or to Miss Elsie Williams.

A NOTABLE MEMORIAL

S. Clement's is to be the recipient of a highly artistic addition to its appointments,—a completely new Christmas Creche. For some time Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hagert considered such a gift to the Parish, and since the death of Mr. Hagert a month and a half ago, Mrs. Hagert has provided for the creche as a memorial to her husband.

The gift includes a set of ten pieces of ceramic sculpture, glazed and fired. They are designed by Professor E. Pattarino of Florence and all of the work has been done in Italy. The figures are S. Mary, S. Joseph, the Bambino, two shepherds, three Magi, the ox and the ass. The kneeling figures are eighteen inches in height, the standing ones twenty-four inches. Each piece will come in its box, which will be used for protective storing of it during the greater part of the year. A photograph of these figures is evidence of their grace, their flowing liveliness, their dignity, their devotional character.

A new setting for the figures will be designed and executed locally and will incorporate suitable lighting. Inasmuch as the order has been placed, there is little question that the new creche will be installed and used during the coming Christmastide. We are deeply grateful for this gift to the Church; for years to come it will delight both children and adults.

These Italian figures were of such keen interest to Mr. Hagert that they are a highly appropriate memorial to him, and they will be a reminder to us who knew him of his affectionate regard for his Parish Church. May he rest in peace.

GRADUAL—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone: my treadings had well nigh slipped. And—why, I was grieved at the wicked: I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT—My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? And art so far from my health: and from the words of my complaint? O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me I am a worm, and no man: a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying; He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Parish Notes

TODAY HAS INITIATED THE WEEK distinct from all other weeks of the year. To tell Catholics that Holy Week is significant is about as startling as to tell children that candy tastes good. Children already are converted to the principle that the sweetness of candy is pleasant to the palate; and Catholics are converted to the principle that the events of Holy Week are the basis and means of man's salvation. To commemorate these sacred events year after year is a solemn joy and, by thinking Christians, is regarded more as a beautiful privilege than as a pressing obligation. A brief summary of what will happen at S. Clement's is offered for your convenience.

ON MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY evenings we shall have devotional services at 8 o'clock. THE REVEREND FATHER DAVIS will give a series of three addresses on The Cross and the Blessed Sacrament. Low Mass on each of these days will be at 7, 8 & 9:30.

ON HOLY THURSDAY the Solemn Mass will be at 6:15 p.m., followed by the Procession of the Holy Sacrament to the Altar of Repose and the Stripping of the High Altar. Every Churchman should, if possible, receive the Blessed Sacrament, on this the Birthday of that great Gift. Low Masses will be at 7 and 9:30; even those that receive at these earlier hours are encouraged to return for the Solemn Mass.

ON GOOD FRIDAY the Liturgy at noon is the climax of the entire week. If your time for being at Church is limited, do attend at least from 12 to 1:30. This is another occasion for receiving the Blessed Sacrament,—with the intention of intimately sharing with Our Lord His Passion and gathering the benefits of the Passion. At the 8 p.m. service Father Weise will give a meditation.

THE EASTER VIGIL at 10:15 Saturday night is the most exciting event of the week. For the first time since we have had this service at night, we shall have a baptism—lifting the blessing of the font to full significance. At the Midnight Mass Easter Holy Communion may be made. A good plan is to receive at the Midnight Mass and return to the 11 o'clock Solemn Mass as an act of special thanksgiving.

EASTER DAY itself is truly the Queen of Feasts and every Clementine surely will be on hand to help make it festive. Following the Low Masses, we shall have at 11 the Solemn Procession and the Solemn Mass with the music of one of our favorites,—Mozart's Missa Brevis in F. It will be as glorious a celebration of Our Lord's Resurrection as we can offer to Him.

THIS IS THE PLAN! We shall collect all the old gold and old silver we can legitimately lay hands on. You are asked to go through dresser drawers, cabinets, etc., looking for old spectacles, old dentures, old jewelry,—bent vases,—all of the pieces that have been too valuable to discard and not good enough to use. You may find some pieces that are genuine antiques. Every article that is donated to this collection will be disposed of in the most advantageous manner,—by selling them to be melted down, or by selling them as usable objet d'art.

MR. PAUL A. CASEY has accepted chairmanship of the collection. The old valuables may be brought to the Church where he will pick them up. Mr. Casey usually is present for the 11 o'clock Mass on Sundays. Among his assistants will be Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reiter who will pick up donations of those attending the 8 o'clock Mass; and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Peace who will receive gifts at the 9:15 Mass. This committee will be enlarged as needed.

THE FIRST PROJECT is that every Clementine scan his or her belongings for suitable contributions to this collection, and to ask friends who you think would like to add a bit to this painless method of raising a fund.

WE SHALL HAVE THE ORGAN by Centennial Year if each one backs the project with gifts convertible to cash!

Parish Notes

MAY THE JOY of the Easter Festival be with you, and the love of the Risen Christ abide with each of you today and always!

THE EASTER PARTY for children will be this morning during the usual time of their classes. The PARTY for adults and older youths will be on Friday evening after Solemn Benediction at 8. Following the austerity of Lent,—the walking of the way of additional self-denial,—the celebrating of the glorious Resurrection Festival ought to stir a longing for a bit of parochial sociability. It is hoped that many of our people will be present on Friday evening for a happy time together.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the GUILD OF ALL SOULS will be on Saturday at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin, New York. The Solemn Mass will be at 11 o'clock, followed by luncheon and the meeting. The preacher will be the Reverend Father Kenneth Ross, Vicar of All Saints' Church, Margaret Street, London. Father Ross, an eminent preacher, at present is the Visiting Lecturer in Ascetical Theology at General Seminary. Reservations for the luncheon, at $1.50, are to be made either by mail to the Sisters of the Holy Nativity, 133 W. 46th Street, New York 36, or by telephone to the Sisters' Mission House,—area code 212, number PLaza 7-6464. The reservations are to be made by Tuesday. This will be a beautiful day and, of the more than 100 members of S. Clement's Chapter of the Guild, several undoubtedly will attend the Annual Meeting and Mass.

THE Regina Coeli is said in place of the Angelus during Eastertide. For your convenience it is printed below. If you do not know it by memory, a good idea is to keep this leaflet, or that part of it, in your Missal during this season. After Solemn Mass on Sundays we sing this hymn to the popular seasonal tune, Lyra Davidica.

THE LENTEN SELF-DENIAL OFFERING will be applied against our Parish pledge to the Missionary Quota. If you have not yet submitted your folder full of dimes,—or a comparable offering by check,—please do so within the next week or two. THE EASTER OFFERING will be applied to the Maintenance Fund of the Parish. The last year or two the several special offerings, such as the Lenten and Easter Offerings, have not been supported as generously as in past years. As a result of this diminution, we have had to reduce our pledge to the Missionary Quota this year, a matter of embarrassment to your Rector and Vestry. Will you not examine your Lenten and Easter Offerings in the light of what they might have been? Supplementary offerings may then seem to you to be in order.

THE RT. REV. ANDREW Y. Y. TSU, D.D., will visit S. Clement's next Sunday at 4 p.m. to administer the Sacrament of Holy Confirmation and preach. Preceding Confirmation, Evensong will be sung. A small class, mostly adults, will be presented to Bishop Tsu.

A NEW ORGAN? — A PLAN

CLEMENTINES, IN GENERAL, love S. John's Chapel. It is small enough to be an intimate setting for meditations and services of lesser dimensions than those at the High Altar. It is artistic; it is historic in that the Stations there hung are the first ones used in S. Clement's Church seventy-five or more years ago by the Cowley Fathers. But, allowing for all kinds of admiration for S. John's Chapel, nobody could love that old reed organ. Now that it is usable only in limited ways, it is more unattractive than ever. A plan has been officially approved by the Vestry and has the informal but enthusiastic sanction of the Centennial Committee.

Parish Notes

THE RT. REV. ANDREW Y. Y. TSU, D.D., will visit S. Clement's this afternoon at 4 o'clock. After Evensong, the Bishop will confirm our candidates and will preach. We are honored to have Bishop Tsu at S. Clement's on this occasion. And further, we are most happy to extend to the confirmands, a genuinely cordial welcome to our Parish family.

THE ACOLYTES FESTIVAL, sponsored by the Catholic Clerical Union, will be at the Church of the Savior, 38th Street just above Chestnut, on Saturday morning at 10. Acolytes from all the congregations in the Diocese have been invited to attend. The clergy and the boys will assemble at the Divinity School and will march down the streets to the Church of the Savior. Our choir of boys will sing, and Mr. Sill will be the organist. The preacher will be the Rt. Rev. John M. Burgess, Suffragan Bishop of Massachusetts.

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA will meet on Wednesday at Grace Church and the Incarnation, Edgemont and Venango Avenue. The women's meeting will start at 4:30 and the Convocational Business Meeting will be at 5:15; dinner at 6:30 and Evensong at 7:30. Reservations for the dinner at $1.75 may be sent by mail to the Reverend Charles Hulet, 3631 E. Thompson Street or by telephone at GA 3-5851. We have invited the Convocation to meet at S. Clement's in the autumn of 1964. A good preparation for that event in our Centennial Year is to attend meetings and observe the mechanics of the Convocation.

A REQUIEM MASS will be offered for the happy repose of the soul of Henry Hagert on Wednesday at 7. R.I.P. This two-months' mind Mass is offered by Robert N. Mattis.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION will meet at S. George's Church, 61st Street, on Tuesday. The Reverend Father Paul C. Weed, Jr., Vicar of S. Luke's Chapel, New York, will speak on "The Priest as Confessor".

MR. SILL WILL give an organ recital two weeks from today, May 5, at 4 p.m. The collection will be added to the fund for sending the choir boys on their summer outing.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

LOOKING BACK ON EASTER and Holy Week, one sees ground for much rejoicing and deep thanksgiving. The services on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday were so very beautiful,—dignified and appealing. The congregations were attentive, serious in their participation in the rites, and appreciative of the significance of the long, unusual services. EASTER DAY itself was glorious. The Mozart Mass, the flowers, the vestments, the solemn procession and finally the singing of Regina Coeli,—all indicative of the joyful note of the festival,—“these are a few of my favorite things”. At the time of writing, our bookkeeper has not informed us of the amount of the Easter Offering. However, it looked like a generous one, and for this we are deeply grateful. In addition to the above, the real cause for thanksgiving is the congregation,—the many well-prepared receptions of Holy Communion, the very large number of penitents, and the many prayers offered privately before the Tabernacle and at the Lady Shrine. Truly this was a Holy Week and Easter long to be remembered.

SEVERAL LETTERS, addressed to the People of S. Clement's have been received at the Clergy House from those that were given Easter presents. As a Parish we are thankful that we are able to remember our house-bound members with gifts that seem to meet their needs. Miss Elsie Williams was in charge of preparing the boxes; a committee helped her with the preparations and with delivering the gifts.

THE SPRING IN-GATHERING of the United Thank Offering will take place on May 15th,—two weeks from Wednesday. The service will be in the Chapel of S. Cornelius at Valley Forge Military Academy at 10:30 a.m. Reservations for breakfast, at $2.25, are to be made as soon as possible with either Miss Williams or Mrs. Cooper. And your offering may be placed on alms basins at any service, or mailed direct to Miss Williams, 2041 Appletree Street, zone 3.

FIRST SOLEMN HOLY COMMUNION of the Confirmation candidates will be one week from today. The Confirmands, with their sponsors and their families, will receive the Blessed Sacrament at the 9:15 Mass. We are most happy to welcome these newly confirmed ladies and gentlemen within the circle of our Parish Family, and we hope they will feel quite at home with us. Your prayers are asked that they all will persevere in the Faith.

CORRECTION. About one month ago, this column announced a Bake Sale and a Rummage Sale to raise funds for underwriting the Christmas Bazaar. The error is the naming of the beneficiary. Actually, the profits from these two projects will be added to the fund for a new organ in S. John's Chapel. The Bake Sale will be held on Sunday, May 5th, and the Rummage Sale on Thursday, May 9th. Your contribution of goods to be sold is needed for both events. The old clothes can be brought to the Church at any time; the pies, cakes, etc., are to be brought on Sunday, the day of the sale.

WRITING THE ABOVE paragraph reminds us,—how are you doing in your search for old gold and silver? A few pieces have already been contributed. In order to raise the necessary cash, contributions will have to be made by every family of parishioners. We can hear the new organ in the Chapel by the beginning of Centennial Year, if every one will do his or her part in this collection of old gold and silver.

Parish Notes

THIS AFTERNOON at 4:00 Mr. Sill will give an organ recital. There are very few better ways to spend Sunday afternoon than coming to the Church for an hour of beautiful music. This annual event, like the others that have preceded it, is Mr. Sill's generous contribution to the parochial campaign for funds to provide a summer outing for the choir boys. Thus, your coming to the Church this afternoon is with a two-fold purpose: a, to hear the interesting program of organ music, and b, to give your support to the plan for sending our choir boys on their jaunt to Canada.

THE REVEREND FATHER CHARLES H. LONG, JR., rector of S. Peter's Church, Glenside, will address the open meeting sponsored by the Women of S. Clement's next Sunday after the Solemn Mass. The general theme of the meeting will be "The Rim of East Asia", and Father Long's subject will be "China in Revolution". All men and women are invited to attend. Each one attending is asked to supply his or her own box lunch. Cake and beverage will be provided.

THE CONFIRMATION CLASS will make their First Holy Communion at the 9:15 Mass this morning. As far as possible, their sponsors will attend with them. The receiving of Our Blessed Lord in His Holy Sacrament actually is the focal point and the goal of the candidates. THIS is what they have been anticipating during the period of instruction. We welcome these new members of our Parish Family of communicants and wish great joy for them as they progress in the spiritual life of close companionship with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

SALE OF BAKED GOODS! Today, before and after the Solemn Mass, will be a sale of home-made bread, pastries, cakes, etc. On Thursday at 11 a.m., will be a rummage sale. Both of these projects are for the benefit of the fund for an organ in S. John's Chapel. By the way, have you searched your house for gold and silver which we are collecting for the benefit of the same project? Do give your support to these several chapters of one campaign,—the procuring of a small pipe organ for the Chapel.

Parish Notes

AFTER THE SOLEMN MASS TODAY will be held the last open meeting of parishioners and friends sponsored by the Women of S. Clement's this season. The subject today is "The Rim of East Asia", and the program will be headed by the Reverend Father Charles H. Long, Jr., whose address will be on "China in Revolution". The meeting will be preceded by a box lunch. Cake and beverage will be provided by the committee.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH will attend Mass at the Chapel of S. Cornelius the Centurian at Valley Forge Military Academy at 10:30 on Wednesday morning. The United Thank Offering will be presented at this time. Luncheon will be served but reservations at $2.25 must be made today with Miss Elsie Williams.

A QUIET DAY FOR WOMEN will be held at S. Margaret's House in Germantown on Rogation Tuesday, May 21st. Mass at 8:30; first address at 10:15; day closes at 3:15. Conductor: the Reverend Father Francis P. Davis. Make reservations by calling VI 4-4612.

THE COMMITTEE FOR THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will meet after Solemn Mass a week from today. The chairman of each department is asked to attend; all of the helpers are welcome. The Bazaar 1962 will be reviewed and the Bazaar 1963 will be discussed. A very attractive and profitable 1963 project will be revealed at this meeting; everyone that is Bazaar-minded will be interested in this item. The best way to satisfy your curiosity as to the nature of this project is to attend the meeting on Sunday and see, first-hand, what this is all about. This will be another box-lunch meeting. Supply your own sandwiches, or whatever you wish, and cake and beverages will be provided.

ADVANCE NOTICE is given that the SOCIETY OF MARY will have its first annual meeting since the American Region has been established, at S. Clement's Church at 12 noon on Saturday, May 25th. Solemn Mass will be at noon, with sermon by the Reverend Father Grieg Taber, Rector of the Church of S. Mary the Virgin, New York. Reservations for the $2.00 luncheon must be made in advance by calling the Clergy House, LO 3-1876. This will be a gala occasion and we hope to have present all of the members of our Parish Ward and also visitors who are interested in becoming members.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

THIS IS A VERY SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT! Will not every one of you please read this paragraph. The American Region of THE SOCIETY OF MARY will hold its first annual meeting at S. Clement's on Saturday. It will open at 12 noon with Solemn Mass. The preacher at the Mass will be the Reverend Father Grieg Taber, Rector of the Church of S. Mary the Virgin, New York. All of the members of our parochial branch of the Society of Mary will, of course, be present. In addition to the members of the Society, all the members of the Parish are invited. Luncheon will be served in the Parish Hall at $2.00. Inasmuch as this will be a catered meal, definite reservations must be made in advance. Those that do not belong to the Society of Mary are most welcome at the luncheon. This Parish, demonstrating high devotion to the Mother of God, really ought to come in large numbers to the Mass and the luncheon. It is quite permissible to assist at Mass and not have luncheon. However, the meeting of people from other parishes is a pleasant sociability for all concerned. Do come if you possibly can. Reservations may be made with Priests, or by telephoning the Clergy House,—LO 3-1876.

THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE will meet after Solemn Mass today. Following the box lunch, the committee will discuss plans for the Bazaar '63. All those that help on Bazaar Day are invited to attend; the chairmen of departments are most urgently asked to be on hand.

ASCENSION DAY, Thursday, is one of the primary feasts of the Christian year, and a day when Churchmen attend Mass. We shall have Low Mass at 7 and 9:30, and Solemn Mass at 6:15 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday are the Rogation Days. On these days the Litany of the Saints will be said before the 7 o'clock Mass. The general intention of Rogationtide is for God's blessing on the spring planting.

THE REVEREND CANON JOHN CALNAN, M.B.E., Rector of S. Barnabas Church in Nassau, will be the preacher next Sunday. Your Father Rector became acquainted with Canon Calnan several years ago when visiting in the Bahamas. The Sunday after Ascension is observed in many parishes as Religious Life Sunday. S. Clement's is happy to give recognition to the religious communities, and is thankful for the several Clementines that now are professed members of one or another of the communities.

A QUIET EVENING for women will be held from 4:30 to 9:00 on Saturday at S. Margaret's House, Germantown. The Conductor will be the Reverend Father Walter E. Frieman, Th.D. For dinner reservations, telephone VI 4-4612.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION will hold its last meeting of this season on Tuesday afternoon and evening at Valley Forge Military Academy. The meeting will be in honor of our Diocesan, Bishop Hart, whose resignation will go into effect in July. At 4:45 will be a Regimental Review in honor of Bishop Hart and the Clerical Union. Following the Review the group will be guests of Lt. Gen. Milton G. Baker at dinner in Eisenhower Hall. The Clerical Union is deeply grateful to General Baker, a loyal Clementine, for so generously providing the party on behalf of the Clerical Union,—all in honor of Bishop Hart.

Parish Notes

THE REVEREND FATHER JOHN CALNAN, Canon of Nassau and the Bahamas, is a guest of this Parish for the week-end and is our preacher to-day. On a brief visit in this country, Father Calnan is seeing old friends and at least one former parishioner who now is a resident at S. Anna's Home. We are delighted to have him at S. Clement's this morning.

PATRONS OF MUSIC AT S. CLEMENT'S. By this date all of you should have received Parish Letter no. 67. It is an invitation to all of you to become sponsors of the summer outing of the choir boys. Your Father Rector is regretful and apologetic for not having issued this invitation a little earlier. As the schedule of events now is, you have very little time to deliberate. The Choir Concert is only one week from today. We shall print the names of the Patrons of Music on the back page of the program. Therefore the very latest date for your name to be included is Tuesday,—the day after tomorrow. We have had an unusually excellent season of music. The choir has not only mastered a large repertoire of music for the Mass and for other services, but each and every service has been at a consistently high standard. This standard is accomplished only through expert direction and many long rehearsals. While our boys are paid for attending rehearsals (they never are paid for singing at services) the summer outing is the treat to which they look forward from September until June. The cost of their summer travel is met by your gifts when you enroll as Patrons. We depend upon you, then. And, of course, you will respond with your customary generosity.

AMERICAN CHURCH UNION. Along with the appeal for Patrons, that letter also carries an appeal for support of the ACU. So many of our Parishioners are members of the ACU that we assume the Parish favors the organization and its program of good works. You pay annual dues, but the dues are not sufficient for maintaining the program. We, as a Parish, pledge support of ACU over and above the dues paid by members. This year we pledged $600. Will you not help S. Clement's to fulfill this promise?

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet on Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Christ Church, Ridley Park. Father Wappler will give the last in his series of addresses on the liturgical year.

THE CHOIR CONCERT, next Sunday at 4 p.m. We shall have strings, harpsichord and organ, and of course, our Parish Choir. Mark this day and hour on your memo pad,—and bring somebody with you that would not come unless you issued the invitation.

Parish Notes

CHRISTMAS, EASTER AND PENTECOST,—these three are the greatest of the Christian festivals and today is the observance of the last of these three to be observed in this liturgical year. These feasts convey a Trinitarian significance. Devotional emphasis at Christmas is heavily on the side of venerating the new-born Holy Redeemer; yet, the meaning of Christmas is that the Father so loved the world that He gave His only-begotten Son. "Of the Father's love begotten" is the opening phrase of one of our favorite Nativity hymns. Just as the Father is the central figure in the Parable of the Prodigal Son, so is the Father the central figure in the Christmas narrative . . . On Easter, Our Lord's Resurrection from the grave is His triumphant vindication of His claim to be Son of God. This is His essential act of victory . . . And Pentecost is the formal presentation to the world of God the Holy Spirit; this is the Day of the Holy Ghost's coming as the Sanctifier and Guide of the Holy Catholic Church. Most appropriately the Church has named the Octave of Pentecost the Feast of the Holy Trinity . . . Let us rejoice today and celebrate this festival in honor of the Third Person of the Holy Trinity,—God the Holy Ghost.

THE CHOIR CONCERT 1963 will be given this afternoon at 4. The choir, with organ, harpsichord and strings, will offer an excellent program. All Clementines are appreciative of the high level of musical artistry maintained by our choir, and this is your opportunity to give witness to your appreciation. Come to the concert this afternoon, and bring somebody with you who would not attend unless invited. Refreshments will be served in the Parish Hall after the concert.

ON THE EMBER DAYS, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, many candidates throughout the Church will be ordained. Coming at the close of the semi-annual year these Ember Days are popular times for ordinations. Your prayers are asked on behalf of the men studying for Holy Orders, those being ordained and for those that are in the early stages of realizing a call from God to serve Him in the priesthood. The Ember Days are days of both fast and abstinence.

HAVE YOU LOOKED for silver and gold on your premises? You recall that we are collecting old metal, either in the shape of usable jewelry or of pieces to be melted simply for the gold or silver. A few parishioners have submitted pieces which have already been sold at good prices. Many more of you must surely have some unused precious metal tucked away in your homes. The profit on the project will be applied toward the purchase of a small pipe organ for S. John's Chapel. When you discover a mine of gold or silver, bring it with you to the Church. Official collectors are Mr. Paul A. Casey at 11 o'clock Mass, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Peace at 9:15, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reiter at 8.

THE ANNUAL SOLEMN PONTIFICAL MASS, LUNCHEON AND MEETING of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament will be held at 11 o'clock on the Saturday after Corpus Christi, June 15th—a week from Saturday. It will be at S. Andrew's Church, Baltimore. Reservations for luncheon, at $1.75, are to be made by Saturday of this week. Send remittance to Mrs. Catherine Carter, C/o S. Andrew's Church, 6515 Loch Haven Boulevard, Baltimore 12, Md. Your tickets will be held for you. It is hoped that some Clementines will attend this observance of the 101st year of the C.B.S.

Parish Notes

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK marks the official arrival of summer. The calendar tells us this much. But other events assure us that summer is already with us. The great festivals of the spring cycle are passed. Easter, Ascension, Whitsunday, Trinity and Corpus Christi—these wonderful days are all behind us until spring 1964. This succession of festivals offers us practical help in living close to God and His Saints. While each festival is an end in itself, it also is a springboard to start us on our way to the next great day. During Lent we look forward to Easter; on Easter we look forward to the Ascension, etc., until we arrive at Corpus Christi which we are solemnly honoring this morning. This feast, however, is a springboard only into the long Trinity season. The next very special day is the Assumption of Our Lady on Thursday, August 15th. And so the summer comes as a good testing season,—a season for testing our loyalty to Holy Church. Every Sunday is a little Easter; every Sunday commemorates the Resurrection of Our Lord. If this were not the case we would still be keeping Saturday as our holy day of each week. And so,—each of these green Sundays of the summer,—each of them is a great and holy day; each Sunday may be described as "This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it." If Easter really means something to us, if it truly is the festival of Our Lord's greatest victory, we should see to it that every communicant is in Church offering his Mass of thanksgiving EVERY SUNDAY. Attendance on Easter Day should not be exceptional; it should be our regular Sunday by Sunday family of the faithful. Or, to put it the other way around, our Sunday by Sunday congregations should be no fewer than the family of the faithful that attends on Easter Day.

AT S. CLEMENT'S we ordinarily have a good many visitors at 11 o'clock on summer Sundays. In fact if our own people came in the same proportion that the visitors do, our pews would be very nearly filled on these green Sundays. Some of you are away on holidays, or go to the shore just for the day and attend Mass over there. Fine. That's good. But as long as you are within reasonable travelling distance of S. Clement's, we hope to see you here in your Church home.

OUR NEIGHBOR, Father William D. Turner, is observing the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the Priesthood. Solemn Evensong and Solemn Benediction will be at 6:30 this evening at his parish, St. Augustine's Church of the Covenant, 27th Street and Girard Avenue. We offer our congratulations to Father Turner and assure him of prayers at S. Clement's in thanksgiving for his ministry and for God's blessing upon him. It is hoped that some Clementines will be present for the festive function tonight.

THE VALLEY FORGE CONFERENCE opens this afternoon at Valley Forge Military Academy. Eight young people from S. Clement's,—five girls and three boys,—will be participants. Not anywhere in the country is there a summer conference for young people that matches this one, and we are indeed fortunate to live so close to it. The conference has been held annually without interruption for three decades. Catholic life and worship have been taught and witnessed. The Church in this area where hundreds of students have been influenced by the conference is indeed richer because of the Valley Forge standards.

Parish Notes

THIS IS THE LAST of the weekly leaflets until autumn. We shall compensate for omitting a leaflet on June 30th, by reviving the publication, not on October 6th, but on the last Sunday in September, the feast of S. Michael & All Angels. Likewise the Solemn Mass on Sundays will give way to High Mass without Deacon and Sub-Deacon.

SUMMER VACATION PLANS of the Clergy are not very different from those of other years. During July the Rev. Father Weise will have Sunday Masses at Emmanuel Church in Quakertown and on the days between Sundays will travel hither and yon visiting friends. During August the Rev. Father Davis will visit the Franciscan Monastery on Long Island and thence go on to New England, returning to the Clergy House shortly after Labor Day. If you see the Father Rector accompanying an attractive young lady that you had not seen before, don't suppose that you have discovered grounds for either a romance or a scandal. In a way it may be a romance but not what the world usually calls romance. His niece from Wisconsin will make her initial visit to Philadelphia and S. Clement's about mid-July. Following a few days here in this city, they will drive up to Bloomsburg and into New England, stopping in Conn., R.I., Mass., and N.H., to visit relatives and friends, concluding their jaunt in early August with a few days in New York. The Rev. Father James Halfhill will be in residence for about a month, from mid-July to mid-August, so that there always will be two priests on duty.

THE CHOIR BOYS and Mr. Sill are the first ones to depart for a holiday. On Saturday they will board the Trinity, Ambler, Mercedes-Benz bus, and head for the Canadian Gaspé and their days of camping with boys from the Archdeaconry of Quebec. If any of our readers that are not "Patrons of Music at S. Clement's" wish to help provide this outing for our sopranos, contributions are very welcome, and may be given to one of the Priests or placed in the alms basin. This company of musical troupers will begin their jaunt on Saturday, the Feast of the Holy Apostles, SS. Peter & Paul. We wish them well on their travels and a safe return home.

WE CANNOT send out this last leaflet of the season without once more reminding you of our hopes of purchasing a small pipe organ for S. John's Chapel. Our hopes are based on the expectancy of a large collection of old silver and gold to be sold for the benefit of the Organ Fund. A few, but only a few, parishioners have responded to this appeal with generous contributions of old metal. Some pieces have been sold as fine old pieces of artistic metal work, and others have been sold simply to be melted down. Silver is up to a very good price at present, about $1.00 an ounce. Your banged up and bent pieces of old silver, then, will bring a better price than you probably have thought that they would. Please respond to this appeal if you possibly can.

HAVE A HAPPY SUMMER. Be at Mass every Sunday, no matter where you may be week-ending. And as often as possible return to your own Parish Church, where our summer schedule of services remains the same as that for the winter,—8, 9:15 and 11. Auf Wiedersehen, Au Revoir, So Long—but, only until next Sunday!

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

WITH A DEEP SENSE OF JOY and thanksgiving today we resume the Solemn Mass as the principal act of worship every Sunday. Ushering in the new season are S. Michael and all the Angels; we truly are on the angelic high-way and if we submit to the direction and protection of those spiritual messengers of God, we are certainly going to be growing in God's favor. Never underestimate the graceful power of the holy angels.

TODAY the Vatican Council II opens its second session. The special intention of the Solemn Mass of S. Michael and All Angels is for God's blessing upon and direction of Pope Paul VI and the Council Fathers. Almost day by day we hear or read of exciting proposals that will be considered and perhaps adopted. Many of these proposals, if adopted, will further the cause of uniting Christians within the arms of Catholic Faith and Order. You are asked to pray daily for this Council.

OUR DIOCESAN, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Armstrong, has authorized the use of a prayer for the guidance of the Diocesan Convention in electing a Bishop Co-adjutor. This election is highly important for it actually is the election of the future Bishop of Pennsylvania. At S. Clement's we shall use the prayer at all Masses, except requiems, just before the Prayer for the Church. Please clip this copy of the prayer and use it in your daily intercessions:—

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, who knowest the needs of Thy Church in every place; look graciously, at this time, upon the people of this Diocese, and so guide and govern the clergy and laity, that they may faithfully and wisely make choice of a fit person to serve as Bishop Co-adjutor; and to him who shall be ordained to this holy function, give Thy grace and heavenly benediction that he may serve before Thee, and, by Thy blessing, bring many souls to the joys of Thy eternal kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ADULT CLASS will have its first meeting of the season today after the 9:15 Mass. The Church School for children and young people will have classes a week from today.

THE EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES will have Open House from 3 to 5 this afternoon for the purpose of honoring Bishop Stevens who was Bishop of Pennsylvania from 1865 to 1887. From the viewpoint of history it would be a gesture of genuine charity for members of this parish to attend this Open House. Bishop Stevens maintained a constant and unrelenting attitude and campaign of belligerence against S. Clement's Church, and made life for the Cowley Fathers—then in charge of the parish—one hectic explosion after another. It is a happy irony that at present the Bishop Stevens Library at the Divinity School and the Yarnall Library lie side by side. Integration is a popular action these days, and the two libraries, now housed within the same building, very soon will be completely integrated. Do go to the Open House this afternoon! See bulletin board for further details.

A CONFERENCE FOR ALL CLERGY OF THE DIOCESE will be held on Thursday and Friday of this week at Chalfont-Haddon Hall in Atlantic City. Father Davis will remain at home to hold the services, etc., but the Rector and Fr. Weise will make the Conference.

A CARD PARTY will be given by the Young People of the Parish on Tuesday, October 8, at 8:00 p.m. Donation $1.00. The proceeds from this affair are the only source of income for the SCYO. Won't you give support to this project.

Parish Notes

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA meets on Tuesday at S. George's Church, Richmond. The business meeting is at 5:30; Even-song at 6:00; and the dinner at 6:45, followed by the program of speakers. The Convocation has accepted the invitation of S. Clement's to meet here in the autumn of 1964. A good move right now would be for a number of our parishioners to attend the Convocation at S. George's and learn what happens. Reservations for the dinner ($1.75) should be made immediately—, by telephone. See details on either bulletin board.

THE VESTRY will hold its first meeting since spring on Tuesday at 4:30 at the Clergy House.

THIS IS FIRE PREVENTION WEEK. Philadelphia has made an exceptional record in preventing fires. But even so, the number of building fires in our city went up from 3876 in '61 to 5212 in '62. Better clean the attic and basement and get rid of all easily inflamed junk.

THE COMMITTEE FOR THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will meet to-day after the Solemn Mass. The Bazaar will be held on Thursday, November 14th. There are only six weeks to complete preparations for this gala event.

THE COMMITTEE FOR THE CENTENNIAL will meet on Monday at 8 p.m. in the Parish House. In less than three months we shall actually be in our centennial year. The big project at this time is the preparation of the script for the book that will be published in 1964. Miss May Lilly has accepted the appointment of chief editor and is very hard at work on research and on writing copy. More about the book will follow in coming leaflets.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S will hold their first meeting of this season a week from today. They will have a box lunch after the Solemn Mass. Each supplies her own lunch; beverage and cake will be served. Plans for the season will be announced and discussed. The program for the meeting will be "A Commentary on S. Luke's Gospel as Devotional Reading," to be given by the president, Mrs. Cooper. All the women of the Parish, regardless of age, are invited.

REGARDING THE WEEKLY LEAFLET. Many people, both of the Parish and out of the Parish, wish to receive the leaflet by mail. It usually is delivered in the Thursday morning mail. Rates have moved up on the spiral of inflation so that we now must charge $3.00 a season for first class mail and $2.50 for second. Please be assured that S. Clement's is not helped at all by this bit of commerce. In fact we lose a little in the transaction. The mailing is done as a convenience to our parishioners and far removed friends. The leaflet will be sent during October to all those that subscribed last year. But with the first leaflet for November it will be mailed only to those that have subscribed. Please make checks payable to: S. Clement's Rector's Fund.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. On summer Sundays, because there is no leaflet, the parishioners are not informed of the gifts of flowers or candles. The flower donors are usually posted on the handsome Flower Chart, designed and painted by Mrs. Salvatore Campisi. But the candle offerings are not identified. Several weeks during the summer the 7-day candles that burn before the Blessed Sacrament and at the Shrine of Our Lady of Clemency were personal gifts. It is good to know that these large candles may be bought and offered to the glory of God and the high honor of the Blessed Mother. The usual offering for the 7-day candles is one dollar. This is a lovely kind of offering, and is available to anyone who wishes to take advantage of this spiritual opportunity.

Parish Notes

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S will meet after Solemn Mass today. Following a box lunch they will have a program under the direction of Mrs. Fred Cooper, president of the parish group, and make plans for the coming season.

CHRISTMAS CARDS will be on display and for sale after the Masses today and all Sundays up to Christmas Day. This is a project of the Bazaar. The sale is being started now in order to provide the widest assortment from which to choose your cards. The Bazaar will be on Thursday, November 14th, a bit earlier than usual. The committee, in choosing this date, wished to have the event before the rush of December days.

THE ALTAR GUILD OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA will hold the Annual Quiet Evening on Wednesday of this week. The first address will be at 5, and the dismissal at 9 o'clock. The conductor will be the Reverend Father Frank Williamson, Jr., retired Rector of S. Michael's Church, Yeadon. The members of the S. Clement's Altar Guild and other interested ladies are very welcome to attend. Each supplies her own box lunch; coffee and tea will be provided. For many years the Diocesan Altar Guild has held this annual event at S. Clement's and we are most thankful to have them continue to do so.

A RUMMAGE SALE will be held in the Parish Hall on Thursday, from 11 to 5. Contributions of things to be sold should be brought to the Hall by Wednesday, if possible. The committee will be on hand Wednesday evening to receive clothing, etc., and to arrange same for the sale.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL UNION will meet on Tuesday at the Church of the Ascension, Gloucester City, N.J. The speaker will be the Reverend Canon A. J. duBois, Executive Director of the ACU. His subject will be "Toronto and All That." Inasmuch as, according to a slogan, nearly everybody in Philadelphia reads the Bulletin, we assume that nearly everybody in Philadelphia knows about the September meeting of CCU and the magnificent address by the R.C. Bishop of Pittsburgh, The Most Rev. John J. Wright. Our only regret in regard to that program is that all of you parishioners did not hear it. Perhaps there will be an opportunity on some future day for you to hear Bishop Wright. About 135 priests and Bishop Armstrong were in attendance at Christ Church, Media, that day,—the largest CCU meeting in this area for many years, probably the largest ever.

YOUR FATHER RECTOR will take off for points westward right after the CCU meeting. The plan of a trip west just at this time was initiated by announcement of two meetings out there that he should attend. On October 23-24 the Annual Council of ACU will be held at S. Luke's Church, Evanston. This will be the first ACU Council not held in New York. One week later, October 30, the Trustees of Nashotah House will meet in Milwaukee for electing a dean to succeed the Rev. Dr. Klein, now Bishop Coadjutor of Northern Indiana. With these two meetings as the beginning, the trip has been expanded a bit in order to visit relatives and friends, and perhaps manage a few days of doing nothing at all. He will return to S. Clement's about November 1st, possibly in time for the 6:15 Solemn Mass of All Saints.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

SATURDAY MORNING will be the time of the Installation of the Rt. Rev. Joseph Gillespie Armstrong as the Bishop of Pennsylvania. The function will take place at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr. Since the day of Bishop Hart's retirement, July 18th, Bishop Armstrong actually has been the Ordinary. Saturday's service is the formal action, or recognition of him as the Bishop of the diocese. At times of such historic significance to the diocese we realize acutely the lack of a cathedral. The one and only church in a diocese that should have a Bishop's permanent chair is the cathedral. The church that has the official "cathedra" in its sanctuary, is the cathedral church. Many of our parish churches have permanent cathedras in their sanctuaries, often taking space that could be better used in other ways. At S. Clement's we do not have a permanent cathedra simply because it is out of place in a parish church. When the Bishop makes a visit to our parish we erect a throne for his use, properly elevated and ornamented with hangings. Opinion in this parish is that the Diocese of Pennsylvania seriously needs a cathedral of such size as will accommodate large numbers of people and of such dignity as befit a metropolitan diocese. Church House ought to be on near-by or adjoining property. If the two are separated from each other, regrets for the separation will increase as years pass. If we have an outlying cathedral, we should have an outlying Church House; if we have a center city cathedral we should have a center city Church House. The question of where either one should be in this diocese will not be so simply solved. Hundreds of people are involved in making decisions and therefore hundreds of opinions are held and expressed. At any rate, we are terribly sorry we do not have a fine, inspiring cathedral church for Bishop Armstrong's enthronement and for the consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet at 8 p.m. on Tuesday at Christ Church, Media. The Reverend Father Alberts, Rector of Media, will give the first of his two lectures on "The Creeds". In the earlier years of this organization men of S. Clement's apparently attended in large numbers. Very few of our laymen any longer support the Laymen's Union. This is a good year to try and recapture the zeal of former years. 1964, our Centennial year, is not far away. We shall invite members of other parishes to some of our historic functions. We do not have reason to expect others to respond favorably to our invitations unless we respond to theirs.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH UNION will hold its annual Council at S. Luke's Church in Evanston, Illinois, on Wednesday and Thursday. In all of its years the ACU has held every Council in New York because the organization was incorporated in New York. About a year or so ago it was revealed by the legal advisers that the meeting may be held outside the state. And so this year, when invited to go to Evanston, the ACU enthusiastically accepted. Your Father Rector will be there. Mr. Cooper, a member of the Council, and Paul Cooper, president of the Catholic Club in Cleveland, will also be in attendance. On the Sunday this leaflet is used, October 20th, your Rector will be with the Reverend Father James Pearson, former curate at S. Clement's, and the Reverend Father William Carpenter. Both have cures in the Diocese of Springfield,—and we offer thanksgiving for their being amongst us,—that they have come back home.

A QUIET DAY FOR WOMEN will be at S. Margaret's House, Germantown, on Tuesday, October 29th. Mass at 8:30; first address at 10:15; day closes at 3:15. Conductor: The Reverend Father George W. Davison.

Parish Notes

TODAY WE SALUTE, WE VENERATE, WE WORSHIP, WE ADORE OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST THE KING. If we think of our Lord's Kinship in relation to the proceedings of the Vatican Council, we can see the ever-widening, ever embracing arms of Holy Church eagerly receiving more and more of the soldiers of Christ the King. (These notes are being written on October 11th and may not quite apply to the situation. On the other hand, the note of charitable progress that has been heard in the early days of this second session of the Council leads your Rector and other Anglicans to expect the Kingdom of Christ to include an increasing number of subjects of the King.) What a glorious day to look forward to,—the day when all professing Christians can march arm in arm, spiritually united, and all raising their voices in praise of Christ the King,—giving their lives for the well-being of the Kingdom on earth,—Christ's Holy Catholic Church.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR, (The Holly and the Ivy) Thursday, November 14th.

TOMORROW, the feast of SS. Simon & Jude, is the third anniversary of the death of the beloved Rector-Emeritus, Father Joiner. Only three days earlier, the feast of SS. Crispin & Crispinian, was his birthday. This year he would have been 76. The anniversary requiem Masses will be offered at 7 and 8 on Tuesday. May he rest in peace.

LETTERS HAVE BEEN MAILED to all of our families regarding the major Holy Days at the end of this week. On ALL SAINTS DAY, Friday, we shall have Low Masses at 7 and 9:30, and the Solemn Mass at 6:15 p.m. Because of the importance of this Holy Day and its jubilant character, it is not a day of abstinence. The Novena will be at 5:45. Saturday is the COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED. The Masses for All Souls Day will be at 7, 8 & Solemn Mass at 11. Please submit your lists of names of those you wish to be prayed for by Friday night at the latest. The names will not be read on Saturday, but at Masses for the dead in November. The schedule will be published in next week's leaflet. All of the persons whose names are submitted will be prayed for at the Masses on All Souls Day, but the names will not be read at that time.

THE ALL SAINTS-ALL SOULS OFFERING is the once-a-year collection within our parish for the All Saints Sisters of the Poor. The collection is divided,—not evenly in two parts,—but in two uneven parts. The smaller share is given to the Guild of All Souls, and the larger share is given to the All Saints Sisters of the Poor. We are so thankful to have these good Sisters living in our Parish, attending Mass regularly in our Church, helping in the Sunday School,—that we wish to give them an outward sign of our gratitude for their witness here in the parish. This offering in past years has been generous, and we hope the parishioners of S. Clement's continue to share their good fortune with these Sisters at S. Anna's Home.

A QUIET EVENING FOR WOMEN will be held from 4:30 to 9:00 on Saturday, November 2nd at S. Margaret's House, Germantown. The Conductor: the Reverend Father Edward L. Lee, Jr. Register early at VI 4-4612.

Parish Notes

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR—the Holly & the Ivy—November 14th!

THIS IS THE FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE CHURCH.

It is an arbitrary choice. In several dioceses the Bishop names one Sunday, usually in the autumn, when the dedication of all the churches of that diocese are celebrated. The first Sunday in November, or the Sunday following All Saints Day, has been a popular choice and for many years S. Clement's has observed this day as its Feast of Dedication. Next year we shall follow a more accurate schedule. The calendar is kind to us next year. Here is the order of parochial dates which should be of interest to all:

SEPTEMBER 13, 1855. A charter was granted to "The Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of S. Clement's Church in the City of Philadelphia". The clerical leadership in accomplishing this organization was by the Reverend Harry S. Spackman, at that time Curate at S. Matthew's Church, Francisville. Mr. Spackman had been Rector of S. Mark's Church, Frankford, and later accepted the call to be Curate at S. Matthew's.

JANUARY 1, 1856. The Reverend Mr. Spackman began his administration of S. Clement's. An unrevealed item is the location of the church services. There is no record of parochial services before those held in the new church.

MAY 12, 1856. The corner stone was laid by the Rt. Rev. Alonzo Potter, 3rd Bishop of Pennsylvania; sermon by the Reverend E. A. Washburn, Rector of S. Mark's, Locust Street.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 4th, 1859. The Church was opened for services on this day. This would necessarily be a more or less informal initiation of the Church for purposes of worship. A Church may not be consecrated until it is free from debt. According to various stories this parish had rather a long and hard time paying the debt contracted by construction of the building.

TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 1864. The Church was consecrated by Bishop Potter. The sermon was preached by the same Reverend Dr. Washburn. This is really the big day. Cathedrals and Churches observe the anniversary of this event as the principle diocesan or parochial feast. We shall celebrate this historic event next year on Sunday, April 12th.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR—The Holly & Ivy—Thurs., November 14th!

REGARDING THE LISTS OF NAMES submitted for commemoration on All Souls' Day, we shall use them as we have in recent years. All the persons whose names were submitted were prayed for at all the Masses on All Souls' Day. The lists lie on the altar at every Mass offered in November and the spiritual welfare of those whose names are there inscribed is a secondary intention at every Mass offered during this month dedicated to the Holy Souls. The lists have been divided into four sections,—one group of names to be read at a Requiem Mass. The following schedule applies to the names of those who submit the lists; it does not apply to the names of the departed for whom we pray.

Wednesday, November 6, 7 & 9:30—lists submitted by A through F

Tuesday, November 12, 7 & 8—lists submitted by G through L

—Wednesday, November 20, 7 & 9:30—lists submitted by M through R

Tuesday, November 26, 7 & 8—lists submitted S through Z, and also those lists submitted without names of petitioners.

Christmas Bazaar—The Holly and the Ivy—November 14th. Everybody should have dinner tickets by this date. Hurry, Hurry.

CONTINUOUS NOVENA, DAILY AT 6 P.M.
SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF CLEMENCY

Parish Notes

S. CLEMENT takes over two weeks from today and we are thankful for the opportunity to thank and honor him. Friday 22nd we shall have Solemn Evensong, with sermon by the Rev. Father Paul C. Kintzing and Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Saturday, the 23rd, is the actual holy day. We shall have Low Mass of our Holy Patron at 7, 8 and 9:30. On the next day, we shall have the green Mass of the Sunday next before Advent at 8 & 9:15. At 11 o'clock we shall have the Solemn Votive Mass of S. Clement, celebrated in the presence of the Right Reverend Daniel Corrigan, D.D., Director of the Home Department of the National Council. With the kind permission of the Bishop of Pennsylvania, Bishop Corrigan will occupy the bishop's throne and perform the episcopal ceremonies, and will preach the sermon. Our guest of honor was at Nashotah House when both your Rector and Father Davis were students there. We are delighted to have him visit us on this festive occasion, and we are thankful to be able to introduce Bishop Corrigan and S. Clement's congregation to each other.

A RECEPTION will be held after the service on Friday evening when we hope that the Bishop will be with us, and also when we shall have a pleasant time greeting parishioners, some of whom we seldom see at our social functions.

THE SERVICE FOR THE UNITED THANK OFFERING will be held at S. Mark's Church, Locust Street, on Wednesday evening the 20th. A dinner, at $1.75, will be served at 6:15 in S. Mark's Parish House. The dinner is provided largely for the benefit of women who live a distance from the Church and are unable to go home for their evening meal. Reservations will have to be made in advance by telephoning the Women's Office at Church House, LO 7-6650. Please submit your autumn offering to Miss Williams so that she can have the parochial offering in hand to present at the service Wednesday night.

THE BIG EVENT OF THIS WEEK is the Christmas Bazaar on Thursday. There will be two sittings for the dinner—at 5:30 and at 7:00. We hope to have all places filled at 5:30 so that the popular hour of 7:00 does not attract more people than there are places for them. At each sitting the popular Auction will be held, and this is one of the most profitable projects of the entire Bazaar. All dinner guests should have with them a good supply of change, and currency to contribute to the Auction. The project is lots of fun for everyone when there is spirited, competitive bidding. Without a degree of competition the auction falls flat. Let's keep it on the level of good, wholesome cooperation. If you have not sent in goods for the sales tables, you still have time to do so. On Wednesday night many of the Bazaar staff will be on hand, and you can deliver things even at that late hour. The Holly and the Ivy will be the decorative scheme,—a bit simpler than we've had in recent years but equally as attractive. This is the only large-scale money raising project that S. Clement's undertakes, and all effort should be made to keep the Bazaar an enjoyable affair. Its success depends upon you, our parishioners. If you come and enter into the spirit of the festive evening, the Bazaar is bound to be good; if you don't, the Bazaar will be a mediocre affair. Let's keep it up there where it always has been!

A BLESSED CLEMENTIDE to all Clementines!

This coming week-end will be a gala time for all the members of S. Clement's Church and for our friends from other congregations that join us in honoring our Holy Patron. Our guest of honor is a newcomer to this Parish. He is the Rt. Rev. Daniel Corrigan, D.D., formerly Suffragan Bishop of Colorado, and now Director of the Home Department of the National Council. Bishop Corrigan has been well known to your Rector and to Father Davis for more years than any of us cares to admit,—at least forty years.

On Friday at 8 p.m. we shall have Solemn Evensong of S. Clement, and Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Our preacher that evening will be a very loyal and good friend of S. Clement's,—the Reverend Father Paul C. Kintzing, Jr., Rector of S. John's Church, Bala-Cynwyd. Following the service will be an informal social gathering in the Parish Hall with light refreshments.

S. Clement's Day, Saturday the 23rd, provides three Low Masses, at 7, 8 and 9:30. It is hoped that as many as possibly can do so, will assist at Mass on this great and holy day.

SUNDAY the 24th! At 8 and 9:15 will be the Mass of the Sunday next before Advent. At 11:00 will be the principle liturgical function of the festival. Solemn Votive Mass of S. Clement will be celebrated in the presence of the Right Reverend Dr. Corrigan. He will be formally received in the narthex and from there proceed with his attendants up the center alley, and visit the Blessed Sacrament in the Lady Chapel and then go to the throne which he will occupy during most of the Mass. Bishop Corrigan will preach at the Solemn Mass. The Bishop probably will be present at Evensong, and attend the social hour where our people will have ample opportunity to visit with him.

MUSIC,—during this festive week-end. The choir of boys and men will sing on Friday evening and at the Solemn Votive Mass. At Evensong the choir will sing a Magnificat not previously sung by this choir, and very beautiful it is, too. On Sunday the choir will do the Ralph Vaughan Williams Mass in d,—a stunning composition, much liked here in this Parish.

ALL IN ALL, Clementines and their invited friends will have wonderfully inspiring hours this week-end. Come, one and all,—and ask friends to attend with you.

S. CLEMENT'S DAY OFFERING. This annual special offering may properly be thought of as an outward sign of your gratitude for your Parish Church, and for the spiritual strength bestowed upon you through the intercession of our primary Patron, S. Clement. We hope very much to end this calendar year with a good balance in the bank to help us make the right kind of beginning of our Centennial Year. Let the outward sign of your gratitude be a healthy, big sign.

LADIES, HERE IS A REMINDER. The U.T.O. service for this area will be at S. Mark's Church at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. If any of our ladies have forgotten to send their Thank Offering to Miss Williams they have until Tuesday evening to do so.

VOTIVE OFFERINGS. The large candles that burn before the Blessed Sacrament and at the Lady Shrine this week are given in thanksgiving for the second anniversary of the ordination to the priesthood of the Reverend Father Edward C. Loeffler on November 18th. The Votive Offering is made by Miss Jean Purdy.

THE CATHOLIC CLERICAL Union will meet on Tuesday at S. Augustine's Church of the Covenant. The speaker will be the Reverend Father William H. C. Congdon, Jr., curate at S. Mark's Church. His subject will be "Books for Busy Priests".

Parish Notes

We are indeed thankful to have as our guest at this, our Parish-family party, THE RIGHT REVEREND DANIEL CORRIGAN, D.D. Formerly the Bishop Suffragan of Colorado, he now is the Director of the Home Division of the National Council. We are honored to have him at S. Clement's and hope that this is but the first of many visits. On the bulletin board are a couple of snap shots taken at Nashotah House during the winter of 1922-23, when the Bishop, your Father Rector and Father Davis all were students. In the picture with two other students, the Bishop is the one seated and holding up the skis.

THE REVEREND FATHER KINTZING is no stranger to Clementines; his voice has been heard here on other occasions. But we extend to him a most hearty welcome and we are confident he will be here many more times. Bala is almost within hailing distance of Center-City and every so often we extend a call,—a hail—, and he always makes a quick response. Father Kintzing will preach at Evensong on Friday, and the Bishop will preach at Solemn Mass on Sunday.

THURSDAY is Thanksgiving Day. We shall have Low Mass at 7, and at 10 o'clock Solemn Morning Prayer and Solemn Mass. Note that on this day the Venite is not sung at Morning Prayer; in its place is a special canticle on page 264 in the Prayer Book.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet Tuesday evening at S. Thomas' Church, 52nd Street. The speaker will be the Reverend Father Alberts.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH are asked to bring their gifts for the Seamen's Church Institute next Sunday.

Parish Notes

THE ENTIRE WORLD has been shocked and saddened by the villainous murder of President Kennedy. There is little to add to what already has been written or spoken regarding this violent presumption of the right to kill. Our hearts go out to the little family in the White House. The contrast between the happy, festive, youthful and cultural atmosphere of the Executive Mansion during the past few years,—and the sombre emptiness that now pervades its rooms, must indeed be very sharp. America is embarrassed before the peoples of this earth,—embarrassed that in this land of freedom of the citizens, freedom should be so abused as to deny the pursuit of happiness to the head of our nation. We grieve over the death of President Kennedy but we grieve even more deeply over the fact that individual villains within our homeland can and do abuse their civil rights to the point of murder. The victim may be the President, he may be a policeman, he may be almost unknown by his fellows. But lives are taken in this fashion of surprise attack. No sort of discipline of the guilty person can restore the victim to life. Human life is beyond valuation; no proper price can be placed on life. This is true because life is a gift of God; and human beings cannot do God's work for Him. Yes, we are keenly saddened by the death of Mr. Kennedy. Fortified with sacramental grace, he has gone onward on his journey toward heaven. May he rest in peace. May his family be strong in the Faith and find consolation in the refreshment of God's grace in the sacraments.

THE ALL SOULS-ALL SAINTS DAYS offering this year amounts to $346.75. It has been divided thus:—

The Guild of All Souls	$ 25.00
All Saints Sisters of the Poor	300.00
S. Clement's for requiem candles	21.75
	$346.75

Your Rector wishes to express deep gratitude to the people of this parish who have so kindly given support to this annual appeal.

THE ADVENT RETREAT will be held on Saturday, December 14th. It will open with an address at 5:00 p.m. in S. John's Chapel. After dinner there will be two more addresses, and dismissal will be 9 o'clock. This Quiet Evening is intended for the men, the women and the older boys and girls of the Parish. Reservations for the dinner must be made by Wednesday the 13th. If you wish to attend, tell one of the Priests or telephone the Clergy House, LO 3-1876.

TOMORROW at 7:00 a.m. will be a Requiem Mass for the happy repose of the soul of Carolyn (Mrs. John) Whiteley. A Mass with the same intention was offered on November 26th; both Masses are provided by Charles R. Randall.

CONTRIBUTIONS for Christmas greens and for Christmas charities may be made at any time. The sooner the easier will be the task of planning and assembling. You may place your gifts toward this fund, plainly marked "Christmas Fund", on the alms basin, or you may give your contribution to one of the priests or to Miss Elsie Williams.

Parish Notes

THE VESTRY will meet at the Clergy House at 4:30 on Tuesday afternoon.

THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION will meet for the third time this year on Thursday at 9:00 o'clock at Holy Trinity Church. This meeting of the Convention is specifically for the purpose of electing a Bishop Coadjutor for our Diocese. It will open with a celebration of the Blessed Eucharist with special intention of pleading for God's guidance of the Convention. Visitors may witness the nominating of candidates and the voting, but must occupy balcony seats. This is an extremely important action on the part of our Convention. The election is not only of a Bishop to assist Bishop Armstrong, but also to succeed him. What will be done on Thursday will be the electing of the next Bishop of Pennsylvania. For many weeks, at every Mass, except requiems, S. Clement's congregation has heard the prayer for Divine guidance authorized by the Diocesan. Masses have been offered with special intention that the Diocese will fulfill God's will. Your prayers are asked that on Thursday the members of Convention will be directed to do what Our Blessed Lord would have them do.

THE ADVENT QUIET EVENING for members of this parish and any others who wish to be with us will be on Saturday of this week, December 14th. The Reverend Father Robert L. Ducker, a former curate at S. Clement's, will be the Conductor. This retreat is intended to be for men and women and matured young people. Please make reservations for dinner by Friday night with the priests. The Clergy House telephone is LO 3-1876.

THE SISTERS OF S. MARGARET in Germantown have announced two Advent retreats for women. The first of these will be Saturday, December 14th from 4:30 to 9, conducted by the Reverend Father E. Paul Jowett. The second retreat will be on Tuesday, December 17th, starting with Mass at 8:30. First address at 10:15; the day closes at 3:15. The Conductor will be the Reverend Father C. Edward Hopkin. Please register now. The number is VI 4-4612.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S have been asked to bring with them to-day the finished ditty bags for the Seamen's Church Institute, and next Sunday to bring Christmas gift packages for ward patients at Philadelphia General Hospital, but please mark the packages for boy, man, girl or woman and what the gift is.

THIS LEAFLET is the last that will be mailed to all on the list of last year's subscribers. Subscriptions are: $2.50 a year for second class mailing; $3.00 for first class mailing. Please make checks payable to S. Clement's Rector's Fund.

IT IS HOPED that in next Sunday's leaflet announcement can be made of the profits realized on the Christmas Bazaar. It is a perplexing example of complicated bookkeeping in order to come to a reasonably accurate conclusion as to the gross income, expenses and profits in each of 13 departments. It looks, however, as though we will have realized at least as much as we did in 1962.

BEING THE 8th OF DECEMBER this normally would be kept as the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. It is so kept on the Roman calendar. However, for generations, perhaps even centuries, the Sundays in Advent and Lent have not bowed down before a Feast Day. An old saying among Catholics is "The violet of the Sundays of Advent and Lent is inviolate." Thus when the Annunciation of Our Lady falls on a Lenten Sunday, it is transferred to Monday. Lady day never, never is celebrated on a Sunday. This feast, which actually is the festival of Our Lord's Incarnation, and therefore is of unique and solemn significance in the calendar of any Christian, does not take precedence over a Lenten Sunday rite. This seems to set example for other feasts which fall in the penitential seasons. We shall observe the Feast of the Immaculate Conception on Monday, December 9th.

DO YOU HAVE IN MIND a contribution to the Christmas Fund which provides flowers for the altars and shrines for Christmas,—gifts for people who are kept in their homes because of ill health,—and Christmas parties for children and adults? If not, won't you give the matter consideration? The committee in charge would like to receive the funds as soon as possible.

Parish Notes

REJOICE YE IN THE LORD, and again I say, rejoice ye. These words which S. Paul used in his letter to the people of Philippi, are the very first words that we hear at Mass today. And how wonderfully appropriate they are. Advent is no penitential season that demands long faces and gloomy salutations. Advent is a season of penitential happiness. We very easily see through the four weeks of watching and we know what awaits us. All of Advent is a time of almost impatient anticipation. Holy Church, in her wisdom provides little samples of what is to be our joy later on. Today the Church offers a pre-view, or a slight indication, of the beauty of Christmas. The organ is played at Mass, flowers may be placed on the altars, and the lovely rose vestments are worn in place of the more sombre violet. There is a sharpness to the atmosphere that indicates excitement,—whispered plans for the celebration in the home,—and the fun that will dominate the scene when the family gathers about the tree to open the packages that look much too handsome to be ripped open. This domestic scene is all part and parcel of the message and significance of the great festival of Our Lord's birth. Of course, if family plans do not include adequate time for going to the Parish Church, and joining friends in offering the Mass of Christ,—making confession and receiving the Blessed Sacrament,—if these ways of keeping Christmas are neglected, the social affairs are with no point except that of selfishness, and a rather mean type of self-indulgence at that. Families can be and will be so very happy in their holiday observance if they maintain a fair balance between the two settings,—the Church and the Home. In the well co-ordinated Christian family there will be practically no separation between the domestic observance and the sacred one. There will be two banquets,—related to each other, and supporting each other. The one at Home with table decorated with candles, flowers and greens and laid with seasonal delectables; the other at Church where the table of the altar will be festive with candles, flowers and greens, and the Food will be the Bread of Heaven,—the Wine of God. At Home there will be exchanging of gifts; at Church the faithful give themselves to Our Lord, and He, in turn, gives Himself to each communicant, and this is the most welcome, most precious Gift that any human being can receive. Ten days from today is Christmas Day,—not very far away, is it? At Solemn Mass today drink in the beauty of the Oldroyd Mass; feast your eyes on the handsome rose color that dominates the sanctuary. And then recall that these exceptional features of this Advent Sunday are only fractional in comparison with the celestial beauty they foretell. Rejoice ye in the Lord, and again I say, on this 1963 Sunday, and on Christmas itself, rejoice ye.

A WEEK FROM TODAY, the 22nd, will be the first anniversary of Father Weise's ordination to the priesthood. The best present anyone can give him on his anniversary is the special intention at Mass for the benefit of his spiritual nourishment. Good wishes, Father Weise, congratulations and gratitude from your Father Rector, & ad multos annos!

ON THE NIGHT OF EPIPHANY, Monday, January 6th, we shall have Solemn Mass at 6:15 p.m. After the Mass we shall have our Christmas-Tide Party for all of our people, young and old. It probably will be a potluck supper, but there will be more on this subject another time.

ARE YOU UP TO DATE in making payments in your pledge envelopes? There are only two Sundays left in this calendar year. The Parish depends upon the pledged income to pay its obligations.

HERE IS GOOD NEWS OF THE BAZAAR! As of this moment, 5 p.m., December 5th, we have EXCEEDED the 1962 profits by about $42.00. We have paid S. Clement's Church our pledge to the Missions Fund,—$1200.00, and we have a balance of $98.28. We started work on the Bazaar with a balance from '62 of $56.73. Thus, we are about $42 better off than we were a year ago. As more calendars are sold, the profit item will rise. Congratulations, you good Bazaar workers, and especially to Miss Lilly, who with a thousand (more or less) things to do, took time to be Chairman of the event.

A NOTE TO THE PARISH FROM THE VESTRY

To our Fellow-Clementines:—

A week from today, December 27th, the first Sunday after Christmas, there will be Solemn Evensong and Benediction at 4 in the afternoon. Following the service we shall have a party, a Christmas Party, in the parish hall. On January 1st, only a few days after that party, our beloved Rector officially goes into retirement from the rectorship of this Parish. We therefore are moved to make our annual Christmas Party into an extraordinary event. The Wardens and Vestry hereby ask every member of the Parish,—the men, the women, the boys and the girls to be present here next Sunday afternoon. We realize that Father Elwell is not moving far away; he will be in nearby Chestnut Hill. But he no longer will be our Rector,—our Pastor. For nine years he has filled this post, and this has been sufficient time for threads of affection to grow into heavy rope. It is not easy, then, to give up a Shepherd, but give him up we must.

Come to the Parish Hall next Sunday. This is not to be a party for shedding of tears. It is to be a party of thanksgiving for the nine years of the Father Rector's shepherding us, and of our being close to him. It will be a happy occasion. Let us see you there.

Faithfully your Vestrymen,

J. H. Clark

Clerk of the Vestry

Parish Notes

NEW YEAR'S DAY OF 1965 will have a very special significance to us of S. Clement's this year. It marks the conclusion of our Centennial Year and that means a great deal to us. Looking back to the events in the early weeks of the year we have had many fine and unusual visiting speakers; we have had many observances for which we offer thanks to Almighty God the rest of our days. Now it comes to a close,—that is, the calendar says that 1964 is over; and it is. But, it is to be hoped that the good effects of the 100th anniversary will stay with us longer than this year. Surely, Father Stephenson's Mission will long be not only in our memory but will continue to stir us to greater loyalty and devotion. Now, on the closing day we are to have one of our truly valued treats.

CANON DUBOIS HAS SPOKEN FROM OUR PULPIT on many occasions and always he is popular; he talks sense, and our people are disposed to like what he says. He will preach for us on the Feast of the Circumcision of Our Lord. At Solemn Mass we shall have a repetition of the music of one year ago that day. The Mass is a new one from Holland. It is MISSA FESTIVA by Marius Monnikendam, and the accompaniment calls for organ, trumpets and trombones!
